On Monday, March 6th, 2023, Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. performed an anointing for The Reverend Mother Rebecca Willis at her parsonage at Steamboat. This is prior to her surgery this coming Wednesday, 3/8/23.

Peter's Message to Philip

“Peter, messenger of Jesus the anointed, to Philip, our beloved brother, and our fellow messenger, and the brothers who are with you: greetings. I want you to understand, our brother, that we received orders from our lord, the savior of the whole world, that we should come together to teach and preach concerning the salvation that was promised us by our lord Jesus the anointed. But you were separated from us, and you did not wish us to come together and learn how to orient ourselves that we might tell the good news. So would it be agreeable to you, our brother, to come according to the orders of our god Jesus?”

“When Philip received and read this, he went to Peter, rejoicing with gladness. Then Peter gathered the others. They went to the mountain called Olivet, where they used to gather with the blessed anointed one when he was in the body. When the messengers came together and fell on their knees, they prayed in this way, saying, Father, father, father of the light, you who possess the incorruptions, hear us, just as you have taken pleasure in your holy child Jesus the anointed. For he has become for us a luminary in the darkness. Yes, hear us. And they resumed again and prayed, saying, Child of life, child of immortality, you who are in the light, child, deathless anointed, our redeemer, give us strength because they are searching for us to kill us.” ~The Letter of Peter to Philip

Brother and Messenger

The Letter of Peter to Philip was found as part of the Nag Hamadi Library, probably written around 200 AD. It begins with Peter addressing Philip as a “beloved brother and fellow Messenger.” Peter refers to Philip as a brother because he is a fellow apostle of Jesus. He also refers to him as a fellow messenger because Philip, like Peter, is tasked with spreading the teachings of Jesus—the real teachings of Jesus, not the false ones later introduced by Paul. It appears that Philip has gone off on his own to teach and spread The Word, and Paul wants him to rejoin the others.

Learn to Orient Ourselves

Here Peter gently chides Philip for going off to teach on his own rather than staying with the group and continuing to learn how to “Orient” himself. By this, Peter means learning how to practice the spiritual development techniques that Jesus taught them, perhaps including some advanced ones that Peter knows, but Philip doesn’t. Peter then asks Philip if he will return to the group if it is the orders of Jesus rather than Peter. In the Quote, Peter calls Jesus, “our god Jesus”. This is a giveaway that this was not actually written by the Apostle, Peter, as Peter knew that Jesus was the Messiah, the messenger of God, but not God Himself.

Mountain Called Olivet

This is the same mountain called the Mount of Olives, where Jesus prayed on the night the authorities took him to be judged and murdered. It may be that this was simply a convenient place to meet, and practicing spiritual development techniques is often done on a mountaintop, but I think there is another reason for mentioning that they met on Mount Olivet. The olive tree and the olives on it have a lot of spiritual symbology. In many ancient societies, the olive tree was considered a link between the material and the spiritual, the Earth and Heaven. As such, it could also be a symbol of the Spiritual Sun. Therefore, it could mean that Peter and Philip practiced spiritual solar growth techniques together. Green olives can represent abundance, while black ones represent protection and power. Peter may be telling Philip that by coming together, they will have greater power and abundance. Not power in the sense of a king or dictator, but a spiritual power that can overcome the evil of the world.

