THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

February 9, 2022

This past Sunday, we concluded the annual Advent Vigil (January 30th to February 6th) of daily sunrise services honoring the dawn of the Second Advent with the birth of the Sun of Righteousness and the manifestation of The Image and The Word incarnate. I truly hope you received the many special blessings emanating out of The Light during this blessed time of year. We will now resume our review of the Twenty-Second Saying of Jamil.

The Twenty-second Saying (Part 3)

“Upon concluding the words of the Twenty-Second Saying, The Man asked of those assembled whether they had any questions. And The Mariner among them said, ‘The early part of the Saying explains that the spirit is alive but not Conscious. I am not certain I understand. Could you please read that portion again?' The Man read from the scroll again; 'Man has a spiritual nature that is not Consciously alive – a spirit which is part of a spiritual domain and is not of the world or the material universe.' When he had read these lines, he turned to The Mariner saying, 'You may recall from The Teachings that every human being has a spirit of two natures: one of Light and the other of Darkness. Men and women are free to choose which aspect of their spirit is going to be encouraged to be restored and made alive. Most serve the Darkness because they are ignorant of The Way to Light, and have no access to anything beyond the world or the Powers of Darkness, which are readily available.

“‘Even though Man’s spirit, which envelopes him in a sphere of Light, is his only potential for the development of a soul, it is, nonetheless, a neuter. In other words, there is neither Light nor Darkness within it. It is, in a manner of speaking, sleeping. And most people, living in the world and motivated by it, pursue a life in which the individual is primarily involved in earning enough to provide for oneself and one’s family. People’s tensions are relieved through entertainment, vacations, and other means of relaxation. Living in the world so totally preoccupies people that the spirit has no nourishment, no source of energy by which to awaken. Thus, the beastly or animal nature of people – that body of flesh that inherits death – rules them.

“‘In their concern with living, they often become opposed to one another – neighbor, brother, sister, sometimes their own children – because one’s own person is most important to the individual. Therefore, the fittest survive among men and women and animals intent on survival. This is a well-known fact of nature as taught by the naturalist Charles Darwin. But there is another part, the greater part of man and woman, which is the spirit. And that spirit is the cause of Man’s existence, even though the only apparent, visible form is the body which, as we know from The Teachings, is a product of Man's descent into matter, taking on a mutated form through this abortion.

“The spirit of Man in the world has no means of being awakened. But the manifestation of the Sun of Righteousness, a Power of God and a nourishment to the spirit, touches it and, like a seed implanted into the spirit, gives birth to the soul. Thus born, that soul takes on a Conscious life and becomes a person rather than remaining a neuter spirit with a dual potential.

“In the churches today, people pray to God, they worship God, they sing praises to God, they participate in rites, ceremonies, the sacraments, the liturgy, the litany, and believe that the exercise of mind, speech and emotion is sufficient to give them spiritual beingness and life to their spirits. This, of course, is not true, as we know from one of the most fundamental teachings of Jesus. His words to this effect were, “All your words and all your prayers and all your pompous ceremony will not give life to your spirit. You must be born again, and that birth comes of the Father. Follow me, I am The Way. I live The Way. And by living this Way you, too, will become reborn. And once reborn, you become a Child of God, and God becomes your restorer and savior.”

“The spirit, being neutral, comes alive by means of a food or a nourishment outside the realm of nature. That food is The Word and The Image of God.”

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene

“Know Yourself, End Your Ignorance”

“‘But what kind of sin do the ignorant commit that they should be deprived of immortality?’ I asked. ‘You do not seem to have thought about what I told you. Did I not tell you to pay attention?’ ‘I understand and remember, and at the same time I thank you.’ ‘If you understand, tell me why those who are ignorant deserve death.’ ‘Because the material body has its source in the abhorrent darkness, from which came the watery substance of which the body is composed in the sensible world, and from this body, death slakes its thirst.’ ‘You have understood correctly. But why is it, as the word of God has it, that whoever recognizes and knows himself enters into the good?’ I answered, ‘Because the father of all consists of light and life, and from him human beings were born.’ ‘You are right. Light and life are God and father, out of which humans came. And if you learn that you are also made of light and life, you will return to light and life.’” ~Poimandres

Ignorant Sin

Some spiritual teachers say that only ignorant people commit sin because only the ignorant don't know that the one they hurt the most when they do so is themselves. Of course, there is also the problem of knowing what is sin and what isn't. Some things are obvious, like murder is always a sin. Some are not so obvious; and different religions, and even different churches or sects within the same religion have different teachings about them. In the Catholic Church, it is a sin to fail to attend their church service (mass) every Sunday. At one time, they also said it was a sin for a woman to attend mass without a hat or other type of head covering, but that rule was dropped due to changes in the roles of women in society as a whole. I know an Evangelical Christian who thought it was a serious sin that women were wearing workout suits at the gym that showed their naval. Most other churches laugh at that idea.

