2021 Community Conference Address: State of the Church Community

The 2021 Community Conference opened on Second Advent Pentecost, Sunday, June 6, 2021 with Sunrise Divine Service, a breakfast buffet, and an address by The Right Reverend Gene Savoy, Jr. delivered at the Monastery Gardens, Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary.

All these events, including the delivery of the “State of The Church Community” address are available to Consociates at the Cosolargy Forum page on Facebook, shared through Dropbox.

address. (34:48)

Click here to link to a video of part two Bishop Savoy's address. (36:29)

Bishop Savoy's talk covers a wide scope of topics related to the Church Community's history of projections and accomplishments over the past five years. The details are important enough and comprehensive enough that the Communique editors thought it worthwhile to present the entire address in writing for Consociates.

A full transcript of the address has been made by The Reverend Barbara Whitney for the Community Communique.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: June 16, 2021

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

June 16, 2021

I want to personally thank all of you who took the time to attend The Community's first-ever virtual conference via Zoom. It was a great pleasure to see all of you, and for some of you to put a face with a name. The meeting was a great success! I also thank everyone who was involved in putting the meeting and presentations together.

We will be sending information to you soon regarding next year's in-person Convocation here at the Community Center in Reno so you can start making adequate plans. 2022 marks the 60th anniversary of the birth of the Sun of Righteousness in 1962. It also coincides with an auspicious 20-year cycle, so it's important that you make every effort to attend this time of special blessings. Next year's gathering will be our first in-person Convocation since 2019, and we will be presenting an exciting program which you will not want to miss.

If you haven't had a chance to look at the Cosolargy Members Forum on Facebook lately, two videos which we didn't have the time to show last Saturday have been posted. The first is on the impressive restoration work that has been completed at the Cathedral Church of the Americas at the Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary. The second is a video that shows a little more of the activities at the Cosolargy Institute of Japan, including a short message from Bishop Yuki and scenes of their sunrise service. You can also expect to receive soon the presentation we were going to show you on our property in Baja California Sur, Mexico on the Gulf of California.

My regular weekly messages will resume next week. In the meantime, I thank you again, and send you my blessings.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene

P.S. Here are links to the videos which we did not get to play during the June 12th conference:

Steamboat Hot Springs Attends Annual Conference

The Healing Center & Spa at Steamboat Hot Springs attended this year's annual Hot Springs Connection Conference at Quinn's Hot Springs Resort in Paradise, Montana from May 17 to May 20, 2021. Representing Steamboat were Sonya Savoy, Manager, and Susan Schafer, Lead Therapist.

More than 130 industry professionals, including 40 hot springs owners and operators, and 20 suppliers and affiliates attended from 22 states. The Hot Springs Connection is the only conference in the United States designed specifically for hot springs owners, operators, general managers, facilities directors, and industry professionals. The purpose of the event is to provide networking opportunities, seminars and workshops for commercial geothermal pools, spas and resorts.

The conference seminar topics included redevelopment, restoration and reconstruction of historic properties (which Steamboat is); industry trends; new technologies; balneology methodology and culture; water stewardship, sustainability & preservation; health, healing & wellness practices; hydrotherapy treatments; mineral water product development; leadership skills; customer service training; resort and spa management; best practices; and tourism marketing, website design, social media management.

Steamboat is also very fortunate to have a wonderful working relationship with the owners and managers of our neighboring Nevada hot springs in Carson City, Carson Hot Springs. We thank the owner, Mark Begich, and General Manager Keith Shellhamer of Carson Hot Springs for helping Steamboat Hot Springs reach its full potential!