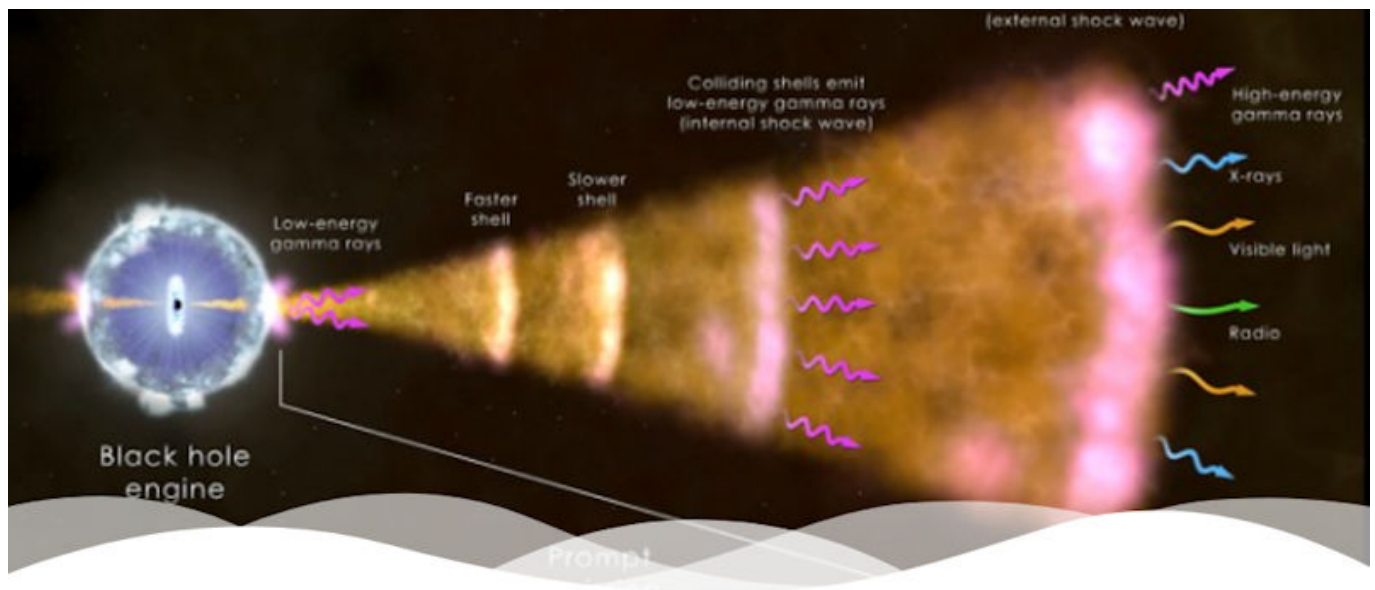

If the olives are purple, this is a very spiritual color and is associated with the crown energy center. And because purple olives are connected with bright sunlight, they are a reminder to stay connected to the sun.

Father of the Light

So when Peter and Philip met, they prayed together saying, "Father, Father of the Light." They are not speaking of just any light, but of the Divine Light that comes to us primarily through the Spiritual Sun¹. So overall, these few paragraphs from the beginning of Peter's letter are a reminder to Philip, and therefore to all who read it, that we can get greater benefits when we practice spiritual techniques as part of a community. Of course, there are times when we must be physically away from our spiritual community, but we must remember to get together occasionally to recharge our batteries, in a manner of speaking.

“2 Possibly Earth-like worlds, Just 16 Light-years Away”

Astronomers have been discovering an increasing number of rocky exoplanets, worlds similar in size to Earth. This month (December 15, 2022), an international team of astronomers said it has found two more worlds in our own neighborhood of the galaxy. These worlds are less than 16 light-years away, very close, relatively speaking! And they're in the habitable zone of their star, the zone within which liquid water can exist.

For comparison, Proxima Centauri b is the closest Earth-mass exoplanet, at 4.2 light-years away. It's also similar in size to Earth and in its star's habitable zone.

“Astronomers Discover A Weird Object In Space That Contains A Galaxy Within a Galaxy Within Another Galaxy (and Nobody Knows Why)”

With a flawlessly symmetrical ring encircling a red sphere of stars, Hoag's object is one of the most stunning mysteries in the universe.

If you look closely at the serpent constellation in the northern sky, you might notice a galaxy within a galaxy within a galaxy.

This cosmic turducken is known as Hoag's object, and it has baffled astronomers since astronomer Arthur Hoag found it in 1950.

The object under consideration is a one-of-a-kind, ring-shaped galaxy 100,000 light-years across (slightly larger than the Milky Way) and 600 million light-years away from Earth.

The Twenty-fourth Saying (Part 9)

“Another Mariner, the third of their number, spoke saying, ‘How is a man or a woman, in trying to evolve spiritually, to know whether it is the spirit that develops or the psyche?’ In reply, The Teacher said, ‘That is one of the problems that confronts every individual who is living and working in the Church. In the Church, we emphasize the living of The Way, do we not? People often ask, “What is so important about living of The Way? If you believe in God, if you lead a good life, if you are kind to your fellow man, in other words, practice the virtues, what else is there to do?” They do not understand that it is the living of The Way that determines the outcome of their involvement of reflecting to the Sun of Righteousness. This living of The Way dictates whether they see the Image and hear the Word, or whether they come under the influence of the Powers of Darkness, which are to be found in the opposite of the Sun of Righteousness.

“‘There is a Dark Sun, as we know. We know that there exist malevolent Powers of the psychic nature from the fourth dimensional world. The Evil One, the Power that influenced and deceived Adam and Eve in the Garden when the two mistook the Dark Angel for the Angel of God, is the same Force that was in the beginning. Living The Way enables us to receive protection from the True God who has revealed unto us that very Way which we are obliged to live.

“‘When we look upon God’s Sun, that Sun that enlightens our Eternal mind and Soul, we come alive; we are nurtured by God’s Light. Before that experience, we are cold and lifeless, doomed to death by our limited sensory world. And this warm Light from the Sun of Righteousness kindles our mind and our spirit; our Soul comes to life, and we actually live. By living The Way, we are able to look beyond the physical sun. We are able to penetrate to another world beyond.

