

“Gareth Samuel: Milky Way’s Plasma Bubble Network | Thunderbolts”

Our Sun sits in the middle of an enormous void called the local bubble containing million degree, ionized hydrogen gas, surrounded by a wall of colder denser neutral gas. Mainstream astronomers keep describing it as neutral gas deficient rather than simply stating that it is highly ionized.

Galaxies are composed of a network of filaments that carry slow moving ions which form magnetic fields holding the structure together. Hannes Alfvén pointed out these structures are capable of transferring energy over vast distances and dissipating the energy across a double layer with a voltage drop.

Gareth Samuel, EU advocate and creator of “See the Pattern”, identifies and explains the Milky Way’s plasma bubble network in our local galactic neighborhood.

Seek the Knowledge of Truth

“He who has just begun to follow a holy way of life, and has received instruction about how to act righteously, devotes himself wholly to the practice of the virtues in all obedience and faith, nourishing himself, as if on meat, on their manifest aspects. The inner principles of the commandments, which constitute the knowledge of the perfect, in his faith he leaves to God, for he cannot yet embrace their full magnitude.

“The perfect person, who has passed beyond the category not only of beginners but also of those who are advanced, is not ignorant of the inner principles of the actions he performs. ... On the contrary, he first spiritually imbibes those principles and then by means of his actions feeds upon the whole body of the virtues. In this way, he transposes to the plane of spiritual knowledge actions which take place in the sensible realm.

“The Lord said, ‘First seek the Kingdom of God and His righteousness (Matt 6:33). That is, seek the knowledge of Truth before all things, and therefore seek training in appropriate methods of attaining it.” ~The Philokalia

The Beginner

One thing that some beginning spiritual students find difficult to accept, especially in this age of instant everything, is that spiritual truth and spiritual development techniques must be revealed to the student gradually. This is for the benefit of all, but especially for the benefit of the student. If you try to give a new student advanced teachings, they may be misunderstood and misused. The student may become disappointed and quit studying. So the teacher or master teaches only as much as the student is ready to understand, and can use safely.

Practice of Virtues

The practice of spiritual development methods is required for spiritual growth, but that involves more than just practicing the virtues. Most spiritual masters know this but are reluctant to say it in a publication available to the general public. Some spiritual knowledge must be protected from those who would misuse it and harm others or themselves. And some would try to use such knowledge for material purposes which can also cause serious problems. Hitler and the Roman Emperor Nero are examples of people who gained such knowledge and used it improperly. Eventually, they lost those powers, as always happens to those who misuse them.

Leaves it to God

While I can partially agree with the author that there are things we should leave to god and have faith that they will happen, I think that in most cases, if not all, God wants us to do what we can along with Him. We are, after all, meant to be co-creators with God.

Not Ignorant of Inner Principles

The Spiritual Master is indeed not ignorant of the inner principles and of the effects of their deeds and thoughts. The Master knows that his deeds affect not just himself and those in the immediate vicinity, but also the rest of the world. For example, what foods you buy helps determine what farmers will grow. But probably even more important is our thoughts. Thoughts are energy and energy does work. When you are filled with thoughts of hatred, jealousy, or fear, what work do you think those thoughts are doing? They affect the behavior of other people, animals, and even the weather. Most significantly, thoughts reach the sun and are reflected back to us amplified. If we are mainly sending negative thoughts, that is what will reflect back to us. So the Spiritual Master makes the effort to avoid negative thinking. It isn't that difficult for such men and women since they understand what causes people to have angry and negative thoughts and animals to behave aggressively. They know that if all negative thoughts stopped, all animals would soon be friendly and there would be no poisonous plants.

