- Globular clusters contain the most ancient stars in our Milky Way. They are huge, symmetrical groups of stars that are packed closely together in space.
- They look like round fuzzy balls when seen through telescopes.
- Stars in globular clusters probably formed first, as our galaxy was forming.

“Black Holes Might Not Be Quite as ‘Simple’ as We Thought, New Paper Suggests”

Black holes are engines of chaos, bleeding radiation across the cosmos as they shovel the smeared guts of dead stars into their bottomless stomachs. But when it comes down to it, even the biggest of black holes appear to be relatively simple beasts.

Unlike every other star, planet, and rock in the Universe, everything you need to know about a quiet, solitary black hole can be written under three dot points: mass, angular momentum, and charge – at least, according to the metaphorically-named ‘no-hair theorem’.

“Bubble-Like ‘Stars Within Stars’ Could Explain Black Hole Weirdness”

Once hypothetical monsters born in a tangled nest of Einstein's general theory of relativity, black holes are now recognized as bona fide celestial objects as real as stars, moons, and galaxies.

But make no mistake. Their engines are still as mysterious as they were when the German theoretical physicist Karl Schwarzschild first played with Einstein's field equations and came to the conclusion that space and time could pucker up into pits of no return.

Goethe University Frankfurt physicists Daniel Jampolski and Luciano Rezzolla have gone back to step one in an attempt to make better sense of the equations that describe black holes and have come away with a solution that's easier to picture, if no less bizarre.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And Jamil's + eyes did speak again to the spirit of The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.], saying: 'I am the last of the Holy Ones to visit the earth. Watch: You shall see a new form arise out of the remains of my mortal body—and it shall be a Body of Light +. This spiritual resurrection is a promise to all men and women of the earth that they are sons and daughters of God the Father +. In spirit they are immortal. And you shall teach all of the peoples and nations of the earth of what I have exemplified here. Man is in the last and final age. It is for him alone to seek and find God + in the manifesting Light of Christ + given through the Sun of Righteousness +.

'Following my entrance into the Worlds of Light +, my beloved father and brother in Light +, let no man of the Order cherish my material remains. Keep no lock of hair, no nail clippings, no piece of my clothing as a relic. Remember me in spirit and the life that God + gives to all of the family of Man by virtue of this redeeming force manifesting in the sun and the stars. And humanity shall be freed from earthly saviors and man-made religions governed by self-appointed priests who would misguide humanity. After my passing, you will take the Sacred Teachings of Light +, entrusting them into the hands of the Guardians of Light +'".

ORDINATIONS: Ordination of Paige Hubbard

On September 22, 2024 (the first day of Autumn), Paige Hubbard was ordained a deacon in the Second Advent Church following the Sunrise Divine Service at the Cathedral Church of the Americas.

Paige has been a student of Cosolargy since August 3, 2021. She is a long-time Reno resident and local business owner. As a Deacon in residence, she will be one of the Ministers who perform Chapel and Sanctuary services and functions, in rotation with the other resident Ministers.

Below are photos of the event.

Whoever Understands these Sayings will not Taste Death

“ These are the hidden sayings that the living Yeshua spoke and Yehuda Toma the twin recorded. And he said, Whoever discovers what these sayings mean will not taste death. Yeshua said, Seek and do not stop seeking until you find. When you find, you will be troubled. When you are troubled, you will marvel and rule over all. Yeshua said, If your leaders tell you, “Look, the kingdom is in heaven,” then the birds of heaven will precede you. If they say to you, “It’s in the sea,” then the fish will precede you. But the kingdom is inside you and it is outside you. When you know yourselves, then you will be known, and you will understand that you are children of the living father. But if you do not know yourselves, then you dwell in poverty and you are poverty. Yeshua said, A person old in days will not hesitate to ask a little child seven days old about the place of life, and the person will live. For many of the first will be last and become a single one. Yeshua said, Know what is in front of your face and what is hidden from you will be disclosed. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed. His students asked him and said to him, Do you want us to fast? How should we pray? Should we give to charity? What diet should we observe? Yeshua said, Do not lie and do not do what you hate. All things are disclosed before heaven. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed, nothing covered that will remain undisclosed.”

-The Gospel of Thomas

Hidden Sayings

Even in the traditional Bible, it is made clear that Jesus taught things to the apostles and disciples that were not taught to the general public. So why is St. Thomas (Yehuda Toma is Thomas) putting them in his writings? He can do so because he uses allegory instead of saying things straight out. This was a common practice when spiritual leaders wrote and nearly all the scriptures of the world religions are written largely in allegory.

Will not Taste Death

Thomas says that whoever discovers (or learns) the true meaning of these allegorical sayings will not taste death. What he means by that, is such a person will have an eternal life in spirit, not in the physical body. Physically, we are all going to die, but if we awaken and develop our spiritual faculties before that happens, then we can have eternal life in Heaven.

Seek Until You Find

This is not about seeking random things that entertain or amuse you. Jesus is talking about seeking the hidden truths, the Wisdom that the Gnostics called Gnosis. It won't be found in any book or classroom. It must be personally experienced by expanding our consciousness until we are able to communicate with the Beings of Light and with God.

Jesus adds that when you do find it, you will be troubled. That may be true for some because the truth regarding God, Heaven, and the life of Spirit is so different then what most expect.

Inside and Outside

Jesus then advises, in an allegorical way, that we should not look in the physical world for Heaven or the Kingdom of God. He then adds that the Kingdom is within us AND without us. That is an important statement. Many have been taught in the past, and are being taught today, that we must look within only to find the truth, but Jesus makes it clear that we must look without as well. He doesn't say it, but we know that when we look without, we should be looking at the sun, with emphasis on the Spiritual Sun.

Ask a Child

Why does Jesus advise adults to ask a small child the truth? Partly, it is because a small child has not yet learned how to lie, and has not yet been filled with false beliefs. It is also because he is indirectly predicting the time when a small child, Jamil, will come into the world to lead the truly faithful.

What is Hidden

Jesus tells Thomas, “Know what is in front of your face, and what is hidden from you will be disclosed.” What this means is that we must learn to recognize the physical world for what it is: a world of illusion. We look one way and think we see a tree, and in another and think we see a car, but all of those things are illusions. When we get beyond the physical mask of such things, we find something very different. Science is now catching up with the spiritual schools finding that on a subatomic level, there is nothing but energy and potential until it is observed.

“Scientists Discovered Something Kinda Alarming: The Universe Shouldn't Actually Exist"

- The universe is permeated by a field known as the Higgs field, which gives everything its mass.
- But the Higgs field isn't entirely stable, and if it were to "bubble," it would change reality to such a degree that everything in that "bubble" would cease to exist.
- A team of scientists has now argued that the existence of primordial black holes should have triggered the "bubbling" of the Higgs field to such a degree that nothing should have ever been able to form.

“May’s solar storm created a new Van Allen belt”

Remember the big solar storm on May 10 and 11, 2024, which sparked a major disruption in Earth’s magnetic field and thereby created widespread auroras? It featured an X2.9 flare on the sun, during a time of high sun activity overall (much like this week). On X (formerly Twitter) on July 31, 2024, @NASASun reported that the big May solar storm also created a new, temporary Van Allen radiation belt. It’s a new ring of charged, high-energy particles encircling Earth.
