

“Visions, Dreams, Intuition, and Remembering Them”

“Now when those experiences [of vivid dreams] during deep sleep first come to the notice of the student his next task must be to sense them as clearly and vividly as possible. At first this presents great difficulty the perception of these experiences being exceedingly slight. The student knows very well, on waking, that he has had an experience, but is completely in the dark regarding its nature. The most important thing during the initial stage is to remain quiet and composed, and not for a moment lapse into any unrest or impatience. The later is under all circumstances detrimental; it can never accelerate development, but only delay it. The student must cultivate a quiet and yielding receptivity for the gift that is presented to him.” ~Rudolf Steiner

Remembering Dreams and Visions

"Dreams, flashes, and visions can come to us in various circumstances. They usually happen during sleep, but can happen at any time. They almost always happen only when we are very relaxed and receptive.

"In the classic Science Fiction Movie Forbidden Planet, Walter Pidgeon as Dr. Mobius states, 'What man can remember his own dreams.' He doesn't ask it as a question, but states it as if saying 'no man can remember his own dreams.' In actual fact, it is a question. The answer to the question is 'Spiritual adepts, among others.' The spiritually trained student tends to remember his dreams more than the average person. And anyone can increase their chances of remembering their dreams by simply telling themselves before they doze off, "I will remember the dreams I have tonight."

The 30th Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Birthday Celebration, this year titled "Remember Reflect Renew" and presented by the Northern Nevada Black Cultural Awareness Society (NNBCAS), was a two-hour dinner program of speakers and awards. The event was held at 7:00 pm on Monday, January 15, 2018 at the Atlantis Casino Resort Spa.

Keynote speaker was journalist Dr. Sherri Williams, an assistant professor in race, media, and communication at American University. Proceeds from the dinner benefit youth programs and cultural events planned by NNBCAS throughout the year.

Rev. Robert Petrovich attended on behalf of the International Community of Christ Church, taking a place at the Nevada Interfaith Association table, along with nine other members of the organization. This year for the first time, the Onie Cooper Achievement Award was delivered as part of the NNBCAS dinner program rather than in a separate event.

Chapel of the Roses

Rev. Barbara Whitney

February 10, 2018: Chapel
Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Prophet Malachi:

I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come," says the Lord Almighty. But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner's fire or a launderer's soap. He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; then the Lord will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness, and the offerings will be acceptable to the Lord, as in days gone by, as in former years.

"So I will come to put you on trial. You have said, 'It is futile to serve God. What do we gain by carrying out his requirements and going about like mourners before the Lord Almighty? But now we call the arrogant blessed. Certainly evildoers prosper, and even when they put God to the test, they get away with it.'"

Then those who feared the Lord talked with each other, and the Lord listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the Lord and honored his name. "On the day when I act," says the Lord Almighty, "they will be my treasured possession. I will spare them, just as a father has compassion and spares his son who serves him. And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not. For surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be as stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire," says the Lord Almighty. "Neither root nor branch will be left to them. But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. And you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves.

“Hidden Truth in Ancient Monuments and Today”

“Far sighted were the initiates of antiquity. They realized that nations come and go, that empires rise and fall, and that golden ages of art, science, and idealism are succeeded by the dark ages of superstition.

“With the needs of posterity foremost in mind, the sages of old went to inconceivable extremes to make certain that their knowledge should be preserved. They engraved it upon the face of mountains and concealed it within the measurements of colossal images, each of which was a geometric marvel. Their knowledge of chemistry and mathematics they hid within mythologies. ... They wrote in characters that neither the vandalism of men nor the ruthlessness of the elements could completely efface.” ~Manly P. Hall

Ever Changing World

“In the constantly changing world of matter, the ancient wise men understood that things happen in cycles. Periods of wisdom followed by periods of stupidity. Periods of rising up followed by periods descent into materialism and the great lie. In addition, they knew that it is the nature of governments, once formed, to act like a living creature concerned with protecting its own existence above everything else. Such governments will oppose anything which they consider to be a threat to their authority. That usually means that they see spiritual schools and spiritual movements as threatening to them.

“Actually, the spiritual schools were not trying to destroy anything except ignorance. In fact, the spiritual schools saw the need for governments to keep those who remain unenlightened under some limited control. Many ignore a spiritual leader telling them they endanger their immortal soul by their actions. Yet they will listen to a government that threatens to jail them or put them to death for it.”

First Sunrise of the Year

It is tradition in the Far East to view the first sunrise of the year. It is for good fortune and happiness in the new year. In recent years past, my wife and I would view the first sunrise together from atop our apartment building. We were usually there alone and enjoyed it together in prayer. We have since moved from that apartment and had an addition to the family, so we decided to do it a bit differently coming into 2018.