The one way to truly know is to awaken your spiritual faculties and end your spiritual ignorance. Without spiritual ignorance, you no longer sin because you know what God wants, and you want to please God once you are spiritually awake.

The Ignorant Deserve Death

Poimandres tells the student asking him questions that the ignorant “deserve death.” There are two reasons why he says this. One is that the spiritually ignorant, which is the type of ignorance he is talking about, think only of the physical body as life. Since the physical body is temporary and must die, to those people, that loss means death. The other reason is that those who fail to make use of their time on earth to awaken and develop their spiritual faculties will be as good as dead also, even though they have an eternal spirit.

Know Yourself

When Poimandres adds that those who know themselves “enter into the good,” he is saying that those who have awakened and developed their spiritual Self will, after physical death, keep climbing to higher and higher levels of reality or levels of consciousness until they reach the highest level that most call Heaven, the place of the Good, the place where we know God and we know all of creation.

Light and Life

God is not just the creator of Light and Life, God is Light and Life. The form of God is Light; the Being of God is Life. We can access that Great Light to a limited degree while on earth and in a physical body. We do it by practicing spiritual sun gazing, which means not only gazing at the spiritual sun rather than the physical (never stare at the physical sun!) but also doing it with humility and right thinking; in other words, doing it with the guidance of teachers from a reputable spiritual school like Cosolargy.

“Advancing the Evidence for Survival of Consciousness”

Advancing the Evidence for Survival of Consciousness

Arnaud Delorme, Dean Radin, Helané Wahbeh

Institute of Noetic Sciences Petaluma, CA 94952 USA

ABSTRACT

Throughout history and across all cultures, many people have believed in some sort of afterlife. Recent surveys show that 60% of adults in the United States believe they will survive after bodily death. Such beliefs are often motivated by the loss of a loved one, cultural expectations, religious faith, or existential angst. However, the strongest reason for belief in survival after bodily death is based on personal experience, like a near-death experience or afterdeath communication. Those who do not believe, roughly 40% of the population, either have not had such experiences or they are not concerned about the question of an afterlife. These people would require persuasive evidence to shift their skepticism. To assess the existing evidence, we adapted a method used in medical research to gauge whether a drug or treatment is effective. We established credibility criteria and then applied the criteria to assign a letter grade, from A to F, to each of nine main categories of evidence suggestive of survival. That exercise found that none of the categories achieved an A level, which is undoubtedly why the question of survival remains unresolved for many. Then we proposed ten new experiments and surveyed over 400 academic scientists and scholars to see which of those studies, if successful, they would find most persuasive. The most frequently selected study was a controlled, prospective experiment that would result in veridical out-of-body perceptions during a near-death experience, followed by experiments involving mediumship and reincarnation. We discuss the implications of these choices and conclude with some thoughts about why improved evidence for survival is important and could benefit individuals and society.

The 140th Pannuches Meal Rite was held Saturday, August 7, 2021 at 6:00 p.m.

The 141st Pannuches Meal Rite was held Saturday, September 25, 2021 at 6:00 p.m.

The 142nd Pannuches Meal Rite was held Saturday, November 13, 2021 at 6:00 p.m.

The 143rd Pannuches Meal Rite was held Saturday, January 1, 2022 at 6:00 p.m.

Jubilee Sunrise Divine Services were held in Sanctuary on the Sunday mornings following the Pannuches Rite.

Christmas-Epiphany Vigil

The Twelve Days of Christmas are observed by tradition in the Second Advent Church. Beginning Saturday, December 25, and continuing through the morning of Epiphany, Thursday, January 6. Sunrise Divine Services were held in Consecrated Sanctuary each morning at the Church of New Epiphany during these days of special blessing, as weather permitted.

The traditional Christmas Day Service of Communion, Candle Lighting, and Remembrance was held December 25 since weather prohibited the open-air Divine Service at Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary. Friday and Saturday Chapel Services were suspended due to the Vigil schedule.

Children's Blessing

The annual Children's Blessing was held at the End Times Parsonage on Sunday, January 2, 2022 at 7:45 a.m. followed by a breakfast. While not a part of the Sacred Calendar of the Church, this Blessing is held each year during the Christmas-Epiphany Vigil. Children, parents, and a limited number of other members of the Community, who were present by special invitation due to social distancing requirements, gathered for the ceremonial blessing of the children of the Community.