Seek God, Seek Truth

The fact is, if you want to find Truth, you must seek to awaken and develop your connection with God and Heaven. And if you want to know God, you must seek universal Truth by going to the source, which is God. You won't find God by clinging to beliefs that have been passed on for generations but nonetheless are either totally false or only partially true. And the lantern we hold to seek Truth is the Light of the Spiritual Sun that awakens our spirit and Soul.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: November 16, 2022

CÔSOLARGY.INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

The Twenty-third Saying (Part 13)

“Following this discourse, a female Companion of The Way addressed The Man thusly, ‘May I ask for a further explanation of the statement that affirms that this world is not the True Creation and the Evil One could not exist without God.’ The Man replied to the disciple, ‘God created the world as Good, where there was no death and His creatures lived on His Presence. In speaking, we need to express these concepts in words and speak in terms of God and Him and His Presence to explain a point. But in the beginning, God was a Presence, and Man and Woman lived off that Presence. Over a period of time, Man and Woman became tempted, as you know from the allegorical story of the Garden of Eden, and they fell away from God and began to live, not off God’s Presence as nourishment, but by the taking of the lives of other things. The allegory does not answer all the questions concerning their evolution to the stage when they, or at least their descendants, began to eat meat, to the act of killing, and living off the Creation and not God, which led to our suffering, disease and death.

“‘Therefore, when God’s True Creation is restored – when He reveals Himself through the Image and the Word – all the existing creation will be burned up by the Presence of His Light. God must reach out to the souls of men and women by revealing His Image and speaking to them in His Word so that they will be restored. Thus, the new Creation is already in the process of becoming.

“‘As ministers, as the pre-ordained, as a Church, we are caught in the phenomena of space and time. God’s World has already been restored, and we are already immortal. As humans existing in space, we naturally think in terms of time – a beginning, a middle and an end – and as a consequence, we live out our lifetimes on the physical level, in the physical world, and we will die as this world will die, but we will be restored eventually. The concept of time is such that it does not explain to us when this will be; because space and time are an illusion, as it were, an unreal state of the present, not of the future; nor was this illusion of the past, except recently.

“‘As we evolve, we will see that, as ministers, we are being trained for a great undertaking. This Church is gearing itself to introduce religion as a revolutionary force in the world beyond politics, beyond economics, and beyond the civil state, to create a religious State in the world. And the world must give us the place to do that. We cannot predict when that will be, but that is our goal.

“‘Unlike other churches, the Church of the Second Advent is not interested in merely existing within the status quo and being governed by the State, responding to the State. We are not interested in allowing our children to enter the military when the time comes, paying taxes, and getting involved in the life of this senseless, aborted, perverted physical world. We are only concerned with the evolvment and evolution of man and woman and society. In essence, we represent that very religion promised by Jesus Christ to come when the world would be changed for Good. We have picked up the cross that was laid down two thousand years ago. We are the Second Church of Christ – the restored Church of the Second Advent in which God’s Image and Word motivate and animate us to do His Will.’”

“Huge Sunspot Pointed Straight at Earth Has Developed a Delta Magnetic Field”

A massive sunspot may be set to erupt, unleashing the most intense form of solar flares that may last for days.

Sunspot AR3089, which is facing Earth, has now acquired a delta-class magnetic field, indicating that it has accumulated enough energy to produce X-class solar flares.

According to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA), the sunspot has a 5% chance of producing an X-class outburst. If that happens, the flare might cause a severe geomagnetic storm in the Earth's atmosphere, causing damage to infrastructure and electromagnetic communication systems.

Spiritual Growth and Enlightenment is an Activity

"Sweetly, it is true, the illuminated mystic may live; but not, as some think, placidly. Enlightenment is a symptom of growth; and growth is a living process, which knows no rest. The spirit, indeed, is invaded by a heavenly peace; but it is the peace, not of idleness, but of ordered activity. 'A rest most busy,' in Hilton's words: a progressive appropriation of the Divine. The urgent push of an indwelling spirit, aspiring to its home in the heart of Reality, is felt more and more, as the invasion of the normal consciousness by the transcendental personality—the growth of the New Person—proceeds towards its term.

"Therefore, the great seekers for reality are not as a rule long delayed by the exalted joy of illumination. Intensely aware now of the Absolute Whom they adore, they are aware too that though known He is unachieved. Even while they enjoy the rapture of the Divine Presence—of life in a divine, ideal world—something, they feel makes default. Sol voglio Te, O dolce Amore. Hence for them that which they now enjoy, and which passes the understanding of other men, is not a static condition; often it coexists with the travail of the heart that Tauler has called 'stormy love.' The greater the mystic, the sooner they realize that the Heavenly Manna which has been administered to them, is not yet that with which the Angels are fully fed. Nothing less will do." ~Evelyn Underhill

Enlightenment Requires Constant Growth

Spiritual Awakening and Enlightenment is not an instant affair. It takes time to achieve some level of consciousness that could be truly considered enlightenment. Yet even then, the job is not done. Nothing will suffice for the awakened Soul except complete unity with God and the All. That takes continuous effort to grow.

