

“An Examination of ‘Gravitational Waves’”

“On February 11, 2016, a team of scientists announced the “discovery” of gravitational waves, or so-called ripples in space/time. Science media have proclaimed the purported discovery a confirmation of a prediction of Einstein’s General Theory of Relativity.

“In this Space News report, physicist Wal Thornhill begins coverage of the issue with a skeptical examination of the ‘discovery’ – a skepticism thus far startlingly absent in science media.”

“Generosity has Value for Spiritual Growth”

Anathapindika, who lived 2,600 years ago, was an early follower of the Buddha. Anathapindika was a businessman who was very generous, and he used his time and energy to help the destitute people of his city. He gave away a lot of his wealth to the poor, yet he did not become less wealthy. He received a lot of happiness. ...

“One day the Buddha learned that his beloved disciple, Anathapindika, was very sick. He went to visit him and urged Anathapindika to practice mindful breathing while in bed. ...

“The first question Shariputra asked was, ‘Dear friend Anathapindika, how do you feel? Is the pain in your body growing worse, or has it begun to lessen?’ Anathapindika said, “No, friends, the pain in me is not lessening. It is getting worse all the time.’ ...

“Shariputra invited Anathapindika to breathe in and out mindfully and to focus his attention on his happiest recollections: his work for the poor, his many acts of generosity, and the love and compassion he shared with his family and his fellow students of the Buddha. In just five or six minutes, the pain that Anathapindika had been feeling throughout his body lessened as the seeds of happiness in him were watered, and he smiled. Watering the seeds of happiness is a very important practice for those who are sick or dying.” ~Thich Nhat Hanh

Value of Generosity

I heard somewhere that J. K. Rowling, author of the Harry Potter books, was the first person to make it to the billionaires list, then get removed because she donated so much to charity, she was no longer a billionaire. I'm sure nearly all those still on that list think she is a fool. Actually, they are the fools. Their greed will not make them healthy. It won't give them a long life. And it usually doesn't even make them happy. They live in fear of being robbed, or in some other way losing what they value most: Money.

That don't understand what Rowling and all spiritual people do.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: July 19, 2019

CŌSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

July 19, 2019

In this Community, we know that the Christian churches that claim to have succeeded the ministry of Jesus have not carried on the tradition of spiritual rebirth as taught by him. Furthermore, they have not preserved the Sacred Teachings on the source of Divine Nourishment – a prerequisite to a reborn Soul – as proclaimed by Jesus, nor have they preserved knowledge of The Way that was essential to his followers.

Like the priests of the orthodox sects in control of the Temple in Jerusalem, opposed by Jesus and his followers, the churches have carried on the more secular tradition of the old Law, making of Jesus a sacrifice to a wrathful and vengeful god as atonement for the sins of man. This secular tradition merely replaced the sacrifice of animals, thus preserving the worship of an earth deity, a practice common to the pagan religions of antiquity.

The Sacred Doctrine of the Appearance of God's Image and Word as a living, creative Force regulated by Heavenly Law was lost by the persecution and martyrdom of Jesus's followers. Thus, the knowledge of the True God entrusted into their care by Jesus as Messiah, Teacher, and Interpreter of the Law was lost.

As a consequence, the churches became apostate, teaching the greatest of all heresies: That God's Word is confined to the pages of biblical scripture. This heresy was compounded by the doctrine that salvation of the Soul is attained by faith and belief rather than by a spiritual transformation of the Spirit as a Divine Process regulated by the Living Word of God manifest in The Image of Light sent from Heaven, and not by written law, sacrament, dogma or creed.

Jesus – the Messenger of God, sent to teach The Way – was elevated to the Godhead, worshiped and adored as were the gods of primitive religions. Knowledge of The Way he revealed to his followers was rejected, misunderstood, and put aside.

Just as the Holy Spirit had departed Israel in earlier times with the breaking of the Covenant and the passing away of the prophets, the Holy Spirit departed Israel a second time with the crucifixion of Jesus. The Covenant had been renewed afresh by amendments and supplements under Jesus in a new and more meaningful manner. Jesus had revealed to his disciples the Way of the New Covenant and the fountainhead of the True Bread of Life.

And, as scripture says, they did eat and were satisfied according to The Word of God. The Light of God manifest in the spiritual Sun was their source of food during the daylight hours. God had given them Heavenly Bread to eat and the Living Waters of Fire. As a new generation of man that had evolved over countless centuries, the ascetic mystics under Jesus were able to absorb the rays of the sun according to sacred and ancient rites for which they were prepared – something not possible for the novice. Only at night, after the sun had set, did they eat of earthly food; and then, only with prayers, according to their tradition. By these means, God dwelled with those of the Righteous Community who disciplined their physical bodies while allowing their Spirits to commune with the Light manifest.

The New Covenant – declared by Jesus to the sect that had awaited his coming since their withdrawal into the desert away from the formalized religion of Israel – was to begin a new era for humanity; a returning to the Godhead and a renewal of the human Spirit in preparation for the coming Messianic Kingdom promised by God to be established at His Second Advent in the end times of the Earth.

As I emphasize, with the crucifixion of Jesus, the martyrdom of his disciples, and the continued persecution over time of the faithful remnant of the sect who preserved the Teachings revealed by Jesus, the sacred doctrines were lost to the later communities and churches who created a faith system out of the scattered teachings that remained. Hebrew scripture was seized upon and used as a basis for the new religion, proclaimed as Christianity in the ensuing centuries.

