

“Thought Strength for Physical and Spiritual Success”

“Your thought is your real strength. When you lift a weight, you put your thought on the muscle that lifts. The heavier the weight, the more of your thought do you put on it. If, in so lifting, a part of your thoughts is turned in some other directions, if someone talks to you, if somethings frightens or annoys you, a part of your strength or thought leaves you. It goes to whatever has taken away a part of your attention from lifting. It is mind, thought, spirit, that uses the muscles to lift, as we use a rope to pull up a weight. There is no lifting or working without intelligence.” Prentice Mulford

Thought Strength

I am writing this while the Winter Olympics are taking place.

Interviews of the athletes, and the comments by reporters, tell us one important thing. The strength of the athletes mind is as important as the strength of his body. I would go so far as to say that very often the winner is the one with the strongest, most disciplined, mind rather than the one with the strongest muscles. It is often the winner thought strength that makes her the winner.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: July 12, 2018

CŌSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

July 12, 2018

Last week, we were touching on the Kingdom of Light as not being part of the physical universe, the physical senses, emotion or the mind; and that this, in fact, was an essential component to the message of Jesus. His teaching emphasized rebirth of the Soul through the seminal agency of the Godhead by means of Light.

The secular religion of the Jerusalem priesthood in control of the Temple at the time of Jesus' ministry, like so many state-regulated religions of the world at large, had become deficient in knowledge of the True God as preached by Jesus. The priesthood, ignorant of the True God, based their theology on a traditional form of worship, on sacrifice and levitical purity, on moral laws and written scripture that dominated their way of life. The priests considered the teachings of Jesus to be heretical. He was punished and eventually put to death for attempting to alter that which was written.

The Christian Churches that claim to have succeeded the ministry of Jesus have not carried on the tradition of spiritual rebirth by means of the Appearance of God's Image and Word. Furthermore, they have not preserved the Sacred Teachings on the source of Divine Nourishment, prerequisite to a reborn Soul, as proclaimed by Jesus, nor have they preserved knowledge of The Way that was essential to his followers. Like the priests of those orthodox sects in control of the Temple in Jerusalem, opposed by Jesus and his followers, the Churches have carried on the more secular tradition of the old Law, making of Jesus a sacrifice to a wrathful and vengeful god as atonement for the sins of man. By so doing, this secular tradition merely replaced the sacrifice of innocent animals, thus preserving the worship of an earth deity, a practice common to the pagan religions of antiquity.

The Sacred Doctrine of the Appearance of God's Image and Word as a living, creative force regulated by Heavenly Law was lost by the failure of Jesus's followers to preserve the knowledge of the True God, entrusted into their care by Jesus as Messias, Teacher, and Interpreter of the Law. As a consequence, the Churches became apostate, teaching the greatest of all heresies: that God's Word is perpetuated by the Churches and that it is confined to the pages of Biblical scripture. These heresies were compounded by the doctrine that salvation of the Soul is attained by faith and belief rather than by a spiritual transformation of the Spirit as a Divine Process regulated by the Living Word of God, manifest in The Image of Light sent from Heaven, and not by written law, sacrament, dogma, or creed. Jesus – Messenger of God, sent to teach The Way – was elevated to the Godhead, worshiped and adored as were the gods of primitive religions. Knowledge of The Way he revealed to his followers was rejected, misunderstood, and put aside.

The Holy Spirit had departed Israel following the breaking of the Covenant and the passing away of the prophets. The Covenant had been renewed afresh by amendments and supplements under Jesus in a new and more meaningful manner. Jesus had revealed to his sect – the Essenes who had held to the Old Covenant – the Way of the New Covenant and the fountainhead of the True Bread of Life. And, as scripture states, they did eat and were satisfied according to the Word of God. The Light of God manifest in the spiritual Sun was their source of food during the daylight hours. God had given them Heavenly Bread to eat and the Living Waters of Fire. As a new generation of Man that had evolved over countless centuries, the ascetics under Jesus were able to absorb the rays of the sun according to sacred and ancient rites for which they were prepared – something not possible for the novice. Only at night, after the sun had set, did they eat of earthly food, and then only with prayers according to their tradition. By these means God dwelled with those of the Righteous Community who disciplined their physical bodies while allowing their Spirits to commune with the Light manifest.

The New Covenant – declared by Jesus to the sect that had awaited his coming since their withdrawal into the desert, away from the formalized religion of Israel – was to begin a new era for humanity; a returning to the Godhead and a renewal of the human Spirit in preparation for the coming Messianic Kingdom promised by God, to be established at His Second Advent in the End Times of the Earth.

With the crucifixion of Jesus, the martyrdom of his disciples, and the continued persecution of the faithful remnant of the sect who preserved the Teachings revealed by Jesus, the sacred doctrines were lost to the later communities and churches who created a faith system out of the scattered teachings that remained. Hebrew scripture was seized upon and used as a basis for the new religion, proclaimed as Christianity in the ensuing centuries. The formalized religion that followed did more to perpetuate orthodox Judaism and the Mosaic Law, with emphasis on blood sacrifice and atonement, than it did to reveal the True God preached by Jesus.

What followed, in place of the transforming spiritual Process of new birth and life – exemplifying the new spiritual man – as taught by Jesus, was a belief system of dogmatic concepts, worship, and symbolic ritualistic sacrifice, which only tended to give renewed life to older teachings. The Holy Spirit, which had been renewed under Jesus and again at Pentecost when the manifesting Image and Word was declared, not in human speech but in the language of Spirit incarnating in those renewed Souls gathered under the spiritual Sun, for a second time departed the land and its people.

