The Twenty-fourth Saying (Part 11)

“The disciple then asked, ‘Is it possible that a person can be reborn in spirit, and live The Way, and not have any physical sensation of that spiritual rebirth? Are we to ignore the physical body, as an ascetic rejects care of the body?’

“And The Teacher said, ‘Each has bodily needs, such as nourishment, hygiene, rest, and exercise that need to be administered. Asceticism is not required, unless one requires such discipline. For the most part, one should lead a balanced life in which the bodily needs are provided for but not at the exclusion of the spiritual needs. Indeed, the spiritual should have preference.

“‘But, by living under God’s Image and Word, one becomes aware of a higher way of life. That higher way of life can only be expressed within the Church. It cannot be expressed outside of it because The Way of Light is a liturgical way. It is a way of ordered and structured life, just as the movement of the stars is ordered and structured. The spiritual life of this Church is liturgical – a living ceremony and rite as a pattern that moves in accordance with spiritual bodies and energies. God’s Plan for world redemption requires that all living things work in balance with, and in accordance to, Divine Order. Thus, ministers of the Church live an ordered, liturgical life designed to give meaningful existence while participating in God’s Divine Plan.

“‘As gnostic teachers would put it, we are trapped in this world. Being trapped, our one way out is to serve God. However, this must be done in accordance with His Divine Plan, not with any plan of our own making or design. The ancients instructed their students in the concept that the spiritual devotee is desirous of breaking the cycle of rebirths, as the Buddhists say. The spiritual person wants to break away from the onion skin layers and not be trapped therein for all time.

“‘It was always taught that every person who ever lived is caught in one of those layers or frequency levels. There is no escape, according to this concept. A person never leaves this world once one is in it until one frees oneself spiritually. This explains why a spiritual discipline is so important in order to free oneself from the grip of the world frequency. An abundance of energy is required to break the hold. And this also explains why people who lack discipline always fall prey to stronger minds or wills, trapped in the frequency layers that are able to incarnate within a person and energize that individual with pre-existent power and force.

“‘An enraged person will take on the criminal mind and be driven to acts not of his or her own person. Anger, violence, and hate have a tendency to break down a person’s own will and allow a stronger will to come in and take over. This explains why so many people become possessed when in fits of temper. The old, evil minds of crazed men still exist – the strongest one being Satan or the Devil – but the list could also include Attila, Napoleon, Hitler, Stalin, and others. To escape this world, one requires an outside energy and force: the incarnation of a superior Light Personage within one’s being. The Image and Word of God is that Power used by the spiritual devotee of the Church of the Second Advent.’”

THE GENE SAVOY ROUTE – PERU TO HOST FIRST CAVALCADE

The Tourism Association of Leymebamba, Amazonas, Peru is organizing a cavalcade (horse ride) from May 14 through May 20, 2023. They have asked to use some of the proposed Gene Savoy Route for their event. The route, proposed by Gene Savoy Xplorations (GSX), seeks to publicize the finds that the legendary American explorer Gene Savoy, Sr., discovered in the 1960s and later from the 1980s through the early 2000s. His great discoveries include the fabled last stronghold of the Incas, Vilcabamba, and the mighty citadels of the Chachapoya civilization in the northeastern part of Peru Gran Vilaya and Gran Saposoa.

Martin Chumbe, GSX's agent in Chachapoyas, Peru, has been asked to be part of the organizing committee. He said, "Because of the great contribution of Gene Savoy, the ancient Chachapya culture is known throughout the world." The cavalcade will begin in Leymebamba and then visit sites discovered by Savoy, including Gran Chivani, Vira Vira, and Atuen. Discovery of these sites is recorded in Savoy's acclaimed book, Antisuyo: The Search for the Lost Cities of the Amazon.

Gene Savoy Xplorations is a major sponsor of the event and has granted permission for the cavalcade to use the name of Gene Savoy. Gene Savoy Xplorations, through its representative in Lima, Ismael Seoane, is working with the Peruvian government to acknowledge the Gene Savoy Route in northeastern Peru just as it recognizes and promotes the Inca Trail, which has become famous for its connection to Machu Picchu.

Waking and Coming to Knowledge

“What, then, is that which he wants such a one to think? “I am like the shadows and phantoms of the night.” When morning comes, this one knows that the fear that had been experienced was nothing. Thus they were ignorant of the father; he is the one whom they did not see. Since there had been fear and confusion and a lack of confidence and double-mindedness and division, there were many illusions that were conceived by them, as well as empty ignorance—as if they were fast asleep and found themselves a prey to troubled dreams. Either they are fleeing somewhere, or they lack strength to escape when pursued. They are involved in inflicting blows, or they themselves receive bruises. They are falling from high places, or they fly through the air with no wings at all. Other times, it is as if certain people were trying to kill them, even though there is no one pursuing them; or they themselves are killing those beside them, and they are stained by their blood. Until the moment when they who are passing through all these things—I mean they who have experienced all these confusions—awaken, they see nothing because the dreams were nothing. It is thus that they who cast ignorance from them like sleep do not consider it to be anything, nor regard its properties to be something real, but they renounce them like a dream in the night and they consider the knowledge of the father to be the dawn. It is thus that each one has acted, as if asleep, during the time of ignorance, and thus a person comes to understand, as if awakening. And happy is the one who comes to himself and awakens. Indeed, blessings on one who has opened the eyes of the blind.” ~The Gospel of Peace

