

“An International Team Uncovers What Powers Auroras”

The Aurora Borealis and Australis have dazzled and inspired all those who have beheld them since time immemorial. Much like the Moon, stars, constellations, and planets, they are considered a permanent part of our shared cultural heritage. These awe-inspiring displays of light are the result of charged particles from our Sun interacting with Earth's magnetic field. However, there remain unanswered questions about the mechanisms that power aurorae that scientists have been hoping to resolve for decades. For example, there's the question of what powers the electrical fields that accelerate these particles.

The Great Flood and the Brotherhood of Light

“Then came the year of the great flood of waters, though some say it was before these days, when the salt seas rose upon the East and covered the land. Men were warned beforehand by the shortening of the days of the years, and the five days now added to the days of the year are days of sorrow for the alteration of things. It is said that seven days before the coming of the waters the sun appeared in a different quarter, but this is not easy to believe as the sun remains ever constant. The sailors of the king certainly departed for strange places during the chaos of waters, perhaps this was because the sun had left his steady course.

“Kings came and departed to their place. They ministered unto the people according to the light revealed unto them. Most knew only the veiled Truth. but in olden times, they were better kings than in later days. There were long generations of men who walked with wisdom, and among them was the generation of the First Great Master, he who established the Brotherhood of the Chosen Ones of Light. In those days men learned the rites for coming forth by day, but the inner wisdom was not declared before them. Yet they were days of wisdom, skill and knowledge, but the knowledge of the spirit still languished, and the Sacred Secrets remained hidden. In fact, never have they been revealed to the multitude of men, for never has the multitude of men been worthy.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:4-5)

The Great Flood

Most of us are familiar with the story of the Great Flood through the story of Noah and the Ark found in the Bible. Most people are not aware, however, that there are similar stories of a Great Flood found in many lands and in the scriptures of many religions. The stories may be exaggerated, as modern science tells us there is no way the seas could rise to the point of covering all of the land. Yet physical evidence has been found in recent years that many areas that are now dry land were at some time underwater.

Shorter Days and Longer Year

The quote tells us that this great event involved more than a flood. It caused the days to get shorter and the year to get five days longer. Probably the only thing that could have caused all of that is a large asteroid or a small planet passing close to the Earth. Immanuel Velikovsky believed it was the planet Venus that entered our solar system from outside. He wrote about this in his 1950 book, Worlds in Collision. Scientists today consider his work nonsense, yet it does explain some things better than any other theories available.

Kings Administered

There were times in the past when Kings were somewhat knowledgeable in the Teachings of Light. Some were students of the great mystery schools, others had advisors who were. In either case, they administered according to God's Will, and not the whims of man or the forces of darkness.

Brotherhood of the Chosen Ones

We don't know what group the quote refers to as The Brotherhood of the Chosen Ones of Light, but we do know that such groups have existed throughout the history of man. At some times, and in some places, they operated openly and with the full knowledge of the government. In others, they had to remain secret due to the governments becoming dark and materialistic. In all cases, they were careful to teach only those who would use the knowledge wisely.

“Gravitational waves finally reveal what's inside neutron stars”

