

“JWST found a ‘dead’ galaxy that quit making stars billions of years ago”

Three billion years after the Big Bang, a massive galaxy already looked like it had run out of time. It spun in a calm, orderly disc, yet it had largely stopped making new stars. With the help of the James Webb Space Telescope and the Atacama Large Millimeter Array, astronomers now say they have one of the clearest early-universe examples of a “dead” galaxy, and a new clue about how galaxies can fade without a violent crash.

“Einstein–Rosen bridges are not wormholes but quantum links between opposite directions of time”

In an effort to bring together the domains of gravity and quantum theory, Albert Einstein and Nathan Rosen proposed a striking concept in a 1935 paper. In that work, they described an abstract mathematical structure they referred to as a “bridge” between two perfectly symmetrical regions of spacetime. Their goal was not to create a mechanism for traveling long distances in space, but rather to analyze the coexistence of matter, gravitational forces, and the extreme gravitational environments associated with such conditions.

Writings from the Days of the Wise Ones

“Odidef of Onekhefu found many scrolls from the olden times. The Inspector of Temples discovered writings from the days of the Wise Ones, many things from the past and utterances by Lords of the Kohar. He caused them to be copied and placed in the houses of record. Some were guarded from the eyes of men. The writings dedicated to the name of The Great God were sought out. Nekat, a scribe at Yano, wrote them down; they are set forth by his hand. They are not lost and will live when he and his sons and his son’s sons rest in Morningland. He will abide in Amentuth in peace.”

“The physician must know the courses of the Watchers. He must know their times and their comings and goings. He must know the secret of the Lord of Forms and the way of the Guide of Souls. He must know who are the Owners of Forms and who are the Formless Ones.

He must know their abode. He must know the road and the four ways of entry. He must know the nature of the double power. He must be a master at drawing forth the spirit. He must know the outside of man, the things which flow over it. He must know the inside man, the substances which fill it. He must know the heart, the muscles that move out from it, controlling every action of the body."

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:32:1-3)

Scrolls from the Olden Times

What the author considers the olden times is not clear, but we know that the writers of this chapter of the Kolbrin Bible are priests who came from Egypt and moved to some are to the north, probably Greece.

Writings of the Wise Ones

We can assume that these Wise Ones were the highest-level priests or teachers in the ancient temples of spiritual knowledge. As has been the tradition for thousands of years, only limited Spiritual Knowledge was ever put to writing. The most important knowledge was passed along orally from generation to generation.

