Birth of The Holy Child, Jamil (1959)

Fifty-nine years ago today, a miraculous and wondrous Seer

Child came into this world leaving a spiritual legacy that continues to inspire seekers of truth around the world. Our School and Community preserve this legacy to assure that those evolved people for whom it was intended may fall heir to the transforming Teaching he revealed.

The story of Jamil is recounted in the book of the same name. Fourteen additional texts speak of the Prophecies and Sayings of The Child. However, it is important to understand that these written words are supplemented by our the Oral Teachings, which we are privileged to receive in the Sacred College. Without the Oral Teaching, the written word cannot be fully understood. This follows in the tradition of all the Holy Masters, including the Buddha, Zoroaster, Quetzalcoatl, Jesus and the Messianic Church whose mystics transmitted concealed teachings to their disciples by word of mouth. This practice was the standard of instruction in the early Christian Church which preceded the later open and public churches.

Jamil restored the secret oral Gospel that was lost with the martyrdom of Jesus and his disciples and immediate followers. Now restored, the secret Oral Teaching constitute a regenerating process which gives new meaning to the mystery of Christ Jesus' message and extends to the sincere seeker the authentic methods utilized by early Christians and others for rebirth of the spiritual Light Body or Soul. This divine Process has not only been restored, but it has been amended and supplemented with vital new techniques and information for use by modern people in modern times existing in totally new environmental conditions. Once experienced by those applying the Process, which we call the System of Cosolargy and the Sacred Teachings of Light, the transforming process testifies to the power and truth of universal cosmic laws.

That an authoritative Seer Child would appear in modern times is not without prophetic and scriptural precedent spanning many thousands of years. The Dead Sea Scrolls of the Essenes of which Jesus was a part mention an expected Wondrous Child bearing unmistakable body marks who would come at a future time to inaugurate a new age. The Prophet Isaiah tells of a coming time of peace when "The wolf shall live with the lamb, the leopard shall lie down with the kid, the calf and the young lion and the fatling together, and a little child shall lead them." And even Jesus says "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me." Even in the mystical Gospel of Thomas, Jesus says to Thomas "Let the old man heavy with days hesitate not to ask the little child of seven days about the place of life, and he will live."

Ancient Persian books speak of a coming child who will leave the world but who will manifest himself out of the Light. He is referred to as the Child of the Word. Various Jain and Buddhist scriptures also speak of this Child who would come to fulfill Man's longing for universal peace and tranquility under a just and creative cosmic power. And, ancient Indian mythic tradition tells of the Miraculous Babe, the Mahapurusa Cakravartin, who would come into the world at a future time. He would proclaim that the old Sun would experience a transformation and that a new Sun would shine healing rays upon all living things equally without distinction. Indeed, the Cakravartin's symbol is the sun wheel itself.

Islamic legend tells of the coming of the Man of the Mahd (cradle), the Mahdi or the Divinely Guided One, with whose advent mankind will experience and enjoy greater blessings than ever before. He is said to be marked with the Seal of Prophecy. Even in ancient Egypt, in the center of the Temple of Annu, was the great Hall of the Child with a depiction of a Sun Child sitting in a lotus.

We can also cite from the Zoroastrian Zend Avesta, as well as from the Sibylline Oracles. Even Rome's Virgil treats of the Wonder Child of God to be sent as a king from the Sun at whose birth the transformation of nature and the intensification of the Golden Age signs would begin: "But at the time when heavenly grace shall rule, and when a holy child shall utterly destroy all wickedness, opening for baleful mortals the abyss."

Jamil appeared in our modern age. He was a Messenger of Light whose revelations give new hope for humanity's spiritual aspirations. As God's Messenger, as the Brother to all previous Messengers, he endowed the world with keys to salvation. That he passed out of this world at the age of three years is in keeping with the Mandaean prophecy that tells of the Messenger of Light returning to immortal realms:

"I am the Messenger of Light whom the great God sent into the world. The true Messenger am I in whom there is no falsehood. Whoever receives God's word and doctrine, his eyes are filled with light and his mouth is filled with praise and his heart is filled with wisdom...I prepared a way for the good ones and made a gateway for the world...How many times have I come into the world? How many times they took not notice of me. With my final proclamation I depart the world never to return. My spirit and soul return to God."

March 10, 2018: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Teachings of Confucius:

"The superior man accords himself with the Middle Way. Though he may be unknown, unregarded by the world, he feels no regret. It is only the sage who is able to do this. The way that the superior man pursues reaches wide and far, and yet is secret. Common men and women, however ignorant, may meddle with the knowledge of it; yet in its utmost reaches, there is that which even the sage does not know. Common men and women, however much below the ordinary standard of character, can put it into practice; yet in its utmost reaches, there is that which even the sage is not able to put into practice. The way of the superior man may be found, in its simple elements, in the society of common men and women; but in its utmost reaches, it shines brightly through Heaven and earth."

