COSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

August 26, 2021

I am very pleased to tell you that the head of our Cosolargy

Institute of Japan, Bishop Yukinori Matsushita, arrived yesterday from Tokyo for a two week visit here at the Community Center in Reno. It's been two years since our last Convocation when he was here last so, needless to say, we are very happy to see him. Yuki is staying at the new retreat apartment at the Red Rock Sanctuary which was just completed last week for his arrival. You can expect an article in the Community Communique soon with photos about this new facility at the Sanctuary, and I will keep you updated on our new visions and plans for Cosolargy in Japan.

Now, let us continue with our review of the Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings of Jamil.

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 6)

“‘The Community is a spiritual Church not a material church. It deals with Cosmic Laws, with the Teachings of God and with revealed doctrines. It is exclusive, unique, original. The Canon Law of the Church governs its activity. Society cannot live without civilizing laws. Nations are governed by laws they create, but all nations and peoples respond to the laws of nature more than to their civil laws.

“‘If God wishes to create a spiritual nation of spiritual people in the world, it would seem that nature acknowledges this change. Because our Teachings are revealed from a higher source than Man's secular knowledge, we are being given an opportunity to participate in the future of humankind. Many find that hard to believe. They expect all things will continue as before.

“‘The Messianists of this New Church are under vows and are dedicated to serve God in this New Age. They are empowered to affect the sun, and that effect brings about a healing of the races of Man on earth. People who place themselves under the care, protection and guidance of these ministers, who follow The Way and The System, are distinctively blessed by the healing rays of the sun. Just as individuals are so blessed, The Community and even nations are blessed.

“The power that God has promised to the New Ministers shall set them apart from the ministers of other churches that are self-proclaimed and hold to the tradition and authority given them by the State. Because of tradition, the State recognizes these churches though they do not have power authorized by God.

“The preaching of the New Ministers shall have a force and a strength and shall not be empty and weak words of the unordained of God. This force and strength are indicated by the words of the Twentieth Saying: `God shall, by means of the spiritual Sun, generate a New People to be formed into a New Nation unlike any nation of former times. And this spiritual Nation shall be governed by God's Spirit made Law. And Ministers of this New State shall be under oath to live in accordance with its laws, and to pledge themselves to instruct the human family in the New Way that God has decreed. Those who fulfill this teaching share in a special blessing of God.”

“These words he said aloud. But there were others left unsaid which he heard within his spiritual being.”

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

CŌSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

August 18, 2021

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 5)

“‘If we build churches and acquire great material possessions, these in themselves cannot help us to affect the sun or the cosmos for the good of the universe. That would not carry out the Will of God. Indeed, that would tend to serve our own human needs more than spiritual needs. Large buildings, in imitation of that which God has already created for us in nature, are superfluous. God, speaking through the prophets, has told us that altars made by human hands, like churches, are rejected by God.

“‘True religion and true worship are not a matter of faith, belief, sacrifice, or living a dogmatic set of laws, but living The Way revealed by God as a new spiritual people. The new spiritual personality is created or generated by God’s Presence and the force and the Light of the sun. The Light, being God’s Truth, Righteousness, Image and Word, represents a new condition in the universe which we are instructed how to use for our own spiritual evolution back to the Godhead.

“‘As I have said many times before, just as an embryo is conceived by the act of man and woman, the new spiritual person is conceived by the joining of a person with the Image and the Word of God. Thus God creates that person anew. Faith or belief systems, or adherence to a church idea created by the mind of Man cannot create new life, physically or spiritually. All living things generate their own kind, offspring similar to themselves.

“‘It is a law of nature that each species reproduce itself. Spiritual people are reproduced by God in the sun in accordance with The Teachings. As a new species of spiritual persons, they are restricted to The System itself – they are a product of that System. Generation of a Light body is something that is unique to this Teaching, this Way, this System that we have repossessed in this Church. This is very difficult for people to understand.

“‘Man has inherited a spirit. This spirit has a dual aspect. It has the capacity to come under the influence of the Powers of Darkness which make it grossly materialistic and plunges it deeper into error and eventual dissipation into chaos. It also has the capacity to come under the influence of the Powers of Light. When God’s Word has incarnated within Man’s spirit, a Soul is born to that person. The person then becomes spiritual with new faculties of perception which puts that person into a new dimension of reality. This is The Way that Jesus was attempting to teach members of the early Church, and it explains why they were not afraid of death. Jamil has revealed this same Way to us in modern times and he has shown us the means by which it is achieved.

