

Head Bishop Delivers Traditional Easter Message

Traditional Easter Sunday Brunch Buffet at the Rectory-Abbey

Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. delivered his annual traditional Easter message this week. Please read it here:

“This past week, hundreds of millions of Christians around the world – Catholic, Protestant and others – observed the most important time in the Christian calendar and one of its oldest beliefs: the pain, sorrow and suffering of Jesus Christ, as well as his physical resurrection. Next month, millions of Orthodox Christians will do the same.

“We of this Community, however, observe Easter each year on a fixed date – April 18th – according to the solar, not the lunar, calendar. And, we do so in an entirely different way and with an entirely unique message. Most importantly, we do not recognize or teach the resurrection of the physical body, only the resurrection of the reborn spiritual Light Body.

“And although the Pauline churches erroneously connect Easter to the Jewish Passover, we know that the Last Supper was indeed a sacred Essene pannuches meal centered around the 50-day pentacontad cycle during which Jesus declared himself to be the Messiah of Aaron and Israel. (Details of this event can be found in The Essaei Document, as well as in other material of our Community.)

“Needless to say, this important distinction alone separates us from the rest of Christianity, in addition to the fact that the Essenes, of which Jesus was a part, functioned under distinct traditions, rites and rituals from their counterparts at the Temple in Jerusalem who had misinterpreted the Law of Moses to include the practice of daily sacrifice of animals and the shedding of blood as an atonement for the sins of the people.

“However, I digress. Because most of the Western traditions, cultures and languages connect Easter to the Passover, the word used for this time of the year is common, except in English. For example, in Greek, the Paschal feast is called Pascha; in Hebrew, it is Pasach; in Spanish, Pascua, and so on. But in English we have the word Easter, which comes from the Old English Eostre.

“We can trace Eostre to a goddess – an important goddess – called Hausos. The goddess comes from the proto-Indo European religion. And she was known as the Goddess of the Dawn. Her name was reconstructed as Ausos. In India, she is referred to as Usas; in Greek Eos; and in Latin Aurora.

"The name was derived from the root "To Shine," thus, translating to "The Shining One." The English word "East" is derived from this word, also the Latin "Aurum" meaning gold. The dawn goddess was also the Goddess of Spring. In the Anglo-Saxon world, and also in the Germanic world, this time – this Easter or Eostre – was called Eosturmonath, or Easter Month, which was celebrated for the entire month of April. This Goddess of Spring was involved in the mythology of the Indo-European new year where the Dawn Goddess was liberated by God from imprisonment. She is known in the Rigveda as Indra and in ancient Greek mythology as Dionysus. So we see that it has always been a very important time of the year.

"So how do we in the Second Advent/Cosolargy Community reconcile ourselves with this ancient observance? How do we – who do not accept the physical resurrection of the body – harmonize ourselves with this "holy week" which emphasizes the agony, misery and torment of the man, Jesus? How do we – who do not teach that he was the sacrificial Passover lamb, an offering acceptable to God whose blood is shed daily on the altars of churches around the world everywhere and that the shedding of his blood, however ritualistically, is an atonement for the sins of the world? How do we come to terms with those many, many millions of people who do? And, how do we – who reject that Christ's crucifixion was "good" or that it was the Will of God, holding instead that it was the murder of a Son of Light by the civil and religious authorities of the day – how do we bring that in to accord with our own teaching and theology?

"We do so by emphasizing what we know to be Christ's true message: First, that we are all endowed by the Creator of our spiritual Beings with an eternal and immortal Soul, if we but cause that Divine Generative Force – Christ or The Word – to penetrate into that spiritual Womb. Second, that once we consent to the Word of God – the Logos – being allowed to impregnate our Spirit, that Spirit becomes animated by the Thought and Will of God the Father and becomes a living, breathing, conscious Soul, able to reason on heavenly things. Third, that once imbued with Christ Consciousness, the Soul, released from the cycle of generated existence, recalls and remembers its history and origin and consciously participates in the Worlds of Light, continually partaking of a Divine Communion.

“This was the message of Christ Jesus. And this is what was symbolized by the Last Supper – the act of the reborn, conscious Soul partaking of the True Communion, feeding off the Word of God – the Bread from Heaven – and drinking from the Cup filled with God’s Living Waters – which is Divine Light. And this is also the message of the Messianic Church of the Second Advent. The beauty of it all is that it can be done in the here and now – that our spiritual immortality and divinity can be realized while we exist and live in this world. And if that is accomplished, one has received the gift of the resurrection – not as something abstract to wonder about after death, but something one can experience and participate in while one lives in this world.

“We know that Jesus – the Christ – not only received the Word of God, but that the Logos incarnated within his Spirit. He became the Living Word of God manifest in man. Yes, he was the Messiah of Aaron and of Israel, but he, like so many others of his Christ Brothers, received the mantle of the Office of Christ on Earth. But we also know that Jesus prophesied a future time – a time when Christ, the celestial and mediating force between God and Man, would appear not in human form but out of the heavens in great power and glory. And this prophecy echoed the older prophecies of Isaiah and Malachi.

I See the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its rays. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. 3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the Lord of hosts. [Malachi 4]

“Malachi is prophesying about the End of Times, when God would come again at the Second Advent, when the Sun of Righteousness would appear out of the heavens in great splendor and with a Light which had never been bestowed on Earth before. And this Light would feed and nurture the Spirit at the great and final Messianic Banquet served from the true Temple of God. Thus, the message of Jesus is clear. The need for men and women to partake of the supersubstantial Food that nourishes the Soul is found in the transubstantiated Sun – the sun of matter which is transfigured into Spirit.

“Therefore, in commemorating the traditional Easter Season, we do so in anticipation of True Easter, which we celebrate in the Second Advent Church on April 18th each year, according to the solar calendar. We participate in the glorious communion of the Angels of Light, joining with Jesus and the Essaei and all those of other religions who have been reborn into the Community of Light, which is the Resurrection of the Spirit that comes about only through participation in the glorious and Messianic Communion with the Celestial Christ.

“The Easter Season is a time of spiritual renewal, reflection and rebirth. Communion with God begins here on Earth, for God’s Plan for the renewal and restoration of the Creation cannot be fulfilled without the unified Community and those disciplined who teach, preserve and live the revealed and sacred Teachings of Light – a teaching which has been practiced and handed down throughout the centuries and restored in our modern times for a special and appointed few. Those who are the Servants of God and Light will receive the Gift of God, which is a blessing He bestows on those who assist Him in His Divine Plan. God reveals Himself to those in Light, and those who are resurrected to Light by means of Light during this life will dwell with Him forever.

“Let me close this message with these beautiful lines from the Gnostic Gospel of Phillip. I love these words because I believe they describe the resurrection so well and embody the spiritual message not only of this time of year but of what this Community teaches.

We are born through the Holy Spirit, but we are born again through the Christ. In both we are anointed through the Spirit...No one can see himself in water or in a mirror without light. Nor again will you be able to see in light without water or a mirror. On account of this, it is fitting to baptize in both light and the water. But the light is the Anointing.

There were three buildings for offering-places in Jerusalem. One was open to the west; they called it “the holy.” Another was open to the south; they called it “the holy of the holy.” The third was open to the east; they called it “the holy of the holies.” It was the place into which the high priest came alone. The Baptism is the holy house...the holy of the holy. The holy of the holies is the bridal chamber.

Those who say they will die first and rise again are in error. If they do not first receive the resurrection while they live, when they die they will receive nothing. So also they speak about Baptism, saying that Baptism is a great thing because if people receive it, they will live...The Anointing is greater than Baptism. For by the Anointing we are called Christians, not because of Baptism. And they call Christ so because of the Anointing...He who has been anointed has the All; he has the resurrection, the Light, the Cross, and the Holy Spirit. The Father gave him these things in the bridal chamber...

The Cup of Prayer holds wine, it holds water. It serves as a type of the blood by which they give thanks. And it is full of the Holy Spirit and it belongs to the completely perfect Man. When we drink this, we will take to ourselves the perfect Man. The living water is a body. It is fitting that we clothe ourselves with the living Man. Therefore, when he comes to go down to the water, he disrobes in order that he may put this one on. A horse begets a horse; a man begets a man; a god begets a god. It is thus with the bridegroom and the bride. The holy man is all holy, including his body. For, if he holds the bread, he will make it holy, or the cup, or anything else which he holds, he will make it pure...Everyone who will go into the bridal chamber will be born of light. For they are not conceived from the marriage which is consecrated in the night...But the mysteries of marriage are fulfilled in the day and light. That day or its light does not set. If anyone becomes a child of the bridal chamber, he will receive light. If anyone does not receive it while he is in these places, the world, he will not be able to receive it in the other place. The one who has received light cannot be seen nor can he be held, and no one can torment him, even if he lives in the world. And also, if he should go out of the world, already he has received the truth in images...

...Blessed is the one who exists before he comes into being. For he who exists, he was and will be."

"These inspired and enlightened words express the message of Jesus and the essence of his teaching. Therefore, let us be resolved to go forth – our fellowship renewed and strengthened, and our love and joy for one another regenerated. What a symbolically beautiful time of year for this: Springtime, when all things are made new. And let us give thanks for the promise of the Second Advent, as prophesied by Jesus Christ, which has been fulfilled in our special age. What a blessing it is! For how many countless men and women over these past many centuries have longed for and awaited the Second Coming of God – this powerful and profound spiritual Consciousness that is manifesting in the world and permeating all things with an energy never before felt and experienced by the human Spirit? And we are privileged to be a part of it – to assist God in a new way as servants and workers in the New Covenant, which is destined to bring about a new Heaven and a new Earth.”

Due to an early Spring snowstorm that occurred over the traditional Easter weekend bringing up to two feet of new snow in the Sierra Nevada, Sunrise Divine Service was canceled on Sunday, March 31st. The traditional Easter brunch, however, was held at the Rectory-Abbey at Bishopstead. An Easter egg hunt for the children followed. Here are some photos of the event.

Happy Birthday, Noriko!

The Community will observe True Easter on Thursday, April 18th with a Sunrise Divine Service at the newly renovated Cathedral Church of the Americas & Monument to Human Spiritual Rights at the Red Rock Consecrated Sanctuary.

CATHEDRAL CHURCH OF THE AMERICAS UNDERGOES THIRD ROUND OF RENOVATIONS

The third phase of a massive renovation of the Cathedral Church of the Americas and Monument to Human Spiritual Rights was completed late last year. The first phase was started and completed in 2019, and the second phase began and finished in 2021.

The Cathedral Church and Monument to Human Spiritual Rights was constructed by dedicated members of The Community during the Winter of 1990/1991 .

However, after 30 years, the concrete began to deteriorate substantially. A major renovation and rehabilitation of the structure was needed to ensure its viability into the future.

There were three major maintenance issues at the Cathedral that needed to be addressed. The first was the deterioration of the base of the triune crosses – the steps. The second was the deterioration of the church walls. And the third was preventing the deterioration of the concrete floor of the entire structure.

The cost of the first phase, which was the repair of the concrete steps at the base of the crosses and the repair of cracks in the concrete floor, was $30,000. This cost was raised entirely by members of The Community, and this phase of the project was completed in 2019.

The second phase was the restoration of the tops of the walls that enclose the entire perimeter of the church – a length of 220 feet. That phase was completed in 2021 at the cost of an additional $30,000. The danger of not completing phase two was that the walls were continuing to decay. In 2021, only the tops of the walls were deteriorating. But, over time, the entire wall structure would have been affected.

The rehabilitation of all the concrete work was done by Surface Systems, Inc. of Reno, Nevada, which specializes in concrete repair and restoration using fiber-reinforced polymers.

The third phase of the project, which was completed in late 2023, was to repair dozens of cracks in the walls themselves and to extend the fiber-reinforced polymer along the entire interior surface of the perimeter walls. This phase of the project cost $20,000.

The Community has not yet recouped the expense for this phase of the project.

Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. had this to say in regards to completing the third phase:

“Once again, I am asking everyone in The Community to make a pledge and a contribution towards this most important part of our Sanctuary. The restoration over the past five years was urgent and guarantees that future Cosolargists will be able to treasure and cherish the Cathedral and Monument, which is only the beginning of a much grander vision for the shrine honoring the human Spirit.

“The preamble of our Proclamation to Human Spiritual Rights states that ‘All members of the human family have been endowed with the qualities of God, having been generated originally in the form of Righteous Beings of Light, spiritual, divine and immortal and abiding in Worlds of Light.’ And that is what our beloved Cathedral Church of the Americas symbolizes to all who visit it. I encourage all members of The Community to keep in mind the importance of this sacred open-air worship space and its significance as a symbol for human spiritual rights for all people everywhere.”

The Bishop went on to say, “This is an endeavor very dear to my heart. I am happy to answer any questions people have and to explain the vision for the future. But I am asking for the financial support and commitment of all of our members at this time.”

The pledge form is [HERE], and there are several ways to make a contribution, including spreading it out over time.

Celebrating the Life of Taylor Daniel Martin

The celebration of the life of Taylor Daniel Martin was held on February 3, 2024, at 3:00 PM at the Elks Lodge in Reno, Nevada. Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. and his wife Radheka Patel Savoy attended. Bishop Gene was asked by Taylor's mother, Staci Russel Cocking, to say a few words during the Celebration of Life ceremony. Gene has known Staci for 25 years. Some of his words were taken from The Community's Memorial Service.

The Light Body Profile results are meticulously analyzed to offer you a nuanced understanding of yourself based on your dominant nature or personality type. When you receive your Light Body Profile you will find whether your dominant personality type is emotional, spiritual, scientific, or intellectual. The you will find whether your dominant personality type is emotional, spiritual, scientific, or intellectual. The results will tell you what you value most and what your primary mode of approach is to learning, knowledge, truth, and the world. You will also learn whether you have a mystic tendency.

Emotional

Emotional Dominance, as revealed in the Light Body Profile, indicates that you explore the constant interplay between external forces and the mind-body complex. The sympathetic and parasympathetic systems respond to emotions like fear or tension, impacting physiological functions. While the will can exert control, it's not always triumphant. Our System teaches individuals to align with the primary forces of the solar sphere, transcending negative emotional influence. By connecting with solar/cosmic forces, individuals gain mastery over their nervous system, fostering better overall health and enduring peace of mind.

Spiritual

Spiritual Dominance reveals that you are primarily geared toward the benefits of spiritual development, and that you have grasped early on that isolation is an illusion within the vast cosmic tapestry. While we prioritize individuality, recognition of the need to harmonize with universal forces beyond our personal control is paramount. Contacting the profound power behind existence becomes the true aim for thinking individuals. Our System serves as a guide in facilitating this transformative spiritual contact.

Scientific

Scientific Dominance suggests that you have an inclination towards scientific understanding, showcasing the harmony between the individual and the laws of the universe. It underscores the innate connection between man, light, and energy. Human eyes and the nervous system are uniquely adapted to process light, revealing the potential of light/energy. The spectrum of light and radiation holds the mysteries of the universe. Our System facilitates direct contact with cosmic energy, transcending conventional perceptions of physical existence. This contact broadens awareness, breaking us free from the limitations imposed by space and time. Individuals engaging with our System experience cosmic energies firsthand, expanding their understanding of the universe.

Intellectual

Intellectual Dominance, within the context of the Light Body Profile, shows that you delve into the profound connection between the mind and energy. Recognizing that energy is inherently infused with Intelligence Factors, our System emphasizes that the intake of energy is, in essence, the intake of intelligence. As individuals learn to absorb and harness significant amounts of solar energy, they are concurrently instructed on directing these inherent Intelligence Factors for the optimal well-being of their entire being. The System guides students on the art of channeling these factors to enhance both mind and body, fostering overall benefits and a harmonious integration of intellect and vitality.

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"While my Teachings may appear to take away the religion of my beloved Brothers of Light+, I say unto you that their original Teachings are lost to the world, polluted as the water which courses through my vitals and causes my body pain. It is good that this New Teaching come into the world to unify the human family; for I say unto you that Christ+ is alive throughout the whole universe as the fitting culmination of all Prophets. "Today there is much disunity. Each one goes his or her own way, thinking that each has an answer to personal salvation. Such cannot be, for all things in the universe follow certain immutable laws. Procreation and generation of the physical body are good examples of this. Men following these laws flourish; otherwise, they perish. Spiritual birth is the same." And The Child's+ eyes appeared flaming like a sun, and he was beautiful beyond words.

2024 Epiphany Eve Celebrated

On the evening of January 5th, Epiphany Eve in the Second Advent Calendar and the Twelfth Day of Christmas, resident members of The Community, their families, and guests were invited to the Rectory-Abbey by Bishop Gene Savoy, Jr. to celebrate the holiday with dinner and a visit from Santa Claus. The event was well attended by members of The Community and guests. Some of the action was captured in photos by attendees, and the Communique staff put together a gallery of these photos for your enjoyment. To welcome guests to the Rectory, Bishop Gene briefly addressed the company. (Please see his remarks below.)

The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

And a second time The Man appealed to Jamil+ not to pass from the world. And The Child+ spoke to him in Light+ for the third time, saying: "You mourn the passing of my material body, oh father of my flesh. Know you not that I go to a place where life never ends?" And The Man wept, moved by emotion. And for the fourth time the Light+ of The Child's+ eyes spoke: "Death cannot claim my person or the Spiritual Body+ which I have manifested before you—this same Body+ which all men have inherited from God the Father+, but has wilted and all but died because the nourishment thereof has been denied it. But I say unto you that God+ has extended the Fountain of Light+, the Holy Fire+, again, and man's Spiritual Life+ shall be reborn like a living flame burst into light at this great cycle of spiritual regeneration. My brief sojourn upon the planet has been for the sole purpose of revealing that message from God the Father+ and to exemplify what is possible for all men who walk the earth. It is not proper that I linger. What can come of it? Those too weak to find God+ within would worship me and put words in my mouth, thereby building a religion that would hold mankind in further ignorance. Nay, let no man use me. I say unto you that no man shall touch the body of a Holy One again. I come to fulfill the religions of the Ancient Ones, our beloved Brothers of Light+, and our authority must needs be from the safety and sanctuary of Heaven+.