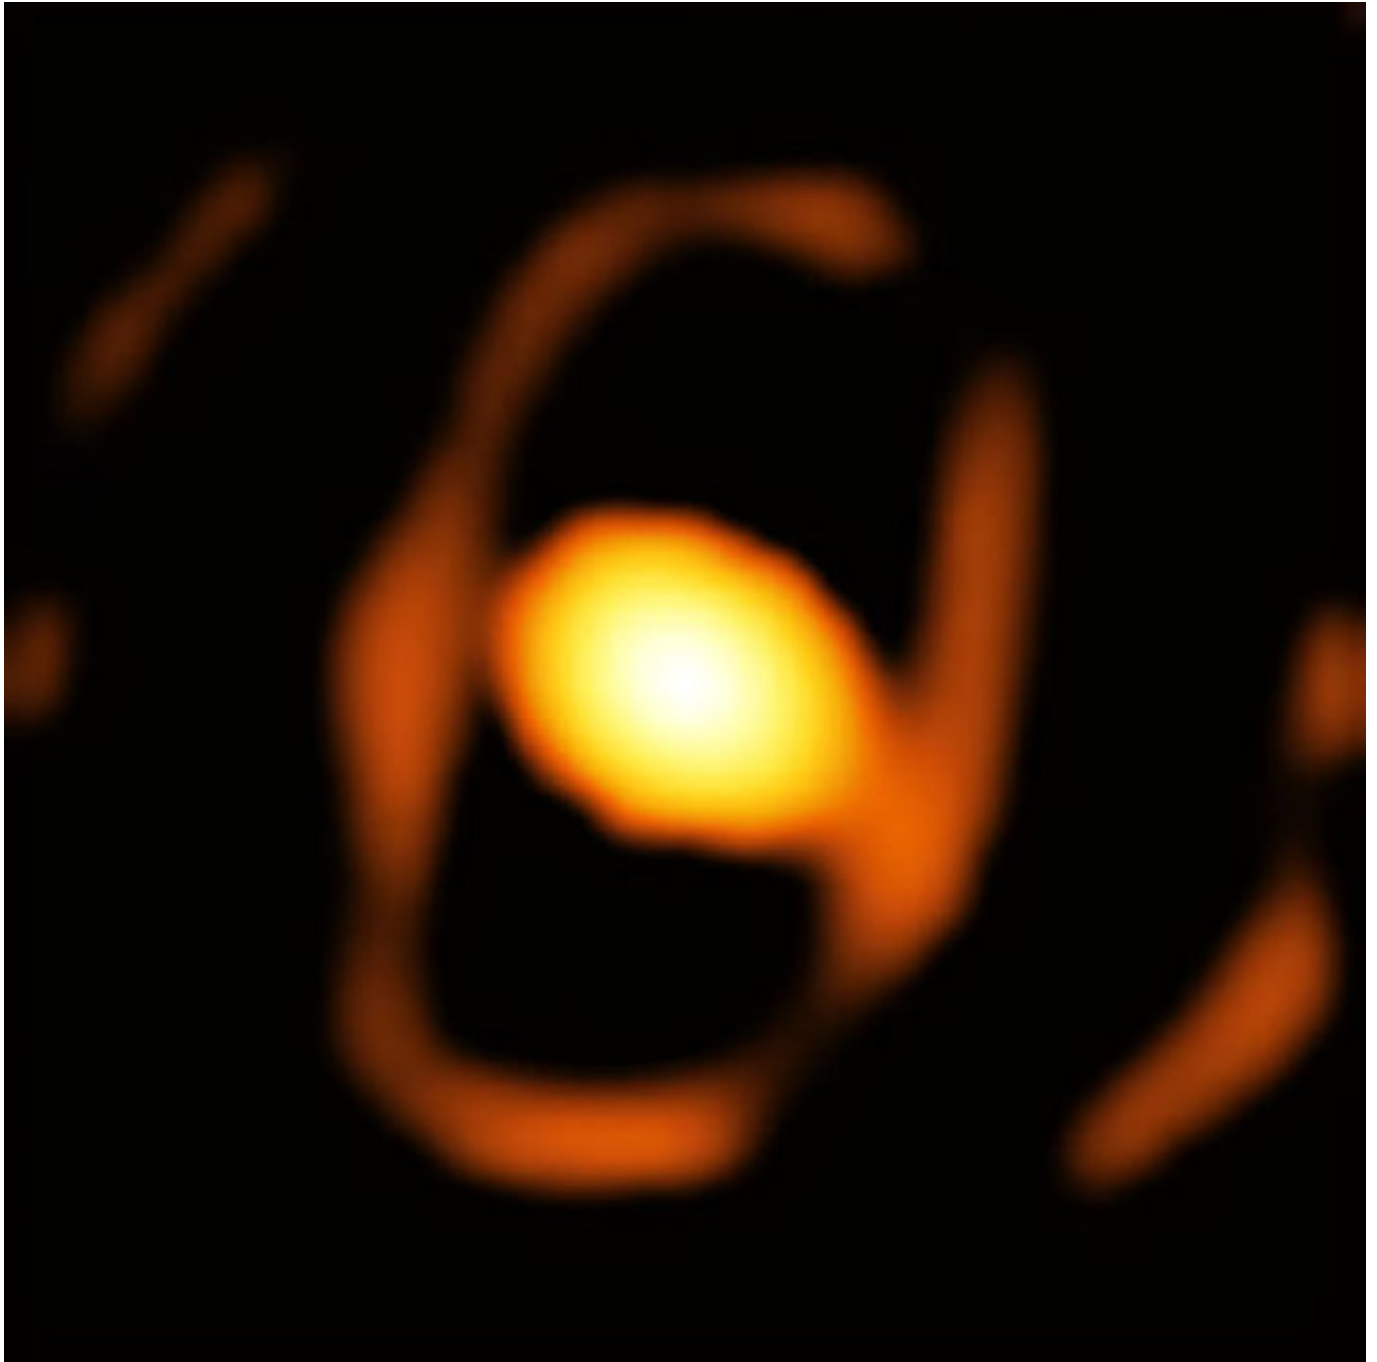

Some of the universe's densest objects can twist, stretch, and resonate in ways that challenge even the most seasoned physicists. Neutron stars, the remnants of massive stars that have exploded as supernovae, cram more mass than the Sun into a sphere barely 20 kilometers wide. Their gravity is billions of times stronger than Earth's, and their internal matter behaves unlike anything we can directly observe on our planet.