Heavenly Peace

As Ms. Underhill notes, the Heavenly peace achieved by the mystic or spiritual adept is not a peace of idleness but continuous activity. The mountain climber is happy upon reaching the top of the mountain, but next week will climb another, probably higher, or otherwise more difficult. To achieve real Spiritual Enlightenment, we must be like that mountain climber. We may be happy with what we have achieved, but we want to continue the process until we reach the ultimate: union with God.

Intensely Aware of the Absolute

Those who are truly awakened spiritually are intensely aware of the absolute. They don't theorize about what it is. They don't accept what is written in books as the final word on

God, no matter how holy the book is. They know through a direct connection with the absolute, and therefore this awareness is Knowledge, not simply theory or belief.

Sol voglio Te, O dolce Amore

I cannot find a complete translation for this Latin phrase, but the latter half means “O sweet love”. So what Underhill is saying here, is that when one becomes in full contact with the All, with God, they feel an intense Love for God and an intense love coming from God. Love for all is the most important thing we all must learn. This doesn’t mean we have to accept all the horrors of the material world, as some would have you believe. It means we can love the spirit and soul created by God, while not liking the actions of the body and mind. But as Ms. Underhill reminds us, the spirit and soul are active also. We must engage in spiritual development techniques regularly, preferably, daily. We must act on the spiritual level to fix our fallen world, and that means loving it. O dolce amore.

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

The Twenty-third Saying (Part 12)

“And The Mariner, upon hearing these words, said to The Man, ‘Throughout the course of these Sayings, you stress the point of living The Way. Could you clarify a little more what living The Way means? Is it essentially a perpetual surrender or submission?’ The Teacher replied, ‘The force that keeps civilized societies, races, and cultures from disintegrating is law and order. Every civilization in the world is based on that principle. Every church has its canon law and that law is designed or created for governing that church.

“The canon of our Church differs from that of other churches inasmuch as our Church, in serving the True God, wishes to cause to be established a theocracy in which humankind can live under Divine Law – under those laws and ordinances brought forth in our Constitution and Canon Law, in the Prophecies, the Statutes and Judgements, the Institutes, Precepts and Concepts of the Church, the Revelations to come and, of course, the major or fundamental Teaching – the Doctrine and Creed of the Church with its theology.

“We wish to be governed and regulated by the Image and the Word in the Sun of Righteousness and formed into a living body of men and women who can represent a new Nation, a new race of people who have made a New Covenant with God. Therefore, we cannot be ignored by the State which says, “You must submit to civil law. You must live in accordance with the law of the State. The law of the State and civil law are greater than religious law. We have power over you.” This is the great problem that confronts the future generations of this Church.

“As long as our Church consists of a small number of people, it is not essential that we concern ourselves with how other people might live, but with living the Law of God for ourselves. However, as we expand into a larger Church, as we evolve into a race of people that begin to have thoughts of God and begin to think about Godly things, those people are going to want to be free from society in general, free from the laws of the land that are intended to regulate and govern men and women who live only for their material welfare and not for religious and spiritual welfare.

“In the United States there is a separation of Church and State, which means the Church is outside the law to a certain degree. It is not regulated by civil law, but it must adhere to the law of the State. That is logical because there is only one law of the land. One lives under the Constitution of the United States, with the Bill of Rights and with the statutes and laws created by state legislatures and regulated and interpreted by our courts.

“‘A church must fit within that legal structure but, as we grow and develop into a State or a race and a Nation within a nation, the time will come when we are not going to want to be regulated by state law. And there is going to be conflict. We already are confronted with that conflict in Nevada. We were confronted with the conflict in Florida in the early days of our Church, and we had a conflict with the law in Peru. The law of the State has always been against this Church and has always caused us grief and strife.

