

“Huge nearby space cloud was invisible ... until now”

Dotted throughout our Milky Way galaxy and beyond are vast structures known as molecular clouds. Made up mostly of hydrogen gas and dust, these clouds are often regions of intense star formation. And astronomers have just identified one of the closest molecular clouds ever seen, which has long remained undetected on Earth's doorstep.

The cloud, now named Eos, is only some 300 light-years away. It's located on the edge of the Local Bubble, a huge low-density "cavity" in space that encases our solar system. And Eos is one of the largest single structures ever seen in space. If you could see it with the unaided eye, it would span 40 full moons across the sky.

Church of the End Times Renovated

The time has come to give the Church of the Prophecy of the End Times a major facelift. Beginning October 20th, 2024, a new cross and communion table have been created for the Church of the End Times by Reverend Canon Robert Roy. Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. applauded the endeavor as a new beginning for all our outdoor churches at the Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary to be refurbished. After the Divine Sunrise Service, Reverend Roy approached a few Community men and asked for help with this project. In the week prior, the old cement table and wooden cross had been dismantled with the help of our aging Bobcat mechanized equipment. In the words of Reverend Roy: "I had dug out a few hundred pounds of cement that held the wooden cross and older, prior cross. This morning, a group of us gathered and dug out new foundation holes to hold our new metal cross and metal table with a granite cover. We worked hard and within a few hours the work was done, except for the granite top which will be added later." Reverend Noriko Roy created a beautiful lunch for all of us afterward. Those involved in the project were:

The Reverend Father Ted Staver
The Reverend Father Robert Petrovich
The Reverend Canon Peter Foust,
The Reverend Larry Cousins
The Reverend Gary Huss, Jr.
The Reverend Dr. Stephan Fuelling
The Reverend Canon Robert Roy

When the Balance Between Material and Spiritual tilts

“Such was Pharaoh, a god below gods, a man above men. He was bound by the decrees of olden times and must ever set Truth over falsehood. He was the narrow channel between God and man, one whose task was to reveal God to men. The family of Pharaoh was, in the first place, chosen by the Council of

Light. In those days, a few families were selected and some chosen from them to be carefully bred, so that all the less desirable traits were excluded. Their aim and objective was to produce men and women perfect in goodness, the ultimate in perfection. These were the qualities, in which they were trained to the highest degree: In duty and responsibility, obligation towards the people, in dignity, justice and benevolence. They were a family, a race apart, trained wholly to govern in goodness. Every moment of their lives was to be devoted and dedicated to the elevation of mankind. They were taught to regard the people as their own children, to be guarded, guided and inspired by the finest examples possible. The family of Pharaoh was to reach out to the very summit of aspiration, to aim for the pinnacle of goodness and spirituality. While the common people labored under them, the whole life of royal families was to be devoted to service and goodness, to the elevation of mankind, to the preservation and administration of justice.

“Originally, this worked perfectly, but earthly conditions are finely balanced between the call of the divine and the demons of the flesh. Somewhere, down through the ages, the dam of spirituality sprang a leak, and that which had hitherto been hoarded and guarded ebbed away. The divinity, the spirituality in the blood was diluted, it became weakened, and when goodness diminished its opposite crept in. What has this glorious institution, the great Pharaoh become today? He is no more than the clacking tongue of a bell, a hollow, empty shell, a vane in the wind.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:33:25-26)

A God Below Gods

We have probably all been taught that the ancient Egyptians considered the pharaohs to be gods, but this quote from the Kolbrin Bible says differently. Rather than actually being gods, it says that the pharaohs were between gods and ordinary men. They were more than men, but less than gods. They were required to be truthful in all things as they were the channel between Man and God.

Council of Light

This is the first I have heard of a Council of Light existing in ancient Egypt, but it makes perfect sense that one existed in a society that placed spiritual values above the material. This council was probably made up of the most advanced priests, and other holy people. As we in Cosolargy know, God is all about Light, so it makes sense that such a group would be called the Council of Light. As the quote says, this council chose families from which the Pharaoh would be chosen. That may not have been the best way to do it since, as we know today, one "chosen" person might come from a family while no one else in that family is worthy of such an honor.

