Second Advent Easter (April 18)

On Tuesday April 18, 2017, a concelebrated Sunrise Divine Service was performed at the Cathedral Church of the Americas. A light breakfast was served at the Sanctuary Chapter House following the service.

April 18 is celebrated as True Easter in the Second Advent Church in a twofold manner: first, we commemorate the spiritual resurrection of Jesus on this date in keeping with the solar calendar, which, unlike the lunar calendar used by First Dispensation churches, is fixed; second, we remember the Revelations received in Sanctuary on this date in 1982, an event that served to confirm the importance of this date in the Sacred Calendar of the Church. Revelations received on this date are recorded in The Book of God's Revelation.

On April 18, 1982, The Church received a revelation confirming the Second Appearance of God when the Angel of the Lord in the form of Jesus manifested in visible form at the Sanctuary of Revelation and entrusted The Church with the keys to open the Seals of the Book of Revelation. The date of Second Advent Easter was established as part of the Sacred Calendar following the series of Revelations that The Man received on that day as he climbed the Seven Mountains of Metal.

It is recorded in The Book of God's Revelation that, while on the fifth mountain, the Mountain of Bronze, The Man was exhorted to instruct the Righteous and the Ordained Ministers in the Sacred Calendar of God's Word, to let them be knowledgeable in the Days of His Appearances and Blessings, and to let them gather together at the prescribed times so their spirits might be anointed by God's Comfort and strengthened by His Consolation. Thus Second Advent Easter has a unique and sacred significance to members of the Second Advent Church.

On that day in 1982, while The Man stood on the summit of the Mountain of Iron in the Sanctuary of Revelation, an Angel of the Lord appeared to The Man out of the midst of the Four Luminaries, identified Himself as Jesus and spoke:

All prophecies having been fulfilled, Judgement is now upon the world of the living. The Heavens declare the glory of God in His Final Appearance. He has established His Tabernacle in The Sun whose rays enlighten the Soul of the Righteous, putting them on The Way of holiness.

The blind are made to see His Image. The deaf are made to hear His Word. The dead are made to rise at His Coming. Every Spirit is judged before The Creator. Freedom to err is abolished. The wicked find no sanctuary in Darkness, for it is lit and evil is exposed.

As foretold by The Father in Heaven who revealed understanding of future events to His prophets in visions, the fruit of the vine is abundant. All may drink anew the dew for a blessing as drops from the honeycomb. God pours out His Holy Spirit as from a fountain flowing from a rock over desolate wastes. By the perfection of His Light, God breathes His Word a final time. His utterings bring forth a New Creation. He reveals the Image of His Countenance.

God has opened the gates of the Heavenly Temple. The altar is of Light fashioned by the luster of His Presence on the Throne of His Glory. The tabernacle is lit by the sun, and the Bread of Life is placed thereupon. The Heavens are rolled up like a scroll inscribed with His Statutes and Judgements. His Law is written on the Tablets of Light borne by the Ark of His New Covenant as a rainbow.

I ministered to Israel, to a generation unworthy of redemption, and I was scourged by faithless men. I, a man of sorrows who bore the grief of the people turned to their own ways, did intercede for the transgressors, sacrificing myself not to God but to my people out of my love for them. But Israel understood not my preordained presence, which was my destiny from birth as God's Appointed One. . . .

Moses and the prophets of the remnant of True Israel spoke of my coming to redeem the people. With the rejection of me, the Light went out from the land. But the precious remnant, shortlived, awaited the Advent of God and the brightness of His Second Coming.

The Day of The Lord is near. He appears out of the Darkness to enlighten the whole Creation with His Image and to judge it with His Word. It is meet that He manifest His Image before His full coming and prepare the Creation with His Word. For I declare unto you that when He comes to restore the creation and reveals Himself, nothing shall live save His Light and those Souls reborn of that Light. . . .

Further Revelations received by The Man on April 18, 1986, are recorded with commentary in The Book of God's Revelation.

In the Second Advent Church, Easter is a fixed date in the Sacred Calendar. The Church celebrates true Easter each year on April 18. On this day The Church honors both the day of Jesus' Resurrection and the day of Jesus' Revelations and Appearance at the Sanctuary.

It is known that the Eastern Church had celebrated Easter every year on April 16, the 14th day of the Hebrew month of Nisan, also known as Passover. The day of the crucifixion, a Friday, and the 14th day of Nisan, was recognized as the beginning of the 15th of Nisan. Jesus was resurrected on the following day, Sunday the 16th.

