The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"FOR MANY DAYS, the Blessed Child+ remained in his bed, reflecting within himself and refusing to eat. And his personage shone bright like gold. But, freeing himself from the pain of his body, the pure infant took leave of his bed; gathering his strength, he visited each member of the household: The Nurse, The Youth, and the rest of The Companions, touching them with his glorified hands. And they did recover from their infirmities.

"And Jamil+ spoke to The Youth as an aged patriarch in sympathy and understanding; for he saw that The Youth was inflamed with a desire to know the truth. He had been the earthly companion of The Child+ since his birth, and Jamil+ loved him. And the infant looked into the young man's eyes with Light+ that penetrated his heart. And he told him that it is not by individual effort alone that one advances toward understanding of God+ but by obedience, discipline, and service in fellowship; it is one thing to possess knowledge, another to experience it. And of what value is it to know if one does not know God+? Those at the beginning of the path must not stray, thinking that the mind can find wisdom; only the spirit understands wisdom. And The Youth understood his words without comprehending their full meaning, for his life's pursuits still lay ahead of him."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"A universal way of unity, which men of all religions may live, has been extended. It is valid for all men of all faiths, be they Moslem, Buddhist, Hindu, Taoist, Confucian, Zoroastrian, Jew, Christian, or a member of some other belief. It is authoritative and fused with the manifesting Christ-Force+, and the truths of this Teaching will be known to the developed spiritual senses; for spiritual truths do not register upon the rational mind or the physical senses. God+ speaks to mankind through Christ+ and the Sun of Righteousness+, but all men do not know how to listen. You shall teach them how to hear God's Word+ for themselves in the new spiritual birth which comes by the Divine Grace of God+ for the redemption of His children who are part of the Godhead+, but lost in the world of the senses."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"And The Man addressed Jamil+, asking: 'How shall all these things be accomplished?' And the radiant Child+ answered: "You shall be given, through inspiration from God+, a New and Higher Gospel, and you shall write down that portion to be revealed publicly, retaining the greater portion thereof in secret to be administered to those who would dedicate themselves; for it is not good to distribute the whole Teachings, lest they be abused by arrogant men. Begin first with the Christians, restoring what has been lost to them, by decoding the writings of the New Testament and revealing The Religion that supplements that which was previously given. You shall found a New Order, ordaining Teachers to aNew Ministry who shall be the successors of The Church and the New Apostolates. And Christ+ shall manifest through them."

Cosolargy.org Website Updated with a New Light Body Profile

you will find whether your dominant personality type is emotional, spiritual, scientific, or intellectual. The results will tell you what you value most and what your primary mode of approach is to learning, knowledge, truth, and the world. You will also learn whether you have a mystic tendency.

Emotional

Emotional Dominance, as revealed in the Light Body Profile, indicates that you explore the constant interplay between external forces and the mind-body complex. The sympathetic and parasympathetic systems respond to emotions like fear or tension, impacting physiological functions. While the will can exert control, it's not always triumphant. Our System teaches individuals to align with the primary forces of the solar sphere, transcending negative emotional influence. By connecting with solar/cosmic forces, individuals gain mastery over their nervous system, fostering better overall health and enduring peace of mind.

Spiritual

Spiritual Dominance reveals that you are primarily geared toward the benefits of spiritual development, and that you have grasped early on that isolation is an illusion within the vast cosmic tapestry. While we prioritize individuality, recognition of the need to harmonize with universal forces beyond our personal control is paramount. Contacting the profound power behind existence becomes the true aim for thinking individuals. Our System serves as a guide in facilitating this transformative spiritual contact.