“‘In the Catholic or Protestant churches in the world there is no spiritual rebirth of the kind spoken of by Jesus in the first Church, and now restored in the new Church, because the former are not teaching the means or the methods by which spiritual life can be recreated. The people who believe in the church are good people; they express themselves emotionally, intellectually, and have an appreciation of God. But they do not recreate or generate a Light body nor come into possession of a Soul as taught by Jesus. This, we know is fundamental.

“‘Ministers of this Church guard the secret means of obtaining this new birth. And, by secret, we mean sacred. This new birth is not attainable outside of The Community. Many people find fault with that fact. They say that this rebirth should be possible to anyone who wishes it, even outside of this Community. It is important for you to understand the concept that each species reproduces itself.

“‘If you look at the sun and other people do not, if you follow The System and other people do not, if you look upon the Image of God in the sun and other people do not, if you follow The Way and abide by the codes and the ethics and exemplify the Light, then you will respond to that System. Those people outside of The System cannot be expected to respond to it because it is beyond their power to do so. Some people find this very difficult to understand.

“The ministers or the persons within this System participate in a divine Marriage to God. And the Teachers of this Church officiate and oversee this marriage by teaching others how to apply The System and The Way within The Community. Some people may reason that it is not necessary to have Teachers, Overseers or order in The Community. They may reason that it is possible to obtain positive results by looking at the sun through disorder, by living any way they choose and still obtain a desired effect. That is not possible.

“The divine State is reserved for those people who participate within the mystery; it is not for those outside of it. Let us review what Jamil tells us in the Twenty-First Saying: “The destiny of the whole world shall be determined by ministers ordained to The Teaching of the New State. Each minister shall pledge to serve the New Nation beyond any human allegiance of family, society or nation, as an act of love of God.” The profundity of these words only has meaning and far-reaching significance when understood properly. The cosmos is not to be denied.’”

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 4)

“‘In the old Church, a life of chastity and celibacy is considered a sacrifice. In this New Church, by devoting ourselves to The Way, we make a gift to God.

“‘A life of dedication, overseeing The Community, reflecting to the sun, invoking God to shine forth to prevent the material sun from negating requires that an individual live The Way and have access to power that enables one’s thoughts to be measured in the sun. If you are powerless, you cannot affect the sun.

“‘Jesus and the Essenes emphasized the gift of spiritual love over sacrifice. Jesus made the ultimate gift by his crucifixion to show that the spirit was supreme. His followers, by the thousands, also gave their lives for the same reason. Modern Christians forget that this gift to God made by these people is still having an effect in the sun. And they were able to bring this effect about by emphasizing spiritual values and their love of God.

“‘Let us be realistic. The modern-day Church has become materialistic. The value of churches is measured in terms of material nature – members, wealth, power, prestige, influence in the secular affairs of Man, the number of churches or temples, or the number of clergy. None of these things have value as a spiritual force, only as a human and materialistic force. Thus the churches of today, and I am speaking specifically about the Christian churches, are more materialistic than spiritual.

“‘The concept of God in the modern Church is emotional. Materiality is a blessing. The churches have become more realistic over the centuries, knowing full well that society and heads of state are impressed with their numbers and their material wealth. They have long since ceased to work in accordance with God’s Divine Plan and are more anxious to solve human or emotional needs. They are incapable of affecting the ruling sun or the cosmos for the overall good of humankind.

“‘We can see why the New Ministers of The Community are obliged to maintain their independence from the Church of the Old Dispensation and take the necessary oaths and vows of Overseeing The Community to transform the world by means of the Sun – the spiritual Sun. This Ministry requires a new dedication. And it is only a new ministry, different from the existing ministry, that can change the world. There is no other way to transform the world because humankind, as we know, is spiritually ill; it has become selfish, materialistic, and worldly.

“‘Devotion to God is the only way to immortality; if a person is worldly then that person dies with the death of the body, for the spiritual Soul has not been created. People in the sun adhering to The System and to The Way become transfigured, according to The Teachings. Those who absorb the energy from the sun and look upon the Image of God, which is eternal Light and Truth, are made a new species. To understand God and to know God, future humankind must ‘burn away’ the material body and replace it with a Light body nurtured by the Breath of God from the Sun.

“‘The Child states, very simply, that if you look upon the image of the sun and allow the Word and the Image of God to manifest within you, and if you live The Way, a new person will come forth. And this person has an effect upon the sun and can alter the world in which we live. This is the whole concept.’”

