The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"That an authoritative Seer Child should appear in modern times is not without prophetic precedent. The final descent of a cosmic being in the guise of a Child Genius, a bringer of peace and truth, has a long history behind it, spanning many thousands of years. Fragments of recovered Dead Sea Scrolls left by the monks of Qumran, or the Essenes, from which Jesus is believed to have sprung, mention an expected Wondrous Child, a Divine Counsellor, bearing unmistakable body marks, who would come at a future time to inaugurate a new age. Chosen of God, his life and very breath were to be pre-ordained. Like Moses and Jesus, who displayed advanced full-grown natures early in life, the Child Prodigy would attain early maturity in his second year, revealing heavenly knowledge to which the average mortal does not have access. In addition, the heaven-sent Child would serve as a precursor of some great, future cosmic event. (From fragmentary scroll texts from the Qumran Dead Sea Literature.)

"In the Hebrew scriptures, the Prophet Isaiah wrote of a coming new age of peace at a time when "the wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them." (Isaiah 11:6)

"Jesus, who often spoke in cryptic parables to his disciples, mentions the coming Child in allegorical terms: "At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, "Who is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?" He called a child, whom he put among them, and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like children, you will never enter the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever becomes humble like this child is the greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me." (Matthew 18:1-5)"

“Soul Song – Sing With Gusto”

Soul Song

“From the writings of the ancient philosophers of all races, from the songs of the great poets of all peoples, from the preachings of the prophets of all religions and times we can gather traces of this illumination which has come to them – this unfoldment of the spiritual consciousness. We have not the space to numerate these numerous instances. One has told of it in one way, the other in another; but all tell practically the same story. All who have experienced the illumination, even in a faint degree, recognize the like experience in the tale, song, or preaching of another, though centuries may roll between them. It is the song of the Soul, which when once heard is never forgotten. Though it be sounded by the crude instrument of of the semi-barbarian races or the finished instruments of the talented musicians of today, its strains are plainly recognized. From old Egypt comes the song from India in all ages – from Ancient Greece and Rome from the early Christian saint – from the Quaker Friend – from the Catholic monasteries from the Mohammedan mosque – from the Chinese philosopher – from the legends of the American Indian hero prophet – it is always the same strain, and it is swelling louder and louder, as many more are taking it up and adding their voices or the sound of their instruments to the grand chorus.” ~William Walker Atkinson

Writings of the Philosophers

Actually, many of the great spiritual philosophers of times past didn't write down much, if any, of their teachings. They were passed from master to students orally. Fortunately for us, a few of those students did write down some of it, but because of their pledges of secrecy, it is always codified in legends and allegorical tales. Yet enough has survived of the philosophies of Pythagoras, Plato, Rumi, and others to let us know that the path of enlightenment does exist, though it is a long and sometimes perilous journey.

In Songs and More

The writings of the philosophers and their early students are not the only place where one can find guidance on the path to illumination. The Soul Song is found in music, poetry, paintings, statues, architecture, and even in modern movies. Sometimes it was put there intentionally, but often it wasn't.

Sometimes the musician, sculptor, screenwriter, etc. is inspired by a spiritual muse without even realizing it.

It is hidden in simple folk songs like "You are my Sunshine" and rock songs like "Age of Aquarius". You expect to find some of it hidden in movies like "Father Sun, Sister Moon," the film about the spiritual awakening of St. Francis, but not in an animated film about cavemen like "The Crudes," yet there it is if you know enough to recognize it.

To most viewers, The Crudes is a simple comedy about a more primitive family of cavemen who are forced to learn some new ways by a young caveman from a more advanced tribe. But it also has these, spiritual lessons, and more. First, the primitive cavemen are always hiding in their cave from a big cat that chases them. When circumstances force them to abandon that cave, they learn that their assumption was wrong. The cat didn't want to eat them, it was lonely and wanted someone to play with! They also learn that going to new places and learning new things is not so bad after all, even when it does include learning about the cute little pink birds, which turn out to be like flying Piranhas that attack animals in a swarm leaving behind nothing but bones. And they are reminded regularly by the advanced caveman (spiritual guru) to "Go forward, go toward the Light, toward the Sun, that is where you will find safety." A valuable lesson for all, if we but understood the allegory.