Scientific

Scientific Dominance suggests that you have an inclination towards scientific understanding, showcasing the harmony between the individual and the laws of the universe. It underscores the innate connection between man, light, and energy. Human eyes and the nervous system are uniquely adapted to process light, revealing the potential of light/energy. The spectrum of light and radiation holds the mysteries of the universe. Our System facilitates direct contact with cosmic energy, transcending conventional perceptions of physical existence. This contact broadens awareness, breaking us free from the limitations imposed by space and time. Individuals engaging with our System experience cosmic energies firsthand, expanding their understanding of the universe.

Intellectual

Intellectual Dominance, within the context of the Light Body Profile, shows that you delve into the profound connection between the mind and energy. Recognizing that energy is inherently infused with Intelligence Factors, our System emphasizes that the intake of energy is, in essence, the intake of intelligence. As individuals learn to absorb and harness significant amounts of solar energy, they are concurrently instructed on directing these inherent Intelligence Factors for the optimal well-being of their entire being. The System guides students on the art of channeling these factors to enhance both mind and body, fostering overall benefits and a harmonious integration of intellect and vitality.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"While my Teachings may appear to take away the religion of my beloved Brothers of Light+, I say unto you that their original Teachings are lost to the world, polluted as the water which courses through my vitals and causes my body pain. It is good that this New Teaching come into the world to unify the human family; for I say unto you that Christ+ is alive throughout the whole universe as the fitting culmination of all Prophets. "Today there is much disunity. Each one goes his or her own way, thinking that each has an answer to personal salvation. Such cannot be, for all things in the universe follow certain immutable laws. Procreation and generation of the physical body are good examples of this. Men following these laws flourish; otherwise, they perish. Spiritual birth is the same." And The Child's+ eyes appeared flaming like a sun, and he was beautiful beyond words.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

And a second time The Man appealed to Jamil+ not to pass from the world. And The Child+ spoke to him in Light+ for the third time, saying: "You mourn the passing of my material body, oh father of my flesh. Know you not that I go to a place where life never ends?" And The Man wept, moved by emotion. And for the fourth time the Light+ of The Child's+ eyes spoke: "Death cannot claim my person or the Spiritual Body+ which I have manifested before you—this same Body+ which all men have inherited from God the Father+, but has wilted and all but died because the nourishment thereof has been denied it. But I say unto you that God+ has extended the Fountain of Light+, the Holy Fire+, again, and man's Spiritual Life+ shall be reborn like a living flame burst into light at this great cycle of spiritual regeneration. My brief sojourn upon the planet has been for the sole purpose of revealing that message from God the Father+ and to exemplify what is possible for all men who walk the earth. It is not proper that I linger. What can come of it? Those too weak to find God+ within would worship me and put words in my mouth, thereby building a religion that would hold mankind in further ignorance. Nay, let no man use me. I say unto you that no man shall touch the body of a Holy One again. I come to fulfill the religions of the Ancient Ones, our beloved Brothers of Light+, and our authority must needs be from the safety and sanctuary of Heaven+.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.] bent down to take the boy into his arms. And Jamil+ extended his glorified hand to touch his father. And he wiped away his tears with a kiss. Then he stood up and looked deep into the older man's eyes, and The Light+ flashed again. And he spoke to the inner ear of The Man's Eternal Soul+, saying: "Weep not, father, for I shall not pass until the allotted time. If you would mourn, mourn for those poor, suffering souls here. For I say unto you that the mountain shall fall again in the space of time, long after the memory of what has occurred here has faded from their minds. Nothing shall remain of this city, save the covered remains of the dead and their habitations.

"And men in the four quarters of the world shall weep for these souls, unaware that the dead will be witness to that which is destined for the whole world. And you shall see in time to come that this shall be the beginning of sorrows spoken of by former Prophets inspired by God the Father+. The human family has turned from God+ and trusted in worldly ways, spurred on by the physical sciences that deny that man is the bearer of the human spirit. Some would have the children of God+ believe that man has no purpose, that his identity and self-hood is destroyed with the loss of the physical body. Such philosophy has caused the negation of human feeling, and nature shall respond in like manner."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"As light gave way to darkness, terror-stricken survivors who had sought safety on the summits filtered into the community to tell of the dreadful occurrence. When the landslide struck, the sun was darkened and the moon shed no light. The earth trembled in anger, and many feared the mighty Huascarán would fall again. It was a terrifying night. And at daybreak, though no eye saw the sun rise from behind the mountains, they awoke from their slumber. And a great multitude congregated and walked to the edge of the flow—with stunned faces, they gazed upon the desolation.

