

February 8, 2014: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered by the Officiant of the Communion Service (that is, Bishop Gene Savoy, or occasionally in his stead, Bishop Sean Savoy) just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Prophet Malachi:

I will send my messenger, who will prepare the way before me. Then suddenly the Lord you are seeking will come to his temple; the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, will come,” says the Lord Almighty. But who can endure the day of his coming? Who can stand when he appears? For he will be like a refiner’s fire or a launderer’s soap. He will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver; then the Lord will have men who will bring offerings in righteousness, and the offerings will be acceptable to the Lord, as in days gone by, as in former years.

“So I will come to put you on trial. You have said, ‘It is futile to serve God. What do we gain by carrying out his requirements and going about like mourners before the Lord Almighty? But now we call the arrogant blessed. Certainly evildoers prosper, and even when they put God to the test, they get away with it.’”

Then those who feared the Lord talked with each other, and the Lord listened and heard. A scroll of remembrance was written in his presence concerning those who feared the Lord and honored his name. “On the day when I act,” says the Lord Almighty, “they will be my treasured possession. I will spare them, just as a father has compassion and spares his son who serves him. And you will again see the distinction between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not. For surely the day is coming; it will burn like a furnace. All the arrogant and every evildoer will be as stubble, and the day that is coming will set them on fire,” says the Lord Almighty. “Neither root nor branch will be left to them. But for you who revere my name, the sun of righteousness will rise with healing in its rays. And you will go out and frolic like well-fed calves.

“Can You See Your Own Brain Waves?”

Consociate Michael McIntyre, who sent us the article, says, "It has been the legacy of this Church, for over sixty years, to 'meditate' with open eyes. We forget that this is unusual. In the arena of higher consciousness disciplines, this practice is one of the many things that make us unique. It clearly draws a distinct boundary."

"Jungian Active Imagination or meditation practices have a preparatory stage. This transitional stage nudges dominant brain wave activity into the Alpha range, which is related to calmness, more optimism, and a sense for creative flexibility. Usually this involves slow deep breaths, evoking calmness and closing the eyes. When the eyes are closed, Alpha waves increase and are strongest as scientific literature has long suggested. But are closed eyes really necessary for meditation? A recent study shows an association between viewing certain visual images—especially flickering visual images—and increased Alpha wave activity. Can visual contact with geometric archetypes help us prompt active imagination or meditative states?"

Michael suggests that we check out the review of the 2013 research study.

“Community Sharing”

“They did not seek excessive gain by exploiting each other, nor did they bring lawsuits against one another, for each had his own conscience as an impartial judge. One was not rich while another was destitute, nor did one overeat while another starved. The generosity of those who were well off made good what others lacked, this willingness to share eliminated every anomaly established equality and fairness—though even then inequality still existed, produced not as it is now by the mad struggle for social status, but by a great desire to live more humbly than others. Envy, malice, arrogance, and haughtiness were banished, along with all that leads to discord.” ~The Philokalia

“It sounds like a fantasy. Could any such society ever exist? One that didn’t worship Darwin’s concept of survival of the strongest, but where instead everyone helped each other and shared there strengths with others who were weak in those areas? Where the person who was good at finances helped his neighbors who were not, rather than trying to find ways to rip them off? Where the good cook helped teach those who were not good cooks? Where the strong fighter helped protect the weak, sick and elderly?"

"Profile: The 21st Century Cosolargist"

A while back someone ask me, "Well, What sort of people do you think, would be attracted the SOLAR CULTURES series?" The following note was my response:

If you read through the Project X Solar Cultures series with only one perspective in mind: What type of person would be interested in such material and what type of person is the author addressing? you stumble upon some interesting keys.

Often times the texts begin or are interlaced with historical, anthropological, and mythological information. There are sections that include quotes from ancient texts. Solar-gazing techniques are presented and explained. Question-and-answer transcriptions are included. Stories, in both first and third person, are often parachuted into the transcribed 'talks'. And Gene Savoy Sr. talks about the Community, its future, the type of person, and the type of attitude needed to sustain the Community.

So, what type of person is he hoping to address? What type of person is he marshaling? What type of people does he need to formulate his vision of the future?

The writings are pregnant with historical facts, quotations, and document references—but the heart of what he is relaying is often very conceptual. He appeals to humanitarians. He appeals to those that have a need to construct and create. He appeals to those who have a concern for the future of humankind in this world and the next.