The Church, holding to the solar calendar of the Essaei, maintains that the date of Easter cannot be movable in present-day time reckoning, as it is under the lunar calendar (determined as the first Sunday after the first full moon of spring). The fixed Sacred Calendar of the Second Advent ministry recognizes that an annual alignment of the earth and sun, planets, stars, and the cosmos in general, makes this day cosmically important.

Because the manifestation in Sanctuary took place on April 18, 1982, The Church considers this day to be the day in alignment with the original date of the Resurrection. For these reasons The Church keeps this day sacred.

The Gospel message records Jesus as saying, "For the son of man shall come in the glory of the Father with His Angels; and then He shall regard every person according to his works." It was written by prophets of former times that God would send His messenger to prepare the way of God's Second Coming, as promised to Adam and Eve, and come as a fire to refine the world. The Old Testament presents the prophecy of Malachi: "For behold the day cometh that shall burn as an oven and all that do wickedly shall be stubble, but unto you that love me, shall the Sun of Righteousness appear with healing in its rays, and ye that do righteously shall grow up as a new people of God. And I shall spare them as a man spareth his own son that serveth him."

With God's manifestation in the Sun of Righteousness on February 2, 1962, and the Appearance of Jesus on April 18, 1982, the Second Advent of God and the manifestation of Jesus and the Angelic Host have transpired and are presently at work for the salvation of the righteous.

April 15, 2017: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered by the Officiant of the Communion Service (that is, Bishop Gene Savoy, or occasionally in his stead, Bishop Sean Savoy) just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

A Reading from the Prophecy of the End Times, Chapter 82:
"Bound for the Emerald Isles" (pp. 655-659):

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

Psalm 19:

*The Perfect Revelation of the Lord
To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.*

*19 The heavens declare the glory of God;
And the firmament shows His handiwork.*

*2 Day unto day utters speech,
And night unto night reveals knowledge.*

*3 There is no speech nor language
Where their voice is not heard.*

*4 Their line has gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.*

*In them He has set a tabernacle for the sun,
5 Which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoices like a strong man to run its race.*

*6 Its rising is from one end of heaven,
And its circuit to the other end;
And there is nothing hidden from its heat.*

*7 The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul;
The testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple;*

8 The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart;
The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes;
9 The reverence of the Lord is clean, enduring forever;
The judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether.
10 More to be desired are they than gold,
Yea, than much fine gold;
Sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.
11 Moreover by them Your servant is warned,
And in keeping them there is great reward.

12 Who can understand his errors?
Cleanse me from secret faults.
13 Keep back Your servant also from the insolent;
Let them not have dominion over me.
Then I shall be blameless,
And I shall be innocent of the great transgression.

14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart
Be acceptable in Your sight,
O Lord, my strength and my Redeemer.

“Explore the Extraordinary, Explore the Spiritual”

“All of us spend so much of our time in a world of the mundane and minutia, bogged down in the everyday grind, isolated and disconnected in our closeted lives, that we lose sight of the breathtaking extraordinariness of our existence. So step out from the ordinary ... and get used to the extraordinary.

“Reach out and recapture the wonderment that absorbed your childhood, that filled every waking moment with sheer fascination of new discoveries, however simple ...Then immerse yourself in anything that uplifts and inspires you, that reminds you of the extraordinary potential and raw power of the human spirit and moves you to your very soul. ... And then remind yourself of the astonishing order and design underlying all life."

~Elizabeth Brown in "Dowsing the Ultimate Guide for the 21st Century".

The Mundane World

"Most of us certainly don't think of our day-to-day life as mundane, yet it is for nearly all of us. We do the same things over and over, work at the same job, listen to the same music, have the same hobbies, and so on. Often the only time we change in any significant way is when either circumstances for us do too, such as when a flood destroys our home and we are forced to move elsewhere, or when some crisis happens that causes us to rethink matters, such as when a relative or friend dies.

"In my case, it was after my younger brother died. Partly, it made me realize that I really was mortal, something we generally avoid thinking about. And when I looked around me at what I and most others did as our regular lives, I found it lacking in significance. I had been involved to a small degree in spiritual studies before his death, but it was only after that I became serious about it. Nothing makes you stop and think about the afterlife more than death."