And The Man continued instructing the Companions of The Way.

“‘It is the obligation of the New Ministry to preserve The Teachings and to instruct the whole world, including secular religions, in them. Man’s religions serve Man and his social order, as you all know, but they fail to inspire humankind because, being ignorant of The Teachings, they are not in agreement with Cosmic Law which dictates that God must be active in the affairs of Man and must be available to spiritual people. Therefore, these religions, being ignorant of this new condition, are not representative of the Religion of God and must be viewed as the religions of Man and his human society.

“‘Cosmic Law – the Divine Law of God – is to be served more than the law of Man. God does not respond to Man's laws; on the contrary, Man responds to God's Laws. So the Divine Law, being established first in Heaven and in the Light of the Sun, is to be established on earth according to Divine Order.

“A living theocracy is to come into being to serve God so that His Will may be established upon the earth and in the heart and the soul of Man.

“If Man is to understand and experience God, he must break away from Man's laws that were created to serve Man and not God. That does not mean that Man should live in a state of anarchy or that we care to do away with law. On the contrary, all spiritual people must be conscious of the good of law and order in the State, but people must not serve civil law first and relegate spiritual Law to a secondary role.

“God lives today. The priests of the Roman Church, as well as the ministers of the Protestant churches, emphasize that God lived in the past and is no longer active today in the laws of the nations. In reality, God is dead as far as the affairs of Man are concerned – God is relegated to ancient history. Though He is no longer available to heads of state, God once walked and spoke with those in power. Something went awry in the course of history.

“How are we to gather sufficient numbers to establish the Divine State, or Nation, spoken of by Jamil? How are we to make this Nation effective as a spiritual force in the face of large, heavily populated nations with their economic, political, military and material power? We are told by Jamil that any alteration of the world must begin with the individual. And the individual can affect the world when that individual is joined with others in Community. Though spiritual evolvment begins with the individual, one's influence is limited until such time as one joins in Community and abides by the laws of that Community. The effect of individuals collected in Community is measured in the sun – the material sun – of our universe. And the world reacts to that effect – the sun's power is more powerful on the earth than the natural forces of the earth itself. We thus comprehend the power that is in the hands of the adept.

“‘In The Community, the individual who becomes enlightened must be prepared to stimulate the world. And the individual must make a pledge to God in order to achieve this stimulation. This can only be done if the individual exemplifies the Light by living what we call The Way. By exemplifying the life of Jamil, one causes a reaction in the sun. Therefore, all things in a person's human life – fame, power, material benefits, pleasures, family, the State – must play a secondary role in order that one may live the spiritual or Holy Way.

“‘Whatever one must relinquish in order to achieve the State of Light should not be considered as a sacrifice, but as a gift to God. A sacrifice creates the opposite result of what is desired. A gift to God is given as an act of love and always achieves the desired result.

“‘We must emphasize the value of spiritual Love more than any kind of sacrifice, or the idea of sacrifice. The individual is asked to love God and not make sacrifices. Only the pure spirit of a reborn soul is acceptable to God – any other gift has no meaning. A pure spirit and reborn soul are the products of a lifetime of dedication, and the greatest gift that can be made by any human.’”

WEEKLY MESSAGE: July 21, 2021

COSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

July 21, 2021

Good morning. For those of you in the Northern Hemisphere, I hope you have been enjoying the Summer. My family and I recently returned from a few restful days at Lake Tahoe. A friend of mine was kind enough to let us use his vacation home.

We will now resume our review of The Secret Sayings of Jamil with the 20th and 21st Sayings.

The Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings (Part 1)

“The Man, the chosen and beloved disciple of Jamil, returned to the Emerald Isles to join in fellowship with The Mariners and Companions of The Way. And on the eleventh day of November, in the nineteen hundred and eightieth year of the Christian calendar, the twenty-first year following The Child’s birth, in the eighteen year of the Second Advent of God, The Man climbed with his followers to the heights of a forested hill in the valley called Makaha. And they sat down together amidst the ruins of an ancient temple for he would reveal to them the Twentieth and Twenty-First Sayings of Jamil as he had promised to do.

“But The Man was saddened this day for he had news that his father was near death. And he felt a part of himself dying with his father. And he was moved to silence and could not read from the scrolls. And that night his father did pass out of the world of the living at the age of eighty-eight years.