Epiphany Eve Banquet

The annual Epiphany Eve Banquet and festivities took place at the Rectory-Abbey on Wednesday, January 5, 2022, from 6:00 to 9:00 p.m. Members of the Community, their families, and special guests of the Bishop were invited to attend this special seasonal banquet. The meal was followed by a visit from Santa and his reindeer and gift-giving.

Epiphany Day

This forty-first anniversary of Epiphany in the Second Advent Church was a day of special blessings and revelation in the Church and the day on which the Church commemorates the True Baptism of Jesus by God the Father. The Message given on January 6, 1981, is related in the Prophecy of the New Covenant:

“On this hallowed day of God’s Appearance, bountiful blessings manifest to the Holy Ones of Light of the Church of the Second Advent founded by His Word. To those unified in Community and holding to The Law, God sends forth the Comforting Spirit of His Image. As the Church has been restored, God will restore those blessings given to the First Church—now in apostasy—and make sacred those Holy Days that are kept in remembrance by the old Churches, but which are not alive with God’s blessings.

“In commemoration of this Day let The Community gather together once each year in remembrance and in fellowship. God will baptize all assembled in the Spirit of His Holiness. God gives an unmistakable Sign from Heaven in the New Sun as a mark of His Advent and Divine Presence. Let all behold the Signs of God manifest in the Heavens and know that their New Ministry is by God’s Authority, and that He has come to Judge the world. This Day is a day of confirmation of God’s Appearance, a day of blessing to strengthen the Good against the Powers of Darkness, and to empower them to teach.”

COSOLARGY.INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 26, 2022

It is appropriate that we read from the Twenty-Second Saying on the Sun of Righteousness and the Image and Word incarnate within that Light as we prepare to celebrate the 60th anniversary of the dawning of God's Second Advent.

Our eight-day sunrise vigil begins on the evening of January 29th with a service commemorating the events that transpired that night in 1962 when The Child of Light, Jamil, passed from this world at midnight. We then have eight days of sunrise services through the morning of February 6th. Of course, you can find all the details in the last chapter of the book, Jamil: Child of Light, which I always encourage you to read at this special time of year.

The Twenty-second Saying (Part 2)

“After thinking these thoughts, The Man took a scroll in hand; and removing the silken ribbon that bound it, he began to read to The Mariners and Companions of The Way.

“And these are the words of the Twenty-Second Saying:

“Man has a spiritual nature that is not consciously alive – a spirit which is part of a spiritual domain and is not of the world or the material universe. It sustains the life of mortal man, yet he knows it not, being ignorant of his true nature: the spirit sleeps. And no teaching of saintly priests or words spoken by holy prophets, neither any scripture, sacred book, sacred law, nor sacrament, ordinance or commandment of any world religion, regardless of its great age or supposed authority, can awaken it – these only stir the mind or the emotion or the psychic nature of Man. The spirit remains the sole possession of God; and nothing of the earth, no matter the title, position or claim to any such title or position, can reach it.

“God speaks to the spirit through His Word. And the Word manifests in the Image. There is no other way to God. God has blessed the world with a precious gift – the manifestation of the Image and the Word discerned as the great, holy Light of the spiritual Sun of Righteousness which is the instrument of His Divine Will.

“God would that man and woman perceive His Image and Word and by these means come to Life again; and by living, they would know Him.

“From ancient times God has revealed Knowledge of His Existence through Holy Ones inspired of the Image and the Word. And Holy Ones proclaimed to all the world the means by which the spirit might live again and know God. But humans, in their foolishness and inability to judge or know things of the spirit, because of their perpetual clinging to the senses and the mind as the sole means of perception, lost hold of the Truth of the revealed Doctrines.

“Thus, Knowledge of The Way to God was forgotten. Even the Christian religion is guilty of this most grievous error. The scriptures say, ‘For God so loved the world that He gave His Only-Begotten Son, so those who believe in Him might not die, but have life everlasting.’

“Man, desiring to worship things mortal and being ever anxious to follow the way of the flesh, believes the good and inspired teaching that Jesus is the Son of God. Though incarnate with the Image and the Word of God and truly a Son of God, Jesus is not the First-Born of God sent into the world to redeem humanity.

“The First-Born is the Light of God’s Image and the Truth of His Word, gloriously manifest in the Sun of Righteousness.