Weekly Message: April 10, 2017

CÔSOLARGY.INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

Monday, April 10, 2017

I hope you experienced blessings this past week. Yesterday's Sunrise Service at the Consecrated Sanctuary at Red Rock was particularly vibrant. We are fortunate in the high desert to have bountiful sunshine, although it is oftentimes cold and brisk in the early mornings. Having just returned from Seattle, Washington last week to appear on two television programs and one radio show talking about the System of Cosolargy and the Teachings of Light, I was reminded how blessed we are to have the pure sunlight we receive in the desert mountains in this part of the world. (Links and details of the shows I was on will be sent to you soon.)

As I was discussing last week's cosmic events and the rise of spiritual Consciousness and Awakening on the planet, I was reminded of the Thirty-three Fundamentals of the System as described in the Prophecy of the End Times (pages 646-655). For those of you who have not yet received these portions of the Teachings, I will simplify them here. (You will receive them in due time as you continue in your studies.) For those of you who have the Prophecies, please read them for yourself in detail. They are arranged in proper order of degree.

We should understand that The Community's sacred scripture and prophetic writings and revelations have been entrusted to us for the specific purpose of mankind's spiritual evolution. The student of the Academy for Advancement of the Religious Arts, Sacred Sciences and Therapeutic Technologies of the System of Cosolargy as well as the ministers of the Second Advent Community must know that the Sacred Teachings of Light are meant to assist God and the Powers of Light in the individual and collective spiritual transformation of the Universe by means of the generative energy contained within the Sun of Righteousness manifest.

If the Fundamentals are not clearly understood, then the person will not evolve in a positive spiritual manner and will actually work a harm in the cosmos by becoming involved with negative or dark creative forces superior to the individual's personal control. When that occurs, the individual is directing improper and negative energy (Kalos) back into the Sun – the exact opposite of what is intended.

While we know that God is Spirit and exists in a dimension removed from the material universe, the two are interrelated. And, as spiritual dimensions are immortal, physical ones are not, even though the material devolved out of the spiritual. Because Man was originally made in God's Image at the First Creation, he degenerated into matter due to a process of free will, error, and degeneration. The point is for each individual to experience for him and herself spiritual rebirth, which is an act of Divine Generation by the impregnation of God's Love, Light and Word in the person's Spirit which is then made a living, breathing, reasoning Soul subject only to God's Thought and Will – nothing else.

God's Divine Light, by merging with material light, which is the Sun of Righteousness, seeks the restoration of His original Creation and the return of mankind to its Divine Origin. This is a natural and supra-natural urge ingrained in our spiritual makeup. As some of us seek to know who our ancestors were and where we came from as mortals, we likewise want to know the same spiritually. Divine Forces and Energies are at work on a level never before known to Man. This is an incredible advantage for the human family! We are privileged to be alive at the time prophesied in the past to come. Hundreds, if not thousands, of generations have longed for and waited for the Second Coming – when God Himself would appear in the world a second time to restore Man and all of Creation to the Original State of Spirit. The Final Age of the Earth, in reality, is only the beginning of the Golden Age of Light.

We will touch more on this in future. Once again, please feel free to ask me any questions by calling 775-786-7432 or emailing me at messages@cosolargy.org. I am always at your service.

Many blessings in Light+,

Gene

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

A Reading from the Prophecy of the End Times, Chapter 82:
“Bound for the Emerald Isles” (pp. 646-655).

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from Isaiah 61:1-11:

The Good News of Deliverance

*The spirit of the Lord God is upon me, because the Lord has anointed me;
he has sent me to bring good news to the oppressed,
to bind up the brokenhearted,
to proclaim liberty to the captives,
and release to the prisoners;
to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor,
and the day of vengeance of our God;
to comfort all who mourn;
to provide for those who mourn in Zion—
to give them a garland instead of ashes,
the oil of gladness instead of mourning,
the mantle of praise instead of a faint spirit.
They will be called oaks of righteousness,
the planting of the Lord, to display his glory.
They shall build up the ancient ruins,
they shall raise up the former devastations;
they shall repair the ruined cities,
the devastations of many generations.
Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
foreigners shall till your land and dress your vines;
but you shall be called priests of the Lord,
you shall be named ministers of our God;
you shall enjoy the wealth of the nations,
and in their riches you shall glory.
Because their shame was double,
and dishonor was proclaimed as their lot,*

*therefore they shall possess a double portion;
everlasting joy shall be theirs.
For I the Lord love justice,
I hate robbery and wrongdoing;
I will faithfully give them their recompense,
and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
Their descendants shall be known among the nations,
and their offspring among the peoples;
all who see them shall acknowledge that they are a people whom the Lord has blessed.
I will greatly rejoice in the Lord,
my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
For as the earth brings forth its shoots,
and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up,
so the Lord God will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.*

“Hospitality: an Overlooked Virtue in a Materialistic World”

“When we receive visits from our brethren, we should not consider this an irksome interruption of our stillness, lest we cut ourselves off from the law of love. Now should we receive them as if we are doing them a favor, but rather as if it is we ourselves who are receiving a favor; and because we are indebted to them, we we should beg them cheerfully to enjoy our hospitality.