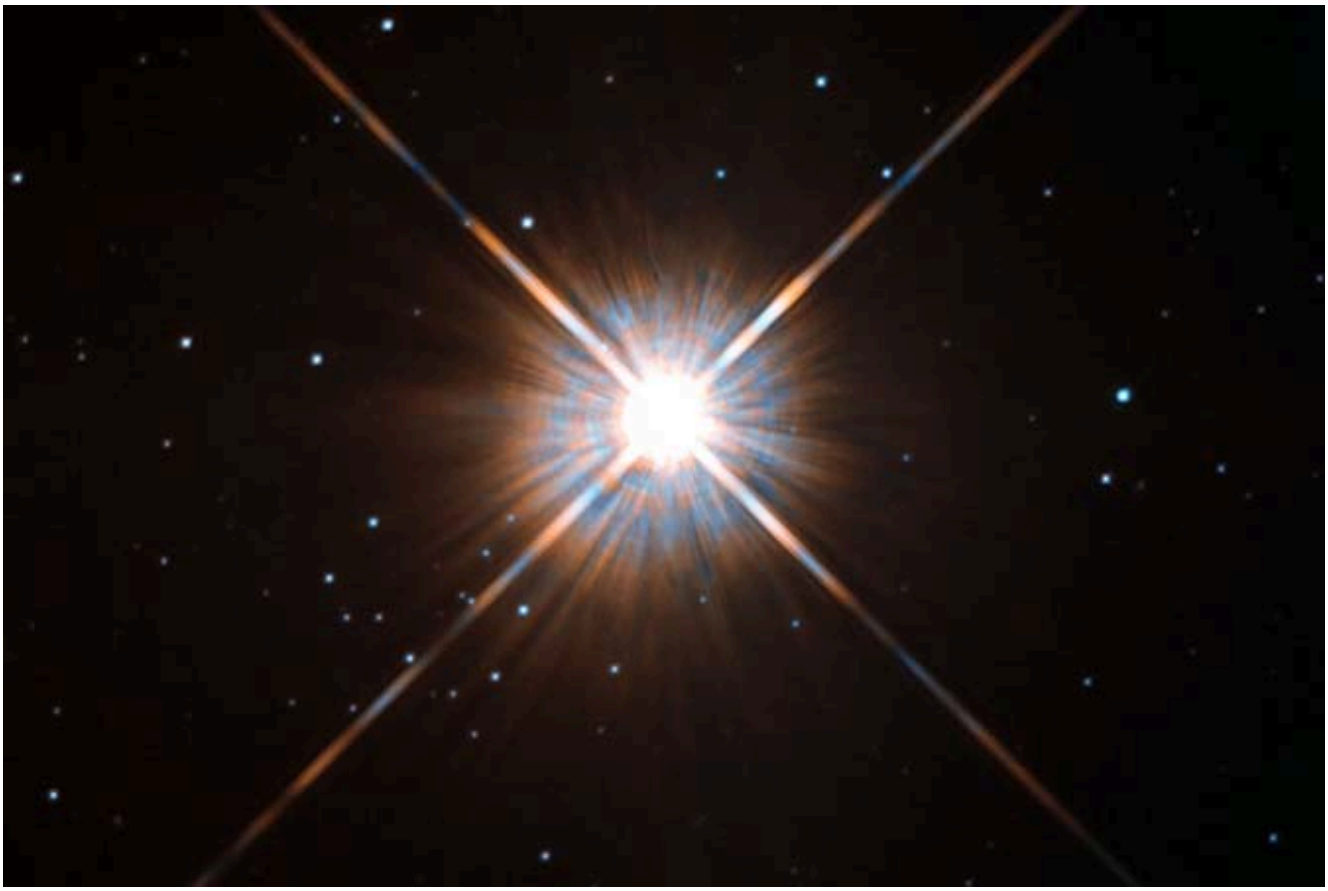
“Will the Next Space-Weather Season Be Stormy or Fair?”



Proxima Centauri, captured by the Hubble Space Telescope in 2013.Credit…ESA/Hubble & NASA

As another 11-year cycle of solar activity begins, scientists debate how violent our stellar friend is likely to be.

The big news about the sun is that there is no big news. We are blessed, astronomers like to say, to be living next to a “boring star.”

But the inhabitants (if there are any) of the planets orbiting the neighboring star Proxima Centauri, only 4.2 light-years away, are less fortunate. In April astronomers announced that a massive flare had erupted from its surface in 2019. For seven seconds, as a battery of telescopes on Earth and in space watched, the little star had increased its output of ultraviolet radiation 14,000-fold, in one of the most violent such flares ever seen in our galaxy.

This was more than serious sunburn territory. “A human being on this planet would have a bad time,” said Meredith MacGregor, an astronomy professor at the University of Colorado who led the worldwide observing effort.

