

New Roof Covers Chapel After 40 Years

This past June the Church hired Go Green Roofing to lay a new roof on the Chapel of The Holy Child and vestibule of the Chancellery building.

The Church received three bids on the project and chose GoGreen Roofing for the job after seeing the quality of their work.

The last roof was laid in 1981 when the Chapel was originally constructed and had been patched and repaired every since – not always with success. (See photos of chapel leaks below.)

Leaks at Chapel entrance

Leaks at Chapel chancel area

The leaks over the past winter could not be patched or repaired. The leaks were so bad that no company would accept the job,. Every company who examined the project insisted that the roof needed to be replaced.

Go Green Roofing specializes in spray foam roofing for flat roofs. The sloped, wood-shake roof over the Chancellery offices is a separate project and will be replaced over the next year with composition shingles.

Go Green Roofing is a locally operated, family owned, incorporated roofing company with more than 50 years of combined experience. The company has installed hundreds of thousands of square feet of both spray foam roofing and fluid-applied roofing membranes throughout Northern Nevada and California. Their other clients include Nevada Fine Arts and North Star and Heavenly Ski Resorts at Lake Tahoe.

The Go Green Roof System is sustainable and has a working life of 30+years. With superior leak protection, spray Polyurethane Foam (SPF) is the only roofing material that has no seams. A thick (typically 1") closed-cell polyurethane waterproofing barrier seals the roof against leaks. The SPF roofing forms an impenetrable seal around roof penetrations such as pipes, vents, rooftop equipment, and parapet walls. The roofing system allows them to build up in ponding areas to reduce heavy standing water and improve drainage.

Typical Polyurethane Roof System

IMAGE: GoGreen Roofing

Spray polyurethane foam is the fastest growing insulating product in the world. As a roofing material it provides many benefits over traditional roofing materials. Exceptional durability, unmatched R-value, air barrier properties and a multitude of additional benefits make it a truly versatile roofing system. The Everplus MIP (Manufactured In Place) Spray Foam Roofing System utilizes Bayseal Spray Foam manufactured by Bayer Material Science, the inventor and leader in the polyurethane industry. (See before and after photos below.)

Spray polyurethane foam is watertight because the system is manufactured in place; major weaknesses, including seams and mechanical fasteners, are eliminated. The roofing system is highly heat reflective. It dramatically improves occupants' comfort by typically cutting a summer roof surface temperature by 50-90°. Simply maintaining the protective surface coating on the roof every 10-15 years will ensure that the roof will last indefinitely.

Human Consciousness

“Let human consciousness change or transcend its rhythm, and any other aspect of any other world may be ours as a result. Hence the mystics’ claim that in their ecstasies they change the conditions of consciousness, and apprehend a deeper reality which is unrelated to human speech, cannot be dismissed as unreasonable. Do not then confuse that surface-consciousness which man has trained to be an organ of utility and nothing more—and which therefore can only deal adequately with the ‘given’ world of sense—with that mysterious something in you, that ground of personality, inarticulate but inextinguishable, by which you are aware that a greater truth exists. This truth, whose neighborhood you feel, and for which you long, is Life. You are in it all the while, ‘like a fish in the sea, like a bird in the air,’ as St. Mechthilde of Hackborn said many centuries ago.

*“Give yourself, then, to this divine and infinite life, this mysterious Cosmic activity in which you are immersed, of which you are born. Trust it. Let it surge in on you.”
~Evelyn Underhill*

Changing Human Consciousness

Human consciousness is not a fixed thing. We are not trapped at a certain level of consciousness and unable to move from it. It may seem that way to many; and to materialistic people, it is fixed, but for those who have begun their spiritual awakening, it does become possible, even inevitable, that they move into higher levels of consciousness. And I say levels because there is more than a single level of consciousness above that of materialistic humans. Exactly how many there are is a subject of much debate, but it doesn't really matter. The point is we can climb those levels like climbing stairs, one at a time, until we reach the ultimate level which is unity with God and with the All.

Of course, changing your level of consciousness is not as easy as changing your shoes. You have to know what you are doing and you have to work to make it happen. Unfortunately there are many who are trying but are misled by those who don't know as much about spiritual growth as they think they do, or are simply charlatans. But if you are serious about it, you will eventually be led to a real spiritual school that can teach you how to climb those levels of consciousness, the true stairway to Heaven.

Other Worlds

Yes there are other worlds at other levels of consciousness. These are generally called dimensions, and we are in the third dimension. There are a total of nine primary dimensions, so you can see there are several levels above us. The fourth dimension is psychic in nature and is the realm of demons and fallen angels—it is best avoided, but we must travel through it to reach the higher levels of consciousness. Just don't stop there thinking you have achieved the ultimate.

Surface-Consciousness

The regular consciousness of most humans that Underhill calls surface-consciousness is limited to the material world, and while it may have been trained as an “organ of utility,” levels of consciousness are not separated by brick walls. A little of what is in other levels leaks through at times and helps awaken us to the knowledge that there is more than just matter and the material universe. In some cases, it may be beings in higher levels intentionally pushing such ideas through to us to help us. They want us to move up to those higher levels of consciousness. They want it more than anything else.