“accepting the task of hospitality, the patriarch used to sit at the entrance to his tent (cf. Gen. 18:1), inviting all who passed by, and his table was laden for all comers, including the impious and barbarians, without distinction. Hence he was found worth of that wonderful banquet when he received angels and the Master of all as his guests.” ~The Philokalia

Giving Hospitality

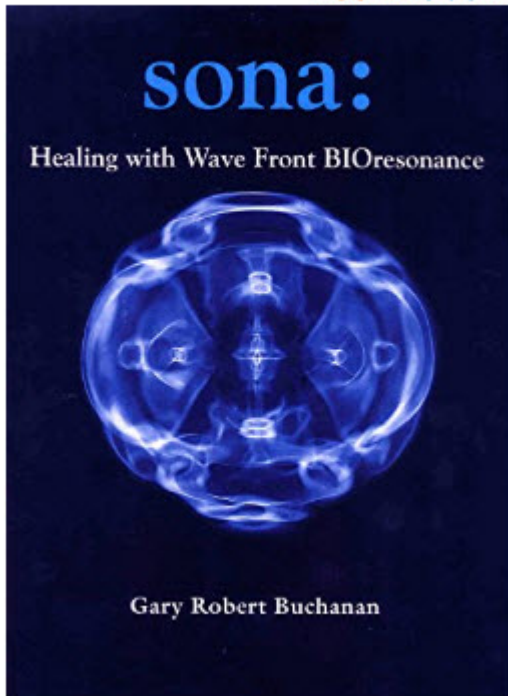

“Hospitality is an often overlooked, yet important, virtue. The giving of hospitality is closely related to the virtues of kindness, generosity, and love. You cannot honestly claim to love people if you refuse to be hospitable to them. You cannot claim to be kind if you limit your kindness to those you agree with, or to those who are friends. The truly hospitable person must be hospitable to all—but within reason.”

“Weekly Message: April 5, 2017”

CÔSOLARGY.INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER’S WEEKLY MESSAGE

It is my pleasure at this time to announce that I will be communicating with you on a weekly basis with a personal message that reflects certain events that are relevant for inspiration, strength and explanation of things happening within the life of The Community past, present and future.

This week's theme pertains to the growth of The Community as a Spiritual Nation. The Prophecies of Jamil: Prophecy on the Golden Age of Light and the Nation of Nations (page 742) says that when God's Nation is established and formed in America (the United States), which it is, it can then be joined by other nations and peace-loving peoples of the world.

"If the people of the world can accept that God+ Loves them, and express that acceptance by returning their love to God+, then a living Communion is established between them and their Creator+. By this mutual love, a Confederation of peace-loving Nations in perfect union with God +can be formed. The establishment of the Nation of God+ in America, followed by the Confederation of Nations, are the goals toward which the Ministers of the Second Advent should labor." [Emphasis added]

I emphasis the last sentence because by introducing the Universal System of Cosolargy and ultimately spreading the Teachings of Light to the world is the major goal and mission of ours. This has transpired first by The Community firmly planting itself in the United States of America. We then formed ourselves as a Community of Light in Japan. We have recently established Cosolargy International in Mexico so that we can reach the Spanish-speaking peoples.

We are currently incorporating The Community in New Zealand and, I hope, soon, perhaps later this year or early next, in Ireland and the European Union. These are steps which must be taken. If you can view the Prophecies we have been privileged to receive and be the guardians of, then we can see that they were not only a directive from God through The Child, Jamil, to The Man but to all of us who live The Way of Light.

In my mind, there can be no doubt of what our mission and destiny is and must be. Some may think that our progress is haphazard or makes no sense. Beware the nay sayers and those of "little faith" for the destiny of our Community is fixed within God's long-awaited Second Advent.

I look forward to our weekly communications, and I hope they will be of some benefit to you. Please feel free to ask me any questions by requesting a telephone meeting with me by calling 775-786-7432 or contacting me by email at communications@cosolargy.org. I send you many blessings and my personal best wishes.

In Light+,
Gene