They are not lost

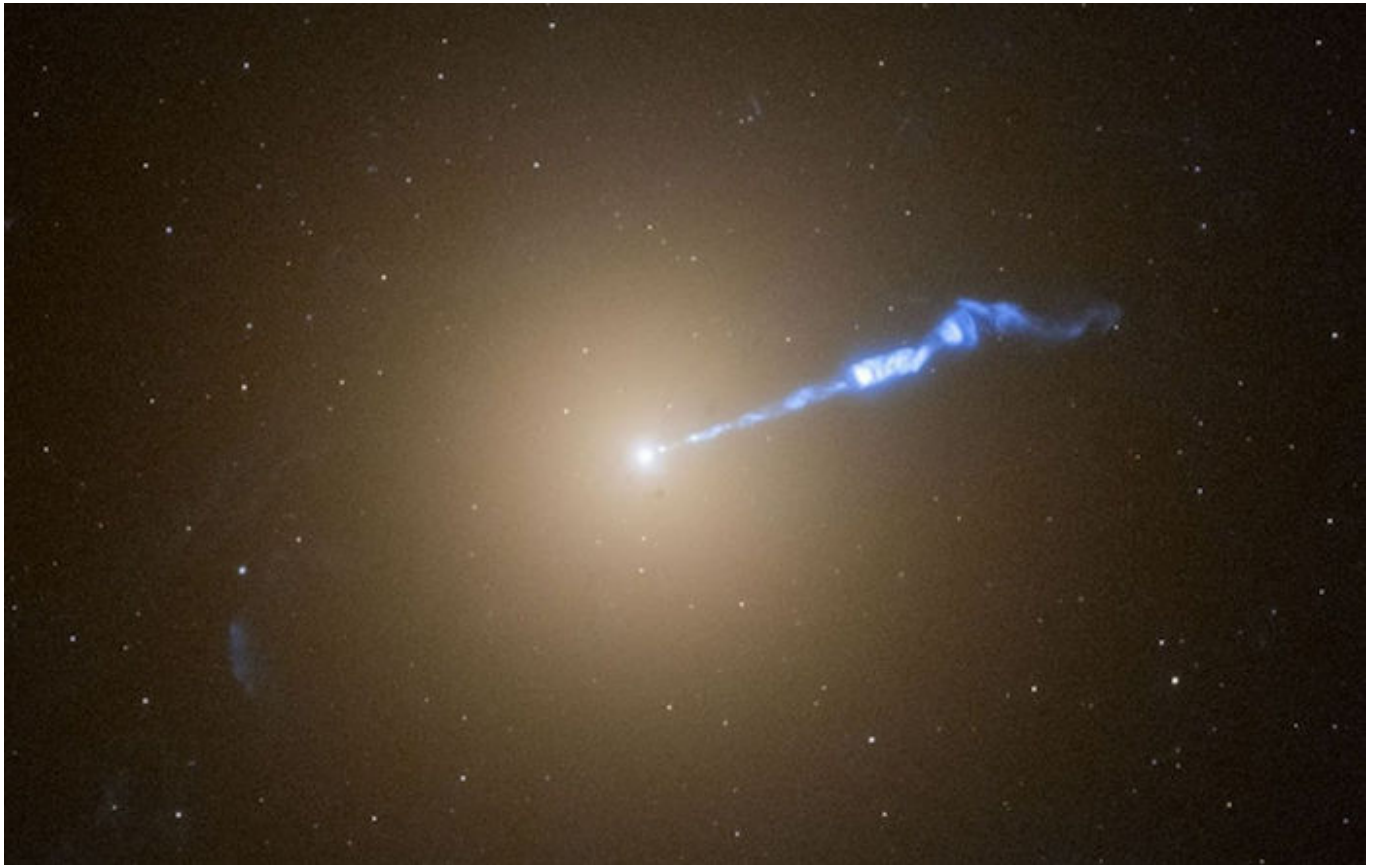

The great teachings are not lost. They were, according to the author of this chapter of the Kolbrin Bible, will be kept safe until a future time when they can be understood again. Gene Savoy, Sr., brought much of that teaching back to us after much research and revelations. Yet, we have been told that not everything has been revealed yet.

The Physician Must Know the Way of the Guide of Souls

While this may refer to one who heals physical ailments, I think it is primarily meant to mean one who cares for Spiritual illnesses, which is why the good physician must know the “way of the Guide of Souls”. He also must know who are the owners of forms and the formless ones. I think this line is considering forms to be physical in nature, although spiritual beings have forms also. So by that interpretation, God is the owner of the Formless ones, while the Demiurge is the owner of Forms. But even physical matter has some spirit in it, and now that we are in the End Times, it is gradually being changed back into its spiritual origin.

So study the writings of the Wise Ones, but also practice Spiritual Techniques. Studying alone isn't enough.

“Event Horizon Telescope probes source of 3,000-light-year-long black hole jet”