Truth is Life

Yes truth is life. Living in a world of fantasy may be pleasant for a while, but eventually it falls apart. Living in a world of materialism and denying spirit may not be exactly living in a fantasy, but it isn't living in truth either, and therefore not truly living, but merely existing. So awaken and develop your consciousness.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"That an authoritative Seer Child should appear in modern times is not without prophetic precedent. The final descent of a cosmic being in the guise of a Child Genius, a bringer of peace and truth, has a long history behind it, spanning many thousands of years. Fragments of recovered Dead Sea Scrolls left by the monks of Qumran, or the Essenes, from which Jesus is believed to have sprung, mention an expected Wondrous Child, a Divine Counsellor, bearing unmistakable body marks, who would come at a future time to inaugurate a new age. Chosen of God, his life and very breath were to be pre-ordained. Like Moses and Jesus, who displayed advanced full-grown natures early in life, the Child Prodigy would attain early maturity in his second year, revealing heavenly knowledge to which the average mortal does not have access. In addition, the heaven-sent Child would serve as a precursor of some great, future cosmic event. (From fragmentary scroll texts from the Qumran Dead Sea Literature.)

"In the Hebrew scriptures, the Prophet Isaiah wrote of a coming new age of peace at a time when "the wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them." (Isaiah 11:6)

"Jesus, who often spoke in cryptic parables to his disciples, mentions the coming Child in allegorical terms: "At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me." (Matthew 18:1-5)"

“Soul Song – Sing With Gusto”

Soul Song

“From the writings of the ancient philosophers of all races, from the songs of the great poets of all peoples, from the preachings of the prophets of all religions and times we can gather traces of this illumination which has come to them – this unfoldment of the spiritual consciousness. We have not the space to numerate these numerous instances. One has told of it in one way, the other in another; but all tell practically the same story. All who have experienced the illumination, even in a faint degree, recognize the like experience in the tale, song, or preaching of another, though centuries may roll between them. It is the song of the Soul, which when once heard is never forgotten. Though it be sounded by the crude instrument of of the semi-barbarian races or the finished instruments of the talented musicians of today, its strains are plainly recognized. From old Egypt comes the song from India in all ages – from Ancient Greece and Rome from the early Christian saint – from the Quaker Friend – from the Catholic monasteries from the Mohammedan mosque – from the Chinese philosopher – from the legends of the American Indian hero prophet – it is always the same strain, and it is swelling louder and louder, as many more are taking it up and adding their voices or the sound of their instruments to the grand chorus.” ~William Walker Atkinson

Writings of the Philosophers

Actually, many of the great spiritual philosophers of times past didn't write down much, if any, of their teachings. They were passed from master to students orally. Fortunately for us, a few of those students did write down some of it, but because of their pledges of secrecy, it is always codified in legends and allegorical tales. Yet enough has survived of the philosophies of Pythagoras, Plato, Rumi, and others to let us know that the path of enlightenment does exist, though it is a long and sometimes perilous journey.

In Songs and More

The writings of the philosophers and their early students are not the only place where one can find guidance on the path to illumination. The Soul Song is found in music, poetry, paintings, statues, architecture, and even in modern movies. Sometimes it was put there intentionally, but often it wasn't.

Sometimes the musician, sculptor, screenwriter, etc. is inspired by a spiritual muse without even realizing it.

It is hidden in simple folk songs like "You are my Sunshine" and rock songs like "Age of Aquarius". You expect to find some of it hidden in movies like "Father Sun, Sister Moon," the film about the spiritual awakening of St. Francis, but not in an animated film about cavemen like "The Crudes," yet there it is if you know enough to recognize it.

To most viewers, The Crudes is a simple comedy about a more primitive family of cavemen who are forced to learn some new ways by a young caveman from a more advanced tribe. But it also has these, spiritual lessons, and more. First, the primitive cavemen are always hiding in their cave from a big cat that chases them. When circumstances force them to abandon that cave, they learn that their assumption was wrong. The cat didn't want to eat them, it was lonely and wanted someone to play with! They also learn that going to new places and learning new things is not so bad after all, even when it does include learning about the cute little pink birds, which turn out to be like flying Piranhas that attack animals in a swarm leaving behind nothing but bones. And they are reminded regularly by the advanced caveman (spiritual guru) to "Go forward, go toward the Light, toward the Sun, that is where you will find safety." A valuable lesson for all, if we but understood the allegory.

Once Heard, Never Forgotten

Yes, we are inspired by songs, poems, legends, and myths with hidden spiritual meaning, and that is why they tend to stick with us, even if we haven't figured them out yet. But more importantly, as Atkinson says, even those who have had but a faint glimpse of the spiritual world, a single listen of the soul song, they remember it and began to recognize it in unexpected places. That will keep happening until they make the soul song their theme song and devote themselves full to spiritual growth and illumination. The soul song does indeed lead us to higher and higher levels of consciousness until we achieve the highest level and become one with God, one with the All.