“‘Of course, we do not want to be privileged, and we are willing to gain our rights within the law like anyone or any group or church. But, the time is going to come when our race, our people, are going to become so strong and so large in number that we are not going to want to live under the laws of the State. This means that as a Nation and a people, we must find sanctuary in some country, some land – America or elsewhere – where we can be separate from state laws and restrictions and regulations of materialistic bodies that could interfere with our exercising our freedom of religion. It may be that when we become strong enough, we can achieve this freedom in this great nation of the United States of America. I do not know.

“‘I know that land is going to be given to us at some time in the future. Whether we are going to be given land by another nation, as we have already mentioned, or whether a nation is going to allow us to come within its borders and let us instruct their people in the Way of Light, I do not know. That is for future generations. But, on the other hand, we cannot be sure. However, the Will of God will triumph over the minds of men and nations and governments, and even over nature and the Powers of Darkness.

“‘Living The Way, quite simply, means living according to the Doctrines and the Creed of the Church as expressed in its Constitution and Canon, and in teaching and administrating in the ministry under the vows of the Church, and, of course, adhering to the Precepts, Concepts, Institutes and general Teachings of the Church. To live The Way is to live in accordance with the Will of God and the Image and the Word that has manifested in the Sun of Righteousness.

“‘Living The Way means that ministers, both male and female, ordained to the service of God, live The Way, as individuals as well as a body of ministers. Then, they are moved by the metanoic power of God to fulfill the Church and God’s Wishes in the world. As a race and as a people, they are destined to inherit the world which is going to be changed by God’s Image and Word. Wickedness and Evil, and even the flesh, will be burned up so that only the spiritual, in whatever form, will survive. That is a basic and most fundamental concept of the Church. We acknowledge that we must grow and evolve in stages, just as individuals do.

“‘People undertake our studies, become active in the Church and eventually become active as ministers. And then together as ministers they become involved in the building of the Church in whatever capacity is required, according to the need and the following of the Church. For example, if the Church had several million enlightened followers at this time, it would change and its needs would change drastically. In time, the Church will change and have greater effect on the world according to the number of its followers. Living The Way applies to the individual, it applies to that individual’s life in Community and it involves The Way of the Church in the future.’”

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

“Bottling the Sun”

Bottling the sun

The world has been trying to master this limitless clean energy source since the 1930s. We're now closer than ever

Story by Boštjan Videmšek
Photographs by Matjaž Krivic
May 30, 2022

ITER's fusion energy experiments will take place inside the vacuum vessel of a donut-shaped machine called a tokamak.

The world has been trying to master this limitless clean energy source since the 1930s. We're now closer than ever.

Saint-Paul-lez-Durance, France – From a small hill in the southern French region of Provence, you can see two suns. One has been blazing for four-and-a-half billion years and is setting. The other is being built by thousands of human minds and hands, and is – far more slowly – rising. The last of the real sun's evening rays cast a magical glow over the other – an enormous construction site that could solve the biggest existential crisis in human history.

It is here, in the tiny commune of Saint-Paul-lez-Durance, that 35 countries have come together to try and master nuclear fusion, a process that occurs naturally in the sun – and all stars – but is painfully difficult to replicate on Earth.

Fusion promises a virtually limitless form of energy that, unlike fossil fuels, emits zero greenhouse gases and, unlike the nuclear fission power used today, produces no long-life radioactive waste.

Mastering it could literally save humanity from climate change, a crisis of our own making.

“Dwardu Cardona: Earth’s Primordial Stellar Host”

At our third conference, EU2014: All About Evidence, Dwardu Cardona presented a reconstruction of Earth's cosmic history distilled from the universal mytho-historical record. He describes how the strongest scientific validation comes from space itself, as new instruments display extraordinary electromagnetic detail across the cosmos, confirming that this is indeed an Electric Universe.

Dwardu Edward Cardona (1937–2016) was born, raised, and educated in Malta. In 1959, he emigrated to Canada and soon began to study catastrophism and the Solar System's cosmic history. Dwardu was the Senior Editor for Kronos, Editor of Aeon, co-founded the Canadian Society for Interdisciplinary Studies, and consultant for the UK-based Chronology and Catastrophism Review.

As an author, Dwardu published well over a hundred articles, notably on the Saturn theory. His legacy lives on through his five esteemed books—God Star (2006), Flare Star (2007), Primordial Star (2009), Metamorphic Star (2011), and his final opus, Newborn Star (2016).