Shadows and Phantoms of the Night

The Gospel of Peace is not talking about actual shadows and phantoms here, but of those that visit us in dreams. Dreams may be warnings about things that may happen in the future or things that are happening at present without our conscious knowledge—for example, a dream meaning showing us an illness we have inside that we are unaware of. Yet we should not fear such dreams as they are only trying to help us, so the writer of the quote is correct in saying that the fear experiences in the dream, he knows was nothing when he is awake. Unfortunately, many are not so sure about dreams, or they may take the dream symbols too literally (a good dream dictionary could help with that). Some just ignore dreams entirely, and that too is foolish. Dreams are sent to help us, not frighten us.

Some shadows and phantoms may be things that are believed by those who have not become spiritually awakened, and are false beliefs. By acting on, and living in accordance with such beliefs, they live a false life and are easily manipulated by those who love to control people. They are as if they remained asleep and living in a dream world.

Dawn of the Father

Those who make the effort to awaken their spiritual faculties experience the Knowledge of the Father, which is Wisdom and Truth. Such people escape the illusions of false beliefs and teachings by false teachers and prophets. Such people are happy and blessed, just as the Gospel of Peace says. Sadly, there are many today who call themselves awake, and even believe it is true, but the majority of them have been fooled by false teachings just as much as those who believe in materialism and capitalism. The real mystery schools of the ancients spent years helping one to awaken. The real spiritual schools of today do likewise. Those who claim they can awaken you with a simple meditation technique taught in an hour are teaching falsehoods.

“168 New Geoglyphs Discovered, Adding to the Enigma of Peru’s Nazca Lines”

A fresh set of 168 geoglyphs have been discovered by researchers in Peru's intriguing Nazca Lines UNESCO World Heritage Site. The newly found drawings depict humans, camelids, birds, orcas, cats and snakes as well as simple lines and geometrical patterns.

Interestingly, one of the 50 or so human figures in the set is cartoon-like, with big rounded eyes and a stubble-like patch around the mouth, and bears a resemblance to Homer Simpson, the popular American animated sitcom character, reports the Daily Mail !

According to Science Alert , when the Nazca Lines , located in the Nazca Desert some 400 kilometers (249 miles) south of Lima, was designated a World Heritage Site in 1994, only around 30 geoglyphs had been identified and they mostly depicted plants and animals. By 2019 the number had risen to around 200 geoglyphs, several of which were human-like figures. However, Peruvian archaeologist Luis Jaime Castillo told The Guardian in 2020, he believed this to be only 5 percent of the total number out there.

“A Physicist Has Worked Out The Math That Makes ‘Paradox-Free’ Time Travel Plausible”

No one has yet managed to travel through time – at least to our knowledge – but the question of whether or not such a feat would be theoretically possible continues to fascinate scientists.

As movies such as The Terminator, Donnie Darko, Back to the Future and many others show, moving around in time creates a lot of problems for the fundamental rules of the Universe: if you go back in time and stop your parents from meeting, for instance, how can you possibly exist in order to go back in time in the first place?

It's a monumental head-scratcher known as the 'grandfather paradox', but in September last year a physics student Germain Tobar, from the University of Queensland in Australia, said he has worked out how to "square the numbers" to make time travel viable without the paradoxes.

“Rare Cosmic Event Beamed
Light at Earth from 8.5
Billion Light-years Away”

An incredibly bright flash that appeared in the night sky in February was the result of a star straying too close to a supermassive black hole, meeting its untimely end there as it was ripped to shreds.

But the rare cosmic event actually occurred 8.5 billion light years away from Earth, when the universe was just a third of its current age – and it has created more questions than answers.

The signal from the luminous explosion, known as AT 2022cmc, was first picked up by the Zwicky Transient Facility at the California Institute of Technology's Palomar Observatory on February 11.

The Twenty-fourth Saying (Part 10)

And The Man continued to address his disciples on the righteous Way of Life.

“‘Living The Way is a lifetime of evolution as a spiritual being while on earth. One is introduced and brought into the Church, as has been done for centuries, in proper manner. One is shielded against the harmful effects of the sun by anointing – by the act of Chrismation. Not only is the individual able to look upon the sun without harm, but one is able to receive the Light from the Sun of Righteousness, and not the sun of Death or the sun of Darkness. It is something that revolves around trust.

“‘I think each person in this room knows that there is an inner ability of the faithful to place trust in the Church and its destiny and to trust in God. By working where each one is needed, there is benefit. The more one works, the more peaceful one becomes with oneself. The more removed one becomes from the cares of the world, the more one wishes to devote one’s entire life to the Church. That is the first sign that the individual – a man or a woman – is living the proper way.