Space weather on this scale could sterilize potentially habitable planets, and could augur bad news for the search for life beyond this solar system. Even mild space weather can be disruptive to creatures already evolved and settled; sunspots and solar storms, which wax and wane in an 11-year cycle, spray energy that can endanger spacecraft, astronauts and communication systems.

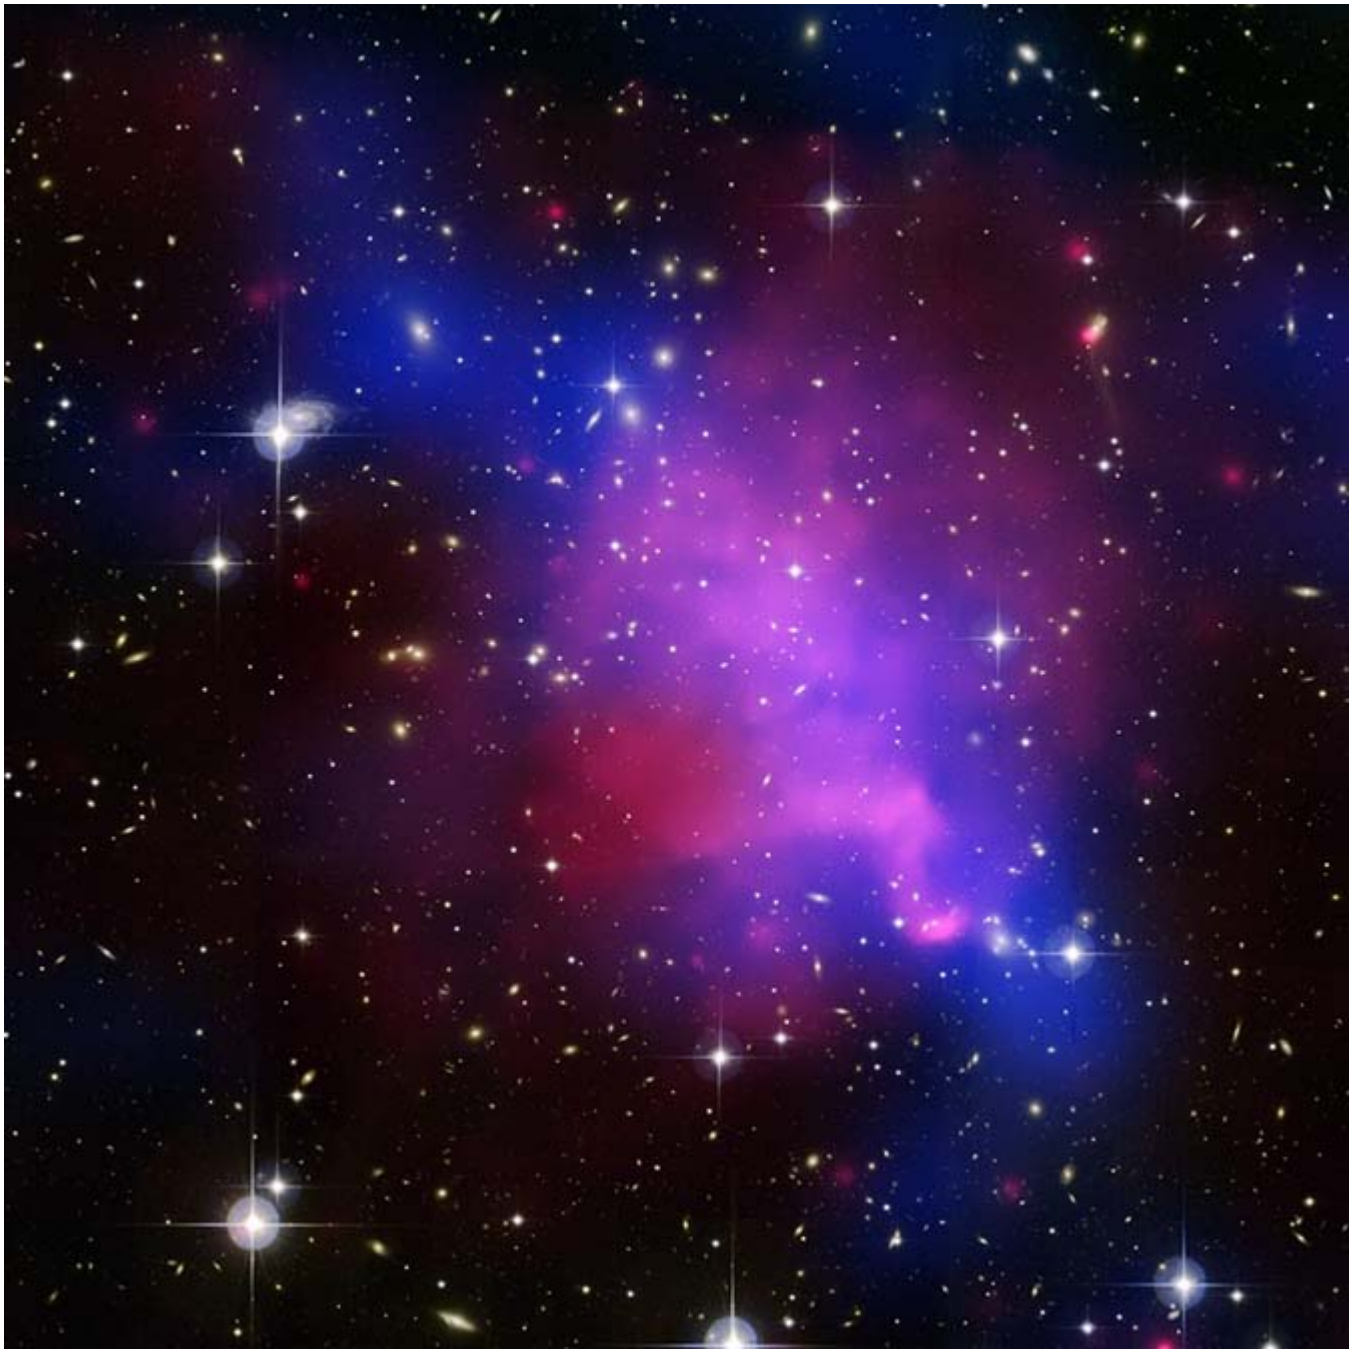
“Only Matter Exists – a False Theory”