The formalized religion that followed did more to perpetuate orthodox Judaism and the Mosaic Law, with their emphasis on blood sacrifice and atonement, than it did to reveal the True God preached by Jesus. What followed, in place of the transforming spiritual Process of new birth and life as taught by Jesus exemplifying the new spiritual man, was a belief system of dogmatic concepts, worship, and symbolic ritualistic sacrifice, which only tended to give renewed life to older teachings.

The Holy Spirit – which had been renewed under Jesus and again at Pentecost when the manifesting Image and Word was declared, not in human speech but in the language of Spirit incarnating in those renewed Souls gathered under the spiritual Sun – for a second time departed the land and its people. However, in accordance with the prophecy of Jesus, God's Light would shine forth in the Advent of His Final Appearance in greater magnitude than it had before.

Once again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene

A Modern Spiritual Community whose members engage in advanced Sun Gazing

There has been much interest in recent years on the practice of solar light absorption or what is popularly known as “sun gazing.” But not all sun-gazing methods are the same. Having knowledge of the System and understanding it, new students of Cosolargy can accomplish on the human level what the ancient practitioners accomplished with the spiritual sun. We invite you to take a look at the new site and let us know what you think. Above is an image from the Sun Gazing page and the button below will take you right there.

July 13, 2019: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

A Reading from The Book of God's Revelation, BOOK II: "The Seal of God's New Law" (pp. 148-157).

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Gospel of John, Chapter 1:

*In the beginning was the Word
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God.
Through Him everything came to be.
What came to be in Him was life
and life was the light of all people
and the light in the darkness shone
and the darkness could not apprehend the light.*

*There was a man sent from God.
His name was John.
He came as a witness in testimony of the light
so that all might believe through him.
He was not the light,
but he came to testify about the light.
The light was the true light,
which illuminates every person
who comes into the world.*

*He was in the world
and through him the world was born,
and the world did not know him.
He went to his own
and his own did not receive him.*

To all who received him

*he gave power to become the Children of God,
to those who believed in his name,
who were born not from blood
or from the will of the flesh
or from the will of a man,
but were born of God.*

“Is Sunscreen the New

Margarine?"

Current guidelines for sun exposure are unhealthy and unscientific, controversial new research suggests—and quite possibly even racist. How did we get it so wrong?

“These are dark days for supplements. Although they are a $30-plus billion market in the United States alone, vitamin A, vitamin C, vitamin E, selenium, beta-carotene, glucosamine, chondroitin, and fish oil have now flopped in study after study.

“If there was one supplement that seemed sure to survive the rigorous tests, it was vitamin D. People with low levels of vitamin D in their blood have significantly higher rates of virtually every disease and disorder you can think of: cancer, diabetes, obesity, osteoporosis, heart attack, stroke, depression, cognitive impairment, autoimmune conditions, and more. The vitamin is required for calcium absorption and is thus essential for bone health, but as evidence mounted that lower levels of vitamin D were associated with so many diseases, health experts began suspecting that it was involved in many other biological processes as well.

“And they believed that most of us weren’t getting enough of it. This made sense. Vitamin D is a hormone manufactured by the skin with the help of sunlight. It’s difficult to obtain in sufficient quantities through diet. When our ancestors lived outdoors in tropical regions and ran around half naked, this wasn’t a problem. We produced all the vitamin D we needed from the sun.

“But today most of us have indoor jobs, and when we do go outside, we’ve been taught to protect ourselves from dangerous UV rays, which can cause skin cancer. Sunscreen also blocks our skin from making vitamin D, but that’s OK, says the American Academy of Dermatology, which takes a zero-tolerance stance on sun exposure: “You need to protect your skin from the sun every day, even when it’s cloudy,” it advises on its website. Better to slather on sunblock, we’ve all been told, and compensate with vitamin D pills.

“Yet vitamin D supplementation has failed spectacularly in clinical trials. Five years ago, researchers were already warning that it showed zero benefit, and the evidence has only grown stronger. In November, one of the largest and most rigorous trials of the vitamin ever conducted—in which 25,871 participants received high doses for five years—found no impact on cancer, heart disease, or stroke.

“How did we get it so wrong? How could people with low vitamin D levels clearly suffer higher rates of so many diseases and yet not be helped by supplementation?

“As it turns out, a rogue band of researchers has had an explanation all along. And if they’re right, it means that once again we have been epically misled.”

“The Great University of the Coming Golden Age”

"The great university will be divided into grades, admission to which will be through preliminary tests or initiations. Here mankind will be instructed in the most sacred, the most secret, and the most enduring of all Mysteries—Symbolism. The initiate will be taught that every visible object, every abstract thought, every emotional reaction is but the symbol of an eternal principle. Here mankind will learn that Chiram (Truth) lies buried in every atom of Cosmos; that every form is a symbol and every symbol the tomb of an eternal verity. Through education—spiritual, mental, moral, and physical—man will learn to release living truths from their lifeless coverings.

"The perfect government of the earth must be patterned after the divine government by which the universe is ordered. In that day when perfect order is reestablished, ... men will no longer seek for happiness, for they shall find it welling up within themselves. ... Then shall sages sit upon the seats of the mighty and the gods walk with men.” ~Manly P Hall

The Great University

This university will have a spiritual orientation rather than a material one. It will be a university that meets the original definition of that word, which is a school that teaches universal truth. It will be controlled by spiritual masters rather than politicians and corporate leaders. They will not have the task of turning people into compliant workers, but of helping them awaken their creative spiritual powers. It will help lead them on the path, but it will not walk it for them. Each of us must eventually walk the True Path himself. The True Path, not one we make up ourselves in our own limited mind.
