WEEKLY MESSAGE: April 4, 2018

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL
THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

April 4, 2018

I hope you had an enjoyable traditional Easter Sunday as celebrated in the West. The Reno Community gathered at the Cathedral Church of the Americas at the Consecrated Sanctuary and experienced a very wonderful sunrise as we began the month of April. In March, we experienced much snow and rain, so it was nice to have a clear sky and no wind.

In keeping with the Easter theme, let me say that the New Testament can sometimes be confusing, contradictory and controversial in dealing with the question of immortality. But, let me share some verses with you which, I believe, make this concept clear. This from the 12th chapter of the Gospel of John which speaks of life everlasting and how one must use the Christ Light to attain it:

23...The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you...25 He that loveth this life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. 26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. 27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. 28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. 29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. 30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. 31 Now is the judgement of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. [John 12]

35...Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. 36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light... [John 12]

44...He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. 45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me. 46 I am come a light into the world, that whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. 47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. 48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that

judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him on the last day. 49 For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. 50 And I know that his commandment is life everlasting... [John 12]

We know that Jesus – the Christ – not only received the Word of God, but that the Logos incarnated within his Spirit. He became the Living Word of God manifest in Man. Yes, he was the Messiah of Aaron and of Israel, but he, like so many others of his Christ Brothers, received the mantle of the Office of Christ on Earth. But we also know that Jesus prophesied a future time – a time when Christ, the celestial and mediating force between God and Man, would appear not in human form but out of the heavens in great power and glory. And this prophecy echoed the older prophecies of Isaiah and Malachi.

1 See the day is coming, burning like an oven, when all the arrogant and all evildoers will be stubble; the day that comes shall burn them up, says the Lord of hosts, so that it will leave them neither root nor branch. 2 But for you who revere my name the sun of righteousness shall rise, with healing in its rays. You shall go out leaping like calves from the stall. 3 And you shall tread down the wicked, for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet, on the day when I act, says the Lord of hosts. [Malachi 4]

Malachi is prophesying about the end of times, when God would come again at the Second Advent, when the Sun of Righteousness would appear out of the heavens in splendor and with a Light which had never been bestowed on Earth before. And this Light will feed and nurture the Spirit at the great and final Messianic banquet served from the true Temple of God. The message of Jesus is clear. The need for men and women to partake of the supersubstantial food that nourishes the Soul is found the transubstantiated Sun – the sun of matter – which is transfigured into Spirit.

Once again, we will continue in this vein as we approach True Easter on April 18.

WEEKLY MESSAGE: March 28, 2018

CÔSOLARGY INTERNATIONAL

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

March 28, 2018

This week, hundreds of millions of Western Christians around the world are celebrating Holy Week in commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Next week, Orthodox Christians around the world will do the same. However, we in the Second Advent Church Community observe Easter as a fixed date – April 18 – each year according to the solar, not lunar, calendar. And, of course, in Cosolargy we do not recognize the resurrection of the physical body, only the resurrection of the reborn spiritual or Light Body.

In English, the word “Easter” comes from the Anglo-Saxon Eostre, which can be traced to an important goddess called Hausos. The goddess comes from the proto-Indo European religion, and she is the Goddess of the Dawn. Her name was reconstructed as Ausos, and in India she's referred to Usas; in Greek Eos; and in Latin Aurora.

The name was derived from the root "To Shine," thus, translating to "The Shining One." The English word "East" is derived from this word, also the Latin "Aurum" meaning gold. The dawn goddess was also the Goddess of Spring. In the Anglo-Saxon world, also in the Germanic world, this time – this Easter or Eostre – was called "Eosturmonath" – or "Easter Month" – which was celebrated for the entire month of April. The Goddess of Spring was involved in the mythology of the Indo-European new year when the Dawn Goddess was liberated by God from imprisonment. She is known in the Rigveda as Indra and in ancient Greek mythology as Dionysus. So we see that it is a very important time of the year.

But how do we in the Second Advent/Cosolargy Community reconcile ourselves with this ancient observance? How do we – who do not accept the physical resurrection of the body – harmonize ourselves with this "holy week" which emphasizes the pain, sorrow and suffering of Jesus? How do we – who do not teach that he was the sacrificial Passover lamb, an offering acceptable to God whose blood is shed daily on the alters of churches around the world everywhere and that the shedding of his blood, however ritualistically, was an atonement for the sins of the world– come to terms with this notion? How do we come to terms with those many, many millions of people who do? And, how do we – who reject that Christ's crucifixion was "good" or that it was the Will of God, holding instead that it was the murder of a Son of Light by the civil and religious authorities of the day – how do we bring that in to accord with our own teaching and theology?

