The Eleventh Saying (Part 3 of 4)

“When he had finished speaking the Fourth Mariner said: ‘Would the nature of the intercession by the adepts then be one of redress, of grievance because of the injustice to God, or is there some kind of physical intervention that they become involved in? What do they do? Are the roles of the adepts limited to observation and bringing to God’s attention wrongdoings, or are they instruments through which God works?’

“And The Man answered him saying: ‘A comparison could be made to a king who, not knowing how his kingdom was being run, sent his agents to all the parts of his empire and asked them to report to him how the governors were ruling the empire and, above all, to report on the condition and welfare of his people. If these agents were to report that the people are being oppressed, exploited, heavily taxed, brutalized and kept in ignorance of his statutes, laws and ordinances, I believe the king is going to be very unhappy. He is going to mete out swift justice for those who have abused their positions in his kingdom. I believe that the agents of this Community will pray to God and spell out very carefully what it is that is wrong. And, that is all they have to do – report. People cannot judge the actions of others; only God can do that. What greater power could be given to mankind than this – to do good upon the Earth? Very few people know the evil and the wrongdoing that takes place in this world. If people knew they would be horrified. We are like surgeons who must probe a diseased body but not be repelled by the stench. It is within our hands to cure the problem if we be not afraid to take the scalpel in our hands.’

“After he had said this the Fourth Mariner asked: ‘Would not God know the injustices that were occurring without the report of an intermediary of some kind?’

“And The Man answered saying: ‘Why does Man need teachers? Why do people need redeemers? Why do individuals need holy men and women of God to teach them? If God could govern mankind without the help of others, He could have done it long ago by direct intervention. Being made in the Image of God and being divine, men and women have the right to govern themselves within the framework of God’s Creation. Human beings are not as animals to be enslaved and governed by a taskmaster. Man is part of the Godhead and must participate in his own divinity. Worldly powers would have mankind as cattle to eat straw and then await slaughter without knowledge of their destiny or ability to protest. God would have them free to bear responsibility as part of the Godhead.

“In our America, where the people enjoy certain freedoms, God has sent a messenger into our midst to teach us of greater freedoms. God would that we venture forth into the world teaching of the freedom of mankind. God would have us enjoy this freedom on the material level as well as on the spiritual. We would teach mankind that he should be able to enjoy the privileges of freedom and liberty, to be judged by laws and not by individuals, to live under God in total freedom and liberation and not be denied their rights by those of very evil and wicked nature. This is the whole meaning of the Sun of Righteousness, the Community of Righteous living, and the Sun of Justice. America has been blessed with a high social structure in the first place in order for a high religion to be ushered forth within the nation.

“Thereafter, the whole family of Man must-needs be instructed in a higher life recognizing human rights as well as spiritual rights of the highest order. Man must-needs accept responsibility for his individual and social life. Let me give you an example. Suppose you lived a hundred years ago and you visited a settlement ruled by a wicked sheriff who was in league with a wicked judge and a wicked businessman. The populace were taxed unfairly, prices were high, children were forced to leave school in order to work, women were being abused and the men subdued, would you pass on through or try to do something about helping them? You might have gone into the local church and prayed asking for help that might never come. If help did not come, you could have joined the rest of the populace in submission. By so doing you would have been condoning the right of unrighteous men to govern outside the law except that of their own making. To have done this would have meant forfeiting your manhood by living under the injustices for security's or safety's sake, turning away and ignoring evil. Or you might have taken the matter into your own hands, or joined with others, to uphold the law. You might have learned to use a pistol and fought against wickedness as a warrior. In this respect you would have regained your manhood. For no one can stand idly by while unjust men abuse innocent women and children or lesser men. God has sent into the world a righteous weapon that Godly men and women can wield against unrighteous and wicked people while acting within the law of God.

“Did not Moses seek to free his people who were enslaved by Pharaoh? Moses received divine assistance from God to intercede for the Hebrews. It is the same today, only on a far greater scale. God has given spiritual powers to enlightened men and women of a new religious community so that they may free the human family from its bondage to material enslavement and government by principalities of the Earth now under the power and influence of Darkness. God would free mankind through this religion of Light, in union with the Sun of Righteousness, beginning in America. Never in the entire history of human evolution has such a power been given unto mankind by which to do good in the world.”