The Master said, "The path is not far from man. When men try to pursue a course that is far from the common indications of consciousness, this course cannot be considered The Path. Therefore, the superior man governs men according to their nature, with what is proper to them, and as soon as they change what is wrong, he stops."

"When one cultivates to the utmost the principles of his nature, and exercises them on the principle of reciprocity, he is not far from the path. What you do not like when done to yourself, do not do to others."

“Seeing Inside the Sun”

“Dr. Robert Stein, professor of Physics and Astronomy at Michigan State University has long envisioned a day when he could use supercomputer programs to ‘see’ through the roiling surface of the sun and glimpse its dynamic interior. He describes his quest and offers ideas about what drives the violent outbursts known as coronal mass ejections, or CMEs, known to disrupt the electrical systems that power our civilization.”

“Cosmic Order and the Universe”

“But the life in the Cosmos, the life which carries the leading principle of the universe, still needs elucidation; does it operate without calculation, without searching into what ought to be done?”

“Yes: for what must be stands shaped before the Cosmos, and is ordered without any setting in order; the ordering things are merely the things that come to be; and the principle that brings them into being is Order itself. ...”

“The leading principle of the universe is a unity—and one that is sovereign without break, not sometimes dominant and sometimes dominated. ... And this governing unity must always desire the one thing; [unity].” ~Plotinus

Cosmos and Universe

“It is not clear when Plotinus speaks of the universe and the cosmos if he means them as two different things, or as two words that mean the same thing. A hint is found, however, in the fact that he writes Cosmos with a capital ‘C,’ and universe with a lower-case 'u'. This indicates to me that he thinks of them as different, and the Cosmos is the more important of the two. I will assume, therefore, that when he says 'Cosmos,' he means the spiritual realms, and when he says 'universe,' he means the dimensions of matter. Still, some of what he says about the Cosmos applies more to the universe, and vice-versa."

WEEKLY MESSAGE: March 8, 2018

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

March 8, 2018

Last week, we were touching on the subject of God's New Covenant with His People and how this New Covenant is intended for all members of the human family. And in our Teaching of Cosolargy, we teach that God's Grace is being shed through the Sun of Righteousness as Spiritual Light.

By living The Way of Light under the Spiritual Sun, our Spirits of Light are regenerated into Living Souls. We thereby become Angels of God made in His Likeness and Thought. Humanity's evolution back to the Godhead is possible only by application of certain principles that bring about a change within the human Spirit by means of Creative Powers. It is not possible in any other way. This is a universal concept taught by all the great Holy Teachers. The evolved Spirit, by its use and application of Creative Powers under God's Law and within the spiritual Community, is capable of having great positive change in the world because Spirit is stronger and more powerful than matter.

God's People are always those created in His Image – those reborn of Spirit, not those of the Earth. Jamil's purpose in coming into the world was to proclaim the Advent of God in Light. He left this world to return to the Source of his Being. Angelic Beings, such as he, come in human form from out of the Light from time to time in the history of Man to transmit Knowledge of God. This Knowledge is evolutionary and increases in intensity, purpose and importantly information with each succeeding Messenger. Jamil's mission as the Eternal Child of Light parallels Jesus' ministry. They both, inspired by the Image and Word of God, assumed human form in order to reveal The Way and the coming of God into the Universe.

God's Messengers make divine proclamations. They herald the coming of God's thearchy on Earth. They announce God as the Light of the world who now intercedes in world affairs by His visible immaculacy, first by the Image and the Word, and then through the Sun. They declare God's imminent return and direct rule over Creation by progressive restoration. They are the first anointed by God. They are the forerunners who signal God's intention to anoint every human being who accepts the Gift of Salvation and Redemption from the world of matter. They are the sons and daughters of Man. They are the Sons and Daughters of God obedient and consubstantial to God in the Image and the Word by which they are made eternal.

In this New Advent of God, God alone is Redeemer, Savior and Restorer. He has revealed His Divine Presence as the Image of Himself in Great Light, which is the True Intercessor, and the sole means of approaching Him. Within this Great Light is found God's Intelligible Thought which communicates with the sentient Soul giving it Consciousness and empowering it with spiritual perception, memory and comprehension of the Divine.

With God's appearance in the Sun, the human family has access to Creative Powers. As said, when put to use by the human Spirit, these Powers allow the human being to transcend the material universe and to penetrate into spiritual Realms. We know the material universe is undergoing change. But, just as the material sun that supports all biological life on Earth, so the spiritual Sun supports all spiritual Life and nourishes the Soul. If we believe that Man is more than just a biological species in contact with mutable life forces (which we do), then we have the potential to communicate with divine Intelligence which shapes and molds our spiritual Consciousness.

