On traditional Easter Sunday, April 8, 2012, the entire resident congregation in Reno was invited to brunch at the Rectory-Abbey on Carmel as part of the season's festivities. More than forty adults and children spent the later morning and early afternoon together over a light repast on that sunny spring day. Young children took part in the traditional Easter egg hunt outside on the premises of the Rectory-Abbey and the East Wing.

Radheka Patel Wed

Ms. Radheka Patel of Los Angeles, California, and the Right Reverend Gene Savoy Jr. were married in a private ceremony in Reno on Friday, February 17. A reception followed on Sunday, February 19, at the bridal suite of the Grand Sierra Resort in Reno.

Originally from New Zealand, Radheka is the daughter of Vinod and Chhaya Patel, also of Los Angeles, and is a graduate of Madison University and California State University, Northridge, with degrees in marketing and biological studies. She has been practicing Cosolargy and studying with the Jamilian University since March of 2011. She has a six-year-old daughter, Bianka.

The couple will reside at the Rectory-Abbey along with their daughters – Sonya, Sabrina, Sophia, and Bianka. Bishop Savoy's mother, Sylvia, who relocated from Baltimore, Maryland, to Reno last summer in order to be closer to her family and The Community, will be residing at the Rectory as well.

Interfaith Initiative to Open University Prayer Room

Weld

Northern Nevada religious leaders of various religious groups gathered together January 18, 2012, at the University of Nevada–Reno (UNR) Student Union to request that UNR president Marc Johnson provide an interfaith prayer room and chapel on campus to meet the faith needs of the diverse student body. Among these religious leaders was the Right Reverend Gene Savoy Jr., Head Bishop of the International Community of Christ and president of the Nevada Clergy Association.

The group of about twenty decided at the meeting to send a letter to the university president to ask for a meeting with him to discuss the possibilities of assigning space on campus for an interfaith chapel. All in attendance signed the letter.

The video tribute to Dr. King was coordinated by the Rev. Deacon Stephan Fuelling of the International Community of Christ.

Owing to the efforts of the late Reverend Onie Cooper of the Second Baptist Church, this event was originally brought to fruition and has continued for decades. The Nevada Clergy Association and the Holiday Committee have joined to help “keep the dream alive.” Both the Nevada Clergy Association and the Northern Nevada Martin Luther King Jr. Holiday Committee are presently headed by ICC Head Bishop Gene Savoy Jr.

On Monday January 16, a memorial caravan, beginning at 10:30 a.m. at the Second Baptist Church in Reno, followed the twenty-six miles of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial Highway along US 395. This was the 14th annual community memorial caravan.

Aid Africa Trip

On October 8, 2011, a group including several ICC members will be leaving New York for South Africa, with a destination of the Global White Lion Trust in Timbavati and the Great Zimbabwe.

Additional funds are needed to cover the required amounts for this trip due to two supporters' being unable to follow through at the last minute.

For more information on the trip or to make a donation read "Africa Appeal" on www.cosolargy.net.

Project "X" Tours Japan

On May 7, 2011, Head Bishop Gene Savoy Jr., Cardinal Bishop Sean Savoy, and a delegation from the Reno Church Community left for Japan via Los Angeles, where they joined other Community members from the United States. Once in Japan, Japanese Community members joined the group to participate in a 12-day tour of southern Japan, visiting holy shrines, temples, and other sacred sites. Informal talks on the ancient solar cultures of Japan throughout the trip, and a seminar on vibrational healing was conducted near the end of the tour. Most tour members returned to the United States on May 21. The Head Bishop, Cardinal Bishop, and a few others remained in South Korea for a few days to visit sacred sites in that country, returning to Reno on May 26.

For details of the itinerary and additional photos of the trip, see the full article in Special Reports.