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

February 12, 2020

And here is the first portion of the commentary relating to the Eleventh Saying. I apologize for the length, but there was not a good way to shorten it.

The Eleventh Saying (Part 2 of 4)

“When The Man finished reading, he put down the paper and waited. And each of the mariners contemplated his words. And no one spoke for several minutes. Still The Man waited. And after a time the First Mariner spoke saying: ‘Is this to say that we, the adepts of the Community, are to be the observers of the injustices or wrong doings of the world, and to call upon solar forces to administer justice, or just punishment?’

“And seeing some concern on the faces of the mariners, The Man took a copy of the Bible and, leafing through the thin rice pages, came to a section that was marked by a red ribbon. And speaking softly and directly to the seafarer who had asked the question he said: ‘Let me read you chapter 4 of the book of Malachi from the Old Testament:

“‘For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. And you shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts. Remember ye the Law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes and judgements. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.’

“And laying the holy book down beside him The Man spoke: ‘Men throughout the Christian world have asked and prayed for the Second Coming of Christ. They forget that when Jesus spoke about the final age of the world, when God shall judge it, he said there would be no Light, but Darkness. Men forget that they are to be judged for their crimes, not rewarded by God . The injustices on this planet are not only an abomination to the dignity of Man, but a crime so horrendous that I have no words to describe it. These crimes occur in prisons, institutions and in society. We can recall what took place in the camps during the great war. There were men, God fearing men, who were cremated, tortured, abused, deprived of all dignity and treated like cattle or worse, because other men had chosen to oppress them. These crimes still continue today on a very large scale where politically-minded persons believe they have the right to do whatever they will against the citizenry of the world simply because there is no one to oppose them. The aged are mistreated. Widows and orphans go hungry. The young are exposed to immoral and unrighteous teachings. Crime and unethical ways are encouraged by those given the responsibility of helping the unfortunate. Homes of correction and prisons abuse those sent to them for help. The sick and infirm are exploited by healers and makers of drugs and medicines. Judges misuse their powers. Public media poison the minds of the populace with propaganda. People of power and wealth make commerce of human beings. Politicians and dictators deny Man the right of individual freedom, the right to worship God, or to know the truth.

“Who is to judge powerful nations and powerful men who govern and dominate the lives of the populace? They have become powers unto themselves. Are they to be allowed to continue their mistreatment and injury to the human soul? We all should thank God that He has sent the Sun of Justice, the Messianic Sun, to judge the world for its wrongdoings against Man and Heaven. If we believe in law and order, in justice and goodness, then let mankind be judged by a superior power. If we believe in righteousness, then let God, the true King of the world, mete out justice to men and nations. We know from what has been told us that Man is to be judged not by Man, or by the laws of Man, but by God and by God's laws. When we of this Community see injustice, wrongdoing and crime against individuals, peoples and nations, we should pray to God through the Light of His Sun to judge these wrongdoers by strong Light. By these means they will be burned up, we are told. Whether this is a figurative statement or not, I do not know. But I suspect that individuals who do wrong will be inflamed by an inner Light. Perhaps nations, and the world, will be burnt away by a strong Light from the Sun. To me, it is a wonderful thing that God has sent the means to accomplish a great good in the world. If Man has set himself up above God's Law then he must answer for it.

“No adept has the power to punish Man. But he can observe wrongdoing and pray to God to correct it through the Sun of Justice. I believe that if enlightened adepts of Light fail to serve as humanity's protectors, if they neglect their responsibility by allowing crime to be committed, then the world is lost. We all know there is no earthly power alone, no individual power, that can assist mankind in the world today.