“A giant star's sudden shift

supernova”

WOH G64 has always been an oddball. It sits in the Large Magellanic Cloud, a small galaxy that orbits the Milky Way, and it ranks among the most extreme red supergiants known. Earlier estimates put it at roughly 1,540 times the Sun's radius. It also sheds mass at an unusually high rate and sits inside a thick, dusty environment that partly hides what is going on.

“How giant galaxies could form just 1.4 billion years after the Big Bang”

When the Hubble Space Telescope did its deep field surveys of the Universe, it discovered that galaxy formation was surprisingly mature, even within the first few billion years after the Big Bang. Webb and powerful radio telescopes have confirmed this mystery, with fully-formed galaxies appearing even earlier. How could they exist so soon after the Big Bang? Researchers discovered that early galaxies have insane rates of star formation: 1 every 40 minutes or so, compared to the Milky Way's rate of one new star a year or so.

Darkness Descended on Egypt

“Then, there was peace throughout the land, and the two priesthoods dwelt together in tolerance; but, behold, the day came when the hearts of men turned again to strife. Then, the land was rent in twain, and the forces of the Red Reed Crown strove against those of the White Lily Crown. Once, again the dark mists of ignorance descended to envelop the hearts of men. Again, the sacred shrines of Truth were closed, and those who served Truth withdrew behind the veil and were hidden from the eyes of those who would profane her. The whole land was torn apart, from upstream to downstream; from the right hand to the left of Egypt, there was strife.

“Then came one who was mighty among men, one who also knew Truth and saw the wickedness of the people. He was a Declared One, for unless a man be such, he has no value among the chosen. He carried the sword among the striving peoples, and in his day, the might of Mantethrop prevailed. The spirit of Hori, who took the land from Namah, and of Minis, who united it, were with him. Then, the lands of the North and the lands of the South were delivered into the hands of the king, and they became one. They were united, though they remained two. They were even as they had been before. Yet, the multitude declared themselves for the ways of the multitude, and the light of Truth remained obscured behind the dust raised by their dancing feet. Though peace and plenty reigned throughout the land, righteousness did not attend the throne of later kings. They ruled as kings, but the days of their rule were dark days of sorrow for the followers of Truth. For they became few and feeble in deed. They were lost in the land. Again, as in other days, the High Servant of the Sacred Mysteries, who held the key, commanded that the sacred shrines be closed. This was so that any knowledge of the Great Secrets should not pass into the possession of the unworthy multitude, which would profane them. Again, as has happened many times, the Great Light was removed from the midst of men.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:2-3)

Two Priesthoods, Two Lands

There was a time in the distant past when Egypt was divided into two areas, one ruled by the forces of the Red Reed Crown, the other ruled by the White Lily Crown. As should be expected, when a land is divided, peace between the areas will not exist for long. The forces of Darkness see to it that they soon turn on each other, thereby bringing darkness to all.

Sacred Shrines Closed

Those who ran the Sacred Shrines of Truth and Light closed those schools and hid truth from those who would profane such knowledge by using it for material purposes, or for the material benefit of themselves. This resulted in much strife in Egypt, much as we are seeing in the world today, where it is country against country, region against region.

A Holy Man Came

God does not tolerate for long the fall of truth and wisdom and sends holy men to bring the teachings back. Jesus and Buddha were such Messiahs. There were several others. Such Holy Men are declared as such by God, not men. In times when truth is hidden, men will declare holy men and women based on false criteria, but they are not real holy people. Simply doing good deeds in the material world is not enough to make one a true holy person.

Righteousness did not attend later Kings

Much as we see with politicians today, while some may rule in peace and plenty, they are not wise persons filled with divine knowledge, so they rule in darkness. The Great Light, being God's Light that comes to us through the Spiritual Sun, went out. But now that Light has returned in the form of the Sun of Righteousness, which grows stronger every day and is helping to awaken more and more people. We can help by bringing that Light into us, then sending some out to others filled with thoughts of peace, love, and harmony.