We do so by emphasizing what we know to be Christ's true message: First, that we are all endowed by the Creator of our Spiritual Beings with an eternal and immortal Soul, if we but cause that divine generative force – Christ or the Word – to penetrate into that spiritual womb. Second, that once we consent to the Word of God – the Logos – being allowed to impregnate our Spirit, that Spirit becomes animated by the Thought and Will of God the Father and becomes a living, breathing, conscious Soul, able to reason on heavenly things. Third, that once imbued with Christ Consciousness, the Soul, released from the cycle of generated existence, recalls and remembers its history and origin and consciously participates in the Worlds of Light, continually partaking of a divine Communion.

This was the message of Christ Jesus. This is what was symbolized by the Last Supper – the act of the reborn, conscious Soul partaking of the True Communion, feeding off the Word of God – the Bread from Heaven – and drinking from the Cup filled with God's Living Water – which is Divine Light. And this is also the message of the Messianic Church of the Second Advent. The beauty of it all is that it can be done in the here and now – that our spiritual immortality and divinity can be realized while we exist in this world. And if that is accomplished, one has received the gift of the resurrection – not as something abstract to wonder about after death, but something one can experience and participate in while one lives in this world. But – and this may be the most difficult of lessons: is to learn to accomplish our spiritual quest in the way that Jesus exemplified it – with peace, love and joy.

I will continue on this theme over the next few weeks as we approach True Easter on April 18th. In the meantime, I wish you a very happy Eosturmonath.

THE SACRED TEACHINGS OF LIGHT

HEAD OVERSEER'S WEEKLY MESSAGE

March 20, 2018

Spring Equinox

On this first day of Spring in the Northern Hemisphere, I think it is fitting to talk about the sustaining powers of the Universe. We know that the light from the sun and the stars are filled with cosmic and creative energies. All of nature is responding to these energies and forces. That supreme Force which created the sun and the stars is using them and the power of life for Truth and Justice in the Creation. Humankind can no longer do as it wishes, for we now exist under Divine Law in a way not known before to Man. The Final Age of the world has come and with it God's Holy Light which is transforming the peoples of the Earth.

God and the Light wills that the world and its inhabitants be Good as He intended from the beginning of the Creation. Man's supposed free will has eternally been subject to the powers and laws of nature. Man has no control over these laws or powers. With the intervention of God from out of the Sun that rules the Earth by its light and energy, that light and energy subjects Man to God and His Energy and Light. If the world and its races continue living according to old ways and outworn traditions and beliefs and disavow God's Presence, the Earth and its people will continue to experience nature in revolt.

Our Community has come into the world to instruct the peoples of the world so that they can live in accordance with God's Laws and Will. Our School is here to train the wise who are in opposition to those of unrighteousness and wickedness. We teach peace, wisdom and the establishment of Divine Law to our students and ministers for spiritual Law must be above all things. It is to this that our School is devoted. Spiritual legislation and government has not yet existed on Earth, but God will, in due time, encourage and inspire their formation by means of His Image and Word.

It is not enough that the human family acknowledge God's existence which, in reality, it does not. Humankind must live The Way of Righteousness in a society bound to the New Laws of God and His New Covenant. Divine Law needs to be exemplified by the peoples of the Earth in mutual respect of one another and one another's spiritual Rights.

We of this Community know that God is not known or understood by human faculties. He is not attained by either the rational mind or the emotions. He is separate from the physical body. The Spirit, on the other hand, speaks to God in the language of Spirit which is the language of Truth. The religions of the world have lost the way of instructing the Spirit in the language of Truth. They have forgotten it.

Having appeared in the Heavens, God can now speak to all humans in the Light of His Word. He alone is the sole mediator between Man and Himself. If the Spirit sees the Light of God's Divine Image and hears His Holy Word spoken in that Light, it is aroused from a deep sleep and comes to life again nurtured by the Image and the Word which are Food and Breath to it. Once alive – once reborn – the Spirit lives by Truth. This Truth is not human truth but spiritual Truth. God, being Pure Spirit, is approached only by Spirit. The mind and body are foreign to Him. This is a hard thing to understand. However, this was the teaching of Christ Jesus and is the teaching of the Holy Child, Jamil.

For this reason, God has revealed The Way to be lived in a Community so that its members can participate in True Religion. Once spiritually reborn, the Soul of man and woman can no longer live an ordinary life in the world. It must exemplify Truth, Justice, Goodness, Beauty and Righteousness and unify with God in His Divine Plan for the redemption of the human family.

I send you my heartfelt blessings as we enter this season of renewal and rebirth.