However, in accordance with the prophecy of Jesus, God's Light would shine forth in the Advent of His Final Appearance in greater magnitude than it ever had before.

July 14, 2018: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Gospel of John, Chapter 1:

*In the beginning was the Word
and the Word was with God,
and the Word was God.
He was in the beginning with God.
Through Him everything came to be.
What came to be in Him was life
and life was the light of all people and the light in the darkness shone
and the darkness could not apprehend the light.*

*There was a man sent from God.
His name was John.
He came as a witness in testimony of the light
so that all might believe through him.
He was not the light,
but he came to testify about the light.
The light was the true light,
which illuminates every person
who comes into the world.*

*He was in the world
and through him the world was born,
and the world did not know him.
He went to his own*

and his own did not receive him.

*To all who received him
he gave power to become the Children of God,
to those who believed in his name,
who were born not from blood
or from the will of the flesh
or from the will of a man,
but were born of God.*

“Light-based therapy for Alzheimer’s disease”

Alzheimer’s disease, which affects more than 5 million people in the United States, is characterized by beta amyloid plaques that are suspected to be harmful to brain cells and to interfere with normal brain function. Previous studies have hinted that Alzheimer’s patients also have impaired gamma oscillations. These brain waves, which range from 25 to 80 hertz (cycles per second), are believed to contribute to normal brain functions such as attention, perception, and memory.

Using LED lights flickering at a specific frequency, MIT researchers have shown that they can substantially reduce the beta amyloid plaques seen in Alzheimer’s disease, in the visual cortex of mice. This treatment appears to work by inducing brain waves known as gamma oscillations, which the researchers discovered help the brain suppress beta amyloid production and invigorate cells responsible for destroying the plaques.

This four minute video, by the researchers, gives an overview of their work:

“Personal Redemption, Myths and Allegory”

“Long periods of probation were imposed, so that the knowledge of how to become as the gods might remain the sole possession of the worthy. Lest that knowledge be lost, however, it was concealed in allegories and myths which were meaningless to the profane but self-evident to those acquainted with that theory of personal redemption. ... Christianity itself may be cited as an example. The entire New Testament is in fact an ingeniously concealed exposition of the secret processes of human regeneration. The characters ... are really the personification of certain processes which take place in the human body when one begins the task of consciously liberating himself. ...

“The garments and ornamentation supposedly worn by the gods are also keys, for in the Mysteries clothing was considered as synonymous with form. The degree of spirituality or materialism of the organism was signified by the quality, beauty, and value of the garments worn.” ~Manly P. Hall

Myths and Allegory

Some Christians don't like the idea that many of the stories found in the Bible, especially the New Testament are allegorical. They think that they cannot be true, historical events, and also allegorical. That is not the case.

Jesus carefully chose his twelve Apostles so that they would have an allegorical meaning. They were still real people. Jesus may have actually turned water to wine at a wedding. But He chose to do that because it has great spiritual significance if one understands the allegory of the tale. And the disciples of Jesus didn't write down everything He did. For the most part, what was written was that which had an important spiritual lesson hid within the allegory of the story.

COSMOLARGY.INTERNATIONAL

July 5, 2018

In our Community of Light and in our Teaching of Light, we understand that the Heavenly Kingdom of Light is not part of the physical universe – that universe experienced by mortals – and that it is unattainable by mortal senses, emotion or mind. We know that it is only attainable by an awakened Soul brought to birth, reborn by God's Image and Word appearing in Divine Light. This birth is the result of a creative reproductive process in which the living Soul arises from a union of human Spirit and the Seminal Reason of God's Word transported by The Image in solar light.

Seminal Reason, within the agency of light, impregnates the fertile Spirit, and a new Soul is conceived. In its initial stages of development, the Soul receives its nourishment from the sun. In later stages of maturity, it feeds on the Divine Presence in the Spiritual Sun, a source of Light and Energy in the Spiritual Universe. This is an important distinction to be made.

Jesus had preached on this Divine Process of procreation and rebirth of Man's Soul in the Image of God as essential to immortality. The Process was not a matter of written law or scripture or sacrifice, but a Holy Act regulated by the Divine Laws of Heaven. He had preached of the True God of Heaven – who was not the author or creator of this world – and had declared that those reborn must put away the ways of the world and live the Way of God.

Jesus had revealed to his disciples the Sacred Way – hidden from the world because of its shallowness, and held secret by those who followed The Way. They knew that humanity was the progeny of Dark Angels who, having fallen away from the Righteousness of God, lost the power of Spiritual Reason and caused to be generated the Dark Worlds which, in turn, generated the universe of matter.

Any person taking up The Way exposed oneself to the creative and generative forces of the Universe. Unless one led a righteous and disciplined life, a person being subject to powers greater than one's own human powers would seek self-expression – just as had the Dark Angels – and fall victim to their influence. Since time immemorial, these Dark Angels had established themselves as gods over men. As malevolent deities, they demanded sacrifice, appeasement and enslavement of the human intellect. In exchange for such worship, they offered material wealth and power. The result of their rule, then as now, could be observed on all levels of human activity and in the transitory nature of life in a degenerate world by any enlightened member of the Order.

I will touch more on this next week. In the meantime, please expect to receive a letter from me in the regular mail very soon in regards to some good news that we have been expecting for some time.

Once again, please feel free to ask me any questions by calling 775-786-7432 or emailing me at messages@cosolargy.org. I am always at your service.