“I am not speaking here only about crimes of violence and brutality, but of those more sinister crimes against the human Spirit; crimes against humanity by men in power who bend and twist the minds of men away from their dignity and status as children of God. Such powers seek to reshape human souls and turn them away from their own spiritual rights given by God. They would bend men to the Earth, taking away their individual rights as divine beings. Such powers deny that Man has greater rights than those afforded by earthly rulers. They kill the mind and the Spirit and make of human beings playthings of the powers of Darkness whose intent it is to deny mankind forever its immortality. I tell you, gentlemen, these are crimes to be feared more than any other, even those of armies which rule men by force. For Darkness kills the human Spirit silently and it passes away into oblivion as if it had never been. But we know that God's Light manifest in the Sun of Justice is more powerful than any weapon of war, more powerful than any material power of the Earth. No living thing can withstand the Light that has come in the Sun. And this is what is meant in the biblical passage which says that the Earth shall burn as an oven and all that do wickedly shall burn with it. Not for two thousand years have the prophets of God wielded such a power to do good on Earth. Therefore, it is important that men and women of God unify themselves into an enlightened Order and become the instruments of God on Earth and servants of the people who are crying out for illumination. Who shall help them it not men and women of God? If we could but observe on all the Earth the wickedness and evil promulgated by people of power who are in league with the powers of Darkness because they are so dominated, though to all appearances they are sworn to uphold the law, but for the most part are corrupt, accept bribes, encourage the use of drugs in society, tolerate organized crime, abuse people of all ages, cause whole nations to be armed against their neighbors, forced to build weapons of war and kept in bondage because of the debt thereof, we would want to do something about it – just as the knights of Light and angelic powers in olden times fought for goodness. The time may come, gentlemen, when it will be too late to help.

“‘I don’t believe the Sun of Righteousness is a flaming sword in the hand of adepts that is going to be wielded day by day to cut down the wicked. I believe the Sun works very slowly, but surely. But, the Light of God must be turned on Man’s institutions which are opposed to God, which carry on the work of evil, and the work of the Devil, and the work of Darkness. For those of Light who stand idly by, and watch the world be corrupted by Darkness without doing anything about it, are not fit to look upon the face of the Sun. Think back to Jesus and his actions. Think back to the actions of the apostles, and what they tried to do, to bring about among the peoples of the world. We, as illuminated Souls, must uphold the goodness of God and His Light in the world.”

Second Advent Sunrise Vigil – Day 7

Today we observe the seventh day of the eight-day sunrise vigil commemorating the birth of the Sun of Righteousness and related events 58 years ago. I hope you have had an opportunity to re-read from the book, Jamil: Child of Light. As February 2nd marks the beginning of The Community's year according to the Sacred Calendar, tomorrow, February 6th, signifies the manifestation of The Comforter, another very auspicious day filled with much importance and many blessings.

Now that we have completed our review of the Tenth Saying of The Secret Sayings of Jamil, let us now proceed to the Eleventh.

The Eleventh Saying (Part 1 of 4)

“...And these are the words of the Eleventh Saying:

“‘God the Father has caused the Sun of Justice, awaited and hoped for by the ancients, to appear in the heavens to illuminate the actions of all people and of all nations of the Earth. By the Light of this new Sun and the Law of God’s Word therein, governments and nations shall be judged. And the adepts of The Community shall serve as God’s agents upon the Earth to observe the doings of men and nations. And if there be injustices, God’s agents shall intercede for the people against wrongdoers and mete out punishment, for God would not that powerful leaders abuse their positions to harm God’s children. And the justice of God’s rule shall be swift and certain. And none who do wickedness shall escape the righteous punishment of God.

“‘The agents of the Father shall be a blessed body of noble and enlightened minds calling upon the power of the Sun to burn away the injustices of the world. It shall not be by words or actions of men that God shall serve out justice, but by His redeeming fire. And God’s agents in the new Community shall be, of all things, unified and shall call upon God the Father in times of injustice. And God shall hear them, and the Sun shall be as a righteous sword in their hands to work a great good upon the Earth. Never before has Man been possessed of such power to do goodness in the world. And let all men and all nations know that punishment for wrongdoing will come from God, through His Messianic Sun of Righteousness, which has appeared to judge the world in these last and final days of a dying world, making way for the new.’”

I leave you to contemplate these words before reviewing the actual commentary, which we will examine in three parts.

THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 29, 2020

Midnight Passing of The Child, Jamil (1962)

The Tenth Saying (Part 17 of our series)

“When he had said this, they went up on deck to view the sunset. And when they returned, The Man spoke again: ‘Unless a person generates a Light body and generates Consciousness, one cannot experience immortality of person. Once a person accepts this fact and that life in Spirit is governed by spiritual Law and Order, that person is able to participate in the life of The Community. For spiritual Life must begin here in the physical world. Certain conditions have to be established before spiritual Life can begin. This entails a system of spiritual development within an order of an authentic, inspired and revealed religion.

