Saturday, September 14, 2013: Chapel Readings

Each week of the liturgical year, a reading from Second Advent Scripture is delivered as part of the Saturday Communion of Fellowship Service held in the Chapel of the Holy Child. This reading follows the Sacred Calendar of the Church; that is, Prophecies and Revelations that have been received by The Church on sacred dates are recalled in a liturgical context during the appropriate season each year. This reading is delivered by the Officiant of the Communion Service (that is, Bishop Gene Savoy, or occasionally in his stead, Bishop Sean Savoy) just before the final blessings. Each service also includes a reading from the ancient scriptures, prayers, or wisdom sayings of various world religions past and present and is usually thematically related to the Second Advent Reading. This reading is delivered by the Reader right after the announcements that begin the service and is thus the first reading of the service. An audio recording of the reading from Second Advent Scripture delivered on the date above is provided here below together with a transcript of the first reading of the service that day.

SECOND ADVENT PROPHECY AND REVELATION

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Prophet Isaiah:

Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.

And the nations shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.

Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee . . .

Then thou shalt see, and be radiant together, and thine heart shall be awed, and be expanded; because the multitudes of the sea shall be turned unto thee, the wealth of the Nations shall come unto thee . . . and they shall show forth the praises of the Lord. . . .

Therefore thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night that men may bring unto thee the wealth of the Nations, and that their kings may be brought to you. For the nation and king that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. . . . I will make thy officers peace, and thy ministers righteousness.

The sun shall be no more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the Lord shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory.

“Connecting With the Divine”

"Samadhi, in the Yoga tradition, is the supreme state of enlightenment, or God realization. Living in samadhi is a choice, but it is a mutually reciprocated choice. When we choose the Divine above all else, the Divine returns the gesture. All the great mystics have demonstrated this level of connectedness, ...

I was given a powerful experience of the Divine, almost a revelation. And yet, in the end, I chose not to live full time in Samadhi. There were many reasons for this choice, and the circumstances surrounding it were complex, but ultimately I made the choice because, as I can see in retrospect, I lacked the maturity to handle it. I desired the experience and was granted it, but, in Hindu terms, karmic impressions of previously crystallized ego structures remained to be worked through." ~Russill Paul

"The supreme state of enlightenment or God realization in the Yoga tradition? But isn't Yoga an exercise system? No, it isn't. That is just a small part of what real yoga is and by itself is about as useful and meaningful as a car with one wheel."

ANCIENT SCRIPTURE AND WISDOM SAYINGS

A Reading from the Secret Book of John:

“The One”

I asked if I might understand this, and it said to me, The One is a sovereign that has nothing over it. It is God and Parent, father of the All, the invisible one that is over the All, that is incorruptible, that is pure light at which no eye can gaze.

The One is the Invisible Spirit. We should not think of it as a god or like a god. For it is greater than a god, because it has nothing over it and no lord above it. It does not exist withn anything inferior to it, since everything exists within it, for it established itself. It is eternal, since it does not need anything. For it is absolutely complete. It has never lacked anything in order to be completed by it. Rather, it is absolutely complete in light.

The One is illimitable, since there is nothing before it to limit it, unfathomable, since there is nothing before it to fathom it, immeasurable, since there was nothing before it to measure

*it,
invisible, since nothing has seen it,
eternal, since it exists eternally, unutterable, since nothing could comprehend it to utter it, unnamable, since there is nothing before it to give it a name.*

The One is the immeasurable light, pure, holy, immaculate. It is unutterable, and is perfect in incorruptibility. Not that it is just perfection, or blessedness, or divinity: it is much greater.

*The One is not corporeal and it is not incorporeal.
The One is not large and it is not small.
It is impossible to say,
How much is it?
What kind is it?
For no one can understand it.*

The One is not among the things that exist, but it is much greater. Not that it is greater. Rather it is in itself, it is not a part of the aeons or time. For whatever is part of the realm was once prepared by another. Time was not allotted to it, since it receives nothing from anyone: what would be received would be on loan. The one who is first does not need to receive anything from another. It beholds itself in its light.

The One is majestic and has an immeasurable purity.

*The One is a realm that gives a realm,
life that gives life,
a blessed one that gives blessedness,
knowledge that gives knowledge,
a good one that gives goodness,
mercy that gives mercy and redemption,
grace that gives grace.*

Not that the One possesses this. Rather, the One gives immeasurable and incomprehensible light.

What shall I tell you about it? Its eternal realm is incorruptible, at peace, dwelling in silence, at rest, before everything.

It is the head of all realms, and it is the one who sustains them through its goodness.

We would not know what is ineffable, we would not understand what is immeasurable, were it not for the one who has come from the Father. This is the one who has told these things to us alone.

Rev. Vickie Hewlett

“More on Matter and Spirit”

“The ideas of some of our schoolmen about matter are, from the kabalistic standing-point, in many ways erroneous. Hartmann calls their views ‘an instinctual prejudice.’ ... The visible effects of matter are but the effects of force. He concludes thereby, that that which is now called matter is nothing but the aggregation of atomic forces... That they [scientists] know nothing whatever of matter, they deify it. Every new phenomena which they find themselves unable to explain, is trituated, compounded into incense, and burned on the altar of the goddess who patronizes modern scientists.” ~H. P. Blavatsky

“Some of what Blavatsky wrote here several decades ago is no longer completely true, but it still remains a valid complaint. Most scientists, with the exception of the quantum physicists, don’t understand matter anywhere near as much as they think they do.”