Earthly Conditions Finely Balanced

It is true that conditions here are finely balanced between good and bad, between material and spiritual. At least, that is how it is supposed to be. If a species of animal grows out of control in an area, nature will try to bring balance back by introducing a disease that primarily affects that animal, or some other way to reduce the overpopulation. But when it comes to the balance between material and spiritual, that balance is a lot harder to maintain, simply because the material world is the realm of the dark beings as it was created by the Demiurge, the false god. So I don't think it was a matter of the spiritual side developing a leak, as the quote says, but rather that over time, the forces and beings of darkness manage to turn more and more people toward materialism and away from the spiritual. Nature can't do much about that, but God can and is. As promised by ancient prophets, the Sun of Righteousness now shines down upon us. That means that God has placed his presence into the Spiritual

Sun. God is also gradually changing the physical realm back into spirit. It has to be done slowly to allow for humans to develop their spiritual Self and change with it. But God won't wait forever for us to turn around and move back towards the spiritual, so we should all start changing now by using the spiritual development techniques taught in Cosolargy.

“This Galactic ‘Bone’ Was Smashed by a Pulsar Clocking Up to 2 Million MPH”

The culprit in a cosmic hit-and-run that resulted in a broken 'bone' has been found out.

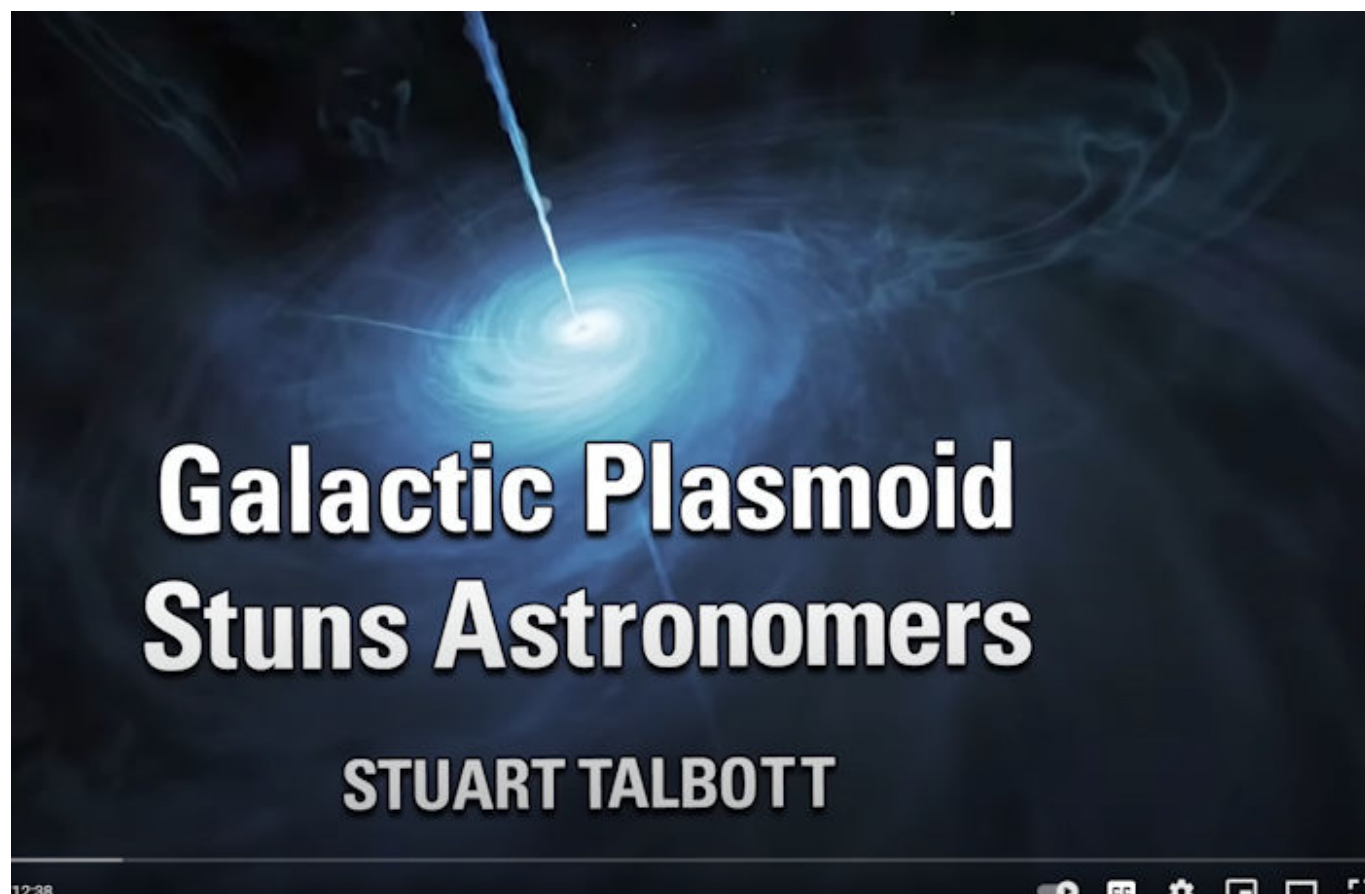

Of course, it's not actually a bone at all, but a mindblowingly huge filament in the center of the Milky Way galaxy, known as the Snake, extending for a length of 230 light-years. One of the interesting things about this filament is that it's relatively smooth – except for two prominent kinks, or “breaks”.

“Stuart Talbott: Galactic Plasmoid Stuns Astronomers | Thunderbolts”

The plasmoid at the center of a galaxy 300 million light-years away has astronomers stumped. Its behavior is perplexing to space scientists for exactly one reason—they simply do not recognize that it exists. For many decades the space sciences have accepted that at the center of most galaxies is a super massive black hole—a hypothetical object believed to be billions of times more dense than our own Sun, and whose gravitational field is so intense that nothing, not even light, can escape. The term plasmoid