

“Everything Everything”

Affects

“Everything affects everything else. Your life can be accelerated and made easier by other people doing good works and opening their hearts, even if they’re on the other side of the planet. Likewise, by clearing your clutter and pain, you demonstrate clarity to the world and provide an inner blueprint that others can frequency-match to make it easier to clear their own pain. Good works are incredibly powerful. “... When you withhold your energy and wisdom, sacrifice your self-expression, hesitate to move forward, or indulge in states like apathy and helplessness, you deny both yourself and others the benefits you all might receive from your unique kind of expression.” ~Penney Peirce

Everything Affects Everything Else

Yes, everything does affect everything else, as well as itself. This is something we rarely bother to think about. If I go on a diet, for example, I am affecting sales at the supermarket by buying different food and less foods. If others do the same, the supermarket will change what it buys from suppliers. This in turn can affect what the farmer decides to grow. We are seeing this with the big switch to organics in the last year or so. First, you could only get organics in specialty stores, then only the largest supermarkets, and now even smaller stores often have some organic produce. This is affecting what the farmers grow, how much chemical fertilizer the chemical companies sell, and on and on.

If you watch the Weather Channel, or possibly other weather TV, you have likely seen one of those programs that show how a dust storm forming over the Sahara desert moves across Africa and into the ocean, where it might become a tropical storm, then a hurricane, and wreak havoc in Florida or South Carolina. You may have also seen Quantum Physics demonstrations of how a particle moved in one location can affect a twin particle in another.

“Death Before Dying: Way of the Iatromantis”

“My latest article is out now in New Dawn magazine: Special Issue Vol.9 No.6 – it is called ‘Life Patterns & Blood Lines: Reincarnation for the Western Mind.’ This edition is brimming with insightful articles, and among them is one titled ‘Practice Dying’ – Plato (Wisdom from the Ancient World). The ancient Greeks were familiar with the concept of ‘Death before Dying,’ particularly in their mystery schools where the practice of ‘Incubation’ was taught.”

“Drunk on Illusion and Matter”

“Men on earth judge of men not by what they are, but by what they seem to be. The physical form is apparent to the sense of sight, the real man is unseen. However, as the boot that encloses a foot cannot altogether hide the form of the foot within, so the body that encloses the life entity cannot but exhibit here and there the character of the dominating spirit within. ... Even on surface earth, where the matter side of man dominates, a vicious spirit will produce a villainous countenance. ... Could you see the real drunkard on surface earth he would be largely outside the body shell, and hideous in the extreme.” ~John Uri Lloyd

What you See

It is a curious bit of synchronicity that I should read this section of Mr. Lloyd's book as I am also reading the last volume of Dean Koontz' Frankenstein in which the most horrible monster creation of Victor Frankenstein are such incredibly handsome young men and beautiful young women that people think they must be angels, until they start to change.

December 3, 2016: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered by the Officiant of the Communion Service (that is, Bishop Gene Savoy, or occasionally in his stead, Bishop Sean Savoy) just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

A Reading from Second Prophecy to the Americas, chapter 35,
"On the Existence of Divine Reason" (pp.232-238).

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Testament of Levi:

Then shall the Lord raise up a new priest. And to him all the words of the Lord shall be revealed; And he shall execute a righteous judgement upon the earth for a multitude of days. And his star shall arise in heaven as a king. Lighting up the light of knowledge as the sun the day, And he shall be magnified in the world. He shall shine forth as the sun on the earth, And shall remove all darkness from under heaven, And there shall be peace in all the earth. The heavens shall exult in his days, And the earth shall be glad, And the clouds shall rejoice, And the knowledge of the Lord shall be poured forth upon the earth, as the water of the seas; And the angels of the glory of the presence of the Lord shall be glad in him. The heavens shall be opened, And from the temple of glory shall come upon him sanctification, with the Father's voice. And the glory of the Most High shall be uttered over him, And the spirit of understanding and sanctification shall rest upon him in the water. For he shall give the majesty of the Lord to His sons in truth for evermore; And there shall none succeed him for all generations for ever. And in his priesthood the nations shall be multiplied in knowledge upon the earth, And enlightened through the grace of the Lord: In his priesthood shall sin come to an end, And the lawless shall cease to do evil. And the just shall rest in him. And he shall open the gates of paradise, And shall remove the threatening sword. And he shall give to the saints to eat from the tree of life, And the spirit of holiness shall be on them. And he shall give power to His children to tread upon the evil spirits. And the Lord shall rejoice in His children, And be well pleased in His beloved ones for ever.

“Perceptive Eye and an Open Mind”

“Consider the might and actions of the light mind. How vast it is over the keepers of the watch of the body! He stays in his camp. He closes down the body’s deliberations from the temptations of sin. ... He bestows a great spirit over the elect. ... I have taught you the deeds of the light mind. Whoever has an open and perceptive eye, the light mind can appear to him. Whoever lacks that eye, the light main cannot appear to him. I will teach you and open your eyes to this wonder.” ~Mani

A Perceptive Eye

Mani was a gnostic prophet and teacher who founded the movement called Manichaeism. His teachers were, naturally, very similar to those of other Gnostic teachers, though the words and the allegories he used to express these truths were different.

Specifically, I don't know of any other school that uses the term "light mind". Most talk of a spiritual mind or an awakened soul. Regardless, they are all speaking of the same thing which we will call the Awakened Soul, or simply the Soul.

Mani says that this Soul is "vast over the keepers of the watch of the body." By this he means that the awakened soul, once it is given dominion over the ego (an important step for true spiritual growth), will keep us from making foolish choices that please the body but harm the spirit and soul. This awakened Soul keeps us in "his camp" meaning in the spiritual realm. This does not mean giving up of the physical body and the brain-mind and letting them rot, but it means that, while continuing to take proper care of those lower-vibration faculties, we emphasize the care of the higher facilities: the spirit and Soul.