What If Only Matter Exists?

> "If Matter is taken to be the only existent, and all other things as modifications of Matter, it is not legitimate to set up a single genus to embrace both the existent and the other things; consistency requires that Being (Substance) be distinguished from its modifications an that these modifications be duly classified. …
> "The error in this theory is fundamental. To set Matter the potential above everything, instead of recognizing the primacy of actuality, is in the highest degree perverse. If the potential holds the primacy among the Existents, its actualization becomes impossible; it certainly cannot bring itself into actuality; either the actual exists previously, and so the potential is not the first principle, or, if the two are to be regarded as existing simultaneously, the first-principle must be attributed to hazard. Besides, if they are simultaneous, why is not actuality given the primacy? Why is the potential more truly real than the actual?
> "Supposing then that the actual does come later than the potential, how must the theory proceed? Obviously, Matter does not produce form: the unqualified does not produce quality, nor does actuality take its origin in the potential; for that would mean that the actual was inherent in the potential, which at once becomes a dual thing.
> "Furthermore, God becomes a secondary to Matter, inasmuch as even He is regarded as a body composed of Matter and Form." ~Plotinus

If Only Matter Exists

It is hard to follow the archaic and convoluted style of Plotinus, but what he is saying quite simply is that it is not possible that Matter is the only thing that exists, and everything else (spirit, consciousness) is derived from

Matter. While he may put it oddly, what he says is true.

We can add to this falsehood of the theory that only matter exists, a second one which says that matter existed before spirit or consciousness.

Actuality and Potential

What Plotinus is saying about actuality and potential means that matter, as he sees it as a potential. By itself, it has no form, no being. Being and form must be added to matter to create an actuality, such as an apple. So what Plotinus is saying is that something had to be added to matter to give it being and form, and that something cannot be simply more matter, but something that is not matter. But, he argues, if the actuality of the thing, with being and form, is no longer pure matter, it cannot be derived from matter, or at least not solely from matter.

Matter and Spirit

It is generally believed in science today that matter did come first, and the spirit and soul, if they actually exist, are offshoots of matter. This idea denies the whole concept of spirit.

