Unlock the Secrets of Cosmic Energy

The Light Body Profile results are meticulously analyzed to offer you a nuanced understanding of yourself based on your dominant nature or personality type. When you receive your Light Body Profile you will find whether your dominant personality type is emotional, spiritual, scientific, or intellectual. The you will find whether your dominant personality type is emotional, spiritual, scientific, or intellectual. The results will tell you what you value most and what your primary mode of approach is to learning, knowledge, truth, and the world. You will also learn whether you have a mystic tendency.

Emotional

Emotional Dominance, as revealed in the Light Body Profile, indicates that you explore the constant interplay between external forces and the mind-body complex. The sympathetic and parasympathetic systems respond to emotions like fear or tension, impacting physiological functions. While the will can exert control, it's not always triumphant. Our System teaches individuals to align with the primary forces of the solar sphere, transcending negative emotional influence. By connecting with solar/cosmic forces, individuals gain mastery over their nervous system, fostering better overall health and enduring peace of mind.

Spiritual

Spiritual Dominance reveals that you are primarily geared toward the benefits of spiritual development, and that you have grasped early on that isolation is an illusion within the vast cosmic tapestry. While we prioritize individuality, recognition of the need to harmonize with universal forces beyond our personal control is paramount. Contacting the profound power behind existence becomes the true aim for thinking individuals. Our System serves as a guide in facilitating this transformative spiritual contact.

Scientific

Scientific Dominance suggests that you have an inclination towards scientific understanding, showcasing the harmony between the individual and the laws of the universe. It underscores the innate connection between man, light, and energy. Human eyes and the nervous system are uniquely adapted to process light, revealing the potential of light/energy. The spectrum of light and radiation holds the mysteries of the universe. Our System facilitates direct contact with cosmic energy, transcending conventional perceptions of physical existence. This contact broadens awareness, breaking us free from the limitations imposed by space and time. Individuals engaging with our System experience cosmic energies firsthand, expanding their understanding of the universe.

Intellectual

Intellectual Dominance, within the context of the Light Body Profile, shows that you delve into the profound connection between the mind and energy. Recognizing that energy is inherently infused with Intelligence Factors, our System emphasizes that the intake of energy is, in essence, the intake of intelligence. As individuals learn to absorb and harness significant amounts of solar energy, they are concurrently instructed on directing these inherent Intelligence Factors for the optimal well-being of their entire being. The System guides students on the art of channeling these factors to enhance both mind and body, fostering overall benefits and a harmonious integration of intellect and vitality.

The Community's website Cosolargy.org has been updated recently. The Light Body Profile (LBP) page has been updated with new information and a new format. The six images above duplicate what is on the page. You reach this page by selecting Light Body Profile under the Sun Gazing menu. A significant new addition to the page is descriptions of the four dominant personality types. That is followed by a video describing the importance of community in spiritual development. That is followed by a Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) section, then a brief overall description of the Light Body Profile. That is followed by the button to go to the questionnaire.