“‘Living The Way gives one freedom. Earthly cares, the way of the world, the senses—all combine to consume one’s time. There is no time available for spiritual evolvment or contemplation of one’s future. The self that we believe ourselves to be has been created by our senses of perception and by our exposure to the world. These, combined with the hereditary factors ingrained in our mind, nerve cells, genes, and in the force field enveloping the organism as a whole, our personality, and many of our characteristics were formed even before our entrance into the world of the living.

“‘To a very large degree we, as supposed personalities, simply fill in and live that life dictated by these various factors determined by our parents and the race that bred us. To discover who we really are requires that we live The Way and bring into our beings the Image and the Word of God. We are thus exposed to a new way of Life, to different stimuli; and the spiritual self in which we have our real and true origin then manifests.

“It is fundamental to acknowledge that each individual had a pre-existent life prior to their entrance into the world of matter. Of course, this pre-existence cannot materialize or have any meaning to us until such time as we are recreated spiritual beings by means of the Image and the Word. Once this occurs, we are obliged to live The Way in accordance with a disciplined spiritual life in order to prevent the Dark side, or the Dark nature of our pre-existent spirit, to emerge; that is, we must prevent the Power of Darkness from incarnating within our recreated spirit just as the mind of the world – the old world soul – incarnates within the mind and body and assumes control.’”

Reverend Mother Rebecca Willis Anointed

Stephan Fuelling

On Monday, March 6th, 2023, Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. performed an anointing for The Reverend Mother Rebecca Willis at her parsonage at Steamboat. This is prior to her surgery this coming Wednesday, 3/8/23.

Peter's Message to Philip

“Peter, messenger of Jesus the anointed, to Philip, our beloved brother, and our fellow messenger, and the brothers who are with you: greetings. I want you to understand, our brother, that we received orders from our lord, the savior of the whole world, that we should come together to teach and preach concerning the salvation that was promised us by our lord Jesus the anointed. But you were separated from us, and you did not wish us to come together and learn how to orient ourselves that we might tell the good news. So would it be agreeable to you, our brother, to come according to the orders of our god Jesus?”

“When Philip received and read this, he went to Peter, rejoicing with gladness. Then Peter gathered the others. They went to the mountain called Olivet, where they used to gather with the blessed anointed one when he was in the body. When the messengers came together and fell on their knees, they prayed in this way, saying, Father, father, father of the light, you who possess the incorruptions, hear us, just as you have taken pleasure in your holy child Jesus the anointed. For he has become for us a luminary in the darkness. Yes, hear us. And they resumed again and prayed, saying, Child of life, child of immortality, you who are in the light, child, deathless anointed, our redeemer, give us strength because they are searching for us to kill us.” ~The Letter of Peter to Philip

Brother and Messenger

The Letter of Peter to Philip was found as part of the Nag Hamadi Library, probably written around 200 AD. It begins with Peter addressing Philip as a “beloved brother and fellow Messenger.” Peter refers to Philip as a brother because he is a fellow apostle of Jesus. He also refers to him as a fellow messenger because Philip, like Peter, is tasked with spreading the teachings of Jesus—the real teachings of Jesus, not the false ones later introduced by Paul. It appears that Philip has gone off on his own to teach and spread The Word, and Paul wants him to rejoin the others.

Learn to Orient Ourselves

Here Peter gently chides Philip for going off to teach on his own rather than staying with the group and continuing to learn how to “Orient” himself. By this, Peter means learning how to practice the spiritual development techniques that Jesus taught them, perhaps including some advanced ones that Peter knows, but Philip doesn’t. Peter then asks Philip if he will return to the group if it is the orders of Jesus rather than Peter. In the Quote, Peter calls Jesus, “our god Jesus”. This is a giveaway that this was not actually written by the Apostle, Peter, as Peter knew that Jesus was the Messiah, the messenger of God, but not God Himself.

Mountain Called Olivet

This is the same mountain called the Mount of Olives, where Jesus prayed on the night the authorities took him to be judged and murdered. It may be that this was simply a convenient place to meet, and practicing spiritual development techniques is often done on a mountaintop, but I think there is another reason for mentioning that they met on Mount Olivet. The olive tree and the olives on it have a lot of spiritual symbology. In many ancient societies, the olive tree was considered a link between the material and the spiritual, the Earth and Heaven. As such, it could also be a symbol of the Spiritual Sun. Therefore, it could mean that Peter and Philip practiced spiritual solar growth techniques together. Green olives can represent abundance, while black ones represent protection and power. Peter may be telling Philip that by coming together, they will have greater power and abundance. Not power in the sense of a king or dictator, but a spiritual power that can overcome the evil of the world.

If the olives are purple, this is a very spiritual color and is associated with the crown energy center. And because purple olives are connected with bright sunlight, they are a reminder to stay connected to the sun.

Father of the Light

So when Peter and Philip met, they prayed together saying, "Father, Father of the Light." They are not speaking of just any light, but of the Divine Light that comes to us primarily through the Spiritual Sun¹. So overall, these few paragraphs from the beginning of Peter's letter are a reminder to Philip, and therefore to all who read it, that we can get greater benefits when we practice spiritual techniques as part of a community. Of course, there are times when we must be physically away from our spiritual community, but we must remember to get together occasionally to recharge our batteries, in a manner of speaking.

1 A small amount also comes from other stars.
