Executive Oversight Established

The first official meeting of the Executive Overseer of the Church of the Second Advent was held on December 3, 2024 to expand and replace the existing Board of Directors of the Church. The meeting was held in the Bishop's Chambers at the Chancellery in Reno. The Right Reverend Gene Savoy, Jr, Head Overseer-Bishop, presided. In attendance were The Reverends Robert Petrovich, Elizabeth Reece, Rebecca Willis and Radheka Patel Savoy.

The Executive Overseer is authorized to exist under Title Three of the Constitution and Canon of the Church (Chapter Four, Canon 76A). The Overseer was authorized to exist by Apostolic Decree issued on November 30, 2024. All in attendance agreed that the initial members of the Executive Overseer will be the existing members of the Church Board of Directors together with the members of the Finance Council.

The Bishop proposed that the Executive Overseer become the Board of Directors of the Church Corporation (International Community of Christ). All agreed. The Bishop explained that this new structure will simplify working with banks and other financial institutions, lawyers, government officials, etc. The Reverends Petrovich, Reece, and Willis are already on ICC's Board of Directors. Reverend Patel was appointed to the Oversee as a new member, as she is an existing member of the Finance Council.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"The Man remained in the upper room the rest of the day, recalling the events that had transpired since The Child had come into the world. When light faded and night came down upon the Andes, he returned to the Garden, now filled with beautiful bouquets of wild flowers plucked from the hillsides by a multitude of Indians come down to honor the memory of The Child. And the flute players, lamenting the passing of the golden-haired infant, and all the other children of the heights and valleys filled the air with selected refrains. And the drummers beat sullenly day and night as if signaling the gods of ascending spirits.

"With the coming of dawn on the second day, Jamil's remains were prepared for burial. And his father, in company with The Nurse, anointed the twelve openings of his immaculate body—his hands, feet, and forehead—with oils and placed salt on his tongue with a precious stone of jade. And while they were doing this, those gathered in the Garden below noted the peace and calm in the upper room."