“Any person is only as great as the philosophy that motivates that person. If it be a philosophy of love, kindness, understanding, tolerance and universality, then one is nourished by a beneficial energy. A person motivated by hate, intolerance, selfishness, actually lives off oneself. This kind of energy is self-destructive and destroys the mind and body. Persons who enter the order of The Community and look at the Sun properly receive a celestial energy filled with the Intelligence of God. Through the light of the Sun they are able to project their Consciousness into the Mind of God and into the Worlds of Light. By these means, they become more celestial than terrestrial, enjoy a fuller, richer and longer life, and are far more productive than earthly people.

“People read the Bible, they read scripture, go to lectures, hear marvelous words on the Spirit, they hear theories, commentaries, but seldom, if ever, do they hear the truth as given by an institution directly under the inspiration of God. We of this Community have the privilege of aiding God so that a new world order can be established to make the world a better place for present and future generations. Our System has been practiced by the great holy men and women of times past. Today, mankind can actually put The System into practice and become a more advanced, more evolved race.

“Every person has been created in the Image of God. Once the light of the Sun is introduced into the body, God’s Word takes on Form within that person. When people love God, they live off of a different kind of energy; it is self-sustaining, and self-generating. If a person rejects this System, and accepts a system which is not inspired or divine, then that person does not develop. I believe you will find as you voyage about the world and come in contact with members of various religions that all people seek the truth. Therefore, we have the responsibility of teaching the religious of the world the new Way revealed by God.

“To teach men and women to cease from jealousy, envy, greed, selfishness, and self-destruction requires a system that can replace those petty feelings with higher feelings. Those higher feelings can only be expressed in a community where people mingle with their own peers. You cannot be spiritual and illuminated living in the world with people who are materialistic, who do not understand God, who do not participate in the Godhead, who do not take the Light of the Sun of Righteousness into their Spirits, and who do not have the Word of God incarnate within their beings. You will be, of all people, most lonely. When one joins the Order, one becomes complete and useful. If each can find the Christ-force in life, and live within it, then Christ triumphs within us. And I would like to stress again, contrary to what some anthropologists and medical people teach, that Man has not ascended from the animal kingdom. Man has descended from the Godhead. And there is a method by which everyone can return to the Godhead and participate in their divinity.

“Think in terms of the difference among people – those of Spirit and those of Earth – they are distinct. Each is obligated to contribute to the establishment of The Community because it is important that spiritually-minded souls devote themselves to the restructuring of the world. Previously I have spoken about a condition or state of Man. A man and a woman unite, and by so doing a new person is born into the world. Similarly, when a person unites their Spirit with the Word of God present in the Sun of Righteousness, spiritual birth takes place and the person is reborn in Christ. And then when this happens, the panacea which has been striven for by all psychologists, psychiatrists, sociologists and religionists, is afforded man and woman. With discipline, the antipodes which pull at us creating moods of despair, anger, sadness, negativity, sorrow, loneliness, anxiety, guilt, insomnia, fear, pride, worry, frustration, inadequacy, and insecurity pass away as that person takes on a new identity. A person can, within The Community, become Christ-like. It requires time and dedication, but that is the objective of this Community – to enlighten every member so that each can imitate Christ on Earth. Such persons will become brothers and sisters of a single family dedicated to the teaching of the brotherhood of Man living under God, not for the destruction of what God has given us, but for the construction of a new order on Earth.

“‘Each enlightened Soul assumes the responsibility of the unity of the Order which I so strongly stress at all times over and over again. For Man is by earthly nature rebellious and at odds with his own kind. Each is obligated to preserve the world for future generations. We all know that if mankind continues to abuse natural law, exploiting the natural environment, the cessation of all living things will come to pass. For mankind to knowingly deny his own immortality by turning from God is to commit, willingly, a crime which must be punished.’”