If the human species on the individual and collective levels is to survive the changes occurring in the world and the Universe, it must transcend its own mortality by a slow process of genetic change made possible through exposure to the physical energies emitted from the sun. In this way, and while at the same time, emerging as a new spiritual Species under the influence of the Light from the spiritual Sun, will the human species will be able to break away from out-worn social and religious customs that have shaped and enslaved it to environmental conditions which are now mutating. Only by these means will the races and the world be restored. This is the purpose of the System of Cosolargy.

Once again, please feel free to ask me any questions by calling 775-786-7432 or emailing me at messages@cosolargy.org. I am always at your service.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the First Letter of Peter:

Blessed be the God and Father, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled, and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God unto the salvation ready to be revealed in these last times. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you when Christ is revealed. As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former ignorance: But as he who has called you is holy, so be holy yourselves in your behavior, because it is written, "Be ye holy; for I am holy." And if you call on the Father, who without respect of persons judges everyone according to his works, pass the time of your sojourning here in reverence: For you know that you were not redeemed with something corruptible, such as silver and gold, from your vain manner of life that you received as tradition from your fathers; but with Christ. Who verily was foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you. Seeing that you have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit, have unfeigned love of the brethren; love one another with a pure heart fervently, since you are born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible seed; that is, by the Word of God, which lives and abides forever. For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withers, and the flower falls, but the Word of the Lord endures forever. And this is the Word you have received.

“Stellar corpse sheds light on origin of cosmic rays”

This composite image of the Crab Nebula was assembled with arbitrary color scaling by combining data from five telescopes spanning nearly the entire electromagnetic spectrum: the radio emission representing the wind of charged particles from the central neutron star in red (from the Karl G. Jansky Very Large Array), the infrared including the glow of dust particles absorbing ultraviolet and visible light in yellow (from the Spitzer Space Telescope), the visible-light image featuring the hot filamentary structures in green (from the Hubble Space Telescope), the ultraviolet image in blue and the X-ray image in purple showing the effect of an energetic cloud of electrons (from the XMM-Newton Observatory and the Chandra X-ray Observatory).

Credit: NASA / ESA / NRAO / AUI / NSF and G. Dubner (University of Buenos Aires)

The origin of cosmic rays, high-energy particles from outer space constantly impacting on Earth, is among the most challenging open questions in astrophysics. Now new research published in the journal Monthly Notices of the Royal Astronomical Society sheds new light on the origin of those energetic particles.

“Discovered more than 100 years ago and considered a potential health risk to airplane crews and astronauts, cosmic rays are believed to be produced by shock waves – for example, those resulting from supernova explosions. The most energetic cosmic rays streaking across the universe carry 10 to 100 million times the energy generated by particle colliders such as the Large Hadron Collider at CERN.

“The Crab Nebula, the remnant of a supernova explosion that was observed almost 1,000 years ago in A.D. 1054, is one of the best-studied objects in the history of astronomy and a known source of cosmic rays. It emits radiation across the entire electromagnetic spectrum, from gamma rays, ultraviolet and visible light, to infrared and radio waves. Most of what we see comes from very energetic particles (electrons), and astrophysicists can construct detailed models to try to reproduce the radiation that these particles emit.

“The new study, by Federico Fraschetti at the University of Arizona, USA, and Martin Pohl at the University of Potsdam, Germany, reveals that the electromagnetic radiation streaming from the Crab Nebula may originate in a different way than scientists have traditionally thought: The entire zoo of radiation can potentially be unified and arise from a single population of electrons, a hypothesis previously deemed impossible.”

“Fifth Epoch of Materialism and Sixth Epoch of Spirit”

“The descent into materialism was necessary in order that the fifth epoch might fulfill its mission. It was essential that astral and spiritual clairvoyance should grow dim in order that the intellect might develop by precise, minute and mathematical observation of the physical world. Physical science must be supplemented by spiritual science.

“Our fifth epoch will be followed by another, the sixth. This sixth epoch will see the development of brotherhood among men, clairvoyance and creative power. ... To the priest in the mysteries before Christ, there was harmony between science and faith. Science and faith were one and the same. ...

“Now that the attention of men is wholly directed to the physical world, faith has need of a refuge, of religion. ... In the sixth epoch, the two streams will again unite. Mechanical science will become spiritually creative. This will be Gnosis-spiritual consciousness.” ~Rudolf Steiner

Fifth Epoch

“I’m not sure Mr. Steiner is correct in saying that the descent into materialism was necessary. We cannot deny, however, that it has happened.

“It is certainly true that there are forces in the material world which act upon us in different ways. Without getting into the details that are reserved for spiritual students, some forces act to lift us and make us grow, while other pull us down deeper into matter and materialism. You might think of these forces as being the two wolves in the old Native American story. The wolf that is fed is the one that grows strong. In the last several centuries, the wolf we have fed is clearly the forces that pull us deeper into matter. We have reached a point where the materialistic scientists have become like priests to some. And to many, the existence of anything other than matter is laughed at. Fortunately, the fantasies of materialism do not change the reality.”