Once Heard, Never Forgotten

Yes, we are inspired by songs, poems, legends, and myths with hidden spiritual meaning, and that is why they tend to stick with us, even if we haven't figured them out yet. But more importantly, as Atkinson says, even those who have had but a faint glimpse of the spiritual world, a single listen of the soul song, they remember it and began to recognize it in unexpected places. That will keep happening until they make the soul song their theme song and devote themselves full to spiritual growth and illumination. The soul song does indeed lead us to higher and higher levels of consciousness until we achieve the highest level and become one with God, one with the All.

“Cosmology of the Electric Universe, Part 2 – Body of the Galaxy”

Cosmology of the Electric Universe, Part 2 – Body of the Galaxy.

Previously we looked at how the electrical systems of the Earth and planets exist in the larger electrical body of the Sun. Now we shift up in scale to describe the relationship of each star to the larger Galactic body of which it is a part, like our own Sun which lives inside the Milky Way Galaxy.

In this second of a two-part presentation, Michael Clarage, PhD, Lead Scientist of The SAFIRE Project, proposes that galaxies transform the great currents and fluxes that course through our universe as a whole.

Dr. Clarage also proposes that human beings can transform to emit greater amounts of energy and work with higher frequencies.

10th Annual Shelter from the Storm Event Attended

Bishop Gene Savoy Jr. and his daughter Sonya Savoy, acting respectively as representatives of the International Community of Christ and Steamboat Hot Springs, attended the 10th annual Shelter From the Storm, a fundraising event sponsored by Volunteers of America.

Bishop Gene has been a member of the organization's advisory board for over a decade and served as an ambassador for the event, which raises money to run homeless shelters for men, women, and children in downtown Reno.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: July 21, 2021

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

July 21, 2021

Good morning. For those of you in the Northern Hemisphere, I hope you have been enjoying the Summer. My family and I recently returned from a few restful days at Lake Tahoe. A friend of mine was kind enough to let us use his vacation home.

We will now resume our review of The Secret Sayings of Jamil with the 20th and 21st Sayings.

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 1)

“The Man, the chosen and beloved disciple of Jamil, returned to the Emerald Isles to join in fellowship with The Mariners and Companions of The Way. And on the eleventh day of November, in the nineteen hundred and eightieth year of the Christian calendar, the twenty-first year following The Child’s birth, in the eighteen year of the Second Advent of God, The Man climbed with his followers to the heights of a forested hill in the valley called Makaha. And they sat down together amidst the ruins of an ancient temple for he would reveal to them the Twentieth and Twenty-First Sayings of Jamil as he had promised to do.

“But The Man was saddened this day for he had news that his father was near death. And he felt a part of himself dying with his father. And he was moved to silence and could not read from the scrolls. And that night his father did pass out of the world of the living at the age of eighty-eight years.

“The following day, The Man boarded the Ship of Light in company with the Seafarers and Companions of The Way, and sailed out of the harbor beneath a resplendent rainbow arching the sky. It was the twelve hundred and forty-fifth day after the Ship of Light had sailed from its home port on the mainland of America, and the five hundred and twenty-seventh day in the Emerald Isles.

“Throughout the day they sailed on the blue waters of the Pacific, driven by a freshening breeze. And The Man felt the pulse of his father’s spirit within his own. And he was at oneness with him, knowing that his father had returned to the source of his own being as do the aged who, broken by the pains of a tired body and restless spirit, seek God in their own way.

“And he felt no further sorrow or loss, knowing that his father had found peace in death. And he looked at the sun with eyes made for Light and prayed that his father would know of his love for him.

“That evening after the darkened sea had swallowed up a fiery red sun and they had dined together, The Mariners and Companions of The Way sat before The Man awaiting his words. And he spoke unto them saying:

“‘You have received nineteen of the Sayings of Jamil. And these sayings of the Seer Child, especially when combined with the prophecies he has revealed to us, instruct us in the formation of a New Religion on earth. And I say a New Religion because the Messenger of God, come in the guise of an innocent child, has shown us The Way in a modern world – how to express the religious life in a higher form than given to us by any of the world’s religions. The world’s religions do not teach The Way.