Spirit is immortal. All spirits are immortal, all souls are immortal. They exist entirely without the limitations of time and space, so they have no beginning and no end. Matter, on the other hand, does have a beginning and an end. Everything in the material universe is born, or comes into existence, and is later destroyed or dies on its own. So matter could not have existed before the spirit or the soul.

Then we have to return to the previously mentioned form and being. If form and being did not come from matter, then where did it come from? The logical answer is that spirit added to matter brings about being and form. So this tells us again that spirit came before matter, it is not an offshoot of matter, it is not a form of matter. This is something that the great spiritual masters have taught for centuries, but few seem to grasp it. So not only is it false that only matter exists, but it is also false that matter generated spirit. And if being and form come from spirit, not matter, then all forms and all beings must be made up of a spirit as well as matter.

June 6, 2021: Second Advent Pentecost Observed

Pannuches Meal Rite

The 138th Pannuches Meal Rite was held Saturday, May 1, 2021 at 6:00 p.m. in the Chapel of the Holy Child. Jubilee Sunrise Divine Service was held in Sanctuary the following morning.

Second Advent Pentecost (June 6, 2021)
On Sunday, June 6, 2021 Second Advent Pentecost was observed with a celebration of Communion and Sunrise Divine Service at the Cathedral Church of the Americas at Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary. A buffet breakfast was served at the Church of the End Times parsonage. Following breakfast, the congregation assembled at the Monastery Gardens to attend the annual “State of The Church” address delivered by Bishop Gene Savoy Jr.

Pentecost in the Second Advent Church means that God has bestowed the Divine Presence upon the Community in Sanctuary, the Image and the Word that nurture the spirit and soul with Life and Wisdom. The old First Dispensation Christian celebration commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Disciples seven weeks after Easter. In the old Hebrew calendar, Pentecost – Shavout or the Festival of Weeks – commemorated the giving of the Law on Mount Sinai. In the Second Advent, New Laws have been revealed at the Temple Mount for a new age under God at the Second Coming.

* * *

June 6—forty-nine days after April 18, Second Advent Easter—is a fixed date in the Sacred Calendar of The Church for the observance of Second Advent Pentecost. The sacred date of April 18 and the pentecontad cycle leading to June 6 are discussed in The Book of God’s Revelation. Book II of God’s Revelation, titled “The Seal of God’s New Law,” records the events, meditations, and visions experienced by The Man and The Companions of The Way on the day of Second Advent Pentecost, June 6, 1982.

The following excerpt from The Book of God’s Revelation describes the vision experienced by The Man atop the Temple Mount of the Sanctuary of Prophecy on the day of Pentecost 1982, and suggests the nature of the Revelations received that day:

> And The Word of God spoke to his Soul a second time, revealing unto him the Sanctuary was under the special Blessing of God, and that he was to mark those sites where he communed with The Image and The Word.
> And The Word of God proclaimed to The Man’s Soul that the Righteous Ministry was ordained to go forth to the whole world, proclaiming God's Advent and the freedom of the peoples from the tyranny of heretical governments.

And God did reveal to him a Proclamation of Human Spiritual Rights that all governments were to acknowledge and honor. The Righteous Ministers would be God's Envoys—as a nation in sanctuary—under the protection and sovereignty of God.

And The Word of God revealed that the Temple of uncut stones, made Righteous as was the sun of the earth, was blessed of God. And in the Temple, restored not by human hands but by the Hand of God, God would commune with the Righteous ordained to His Ministry.

And The Man saw a great cloud come over the Sanctuary and the face of the sun. And he felt God's Presence and Blessings over the Sanctuary. And he looked at the sun grown brilliant by the clouds, its rays burning as fire, and he heard the Word of God say, "Let none but the Righteous in The Way look upon The Image I have made for a blessing over the land.

This day a gift is bestowed upon the Church of My Second Advent. The Light of the Sun in the Eight Appearances shall make wise the Souls of the Righteous who will have understanding and knowledge of God. United they shall be by spirit, bonded together as One in God, and there shall be no diversity amongst them.

"The Spirit of God is poured down upon His People who hear God's Word. Let the Righteous seek out the Temple and be anointed by God for an earthly mission to make Righteous the people of the world."