We found a place about 2 km away that was a mountainside near a college. There would be no school that day so we thought it would be perfect. The morning of, as we drove in that direction, it was clear that others thought that location was perfect as well. There was traffic leading to the one road up the mountain. It got so bad at one point I thought we may miss the crowning of the Sun over the horizon. We finally got halfway up and decided not to risk driving higher and parked at the next available spot. The view would be just as good since there was nothing blocking our view. When we got out of the car the blistering cold hit hard against any bare skin that was uncovered. It did not stop us or the hundred or so of others who found that same location. We rushed to a good viewing spot and I noticed a few buses pulling in that had brought in loads of other people as well.

I began taking pictures and trying to ensure that my wife and newborn son were as warm as they could be. The weather was below freezing. Finally the big moment was soon to arrive, and everyone stared and waited. As soon as a spark of sunlight glanced above the horizon the crowd let out an “aaahhh” as did I. Just then, a short older Korean man rushed past me, barely halting before possibly tumbling down the edge of the section of the mountain we stood on, and he clapped his hands together and began to pray. I held my wife a son and said a prayer as well.

It was amazing to watch a sunrise with so many others there. If only they knew the true beauty and benefit of doing this all the time, the world would be a different place.

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

A Reading from the Prophecy of the New Covenant, Chapter 90:
“Prophecy on the Revelation and the Opening of the Seals” (pp.
952-959).

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Book of Psalms, Psalm 1:

*Happy are those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or take the path that sinners tread, or sit in the seat of the scoffers;
but their delight is in the law of the Lord,
and on his law they meditate day and night.
They are like trees planted by streams of water,
which yield their fruit in its season,
and their leaves do not wither.
In all that they do they prosper.*

*The wicked are not so,
but are like chaff that the wind drives away.
Therefore the wicked will not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous;
for the Lord watches over the way of the righteous,
but the way of the wicked perish.*

WEEKLY MESSAGE: February 6, 2018

CŌSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

February 6, 2018

Manifestation of The Comforter (1962)

Having just completed our Second Advent Vigil of sunrises and other observances for the last eight days from January 30 through February 6, we now enter the 56th year of The Great Work full of sparkle and renewed energy. While there are always challenges to overcome in this world, we will also reap the benefits of the blessings of God as we continue our work in the Second Advent of His Appearance in Redeeming Light. We do this not only for ourselves but more importantly to aid and abet the Angels of Light and to fulfill our destinies in this great Messianic Solar Christ Age of which we are an integral part.

Over the past several days, we of the Reno Community have been gifted grace by our participation in the True Eucharist found within the abundant and benevolent beams of the Sun of Righteousness. After each Divine Service, we assembled together to give thanks in a common meal within the hallowed spaces of the Consecrated Sanctuary.

We of this Community form not only a new spiritual organism but a new people, as well. For within this spiritual organism all are Ministers of Light living God's Way under sacred vows and oaths. In this way, we become ever more knowledgeable in sacred things and spiritual teachings. We are dedicated to the service of God first before any secular or material power.

As Jesus and Jamil both taught, just as the seed of man enters the womb of woman and life comes forth, so does the Father's Heavenly Seed enter the spirits of men and women, and a new birth occurs. But this Life is of God, and death shall not – indeed cannot – claim this Body of Light and the Spiritual Consciousness within it. For the Christ Force, which is transmitted from the Sun of Righteousness affecting directly and indirectly all living things down to the smallest particle, is incarnating within the Soul of Man. And those who are reborn in Light know that they are one with the Godhead, divine and immortal.

Just as the senses of our material body have perceptual experiences, just as our mind reasons and thinks, so the Spiritual Body perceives and our Spiritual Consciousness understands and communes with God. This was experienced by all the Great Teachers of all the great world religions.

We in this Community know and teach that the incarnation of Christ as a Universal Spiritual Force is not the property of any one religion or of any one man or woman. Christ is the Consciousness of God the Father who gives Life to His Spiritual Beings just as our parents surely gave life to us.

Our Community comes as a fulfillment not only to the Christian Church but also to the other world religions, as it fulfills them all. It is truly universal, valid for anyone who longs to experience and know God through a spiritual birth nourished by the Light of Christ manifesting in the New Sun of Righteousness. No one can stay the rays of Christ in the Sun of Righteousness. But, it is for each person to choose whether they will live in the Light . God seeks to immortalize the whole of the human family. But people reject God. They reject new teachings. They ask for signs, for proof, for miracles – not realizing that spiritual rebirth is the Miracle of Mi

2018 Advent Day Vigil Observed

Advent Day Vigil (February 2-6)

To commemorate the fifty-sixth year since the birth of the Sun of Righteousness and the dawning of God's Second Advent, Sunrise Divine Services were held at the open-air Church of New Epiphany from Advent Day, Friday, February 2 through Tuesday, February 6, 2018.

