The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"From the events that have transpired, we know that the Spirit of God+ manifests in different forms--as Christ-like Beings+ who live among us for a short time and direct us to the Godhead+. Christs are all one, undivided. It is only their human nature that separates them in certain times and places. These things we have learned. We have gathered here to return the remains of the outer form of the Child+ [Jamil] to the earth. The inner personage has returned to the Worlds of Light+ whence he came, forever freed from the power of death. Yes, the spirit will live on. This you must all believe.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And The Man, speaking with an awakened spirit, placed his hand on the sepulcher and continued: "This Child+ was a Teacher of divine concepts who assumed painful but necessary human form as an instrument of God.+ Following his mission, he has abandoned this world. From him we have learned the meaning of Christ+—that the office of Christ+ is assumed by many. Surely Christ+ has returned to the world as was promised by the Prophets. Some will say that Jesus+ or Buddha+ or Elijah+ or Viracocha+ or Zoroaster+ returned in the form of a child, but we now know and understand how God,+ having no form or substance, clothes Himself in terrestrial garments, thus becoming visible to man. Yet God+ is one and undivided."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.] and The Youth, who bore the casket, fell to their knees three times, and their strength did ebb. During life, Jamil+ had been light as the wind; in death, his fragile remains had become heavy as stone. And they were mystified.

"They reached the burial ground at the summit, and sat down to rest at the base of a great rock hewn by the stone masons to form a receptacle for The Child.+ Few precincts of the world could equal the natural beauty of the hill which, from earliest times, had been a holy shrine to the people. Situated in a time-honored spot, known as the spacious land between the four rivers, with the towering snow-capped Andes visible to the north and the spreading fertile valleys lying to the south, the pinnacle caught the first rays of the rising sun as it came up over a green height to the east, and it remained illuminated while the sun inclined toward the west disappearing behind the purple heights of the Cordilleras. And when the moon arched through the sky, it could be seen clearly day or night from one end of the horizon to the other. No king could claim a more venerable resting place for his earthly remains."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"An aroma of azahares, roses, and gardenias perfumed the ether. And when the remains of the Lustrous One+ were brought down, a radiant Light+ shone about his figure, golden like the sun, and they believed his soul had returned. And they likened him unto a saint, for none had seen such beauty before. Lovingly, they wrapped him in cloth and covered his yellow ringlets of hair with a headpiece, placing his remains in a wooden casket lined with soft material of perfect white. And they placed therein offerings of perfume, incense, and flowers. Having done these things they covered the box with glass, for they could not bring themselves to hide his loving face that reflected the benevolent rays of the sun.

"At high noon, the mourners set off on foot toward the high hill overlooking the city, followed by a delegation of villagers. There they would entomb the earthly remains of Jamil+ in an unmarked tomb prepared by stone masons. The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.] had selected the hill, so often frequented by Jamil+ in life, where the eucalyptus grew. Arriving at the foot of the hill, the procession stopped. The villagers treated them with consideration and left The Man, The Woman, The Youth, The Nurse, the rest of the Companions, and a single stone mason to continue on; for they respected their grief".

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"The Man remained in the upper room the rest of the day, recalling the events that had transpired since The Child had come into the world. When light faded and night came down upon the Andes, he returned to the Garden, now filled with beautiful bouquets of wild flowers plucked from the hillsides by a multitude of Indians come down to honor the memory of The Child. And the flute players, lamenting the passing of the golden-haired infant, and all the other children of the heights and valleys filled the air with selected refrains. And the drummers beat sullenly day and night as if signaling the gods of ascending spirits.

"With the coming of dawn on the second day, Jamil's remains were prepared for burial. And his father, in company with The Nurse, anointed the twelve openings of his immaculate body—his hands, feet, and forehead—with oils and placed salt on his tongue with a precious stone of jade. And while they were doing this, those gathered in the Garden below noted the peace and calm in the upper room."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"THE MAN left the lands of the coast, returning to the heights of the Andes. And when he had come to the house, he found The Woman, The Companions, and the house servants gathered in the Garden, crying and lamenting. He embraced them all, holding back his own tears. Then, he went to the upper room where the remains of the Blessed Child+ lay at rest amongst a bed of fragrant blossoms.