And from out of the cloud the Man saw a Heavenly City formed by shafts of light descending from the sun. And he saw that City hovering over the Sanctuary and the Temple Mount. And the City of Heaven and the Temple of the Sanctuary, with its mounts, were united by those shafts of light. And the shafts of light shone like blue pillars of sapphire reaching upward into the sun.

After a time the invisible City that had appeared returned to Heaven, but the light remained on the seven mounts in the likeness of thrones. And The Man heard The Word speaking to his Soul saying, "The Heavenly City of Light made visible by God shall be hidden to all but the Companions of The Way, anointed."

And after the City had risen, he felt the presence of The Light. And he saw the sun's response to the Divine Presence as great flares of light emitted from its surface.

And again The Word spoke saying, "As the Seven Mounts of the Temple have been sanctified by The Presence and bound to Heaven by cords of light beams, consecrate the Mounts of the Temple with holy oils for anointings of the Righteous. Let the faithful ordained to the Ministry of Righteousness be bound to these rocks and to the sun by the anointings, as the Soul and the Spirit are united with God by The Image and The Word in Light.

"God would that earthly Temples be such as this Temple—formed of stones uncut by human hands and joined with God by cords of Light—for the City of God's Presence will descend upon gathering places such as these here.

"The True Temple of God is the Light of His Image and Word, and the True Temple of man is the Soul wherein dwells The Image and The Word.

"In the final age of the earth, at the threshold of the consummation by Fire, man, as flesh not made in The Image of God, has need of gathering places where the Light is quickened for the good of the Soul. For The Word has revealed that God shall indeed send a Divine redeeming Fire to enlighten Souls and burn up that wickedness first loosed by Satan and the fallen Angels of Darkness, lest the heretical nations ruin the world and the races.

> “It is good that humankind restore order on earth in Justice, Love, Peace, Wisdom, and Understanding, thereby limiting the power of evil and of man. The Temple of uncut stones is given for a blessing and for the guidance of the nations and their peoples.”

On that same day, June 6, 1982, The Man marked the lesser mounts of the Temple Mount, the Garden of Oracles, as well as the site to be called God’s Waters.

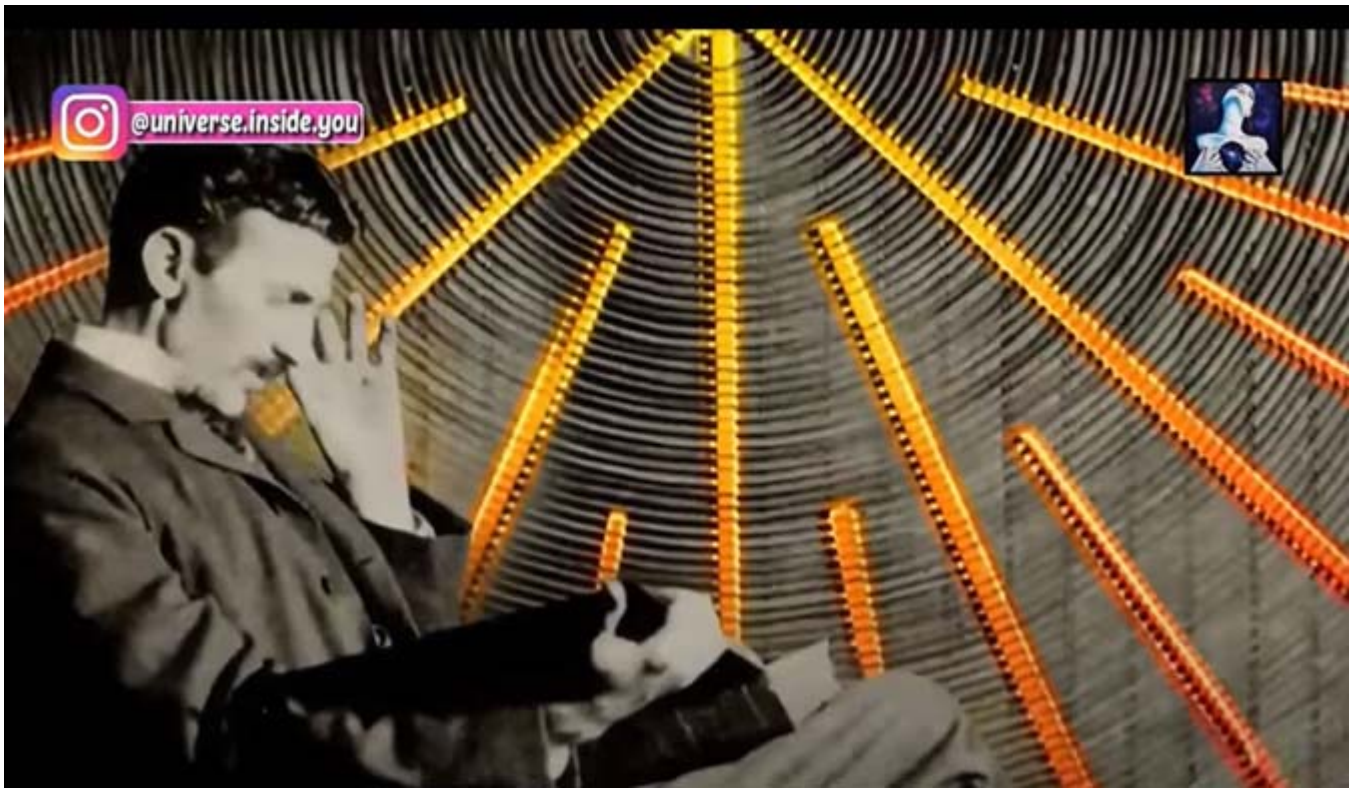
“Nikola Tesla’s Vibrational Healing Device: Sound & Vibrational Medicine”