These people he is looking for—Teachers, Healthcare Workers, Ministers, Discoverers, and people with an abnormal Creative Urge. They are Doers and think conceptually but rely on intuition and feeling as much or more than intellectualizing. If we understand the “building blocks” that make up these sorts of People, we understand how to reach them.

There are several ways to sort out these “building blocks,” but as Gene had a great deal of reverence for Carl Jung, we will begin with the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI), which is constructed directly from Jungian principles. Here is the premise of the MBTI, based on the scaling of four personality tendencies (and you can answer these questions yourself, taking into account that we have a tendency to favor one over the other most of the time, or in most situations):

FIRST: I or E? Are you usually more Introverted or more Extroverted?

SECOND: N or S? Are you more comfortable in learning/adapting iNtuitively(conceptually) or Senually(details/particulars)

THIRD: F or T? When expressing yourself, is the content based more on Feeling or more on Thinking?

FOURTH: J or P? Do you operate more comfortable in environments that are Stuctured (J) or Free and absent of rules (P)

If your answers favored the first letter in each category your temperament would be INFJ or Introverted/iNtuitive/Feeling/Judgmental.

This is very crude example, as actual testing includes up to 290 questions for making a viable assessment. If you are interested in quickly discovering and exploring your particular temperament, I recommend taking an online test that includes at least 70 questions or getting hold of the Keirsey publication Please Understand Me, which does a pretty good job of exposing the MBTI in laymen's terms. A fairly good assessment test is also included in the book.

Let's take a look at the NF Type: N- iNtuitive F- feeling

The temperaments of this type include ENFP, ENFJ, INFP, and INFJ.

The NF type makes up 11% of the population (of the Western world). As there are 4 of the 16 Temperaments in the NF type, mathematically they should compose 25% of the population, but they do not and are therefore considered rare. Often seen as idealists they are described as creative, enthusiastic, humane, imaginative, insightful, religious, subjective, and sympathetic.

Here are some other characteristics of the NF:

 Their goal in life is "to have a purpose in life"

 Motivation: to pursue the self-reflective, to pursue-becoming.

 To be happy, NFs have to be productive.

 NFs pursue self-actualization in a perfect whole where they can still maintain a unique identity.

These idealists are hypersensitive to communication nuances, metaphorical behavior, hints of things, and symbols.

They are "Future oriented"

NFs heavily populate these career fields: psychology, psychiatry, counseling, teaching, writing, clergy

The second type we'll look at is the NT: N- iNtuitive T-thinking

NTs make up no more than 12% of the population, although mathematically they should compose 25%. Often seen as conceptualists, NTs are utilitarian in implementing abstract goals. In this group we are going to look at only two of the NT temperament types.

The first NT Temperament is the INTP: Introverted iNtuitive Thinking Perceiving.

The one word that would describe INTP is Architect—of ideas and systems, as well as of material artifacts.

Their driving force: unlocking and organizing the keys to the universe

Their careers: mathematicians, philosophers, scientists, teachers—usually for advanced students.

They are not builders. Their talent is expressed in the unseen world. They are explorers at heart—the heart of the mind.

Examples include Mr. Spock, Carl Jung, Albert Einstein, William James, Isaac Newton.

The second NT Temperament is the ENTP: Extroverted iNtuitive Thinking Perceiving.

This type's strong suit is invention.

Their driving force: to exercise ingenuity and imagination to a tangible end.

They look for new ways to solve old problems (consequently they are nonconformists).

They are inspiring, enabling, contagious.

Improvising in any situation is their greatest strength.

Altogether, NFs, ENTPs, and INTPs make up less than 17% of the population as teachers, psychologists, inventors, discoverers, writers, artists, architects, humanitarians, film makers, clergy, and counselors. That's the profile. (I can give you more details, verbiage, pictorials, or whatever so we can use specific words, triggers, and bonding signals that will attract these personality types in our outreach programs.)

Take a look around the Community and see whether this brief Profile does not match all that are here.

Musical Director and Sonatherapy researcher Gary Buchanan has recently added three new videos to his YouTube collection. All three new additions display cymatics in water.

The first provides a new understanding about Cymatics in water. "Golden Mean (Cymatics)" is a video of acoustic fundamentals and their Golden Mean or PHI multiples sounding together, thereby producing Cymatic images in a small disc of water. Narration discusses the healing potentials, the basic science of vibrational healing, fourth-phase water, torsion field dynamics, and the revolutionary technology of Sonatherapy.