“‘For example, in the Christian religion, we are left with a belief system which does not teach us the religion of Christ, nor how to find the Godhead, or our Godhood. We are told to believe in Jesus, but there is no grand design for the establishment of a universal theocracy by enlightened men and women living The Way of God. The Church is static, frozen to what occurred two thousand years ago.

“‘The Child continues to inspire us from Heaven, continually revealing truths of a new dispensation for the world. He has revived older truths that are eternal and are as valid for us today as they were for Man centuries ago. But more than this, the Man-Child has supplemented these truths with new teachings which fulfill the older religions and create a new one. That is what I mean when I say that Jamil has brought us a New Religion.

“‘The Sayings and other revelations of Jamil, including the Prophecies, give us profound material for thought. The first nineteen Sayings tell us that a future religion, prophesied by the ancients, was destined to usher forth out of the Central Sun at some future date, and that this religion would cast out Darkness from the world. We were also told that this new prophetic religion would generate a fellowship of Immortals, that a School of Light would come into existence to instruct Teachers, that these Teachers would become God’s agents and be empowered by the sun, and that they would eventually triumph over the world.

“‘The School of Light formed of the Immortals would instruct the nations of the world in the new laws and statutes of God. The future nations and governments would be judged by God’s Sun of Justice.

“‘We are told the spiritual Sun benefits those dedicated to The System for it is given specifically for God’s People living in The Community. This Sun is not accessible to those outside of The Community. This is true because the material sun is diseased due to Man’s thoughts and actions. It can be cured only by the spiritually devoted through the spiritual Sun.

“From out of the various religions of the world an Order of Patriarchs would emerge to form a holy Order. Women would also become Matriarchs and disciples of this Order.’”

“After speaking these words, The Man broke a golden seal binding two scrolls, and removing a silken ribbon, he began to read.”

We will review the Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings next week.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy Sr.

"The spiritual universe cannot be described in the scientific terms of the material physicist. It can only be described in a mystical language understood by spiritual consciousness. If this consciousness is not developed by means of a transformation of man's spiritual potential, there can be no understanding; none but the enlightened can hope to understand. Therefore, the role of any mystic religion is to teach man how to attain this transformation of self. The old priests of Athens, who came under strong criticism by the scientist, and the layman who is often influenced by scientific thinking, knew and know the dangers of the materialistic attitude. This attitude devalued man, made an animal of him, and brought him down from his celestial abode."

“Mega-Tsunamis, Chinese Junks and Port Phillip Bay”

Original Post February 10, 2012

The Australian Bunurong tribe recorded the catastrophic formation of Melbourne’s Port Phillip Bay in their mythology.

“Plenty long ago, you could walk dry foot from our side of the bay to Corio. Then, in a night of destruction, great tornadoes uprooted all the trees and giant seas rushed in through the headlands. The land sunk under shattering earthquakes and the seas became void and deep, just as they are today.” Georgiana McCrae

When did these events occur? In 1450 AD, the catastrophic comet Mahuika descended upon the coast of New Zealand. Reputed to be twenty-six times as bright as the Sun, it discharged electrically and shattered Admiral Zhou Man’s Chinese fleet of some sixty ships. The fleet supported a thriving Chinese colony of Han, Tang and Song, mining gold, jade and antimony in New Zealand. The comet’s screaming noise blew out the sailors’ eardrums; they received horrific burns.

Earthquakes and gigantic waves that could have been more than 200 metres high tossed the ships upside down like matchsticks, whilst the intense heat caused the masts and rigging to catch fire. Zhou Man’s wrecked hulks hurtled across the seas to New Zealand and southeast Australia fanned by 600 kilometre per hour winds. Junks were flung ashore at Bairnsdale, Warrnambool, King Island, Kangaroo Island and even the tip of West Australia. Sound incredible?