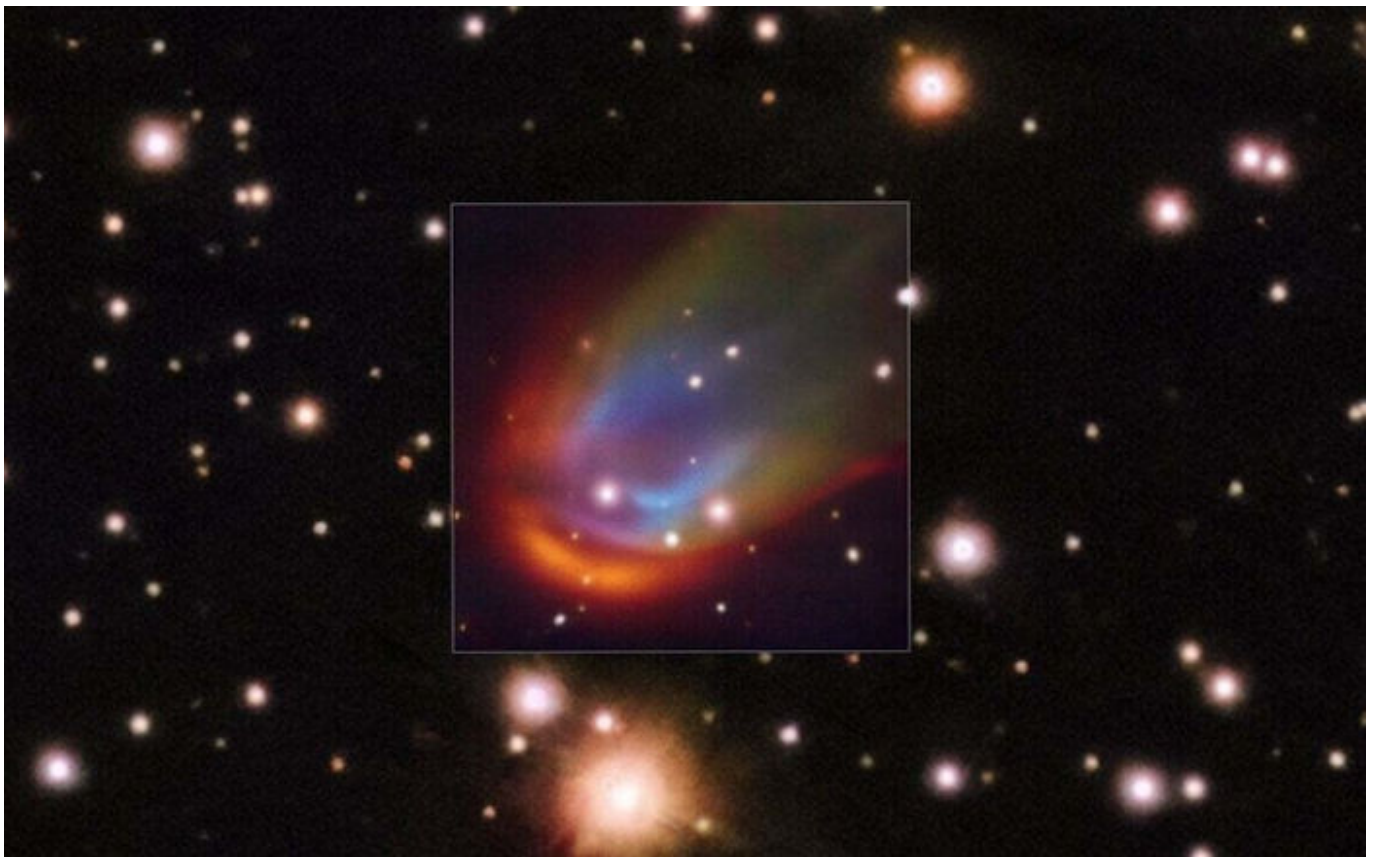

The Event Horizon Telescope (EHT) is a global collaboration of radio observatories famous for capturing the 1st direct visual evidence of a black hole. New EHT observations have now traced the origin of the powerful jet in the galaxy M87 to near the galaxy's central supermassive black hole.

The work links the famous bright ring seen by the Event Horizon Telescope with a compact region that likely marks the base of the jet.

Expanded telescope baselines – especially including the ALMA telescope in Chile – provided crucial detail.

“Astronomers spot an ‘impossible’ shock wave around a dead star system”