The other new addition to the cymatic collection is “Aetheric Field (Aetheric Melos) Cymatics in a Drop of Water.” This presentation displays the wave front bioresonance sonation for the “aetheric field,” the one- to two-inch vital energy envelope surrounding the physical body.

Remembrance of The Child Service

On Wednesday, January 29, 2014 at 6:00 PM in the Chapel of The Holy Child, a special “Remembrance of The Child” service was celebrated to begin the Second Advent Vigil. As part of the liturgical rite, children of the Church lit candles in memory of Jamil and readings were delivered from the book Jamil: Child of Light. On the following morning, Sunday, January 30th, Sunrise Divine Service was held at the open-air Church of New Epiphany.

Advent Day Vigil (February 2-6)

To commemorate the fifty-second anniversary of God's Second Advent, Sunrise Divine Services were held at the open-air Church of New Epiphany from Advent Day, Sunday, February 2 through Thursday, February 6, 2014.

The Advent Day or New Year Vigil was first celebrated liturgically by The Church in 1982. The events of the original Vigil are recorded in "Prophecy on the Revelation and the Opening of the Seals," chapter 90 of the Prophecy of the New Covenant. During each of the ten days of the original Vigil in 1982, Bishop Savoy received and recorded spiritual information on the building of the Second Advent Church. The significance of this original Vigil to The Church is suggested by a synopsis of the information impressed upon the spirit of Bishop Savoy in those days.

On the first day of the Vigil he recorded the impressions that would be included in The Canon of The Church.

On the second day he recorded the prophecies of Renewal and Transformation and the days and seasons to form part of the Sacred Calendar of The Church.

On the third day Bishop Savoy recorded words concerning The Liturgy of The Second Advent Church.

On February 2, Advent Day, he wrote down the prophecies of things to take place on earth before the final Advent of God, who would make his full Appearance in the Heavens following the Judgment in the End Times of the earth.

On the fifth day of the Vigil Bishop Savoy recorded the means to be applied within the Church to increase God's Blessings upon it.

On the sixth day, he wrote down all the prophecies pertaining to the matter of the Anti-Christ.

On the seventh day he recorded the means by which the Second Advent Church was to assist God in redeeming the races of the earth.

On the eighth day, Bishop Savoy wrote down impressions to be included in the Litany of The Church in establishing peace on earth.

On the ninth day he received impressions on the means to be used to protect the Church from profanation from within.

On the tenth and final day of the Vigil, Bishop Savoy was told that he would receive the Revelation to the Seven Churches upon the Seven Mountains of Metal of The Sanctuary on the day of Second Advent Easter, April 18.

The Most Right Reverend Gene Savoy, First Disciple of The Child, witnessed the original manifestation of the Sun of Righteousness on February 2, 1962, in Yungay, Peru. The events surrounding the Birth of The Sun of Righteousness on this date in 1982 are described in the Second Advent scriptural text Jamil: The Child Christ. Chapter 27 of this text speaks of the New Sun's Birth:

All spent the day and night in prayer, fasting and mindful of the events predicted by the Angel. And when the second day of February dawned, the sun shone brightly in the heavens. And they did return to the tomb, and there awaited the promised event. And at noon, when the tomb cast no shadow, behold! a great halo formed around the sun. They stood breathlessly looking in wonder and awe. Then a circle of rainbow colors, like crystal spheres, blue at the center and red at the outer edges, encircled the sun. In the heart of the radiant globe a white Cross appeared. And they feared the Last Day was upon them. And they trembled, forgetting the promise of the Angelic Host, and the message of The Child. For an hour the heavenly blaze burned in the firmament. And The Man looked upon the sun, and the image of Jamil appeared across the sun, radiant beyond words, his countenance bright and his hair white as snow. And The Child was holding the Sun in his arms, over his heart. And The Man saw a gate to another world. Again he saw the four Guardian Angels around The Child, and on the right hand side of The Child he saw the image of Jesus and the Apostles witnessing his appearance. And he heard the voice of Jamil as music, speaking to the Light of his Eternal Soul, saying: "I am resurrected." And the disciple knew that The Child was redeemed from the earth. . . .