“‘The physical sun contains the Powers of Darkness. It contains the energies and frequencies that control this planet. And oftentimes people, in not living The Way, are nurtured by those entities which cause them to be psychic mischief makers, which cause them to speculate intellectually and generate metaphysical doctrines. Living The Way means to give up the human self, to go beyond human personality, and work for the good of the Church: to follow the Precepts, Concepts, Institutes of the Church, and follow God’s new laws, something which has to be done in stages. One goes through the preliminaries – through the Ethics and the Codes, through the Statutes and Judgements – becomes involved in the Liturgy, and then goes on to a teaching career that involves administration of Sacraments, and the duties of Cleric, Administrator, and Diplomat. And so it goes, forever.

“‘Therefore, in living The Way, one begins by working, laboring, and studying within the Church. And the Church as a living Community affords the protection of metanoia – God’s Divine Presence. We are aided and abetted by the Power of God within the Church. The first prerequisite of The Way is that one live within the structure of the Church. After that, one begins to familiarize oneself with the Constitution and the Canon. The individual experiences his or her ministry – Ordination, Consecration, Concelebration, Consignation, the Bath of Regeneration, and Consolation.’”

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene

A photograph capturing three triathletes in mid-air as they jump over a pile of logs. The athlete in the foreground is a bald man in a red shirt and black shorts, with mud on his legs, jumping high. Behind him, another man in a black shirt and black shorts is also jumping. Further back, a third man in a red shirt and black shorts is crouching or jumping. A black banner with 'Rakuten' is visible behind the first athlete. To the right, a black banner with 'FINISH LINE' and a red logo is flying. The background shows a cloudy sky and a metal fence.

"Beloved Reader, this is no jesting matter; one who thinks it so, has not tried it, nor has he yet passed the Judgement; but his Conscience is still asleep; and thinks it should be deferred to his latter days, which is very dangerous, yet he must pass through the Judgement or Fiery Trial. Happy is the one that passes through it in the time of their youth, before the Devil builds his fort of Prey strong ; he may afterwards proove a laborer in the vineyards of Heaven, and sow his seed in the Garden of Christ, where he shall reap the fruit in due time. This Judgement continues a long while upon many souls, several years [or more], especially with those who do not earnestly put on the Armor of Christ, but wait till the Judgement of Tribulation first drives them to repent. But to one that comes on their own, for their own earnest purpose, and endeavors to depart from evil ways, the temptation or trial will not be so hard, nor will it continue so long. Yet they must stand out valiently until victory be gotten over the Devil; for they shall be mightily assisted, and all shall end in the best for them.” ~Jacob Boehme

Sleeping Conscience

Boeme says that one who has not yet passed “the Judgement,” has a “sleeping conscience,” but I think it would be more accurate to say we have a sleeping spirit. The conscience is certainly connected to the spirit, but there are many people who seem to have a conscience of sorts, yet are not spiritually Awakened.

Deferred for Latter Days

Sadly, Boehme is correct here. Many people do believe that they can live their earthly life as they wish, and not be concerned with the spirit and Soul until they are old and dying. The danger in doing that is twofold. First, many die before they reach the age where they think they should be preparing for the afterlife. Second, even if they decide to start changing their ways while still alive, but quite old, they are likely to die before making enough progress for it to make any difference. You don’t want to wait until you are on a sinking ship before learning to swim. And you don’t go find a job first, then go to college to get the degree necessary to hold the job. You have to get the education first then get the job when you are fully qualified. It is much the same with spiritual development.

Devil’s Fort of Prey

What Boehme is saying here is that the longer we let ourselves be controlled by the forces and beings of darkness, the harder it is to break away from that and turn to God and Truth. We have all heard the old saying that the truth will set us free, but that is true only when we are able to accept the truth and act on it. If the barriers of darkness have been built very strongly in our subconscious mind, it is more difficult to turn away from that darkness. So Boehme advises us to do so while we are still young, and the “Devil’s Fort” within us is not so strong. While he has a point, the truth is that the majority of us will not seek a spiritual awakening until we get older and start realizing that we are mortal.

Vineyards of Heaven, Garden of Christ

Boems says that those who awaken become laborers in the vineyards of heaven and sow seeds in the Garden of Christ. He is simply saying in an allegorical way that we become workers in Heaven for God’s Great Plan. This is contrary to the image many people have of Heaven, or the afterlife. We say of the departed, “Rest in Peace,” but while peace is certainly an attribute of Heaven, resting is not. Those who reach Heaven must work hard in this world and the next to get to Heaven. And those in Heaven continue to work to help others reach that level of consciousness. So it might be better to send off those who have physically died by saying “Work in Peace”.

“Michael Clarage: Function in the Cosmos | Thunderbolts”

While walking and talking with a friend who was a mechanical engineer, he asked me, what is science? Great question, which eventually led us to talking about what is lacking in today's science. I proposed that when an astronomer looks at a beautiful nebula, the first question should be, what is the function of that?