was coined in 1956 by the renowned MIT physicist Winston H. Bostick to describe a concentration of electromagnetic energy caused by electric currents. At the center of galaxies, where the Standard Model claims is a super massive black hole, the plasmoid concentrates and stores energy, and is connected to a larger galactic electrical circuitry. Independent researcher Stuart Talbott describes what advocates of the EU Model and plasma cosmology have always known—it's the physics of the plasmoid that makes the stupendous energies and mass at the center of a galaxy explicable.

“Largest Structure in The Universe May Be 50% Larger Than We Thought”

The largest known structure in the Universe may be even larger than we thought it was.

A re-examination of the distribution of powerful space explosions suggests that the Hercules-Corona Borealis Great Wall, a cluster of galaxies previously estimated to be 10 billion light-years long, could actually be as large as 15 billion light-years in size.

Hello Gene,

Welcome to our monthly bulletin with information of interest to friends of Cosology International. In this issue, we bring you up to date with current and future events and provide a little background on our founder, the late Gene Savoy Sr, and his explorations into solar cultures, along with some uplifting words of inspiration.

If you are curious about the solar techniques and activities of our Community, contact us by using the Contact Form on the Cosology International website. It will be forwarded to the appropriate representative for your area.

In these trying times, if you would like to have a prayer said for you or others, click the Prayer Request button at the end of this newsletter.

The Origins of Cosology

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And The Man, speaking with an awakened spirit, placed his hand on the sepulcher and continued: "This Child+ was a Teacher of divine concepts who assumed painful but necessary human form as an instrument of God.+ Following his mission, he has abandoned this world. From him we have learned the meaning of Christ+—that the office of Christ+ is assumed by many. Surely Christ+ has returned to the world as was promised by the Prophets. Some will say that Jesus+ or Buddha+ or Elijah+ or Viracocha+ or Zoroaster+ returned in the form of a child, but we now know and understand how God,+ having no form or substance, clothes Himself in terrestrial garments, thus becoming visible to man. Yet God+ is one and undivided."