Congratulations. You made it through the Tenth Saying! Next week we will begin with the Eleventh. Please join us in the Sun through February 6th as we participate in the Second Advent Sunrise Vigil. If you'd like to re-read the events that transpired in 1962, I encourage you to do so. I recommend reading from Jamil: Child of Light. I always find the words very inspiring.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: January 22, 2020

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 22, 2020

This is the second to the last in our series concerning the Tenth Saying.

The Tenth Saying (Part 16 of our series)

“And after reading the words of Jesus, The Man said: ‘Here Jesus is talking about the final days of the world when the Light from the Sun of Righteousness will inflame the minds of men ad women. Those of Light will feed on the New Sun, while those of the world and of Darkness will suffer in the heat of that spiritual Fire, in which the world will be burned up.

“‘Jesus prophesied the state of the world in the final days. He talked about the Second Coming of a Messianic Age, a final age in which the world would be inflamed with God’s Word. Thus God has appeared in the Sun as a Messiah. People are to be redeemed by God’s own Light – His Body and Mind. It is natural that all the immortals and all of the Angels of God are manifesting with God in His Sun of Righteousness. So let him hear who will hear. All are free to acknowledge or reject. People rationalize. Because they cannot understand they reject. Many will ask why they have to be saved from matter. They wish everyone to be saved without effort, as if it is a divine right. Such is not the case. And because of this state of affairs, people would judge God and His right to judge the world. Man is arrogant, puffed up by his own intellect. Man still wishes to disobey God’s law and order because it is in conflict with his understanding of the Universe. It was such rationalization that made the Angels fall from Grace. Men and women of goodly rule and order labor for salary; they support the state and pay their taxes, respecting civil law and order. But rebellious people expect reward without taxation. They wish to live at the expense of productive men and women. These same kind reject God’s Law and Order. They seek benefits without just compensation to the state which is the foundation of the world. Such individuals serve neither God nor man honorably.

“‘It is Man’s justice that such are judged by the law and punished. It is the same with God. If Man wishes to be wicked and disobey God’s law and order, he too must suffer the consequences of punishment. Such is the natural order of law and order. People cannot see that without goodly law and order, be it civil or religious, anarchy triumphs and society falls into disorder.’

“The First Mariner spoke again saying: ‘Will all the pre-ordained, whether they hear The Teaching or not, be called out to The Community by the solar Logos in the end anyway?’

“Hearing him, The Man said: ‘There are pre-ordained here that will hear the Word but perhaps ignore it. We don’t know. Remember that God says in the final days He will send His Angels into the world to gather the people. There are Angels working in the world, inspiring the people. Jamil appeared to me before his birth in physical form; there is a very good example of pre-existence. Jamil lived as an Angel of Light, a majestic Angel of Light who recognizes and acknowledges God the Father. And he appeared and said, “I will appear in the body of a child. The child will come and teach.” So he occupied the physical body of a child for three years. Thus the indwelling Spirit or the Word was incarnate in the flesh, which demonstrates the human nature of The Child as well as the spiritual nature that co-existed with the body. This teaches us that Jesus had a human nature and a spiritual Nature. They crucified the man, but they could not kill the Spirit. While Jamil, The Child, died, the Angel was immortal.’

“Then the Second Mariner spoke: ‘How are the Angels working in the world now?’ And The Man replied saying: ‘God speaks to Man on Earth in the Light of the Messianic Sun and through the voice of Angels who manifest to Man in dreams and visions, and Man hears their words within his own being. The Angels awaken Man by these means and intercede for God who is beyond Man’s comprehension. According to the old gnostic teaching, the Angels attempt to awaken Man’s spiritual Consciousness. We are told in the Bible that in the last and final days of the Earth God will send His Angels to assist Man’s spiritual Awakening.

“‘This is one way that our Community is unique. We accept that Man requires outside help in order to develop. In many years of teaching, I have found that people are very insecure. They lack confidence. And they lack self-identity. Most are fearful and feel inadequate. Today Man needs to know who he is. The majority are not certain just how to fulfill themselves. They are afraid they are going to grow old, be alone, poor without friends, disliked. This insecurity causes disease and mental breakdown, emotional strain, anxieties and physical ills. Their insecurity makes them question their own immortality. "Am I immortal or not?" is a common question. Their fears and their guilt begin with the idea of original sin. Because they have been taught the concepts of an inferior god who is very human, one who is jealous and may cast them into Hell, they are fearful. Many people are religious only because they do not want to go to Hell. So, they worship God not out of love, but out of fear. And they feel inadequate. They lack confidence in themselves and slowly they lose identity. In short, people are lost and alone, existing without hope.