“The following day, The Man boarded the Ship of Light in company with the Seafarers and Companions of The Way, and sailed out of the harbor beneath a resplendent rainbow arching the sky. It was the twelve hundred and forty-fifth day after the Ship of Light had sailed from its home port on the mainland of America, and the five hundred and twenty-seventh day in the Emerald Isles.

“Throughout the day they sailed on the blue waters of the Pacific, driven by a freshening breeze. And The Man felt the pulse of his father’s spirit within his own. And he was at oneness with him, knowing that his father had returned to the source of his own being as do the aged who, broken by the pains of a tired body and restless spirit, seek God in their own way.

“And he felt no further sorrow or loss, knowing that his father had found peace in death. And he looked at the sun with eyes made for Light and prayed that his father would know of his love for him.

“That evening after the darkened sea had swallowed up a fiery red sun and they had dined together, The Mariners and Companions of The Way sat before The Man awaiting his words. And he spoke unto them saying:

“‘You have received nineteen of the Sayings of Jamil. And these sayings of the Seer Child, especially when combined with the prophecies he has revealed to us, instruct us in the formation of a New Religion on earth. And I say a New Religion because the Messenger of God, come in the guise of an innocent child, has shown us The Way in a modern world – how to express the religious life in a higher form than given to us by any of the world's religions. The world's religions do not teach The Way.

“For example, in the Christian religion, we are left with a belief system which does not teach us the religion of Christ, nor how to find the Godhead, or our Godhood. We are told to believe in Jesus, but there is no grand design for the establishment of a universal theocracy by enlightened men and women living The Way of God. The Church is static, frozen to what occurred two thousand years ago.

“The Child continues to inspire us from Heaven, continually revealing truths of a new dispensation for the world. He has revived older truths that are eternal and are as valid for us today as they were for Man centuries ago. But more than this, the Man-Child has supplemented these truths with new teachings which fulfill the older religions and create a new one. That is what I mean when I say that Jamil has brought us a New Religion.

“The Sayings and other revelations of Jamil, including the Prophecies, give us profound material for thought. The first nineteen Sayings tell us that a future religion, prophesied by the ancients, was destined to usher forth out of the Central Sun at some future date, and that this religion would cast out Darkness from the world. We were also told that this new prophetic religion would generate a fellowship of Immortals, that a School of Light would come into existence to instruct Teachers, that these Teachers would become God's agents and be empowered by the sun, and that they would eventually triumph over the world.

“‘The School of Light formed of the Immortals would instruct the nations of the world in the new laws and statutes of God. The future nations and governments would be judged by God’s Sun of Justice.

“‘We are told the spiritual Sun benefits those dedicated to The System for it is given specifically for God’s People living in The Community. This Sun is not accessible to those outside of The Community. This is true because the material sun is diseased due to Man’s thoughts and actions. It can be cured only by the spiritually devoted through the spiritual Sun.

“From out of the various religions of the world an Order of Patriarchs would emerge to form a holy Order. Women would also become Matriarchs and disciples of this Order.’”

“After speaking these words, The Man broke a golden seal binding two scrolls, and removing a silken ribbon, he began to read.”

We will review the Twentieth and Twenty-first Sayings next week.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

CŌSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

June 16, 2021

I want to personally thank all of you who took the time to attend The Community's first-ever virtual conference via Zoom. It was a great pleasure to see all of you, and for some of you to put a face with a name. The meeting was a great success! I also thank everyone who was involved in putting the meeting and presentations together.

We will be sending information to you soon regarding next year's in-person Convocation here at the Community Center in Reno so you can start making adequate plans. 2022 marks the 60th anniversary of the birth of the Sun of Righteousness in 1962. It also coincides with an auspicious 20-year cycle, so it's important that you make every effort to attend this time of special blessings. Next year's gathering will be our first in-person Convocation since 2019, and we will be presenting an exciting program which you will not want to miss.

If you haven't had a chance to look at the Cosolargy Members Forum on Facebook lately, two videos which we didn't have the time to show last Saturday have been posted. The first is on the impressive restoration work that has been completed at the Cathedral Church of the Americas at the Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary. The second is a video that shows a little more of the activities at the Cosolargy Institute of Japan, including a short message from Bishop Yuki and scenes of their sunrise service. You can also expect to receive soon the presentation we were going to show you on our property in Baja California Sur, Mexico on the Gulf of California.

My regular weekly messages will resume next week. In the meantime, I thank you again, and send you my blessings.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours in Light+,

Gene