"The once happy community of Ranrahirca and its inhabitants lay beneath the earth. All was gone, save the mud and the rock and the ice. And the village elders wondered what they should do. Many swore at the mountain, shaking their fists in the direction of the citadel covered by clouds and mist. Others buried their heads in their chests and walked away knowing that the life they had known was gone forever. Not a few of the younger men accused God+ of having no mercy, and they turned away from the pitiless firmament, bitter of heart; for they felt the people had suffered enough over the centuries."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"FIESTA TIME DREW NEAR. Men and women left their fields and their orchards and entered the village to participate in the celebrations commemorating the birth of the Infant Jesus+; for they were Christians. Great was the joy of the people. For three days there was dancing, eating, and drinking. They formed colorful processions which wound through narrow streets toward the church. There, they placed baskets of flowers, picked from the mountainsides, at the feet of a wooden statue of Jesus+, asking the idol to smile favorably upon them.

"The marketplaces were filled with happy peasants. The weavers, the potters, and the dyemakers sold their wares, as did the fruit vendors and all the merchants gathered to peddle their goods. And the dancers and the singers came, and everyone clapped. Sky rockets burst above, and a procession went to the Church of the Lord of Miracles in nearby Ranrahirca, where candles were lit. Merriment was everywhere.

"And on the third and final day of the festivity, the populace awoke at dawn with gratitude for another day of merrymaking. And they sang praises to the Lord+. And the flute players and the drummers played for them. No one thought of the morrow. It was the 10th of January, 1962.

"Twilight approached. The sun sank below the horizon, and the last rays of light glimmered on the summits of the towering Huascarán, turning its snowy face a vivid purple. The multitude continued their festivities, dancing and singing with joy. None heard the muffled sound of the ice and snow that cracked and fell from the mountain. And the earth shook, and the spirits of the dead seemed to awaken in their tombs to shout to the living, but no one gave heed to their calls."

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"On Christmas night, The Child Jamil sat at the table with those who had gathered around him. And there were eight. The table was laden with fruits and nuts, cakes and candies, corn, rice and potatoes, bread and sweet wine. And The Man [Gene Savoy, Sr.] was asked to say grace over the food, and he hesitated, saying: 'Think now, my beloved companions, of the thing you ask.

"Does not the whole world participate in an unending cannibalism, each thing living off another—slaughtering animal, fish, or fowl, grain, and vine? Know that the wheat and the vine, the cane and the tree, and the fruits thereof were sacrificed for this meal. Did they not have a right to live? Do not the sacrificed have a place before God? While God is present in all living things, indeed in all creation, , God is separate from it and transcends it. Who, then, sustain the eater? Whom should we thank for nourishment?' Then he broke bread and and raised a cup of wine, adding: 'We are taught that this bread and this wine can be changed into the body and blood of the New and Eternal Covenant which is Christ. We are also taught that, except as we eat the flesh of man, and drink his blood, we have not life in ourselves,' And they were all silent, everyone, and perplexed; for they had been taught to say grace and partake of Holy Communion.

"And The Man, speaking for The Child sought to explain his words, and he said: 'We are taught that all things are cleansed with the shedding of Jesus' blood and that through this blood we receive eternal redemption from sin, that when the bread and wine are consecrated and taken into us, we achieve a spiritual union with God. Is such union attained by the stomach? Bread and wine nourish the physical body, which is heir to death. Is not the corporeal body food for worms—the eater becoming the eaten?"