"For a long time he stood looking at the beautiful face, still in death. Lifeless eyes stared back speaking no words of Light.+ The boy's pale lips were unmoving, and when The Man took a gentle hand into his own, he felt as if his heart would burst with pain; for he knew that never again would he feel the warm touch of his son. When again he looked upon the colorless face, he saw his own face there, then, the reflected faces of the whole human race: men, women, children of every color—white, black, red, yellow, brown. Yet they were all the face of Jamil,+"

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"Seeing this, the Master Jamil spoke once more saying:

'Think not that I am being disrespectful; The Word lives in the Spirit of Christ. The Cross lives in God's New Sun. We have come to release the Christians and the peoples of other religions from bondage to words they do not understand. Too long have our brethren been led astray by those who preach from the Books, not understanding the message. For I say unto you that God summons man to live the Holy Word. We will give a supplement and open the Book of Life, and all the peoples and nations of the world shall understand the hidden meaning of Scripture now given to mankind in the last and final age. And God's New Sun shall scorch the earth with the Heavenly Fire. And it shall be a balm to the Children of Light. And the Dark One shall no longer deceive the world, for all men shall know the truth by the birth of the Cross of Enlightenment.'

"After these words, Jamil spoke the last and final time to his father, saying: 'Now go from here, for your love of me keeps me from my Work.' Whereupon, Jamil called his mother to comfort her.

"And he looked into her eyes and saw not The Light. She was his earthly mother, and his love for her was beyond human understanding—a kind that generates the sun and the stars."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And the kind Child of Light+ kissed his earthly guardian on the cheek, thanking him for attending him during his brief sojourn on earth. And he took both his hands into his own, as had the Angel of Light+ years before, and said in the Light+ of his eyes: "I anoint and ordain you to the New Apostolic Ministry in the name of God the Father,+ and the Universal Christ+ and in the name of all the Holy Ones of old who are alive and with me now. And you shall ordain others into the Order teaching man's pre-eminence and responsibility to the fellowship. And if any man or woman ordained in any Church taking the name of God the Father,+ or Christ,+ oppose this Teaching, let them know they who call themselves Christians are denying themselves. And the prayers and supplications generated by their intellectual faculties, though they live moral lives, shall be empty words in space; for God+ hears only those words spoken by the spirit of man."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And Jamil's + eyes did speak again to the spirit of The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.], saying: 'I am the last of the Holy Ones to visit the earth. Watch: You shall see a new form arise out of the remains of my mortal body—and it shall be a Body of Light +. This spiritual resurrection is a promise to all men and women of the earth that they are sons and daughters of God the Father +. In spirit they are immortal. And you shall teach all of the peoples and nations of the earth of what I have exemplified here. Man is in the last and final age. It is for him alone to seek and find God + in the manifesting Light of Christ + given through the Sun of Righteousness +.

'Following my entrance into the Worlds of Light +, my beloved father and brother in Light +, let no man of the Order cherish my material remains. Keep no lock of hair, no nail clippings, no piece of my clothing as a relic. Remember me in spirit and the life that God + gives to all of the family of Man by virtue of this redeeming force manifesting in the sun and the stars. And humanity shall be freed from earthly saviors and man-made religions governed by self-appointed priests who would misguide humanity. After my passing, you will take the Sacred Teachings of Light +, entrusting them into the hands of the Guardians of Light +'".

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

And Jamil+ laid himself down again, calm and peaceful, communing with an unseen force. And those gathered about wept; for the thought of the successor to Christ+ and the Prophets of former times leaving this world caused them suffering. All were humbled by his loving kindness and the bliss they felt in his presence. And The Man did visit The Child+ once more, exhorting him to remain. And Jamil+ arose and stood on weak legs looking at his earthly father and disciple. Then he put the index finger of his right hand to his lips and smiled, shaking his head. And his father was silent.