And the risen Child said: "The incarnation of God the Father is come to the world through the Sun of Righteousness, healing and sustaining the human family; and restoring the Life of Righteousness. As the seed of man enters the womb of woman and life cometh forth, so shall a heavenly Seed enter the spirits of men and women, and a new birth shall occur. And the life thereof shall be of God. And death shall not claim this new Body of Light and the Spiritual Consciousness therein. And the Christ transmitted in the Sun of Righteousness, and indirectly on all living things, down to the smallest atom and particle, shall incarnate within the soul of mankind. And every man and every woman shall know that they are one with the Godhead, divine and immortal.

Later in chapter 27, the text refers to the coming of The Comforter that took place on February 6, eight days after the passing of The Child:

And on the fourth day of February, the sun and six planets conjoined in Aquarius. And The Man saw great signs in the heavens. And the Anti-Christ was manifesting. Whereupon, his body and mind and soul suffered turmoil. And the struggle continued through the sixth day, it being the eighth day following the passing of The Child Christ. But The Man prayed to God, looking upon the New Sun and asking the Light to assist him. The Child Christ heard him and sent an Angel to comfort him in his dreams. And the Darkness lost its power over him.

Thereafter, The Man began the Great Work east of the Andes.

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah 66:

*For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth;
And the former shall not be remembered nor come to mind.
But be glad and rejoice forever in what I create;
For as the days of a tree, so shall be the days of My people,
And My elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
They shall not labor in vain,
Nor bring forth children in trouble;
For the shall be the descendants of the blessed of the Lord,*

And their offspring with them.

As the new heavens and the new earth that I make will endure before me," declares the Lord, "so will your name and descendants endure.□

*From one New Moon to another and from one Sabbath to another, all mankind will come and bow down before me," says the Lord.
"It shall come to pass
That before they call, I will answer;
And while they are still speaking, I will hear.
The wolf and the lamb shall feed together,
The lion shall eat straw like the ox,
And dust shall be the serpent's food.
They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,"
Says the Lord.*

"Bosnian Pyramids in the News!"

Throughout 2013 we have been hearing about the massive pyramids recently uncovered in Bosnia.

Below are some of the most substantiated and interesting posts that Community members have sent us.

To begin with, here is the link to the archeological organization that is working at uncovering the pyramids (without much outside help, I might add):

One of the most interesting articles on that main site is this one: "Artificial Concrete Used to Build Pyramid Walls." Concrete on a building supposed to be 25,000 years old!

In the article below, Houston anthropologist Dr. Semir Osmanagich, who is heading the efforts to explore and uncover the Bosnian pyramids, declares that irrefutable scientific evidence exists of ancient civilizations with advanced technology that leaves science no choice but to change our recorded history:

"Acknowledging that we are witness to fundamental proof of advanced civilizations dating back over 29,000 years and an examination of their societal structures forces the World to reconsider its understanding of the development of civilization and history," explains Dr. Semir Osmanagich. "Conclusive data at the Bosnian Pyramid site revealed in 2008 and confirmed this year by several independent labs who conducted radio carbon testing dates the site at 29,400 +/-400 years minimum."

And here is another rather well-written general article on the find: “Massive European Pyramids Discovered.” This is how it begins:

“The existence of an original civilization on the continent of Europe which predates the civilizations in the Middle East, has to a large degree been ignored by traditional history writers, particularly those who wrote during the dominant Christian era in Europe.”

“The Influence of Light”

“Says Professor E. Hitchcock, when speaking of the influences of light upon bodies, and of the formation of pictures upon them by means of it: ‘It seems, then, that this photographic influence pervades all nature; nor can we say where it stops. We do not know but it may imprint upon the world around us our features, as they are modified by various passions, and thus fill nature with daguerreotype impressions of all our actions; ...it may be too, that there are tests by which nature, more skilful than any photographist[sic], can bring out and fix these portraits, so that acuter senses than ours shall see them as on a great canvas,. . . .’ The ‘perhaps’ of Professor Hitchcock is henceforth changed by the demonstration of psychometry into a triumphant certitude.” ~H. P. Blavatsky

“This is a continuation of the section of Blavatsky’s book on psychometry, the ability to pick up information from an object about a person who has handled that object. She is quoting this professor and his statements on how light leaves an impression similar to a photograph on everything as a way to explain psychometry, but I have quoted this section for its more general statements on the effects of light.”