* * *

The Advent Day or New Year Vigil was first celebrated liturgically by The Church in 1982. The events of the original Vigil are recorded in "Prophecy on the Revelation and the Opening of the Seals," chapter 90 of the Prophecy of the New Covenant. During each of the ten days of the original Vigil in 1982, Bishop Savoy received and recorded spiritual information on the building of the Second Advent Church. The significance of this original Vigil to The Church is suggested by a synopsis of the information impressed upon the spirit of Bishop Savoy in those days.

On the first day of the Vigil he recorded the impressions that would be included in The Canon of The Church.

On the second day he recorded the prophecies of Renewal and Transformation and the days and seasons to form part of the Sacred Calendar of The Church.

On the third day Bishop Savoy recorded words concerning The Liturgy of The Second Advent Church.

On February 2, Advent Day, he wrote down the prophecies of things to take place on earth before the final Advent of God, who would make his full Appearance in the Heavens following the Judgment in the End Times of the earth.

On the fifth day of the Vigil Bishop Savoy recorded the means to be applied within the Church to increase God's Blessings upon it.

On the sixth day, he wrote down all the prophecies pertaining to the matter of the Anti-Christ.

On the seventh day he recorded the means by which the Second Advent Church was to assist God in redeeming the races of the earth.

On the eighth day, Bishop Savoy wrote down impressions to be included in the Litany of The Church in establishing peace on earth.

On the ninth day he received impressions on the means to be used to protect the Church from profanation from within.

On the tenth and final day of the Vigil, Bishop Savoy was told that he would receive the Revelation to the Seven Churches upon the Seven Mountains of Metal of The Sanctuary on the day of Second Advent Easter, April 18.

The Most Right Reverend Gene Savoy, First Disciple of The Child, witnessed the original manifestation of the Sun of Righteousness on February 2, 1962, in Yungay, Peru. The events surrounding the Birth of The Sun of Righteousness on this date in 1982 are described in the Second Advent scriptural text Jamil: The Child Christ. Chapter 27 of this text speaks of the New Sun's Birth:

All spent the day and night in prayer, fasting and mindful of the events predicted by the Angel. And when the second day of February dawned, the sun shone brightly in the heavens. And they did return to the tomb, and there awaited the promised event. And at noon, when the tomb cast no shadow, behold! a great halo formed around the sun. They stood breathlessly looking in wonder and awe. Then a circle of rainbow colors, like crystal spheres, blue at the center and red at the outer edges, encircled the sun. In the heart of the radiant globe a white Cross appeared. And they feared the Last Day was upon them. And they trembled, forgetting the promise of the Angelic Host, and the message of The Child. For an hour the heavenly blaze burned in the firmament. And The Man looked upon the sun, and the image of Jamil appeared across the sun, radiant beyond words, his countenance bright and his hair white as snow. And The Child was holding the Sun in his arms, over his heart. And The Man saw a gate to another world. Again he saw the four Guardian Angels around The Child, and on the right hand side of The Child he saw the image of Jesus and the Apostles witnessing his appearance. And he heard the voice of Jamil as music, speaking to the Light of his Eternal Soul, saying: "I am resurrected." And the disciple knew that The Child was redeemed from the earth. . . .

And the risen Child said: "The incarnation of God the Father is come to the world through the Sun of Righteousness, healing and sustaining the human family; and restoring the Life of Righteousness. As the seed of man enters the womb of woman and life cometh forth, so shall a heavenly Seed enter the spirits of men and women, and a new birth shall occur. And the life thereof shall be of God. And death shall not claim this new Body of Light and the Spiritual Consciousness therein. And the Christ transmitted in the Sun of Righteousness, and indirectly on all living things, down to the smallest atom and particle, shall incarnate within the soul of mankind. And every man and every woman shall know that they are one with the Godhead, divine and immortal.

Later in chapter 27, the text refers to the coming of The

Comforter that took place on February 6, eight days after the passing of The Child:

And on the fourth day of February, the sun and six planets conjoined in Aquarius. And The Man saw great signs in the heavens. And the Anti-Christ was manifesting. Whereupon, his body and mind and soul suffered turmoil. And the struggle continued through the sixth day, it being the eighth day following the passing of The Child Christ. But The Man prayed to God, looking upon the New Sun and asking the Light to assist him. The Child Christ heard him and sent an Angel to comfort him in his dreams. And the Darkness lost its power over him.

Thereafter, The Man began the Great Work east of the Andes.