“It is not by the suffering of Jesus, my beloved Brother in Light, nor by his death on the cross, nor by the shedding of his blood as atonement, that Man is saved, but only by the Image and the Word which God has caused to come into the world. God alone is Man’s Savior. And only God’s Light and Truth can redeem him from the error of Darkness; for if Man’s spirit not be reborn, it can never know God.

“It is because he was made in the Image of that Image and Word of God that Jesus arose from the dead. And this is the greatest of Secret Sayings, for the Image and the Word given of God so that Man might live are not discerned by the worldly but only by those who live The Way under the Codes of the Order of The Community.

“The spirits of those who live The Way are reborn and made into living souls; and they know God by means of the Image and the Word, which are Life and Breath, Bread and Water, to the soul. No mortal eye can see, nor mortal ear hear the Things of God.

“The Sun of Righteousness comes to restore order in the universe. It is the Image of God and not an image of any living thing either in Heaven or on earth. The Word is manifest within the Image, and within the Word is God’s Revelation and Knowledge of Himself, the source of all life in its original and pre-existent form. The Substance of this spiritual Sun is God – Redeemer, Restorer, Savior – who instructs the world in understanding of His Nature in Love, Mercy ,and Goodness.

“Let all those who would be redeemed from the earth, in life and in death, accept the Gift of God with rejoicing and thanksgiving, wrapping themselves in a robe of splendorous Light as a protection against the Powers of Darkness which even now gather in strength to seek out the spirits of the ignorant and the unsuspecting who put their faith and trust in the powers of the world.”

We are preparing, and you will be receiving soon, information on this year’s Community Convocation which will take place the first week in June. Our celebration will focus on the 60th anniversary of this important cosmic and spiritual event. You will also be receiving additional information on the September Cosolargy Conference, which will focus of Color and Sacred Imagery.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

“Darkness Sees the Spirit”

“When the darkness stirred, the light of the spirit appeared to him. When he saw it he was astonished. He did not know that another power was above him. And when he saw that his likeness was dark compared with the spirit, he felt hurt. And in his pain he lifted up, above the height of the members of darkness, his mind, which was the eye of the bitterness of evil. He caused his mind to take shape in a member of the portions of the spirit, thinking that, by staring down at his evil, he would be able to equal the spirit. But he was not able, for he wanted to do an impossible thing, and it did not take place. But in order that the mind of darkness, which is the eye of the bitterness of evil, might not be destroyed, since he was made partially similar, he arose and shone with a fiery light upon all of Hades, that the equality of the faultless light might become apparent. For the spirit benefited from every form of darkness because he appeared in his majesty. “And the exalted, infinite light appeared, for he was very joyful. He wished to reveal himself to the spirit. And the likeness of the exalted light appeared to the unconceived spirit.” ~Paraphrase of Shem

When Darkness Stirred

This is an allegorical tale. The Darkness is the egotism that infected a few angels who became the Fallen, the Darkness, or the Demiurge in Gnostic terms. It wasn't so much that the light of Spirit appeared to them—it was always there—but that they noticed it and, in their egotism, decided they were as great as God and could create a realm of Darkness as God had created the realm of Light.

He Did Not Know

Shem says that the Dark One, the Demiurge “did not know that another power was above him.” This cannot possibly be true! It is only because the Demiurge, full of egotism, became jealous of God, that the Demiurge decided to create a universe of Darkness, a universe where he would rule by pretending to be God. He (or they, as the Demiurge represents all the fallen angels) succeeded by turning a large amount of spirit into the Darkness called matter. This doesn't make the material universe something evil that must be destroyed, but it is something created in error that must be repaired.

Shone With a Fiery Light

Lucifer, Satan, and other Dark Beings are capable of shining with a light that is nonetheless Darkness when compared with the overwhelmingly bright and loving Light of God. Over the centuries, many have been tricked into believing that this shining of a Dark Being meant that it was an angel of God, or God Himself. As a result, they listened too and did what these beings asked. This is why Earth is such a mess.

Exalted Infinite Light

The Exalted Infinite Light which is the Light of God did appear in the world of matter. God took pity on the material beings created by the Demiurge and gave us humans a Divine Soul of Light that, when awakened, can help us escape from the Darkness of matter and help in the Great Plan to turn the realm of matter back into spirit. Fortunately for us, we live in the time when the promised Sun of Righteousness is now shining down on us. This special Spiritual Sun shines down on us with a much greater amount of God's Light than previously. This makes it easier for us to tap into the Spiritual Light and awaken our dormant spiritual faculties. But we still have to make the effort to do so.