One lazy afternoon in the 1890s, legendary inventor Nikola Tesla was lounging around his laboratory with his good friend Samuel Clemens, also known as the famed writer Mark Twain. The two had a longstanding relationship, and Twain, who was notoriously fascinated with science and technology, was a regular visitor at Tesla's laboratory.

By this point in his life, Twain was, as Tesla described, "…in the worst shape, suffering from a variety of distressing and dangerous ailments." Thus, on this particular afternoon, Tesla suggested that Twain try out a new invention he'd been working on, a mechanical oscillator that sent vibrations through the body at various frequencies. Twain agreed and stepped onto Tesla's machine. At the end of the process, Twain suddenly leaped up and rushed to the toilet with terrible diarrhea.

Despite this, Twain would continue to use the machine daily for almost two months, at the end of which he had, in the words of Tesla, "regained his old vigor and ability to enjoy life to the fullest extent." This was precisely what Tesla had expected, the same results Tesla and his assistants had achieved during their experimentation with the invention.

“Looking Into Nature Rather Than Spirit”

“If you suffer yourself to be always looking into Nature and the things of Time, and to be leading the will, and to be seeking somewhat for thyself in the desire, it will be impossible for thee ever to arrive at the Unity, that you wish for. Remember this and always be on your watch. Give not your mind leave to enter into, nor to fill itself with, that which without you; neither look backwards upon yourself; but quit yourself and look forward upon Christ. Let not your left eye deceive you, by making continually one representation after another, and stirring up thereby an earnest longing in your self-propriety; but let your right eye command back the left; and attract it to you, so that it may not gad abroad into the wonders and delights of Nature. Yea, it is better to > pluck it quite out, and to cast it from thee, then to suffer it to proceed forth without restraint into Nature, and to follow its own lusts. However, for this there is no necessity since both eyes may become very useful, if ordered aright; and both the divine and natural Light may in the Soul subsist together, and be of mutual service to each other." ~Jacob Boehme

Always Looking Into Nature

Let's get one thing straight right away. There is nothing wrong with Nature. Nor is there anything wrong with enjoying what nature has to offer. What Boehme is talking about, we would today call Materialism. He is warning us to not get caught up in the traps and endeavors of materialism. To use the more proper spiritual terminology in use today, he is telling us to not get attached to the material world and the things in it.

A Special Blessing for Madyson Nicole Kennedy

Madyson Kennedy with Bishop Gene Savoy Jr.

On Saturday, May 22, 2021, during the Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of The Holy Child, Madyson Nicole Kennedy was presented to the congregation and received a special blessing from both the Church congregation and Bishop Gene Savoy Jr.

Madyson, the niece of Community member Claudia Grady, received the rite of Baptism in the Chapel years before. The special blessing received by Madyson this year on the day of her fourth birthday commemorates a tradition long followed in Mexico.