"Once a person makes spiritual development the main goal of life, the material world becomes less important because that person is able to handle materialism without becoming a slave to it. I learned that everyone is seeking answers to the eternal questions. People came to me in Peru from all over the world. And I discovered that while they wanted to make a better life for themselves, they were not interested in changing their lives, nor in joining a community. They were far more interested in alleviating their own ignorance without wanting to alleviate the ignorance of mankind. I decided there were very few people really prepared for the spiritual life in Community. And I decided to concentrate my efforts on those few people – the pre-ordained as I came to call them. I learned by observing that when the Word of God incarnates in people, each experiences a freedom from ignorance. Each seems to feel that he or she has been forgiven all sins and is no longer judged. Each is illuminated. After this, each wants to live a new life. And I learned that to have meaning, a community life must teach new tenets, new concepts, new precepts, and make a practical approach to solving the needs of its members. A theoretical religion is of no value to anyone. Thus, it became important that a community of like-minded souls be formed wherein each could live the Teachings and bring about the restructuring of the world."

As we approach the commemoration of the 58th anniversary of the passing of The Child, Jamil, next week at midnight on the 29th/30th of January, I am pleased to announce that a new Service of Remembrance has been created that will begin the Second Advent Sunrise Vigil. This new service will be held on the evening of January 29th in the Chapel of the Holy Child and will usher in the eight-day Sunrise Vigil which will commence the morning of January 30th and culminate on the morning of February 6th . Of course, these sunrise services will be held at the Consecrated Sanctuary.

This new remembrance service will include readings from the book, Jamil: Child of Light, as well as beautiful music compositions not heard for almost 40 years. This music, which was composed by our Reverend Dr. Gary Buchanan, was performed by the children of The Community in 1983 and has not been heard since. I have included two of the original recordings here.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: January 16, 2020

COSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 10, 2020

And we continue.

The Tenth Saying (Part 15 of our series)

“And the First Mariner spoke: ‘Is it written in the Teachings that the Logos radiates to everyone? I believe there was a parable by Jesus on this theme in Matthew, chapter 13. It was about the sower who came forth to sow. I think this ties in with the previous question.’

“Remembering the passage from the New Testament, The Man quoted it from his own copy of the book: ‘Behold, a sower went forth to sow; And when he had sowed, some seeds fell by the wayside, and the fowls came and devoured them up: Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth; and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them: But others fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.’

“‘And Jesus explained the parable by saying, to paraphrase it, “When anyone hears the Word of the Kingdom and understands it not, then comes the wicked one and carries away that which was sown in his heart. This is he that receives the seed near the rocky path. The one who hears the Word on the rocky path is the one who receives it with gladness and joy. But such a person is without roots and he has no strength of character. Let problems and tribulations befall him because of the words received, and he falls away immediately. He that receives the Word among the thorns is the person who hears the Word, but the worries of this world and the pull of materialism and security chokes the Word so that he gains nothing of value. But he that receives the Word in fertile soil is the man who hears the Word with understanding, and he is the one who yields it, who yields the harvest of one hundred, sixtyfold, and thirtyfold.’”

“Then The Man said, ‘Unless a person generates the Light body by means of the Messianic Sun, they will in no way survive the heat from God’s Sun. We in Community must- needs dedicate ourselves to the spiritual path and turn away from the world that occupies so much time and energy. Those of the Light will understand the Word of God; those of the world will not understand it. Another passage from the New Testament deals with the parable of the tares and the wheat.'

"And he reads from his copy of the New Testament again: 'The Kingdom of Heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went away. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, there appeared the tares also.' Of course you know the rest of the story.

"'And Jesus explained that by saying, 'He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; The good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.

"'As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.'"