“Cosmology of the Electric Universe, Part 2 – Body of the Galaxy”

Cosmology of the Electric Universe, Part 2 – Body of the Galaxy.

Previously we looked at how the electrical systems of the Earth and planets exist in the larger electrical body of the Sun. Now we shift up in scale to describe the relationship of each star to the larger Galactic body of which it is a part, like our own Sun which lives inside the Milky Way Galaxy.

In this second of a two-part presentation, Michael Clarage, PhD, Lead Scientist of The SAFIRE Project, proposes that galaxies transform the great currents and fluxes that course through our universe as a whole.

Dr. Clarage also proposes that human beings can transform to emit greater amounts of energy and work with higher frequencies.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: July 21, 2021

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

July 21, 2021

Good morning. For those of you in the Northern Hemisphere, I hope you have been enjoying the Summer. My family and I recently returned from a few restful days at Lake Tahoe. A friend of mine was kind enough to let us use his vacation home.

We will now resume our review of The Secret Sayings of Jamil with the 20th and 21st Sayings.

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 1)

“The Man, the chosen and beloved disciple of Jamil, returned to the Emerald Isles to join in fellowship with The Mariners and Companions of The Way. And on the eleventh day of November, in the nineteen hundred and eightieth year of the Christian calendar, the twenty-first year following The Child’s birth, in the eighteen year of the Second Advent of God, The Man climbed with his followers to the heights of a forested hill in the valley called Makaha. And they sat down together amidst the ruins of an ancient temple for he would reveal to them the Twentieth and Twenty-First Sayings of Jamil as he had promised to do.

“But The Man was saddened this day for he had news that his father was near death. And he felt a part of himself dying with his father. And he was moved to silence and could not read from the scrolls. And that night his father did pass out of the world of the living at the age of eighty-eight years.

“The following day, The Man boarded the Ship of Light in company with the Seafarers and Companions of The Way, and sailed out of the harbor beneath a resplendent rainbow arching the sky. It was the twelve hundred and forty-fifth day after the Ship of Light had sailed from its home port on the mainland of America, and the five hundred and twenty-seventh day in the Emerald Isles.

“Throughout the day they sailed on the blue waters of the Pacific, driven by a freshening breeze. And The Man felt the pulse of his father’s spirit within his own. And he was at oneness with him, knowing that his father had returned to the source of his own being as do the aged who, broken by the pains of a tired body and restless spirit, seek God in their own way.

“And he felt no further sorrow or loss, knowing that his father had found peace in death. And he looked at the sun with eyes made for Light and prayed that his father would know of his love for him.

“That evening after the darkened sea had swallowed up a fiery red sun and they had dined together, The Mariners and Companions of The Way sat before The Man awaiting his words. And he spoke unto them saying:

“‘You have received nineteen of the Sayings of Jamil. And these sayings of the Seer Child, especially when combined with the prophecies he has revealed to us, instruct us in the formation of a New Religion on earth. And I say a New Religion because the Messenger of God, come in the guise of an innocent child, has shown us The Way in a modern world – how to express the religious life in a higher form than given to us by any of the world’s religions. The world’s religions do not teach The Way.

“‘For example, in the Christian religion, we are left with a belief system which does not teach us the religion of Christ, nor how to find the Godhead, or our Godhood. We are told to believe in Jesus, but there is no grand design for the establishment of a universal theocracy by enlightened men and women living The Way of God. The Church is static, frozen to what occurred two thousand years ago.

“‘The Child continues to inspire us from Heaven, continually revealing truths of a new dispensation for the world. He has revived older truths that are eternal and are as valid for us today as they were for Man centuries ago. But more than this, the Man-Child has supplemented these truths with new teachings which fulfill the older religions and create a new one. That is what I mean when I say that Jamil has brought us a New Religion.

“‘The Sayings and other revelations of Jamil, including the Prophecies, give us profound material for thought. The first nineteen Sayings tell us that a future religion, prophesied by the ancients, was destined to usher forth out of the Central Sun at some future date, and that this religion would cast out Darkness from the world. We were also told that this new prophetic religion would generate a fellowship of Immortals, that a School of Light would come into existence to instruct Teachers, that these Teachers would become God’s agents and be empowered by the sun, and that they would eventually triumph over the world.

“‘The School of Light formed of the Immortals would instruct the nations of the world in the new laws and statutes of God. The future nations and governments would be judged by God’s Sun of Justice.

“‘We are told the spiritual Sun benefits those dedicated to The System for it is given specifically for God’s People living in The Community. This Sun is not accessible to those outside of The Community. This is true because the material sun is diseased due to Man’s thoughts and actions. It can be cured only by the spiritually devoted through the spiritual Sun.

“From out of the various religions of the world an Order of Patriarchs would emerge to form a holy Order. Women would also become Matriarchs and disciples of this Order.’”

“After speaking these words, The Man broke a golden seal binding two scrolls, and removing a silken ribbon, he began to read.”

We will review the Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings next week.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene
