Color & Sacred Imagery

Advanced Programs I & II

The seminar was presented in the Chapel of The Holy Child by Bishop Gene Savoy Jr. in morning and afternoon sessions. Each session was video recorded for future use as an online training program. The original version of the lecture series was presented in 1980 by Rt. Rev. Gene Savoy Sr. The 10-hour training seminar updated for a contemporary audience.

Part 1 is six hours of oral instruction on the psycho-physical and spiritual bodies; color polarities; demonstrations on the use of gemstones, the sacred thread, and mirrors; and the use of color in ancient medical practices. Part 2 is an expansion of Part 1 in four hours of oral instruction on healing, the use of the sacred thread and vestments, the Pythagorean image of the sun, and the awakening of the force centers.

“The Three Communions”

The lecture was presented in the Chapel of The Holy Child by Bishop Gene Savoy Jr. and video recorded for future use as an online training program. It provides a comprehensive commentary on the three communions – the communion of bread and water, the communion of light, and the communion of the Divine Presence – their importance, meanings, and related symbologies.

Three lecture presentations were made on Saturday afternoon in the Chapel of The Holy Child:

“New Scientific Views of Consciousness”

Presented by Rebecca Willis

A new movement within science is working to overturn the currently accepted materialistic worldview and its limitations on understanding the human spirit. They recognize consciousness as beyond the brain and primary to physical existence. Their work offers new perspectives on consciousness while laying a groundwork for greater receptivity to the teachings of Cosolargy within society.

“What is Metanoia?”

Presented by Ted Staver

Exploring the concept of metanoia as it relates to The System of Cosolargy and the Community as a whole: the forms of metanoia; metanoia as regeneration of spirit and a special state of grace that is a blanket over the Community; collective manifestation of metanoia and Shekinah; the oral tradition of the paradosis as the secret of the parousia and the means to metanoia.

“Solar Cultures of Africa”

Presented by Shawn Smith

Every culture that applied The System has something to offer us. This includes the many solar cultures that existed in Africa. This presentation will focus mainly on the Dogon of western Africa.

Most of the pre-colonial history of Sub-Saharan Africa remains shrouded in mystery to us in these modern times.

Unfortunately, this ignorance extends to what is known of the true nature of her “indigenous” religions and thus, her many Cultures.

The native religions of the Continent known for her colorful sights and vibrant sounds, and warmth of 1.4 Billion inhabitants, has been categorized with prejudice by proponents of Western Religious Anthropology with monolithic models of either “Pagan Animism” or “Shamanism”.

However, with delicate consideration of certain African Traditional Religions (ATRs), we can observe that what even seems polytheism has evolved from an erosion of an earlier monotheism associated with the Solar motifs.

Cameroon, a nation of 17 million, is home to 216 ethnic groups, each with its own distinct dialect and culture. We attempt to decode the most prominent of her Tribal liturgies, the etymology of sacred words, and symbology of her ancient local landmarks to “connect the dots” and consider their greater significance in the light of the Second Advent in the Sun of Righteousness.

The Twenty-fourth Saying (Part 2)

“And when he had completed his reading, The Man looked again at the devotees, awaiting their response.

“The first to speak was a Companion of The Way, and he said,

‘I can understand how a person in enthusiasm for religious expression can be confused in his or her search for the True God. But how can people be channeled towards the Truth if they confuse the teachings of ephemeral gods with the Teachings of the One True God?’

“And The Man answered him saying, ‘We face a problem here. For example, in the United States of America, we consider, and rightfully so, from the secular or from the civil point of view, all religions to be equal under the law. This is a good law, of course. However, we have learned from this Saying, and from experience, that all religions are not equal. Be this as it may, all religions should be given the same right under the law, and all persons should be allowed to worship God or a god as they will. In other words, every man and every woman has the right to worship a god or God in his or her own way, which is a natural right. This right is protected by this nation.

“‘Now, to teach of the True Religion of the True God, and to instruct man and woman in the True Way within a democracy that allows freedom to all religions, and extends the same right to each without giving anyone more authority than the other, means that the religion itself must evolve to a degree that it can be acknowledged by those who would listen to it. We of the Order must create excellent teachers to exemplify and teach The Way. The Order must earn the respect of people by demonstrating the benefits of the True Religion. Of course, we must be free to accomplish this.

“‘By way of demonstration, when we as an Order begin to instruct Catholics in the supplements and amendments to the Christian religion stating that God is Christ, that God has given His Body as Light, and that we are nurtured on that Body of Light, and that it sustains our Soul – that it is not the body of Jesus that feeds or nurtures us – we probably will receive very strong opposition from both the clergy and laity alike. When we undertake to instruct the Protestant churches and their followers, teaching that God is Christ, that His Image and Word is the only mediator – not Jesus – we can anticipate strong opposition from that quarter.

“The same reaction will occur when we go forth to reveal the Doctrines of the True Religion to other sects, cults and world religions. The followers of those beliefs will want to cling to the traditional doctrines that have formed their cultures over many centuries, and in some cases for millennia. This is particularly true of the Hindu, Buddhist, Hebrew, Muslim and similar older and formal religions out of whose old cultures the present cultures of the world have evolved. To expect these people to change and accept God’s Image and Word, and put away their respective religions – to let go of their emotional and psychic rites, or mental rites – would naturally be a very difficult thing to do. But this is exactly what we are being asked to do by the Sayings and by the Church as a whole.”

I have been invited to attend an important conference in Baja California Sur next week which concerns our property there, so I will be attending with other members of The Community. The conference agenda is attached (click here) for your perusal. We will resume our review of the Twenty-fourth Saying of Jamil when I return. I send you many blessings in Light+ in the meantime.

These two beautiful volumes can be part of your library for a contribution of $100 to help us with the production costs of bringing this miraculous story to the public.

Each of the two books cost more than $1000 each to produce, in addition to the cost of printing. These two titles are the first of several books we will be bringing out to the public in new editions over the next several months.

As special gifts ...

added to this offer will be these rare finds from The Community Archives:

■ Audio-Book in mp3 format of the actor Jack Kruschen reading the book Jamil: Child of Light, (known at the time, the early 1970's, under the title Jamil: The Child Christ).

■ An audio recording in mp3 format of James Charles Geoghegan's interview on his personal experience on meeting Jamil for the first time in Xalapa, Mexico in 1960.

You will be receiving an order form by email in the next few days. Thank you for your contribution.

Environmental Conference to be Held in Baja, Mexico

Early Sunday December 4, 2022, Bishop Gene Savoy Jr. and Reverend Canon Robert Petrovich will be traveling to Los Barriles, Mexico to attend a very important conference which they have been asked to attend. Reverend Deacon Humberto Garcia will be traveling across Mexico from his home in Chihuahua to join them at the conference.

The East Cape Futures Forum runs December 5-8, 2022 in Los Barriles, Mexico a short distance from the property recently acquired on the coast of the Gulf of California. The forum is an in-person gathering to catalyze discussion, connection, and co-learning about new, more regenerative and sustainable development models applicable to the East Cape region of Baja California Sur. Gene and Humberto will be attending as board members of the Mexican branch of Cosolargy International.

A general report will appear in the Communique following the return of Gene and Robert to the United States.

The Twenty-fourth Saying (Part 1)

“On the fortieth day following his return from the Emerald Isles, The Man sat in company with a gathering of Mariners and Companions of The Way in his study at the Rectory of the Abbey in the Sierra Nevada. On this day, he considered revealing the Twenty-Fourth Saying of Jamil, which he had kept to himself for a number of years since he had been inspired to write down the tenets given by The Child during his brief earthly sojourn.

“And The Man looked upon the disciples of The Way knowing that the changes taking place in the world were testimony to the heavenly influence of the manifesting Image and Word of God. The earth was being drawn into the future. The pangs of birth of the new were already evident: the old was dying. It was apparent to the Teacher and Disciple of the Holy Infant that humankind was witnessing the coming into being of a new and final religion, and that its doctrines had to be revealed and put into practice so it would not die aborning.

“When the devout followers had settled themselves before the speaker, The Man took in hand the document containing the words of The Child and, drawing the red ribbon girding it, began to read.

“And these are the words of the Twenty-Fourth Saying:

Not all world religions teach of the True God, as I have said. There are religions born of the human mind and the human urge to worship the powers that shape and nurture the earth. Fearing the forces of nature, humankind has given names to these powers and forces, worshiping them as gods, sacrificing to them, and attempting to calm them through appeasement.

Created in the image of nature and in the image of the world, the gods, by whatever name, are cruel and demanding, as are the religions that profess to worship them. Fear, judgement, law, injustice, punishment, terror, war, and calamity follow.

There is no enduring peace for either the faithful or the disbeliever. The innocent suffer, as do the workers of bad deeds. Vanity, passion and hatred, envy, lust, greed, pleasure-seeking, selfishness, desire, anger, jealousy, violence, and delusion dominate those who believe the world created Man and that nature controls him.

Man imitates nature, holding to life, wealth, and power for the strong and enslavement and sorrow for the weak. The human drama simulates the drama of nature. All things are transitory – life perishes, as does matter.

Man, ever seeking the knowledge of his pre-existent form, being, and self, penetrates into the deep roots of his psyche and there finds a forerunner to which he attributes creative powers. Not knowing that he has entered a world of terrible Darkness wherein is found his early origins, Man is confronted with incorporeal entities who become ephemeral gods of newborn religions. Malevolent spirits gain control over Man's actions, and he surrenders to powers beyond his control. Because there can be no reward or lasting success by serving Evil, the adherents succumb to grief, pain, misery, and disillusion.

There is but One True God, just as there is but One Way to God taught by the One True Religion revealed by His Word. There cannot be different ways to God, nor different truths, nor different religions. The One Image of God is the Divine Presence. All other images are those of lesser things or lesser gods.

The world is ignorant of this Teaching. The world is unstable and confused. Instruction is the sole means of its salvation.

"And when he had completed his reading, The Man looked again at the devotees, awaiting their response."

We will continue our review of the Twenty-fourth Saying of Jamil next week. In the meantime, for those of you in the United States, I wish you a very happy Thanksgiving with family and friends.

Again, if I may be of any personal service to you, please do not hesitate to contact me.

The Twenty-third Saying (Part 13)

“Following this discourse, a female Companion of The Way addressed The Man thusly, ‘May I ask for a further explanation of the statement that affirms that this world is not the True Creation and the Evil One could not exist without God.’ The Man replied to the disciple, ‘God created the world as Good, where there was no death and His creatures lived on His Presence. In speaking, we need to express these concepts in words and speak in terms of God and Him and His Presence to explain a point. But in the beginning, God was a Presence, and Man and Woman lived off that Presence. Over a period of time, Man and Woman became tempted, as you know from the allegorical story of the Garden of Eden, and they fell away from God and began to live, not off God’s Presence as nourishment, but by the taking of the lives of other things. The allegory does not answer all the questions concerning their evolution to the stage when they, or at least their descendants, began to eat meat, to the act of killing, and living off the Creation and not God, which led to our suffering, disease and death.

“‘Therefore, when God’s True Creation is restored – when He reveals Himself through the Image and the Word – all the existing creation will be burned up by the Presence of His Light. God must reach out to the souls of men and women by revealing His Image and speaking to them in His Word so that they will be restored. Thus, the new Creation is already in the process of becoming.

“‘As ministers, as the pre-ordained, as a Church, we are caught in the phenomena of space and time. God’s World has already been restored, and we are already immortal. As humans existing in space, we naturally think in terms of time – a beginning, a middle and an end – and as a consequence, we live out our lifetimes on the physical level, in the physical world, and we will die as this world will die, but we will be restored eventually. The concept of time is such that it does not explain to us when this will be; because space and time are an illusion, as it were, an unreal state of the present, not of the future; nor was this illusion of the past, except recently.

“‘As we evolve, we will see that, as ministers, we are being trained for a great undertaking. This Church is gearing itself to introduce religion as a revolutionary force in the world beyond politics, beyond economics, and beyond the civil state, to create a religious State in the world. And the world must give us the place to do that. We cannot predict when that will be, but that is our goal.

“‘Unlike other churches, the Church of the Second Advent is not interested in merely existing within the status quo and being governed by the State, responding to the State. We are not interested in allowing our children to enter the military when the time comes, paying taxes, and getting involved in the life of this senseless, aborted, perverted physical world. We are only concerned with the evolvment and evolution of man and woman and society. In essence, we represent that very religion promised by Jesus Christ to come when the world would be changed for Good. We have picked up the cross that was laid down two thousand years ago. We are the Second Church of Christ – the restored Church of the Second Advent in which God’s Image and Word motivate and animate us to do His Will.’”

The Twenty-third Saying (Part 11)

“Therefore, in Community we must decide who we are going to serve: God and the Sun of Righteousness or the earth and the Powers of Darkness and society? We are too small now to be noticed, but the time will come when this Church must affect the world. Humankind is not Evil. Humankind has a spirit and that spirit is played upon by the Powers of Light and Darkness, so there is a struggle between the Powers of Light and Darkness for control of the spirit. We may ask whether the Power of Darkness is equal to the Power of Light. The answer is, only in its ability to affect the spirit of Man. Light gives him Life, and Darkness gives him death. We can ask whether the Evil One is equal in power to God. Of course not. If it were not for God, Evil could not exist. Evil is a parasite, not a creator, even though it created this aborted world we see about us. Its nature is passive, not permanent and creative as God is creative.

“‘Though the world allows itself to be influenced by the Powers of Darkness, now it has an opportunity to be influenced by the Powers of Light through the Sun of Righteousness. This means that the End Times is upon the world, and the great battle between the Powers of Light and the Powers of Darkness is taking place now. As a consequence, the world is going to change and there is no power of Man that can stop it from changing. Man is either going to fall into the trap of the Powers of Darkness and be destroyed by the Power of Light, or he is going serve Light and serve God and restore this world to the state of original Creation. This is a kind of judgement – a judgement day.

“‘The Evil in the world – suffering, pain, death and loss – is not the work of God. If a person asks why God took a child, or wife, or husband, the reply is: God had nothing to do with it. The physical dimension is not a true creation of God. Therefore, God cannot be the Father of this world. According to interpretations of the Bible, God created the world. That means He created death, He created war, He created blood, we have to sacrifice to Him, He is jealous, He is vengeful, He works with the Jews as His chosen people; and, from the New Testament, because Christ is the Son of God, He works and helps Christians. However, after two thousand years, that