WEEKLY MESSAGE: January 10, 2020

CÔSOLARGY® INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 10, 2020

Allow me to convey my very best wishes to you as we enter a brand new year, as well as a new decade. I am optimistic about the future of our Community. I hope you and your loved ones experienced a special and blessed Christmas-Epiphany Season. We in Reno concluded the sunrise vigil with a spectacular Divine Service on January 6th, which was preceded by our traditional annual banquet and festivities at the Rectory-Abbey on January 5th.

This month, we will be concluding our review of The Tenth Saying of Jamil and then be going on to the Eleventh Saying. So, let us continue with commentary from The Man.

The Tenth Saying (Part 14 of our series)

“In our religion we profess a belief that holds God to be the cause of all living things, one who occupies no place in time and no particular space. He is greater than Being, or Form, or even Consciousness. This religion teaches that in order to overcome death of the physical body one must generate a new body of Light which is nourished on the Light given by God through the Sun of Righteousness. Within the Light of this Sun dwells the Word of God, the Logos. The Logos incarnates within Man's Spirit and gives him new life. Therefore, this religion is one that believes in the True God – the One God – which is manifest in all living things. We teach our members how to generate this body of Light and how to communicate with God through higher powers of Consciousness. If Man is to return to God and participate in his divinity, he must-needs generate a spiritual nature as was taught by the holy teachers of revealed religions. We share with these religions the Way of Light and return to God. This religion has come forth into the world because The Way has been lost to the old religions.

“Man is free to believe in whatever he wishes to believe. It is the right of science, or materialism, or technology, or secular religion, to claim that it has the only way to Man's salvation. But the fact remains there is only one way to generate a Light body – just as there is only one way to propagate children. The way is self-evident. Such is our System.

“All of us here want our families to live. It is because of our dedication to this Teaching that some day we may be able to help our families. We hope to be able to help all people, as Jesus and Jamil and great holy men and women of times past are helping people today because they want people to know God.

But Man must taste of death, he must know the Darkness before he can walk back to God. In this respect, perhaps death need not be permanent.

“‘Either our Teachings are right or they are wrong. Either the religions of the world today are teaching The Way or not. Each has to ask himself that. I can only say that I cannot worship a god that demands blood. I cannot worship a god that would throw any person into Hell forever because that person sinned out of ignorance. I believe in the goodness of God. I believe that God offers redemption and salvation for every creature on the face of the Earth. This is what I have dedicated my life to. And I am sure that you believe the same thing.

“‘We must have faith. We must have hope that God will redeem all men and women. This is all we can do, nothing more. Each is free to give their life to what they believe in; either country, or church, or religion of whatever denomination. No member of this Church will ever accuse a person of being wrong because he or she belongs to another religion. It is not for us to think that Man is going to taste death, and that we are going to taste life everlasting because we are a very special breed. It may turn out that way, but it is not by our own wish. It is perhaps by the Will of God or by the laws of nature that this will happen, but not by our choice. We know there is one way only by which to generate a Light body and spiritual Consciousness. God has given us the manner by which to accomplish this. Our mission is to instruct people in this system.’”

I look forward to sharing with you further next week.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: January 1, 2020

COSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

January 1, 2020
New Year's Day

Tenth Saying (Part 13 of our series)

"And the same mariner responded with another question: 'You answered part of my question. But I would like to narrow the focus of the question to something I had in mind. It has to do with why I left the church I belonged to when I was younger. It concerns spiritual discrimination. The tenet concerned is that unless you belong to a certain church, unless you are baptized with water, you are going to perish. You are going to die. All other people who do not go through this ritual in this particular church are lost. The concept is certainly not unique with this one church. I would say the majority of churches maintain a similar teaching. To my way of thinking, this was spiritual discrimination. Since then my feeling remains the same. How is it that any small group of people, small compared to the world population, has a special privilege for its own members? Again, getting back to the concept of a just God, even though the rational mind may not understand, still it seems to be a legitimate question. Is there the same kind of spiritual discrimination here? Is this what a just God would do? Is there something I don't understand?'