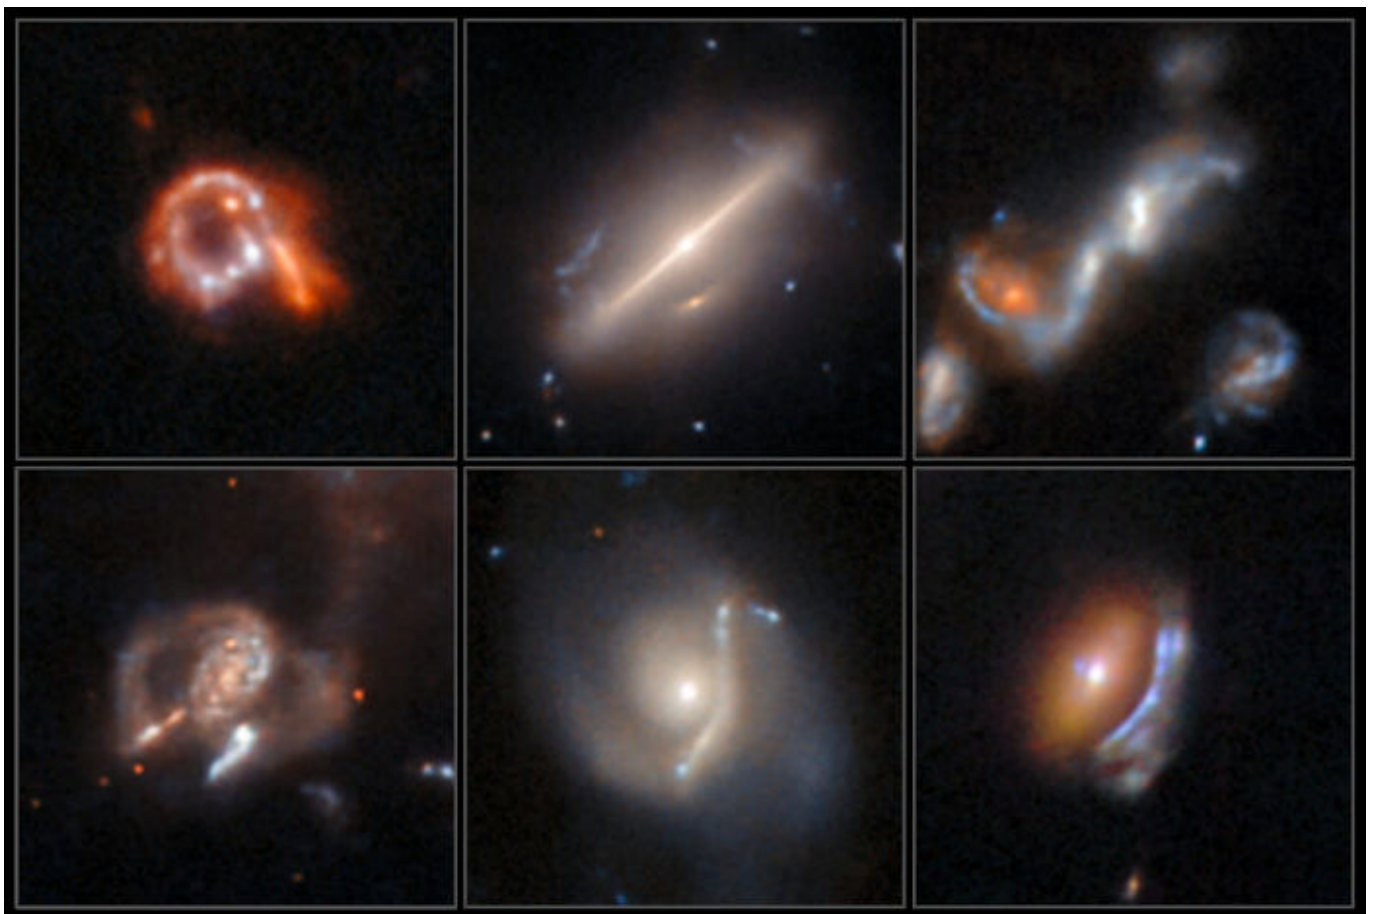

Astronomers at Durham University and collaborators at the University of Warwick used the European Southern Observatory’s Very Large Telescope to spot something that should not exist: a bright bow-shaped shock wave wrapped around a compact dead star system called RXJ0528+2838. The finding suggests this tiny stellar remnant is pushing material into space far more strongly than current models allow.

“AI reveals cosmic anomalies in Hubble’s archive”

A team of astronomers has used a new AI tool to comb through archived data from the Hubble Space Telescope, revealing hundreds of strange, previously undocumented objects.

The team analyzed nearly 100 million Hubble cutouts, or cropped Hubble views measuring just a few dozen pixels a side. And within 3 days they had identified some 1,300 unusual objects, over 800 of which had never been documented by scientists.