"And The Man answered him by saying: 'All religions from antiquity to the present – and to name only a few: Zoroastrianism, Hebraism, Brahmanism, Buddhism, Christianity, Islamism – taught a kind of exclusiveness. It is the nature of religion to be exclusive. Man has given many names to God; for example, Adonis, Baal, Attis, Osiris, Ahura Mazda, Apollo, Jupiter, Brahma, Artemis, Thor, Ra, Odin, Jehovah, Allah and many, many others. Now are these all different gods or are they the same God? According to the teachers from the times of these respective gods, there was a different way to attain salvation. During the times of Jesus, the Hebrew people believed that Jehovah dwelt within their tabernacle, a small wooden box they carried on a litter and placed in their temple. They actually believed that God occupied a space within a box. The Hebrew religion gave birth to the Christian religion, which has adopted the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament, which was aimed at the Jews who worshiped the God Jehovah. The Protestants teach that if a person but believe in Christ he is saved. The Catholics teach that if you die in a state of grace you are saved. If you have been a good person, and participated in the sacraments, that is all that is required. And there are many religions that teach that if you just accept their particular god, you are saved. All of these religions either teach an inferior concept of God or they place a minor god on an altar for Man to worship.

"In the ancient world there was a power in knowing the true name of God. The Hebrews taught that their God had no name, but still He was referred to as Elohi, Jehovah, or Yahweh; so in knowing the name, one was able to speak that name and obtain a power. In the Christian world the name Jesus Christ is supposed to be a great power; for example, if one invokes the name of Jesus Christ and the name of God the Father, one can expel spirits and heal. Various peoples gave names to the god who was exclusive to their tribe or nation. A worshiper of the Egyptian God would call upon Hermes Trismegistus and say, 'I know thy name, Heavenly One. I know Thy various manifestations. I know thee, Hermes, and Thou knowest me. I am Thou and Thou art I.'" Now, there was a power in that. People believed in ancient times that by eating the flesh of an animal or a man, such as a sacrificial animal or an actual king, or drinking the blood of such a sacrificial victim, the participant took on the power of that creature. I believe the Christian concept of communion, eating of bread and wine substituting the body and blood of Jesus, came from this idea. The Aztecs and Incas used to shape out of corn dough a figure likened unto a god and then consume it in the same manner as the Christians took the bread, believing they took on the power of the god. Those who worshiped Mithra believed that by standing under a bull when its throat was slit they could be washed clean in the blood of that bull. Sacrifice was always an integral part of ancient religion because it was believed that God had to be atoned with blood of some sacrificial animal. The Christian attitude is that Jesus was crucified instead of the sacrificial lamb used by the Hebrew priests in the temple, and the blood of Jesus was a final atonement for the sins of mankind. A large segment of the Western world believes this teaching. Though such teachings have turned many men and women from religion, there is a very large number of people today – scholars, intellectuals, scientists, and others – who believe the latter to be a true teaching. Indeed, it is a fundamental teaching in Christianity for those who profess to believe in the one God, Jehovah.

"There is nothing more universal than the Sun and there is nothing more universal than light. All of the ancient religions were bound up with light, with the Word of God within light. God was supposed to have created the world at His command by means of light. I said earlier that I believed that the teachings of Jesus died with him – or at least with the death of his immediate apostles. Christianity today is not practicing the teaching of Jesus; yet Christians call upon his name and they call upon God just as if they were teaching or following the teachings of Jesus. The true teachings of Jesus must needs be bound up with light and not blood.

"Today individuals mold God into the form they like and worship it. But they will not worship God as He is. Therefore, Man is idolatrous: he idolizes a god of his own making that is convenient to his logic and reason. If all people were to be saved simply because of their presence in the world, then, as I said earlier, there would be no need for enlightened religion and no need for redeemers or a great Teaching of Light. Man is doomed to death. Everyone on the planet dies. You cannot change that."

We will continue next week with a more inspiring portion of the commentary. In the meantime, I wish you and yours a blessed and prosperous 2020. As you know, we have been gathering at the Sanctuary each morning for the Christmas-Epiphany vigil. I have included a photo of one of our sunrises. I think you can feel the power coming out of the Sun.

Created 5 days ago

 Missions, Faith & Church

The Monument to Human Spiritual Rights is located at the Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary of the International Community of Christ north of Reno, Nevada in Antelope Valley. It was constructed in 1990 out of concrete and steel. Thirty years later, the concrete is beginning to substantially deteriorate. Rehabilitation of the structure is necessary if the Monument is to survive.
