

“Rogue Planets Can Spawn Their Own Planetary Systems”

We live in an age of exoplanet discovery, and have discovered several thousand planets orbiting distant stars. These discoveries hold important lessons about planetary formation and solar system architecture. But we're also discovering a growing number of rogue planets, also called free-floating planets. These planets aren't gravitationally bound to any star. What can they teach us?

Which Will We bring Forth? Monsters or Gods?

“Naked does man come from his mother’s womb, and naked does he return to the womb of the Earth. He brings no possessions with him to Earth, and no more can be taken out. Yet, he leaves not altogether as he entered, for though his riches and estate, his titles, even his clothes are left behind, if he has lived wisely, he goes out richer in soul wisdom and arrayed in soul beauty. Man arrives at the Great Portal arrayed in glory or clothed in horror.

“In the newborn childling is the soft seed of the slumbering soul; this will be developed, moulded and fashioned throughout the period of its earthly existence. It will be shaped by man himself to his own inner likeness; then, when stripped of its outward bodily covering, man will stand revealed to himself and be faced with splendour or horror.

“In the likeness, to which the soul is fashioned in the body, so shall it come forth in the spirit on its appointed day.

“Thus it is written in the Secret Books of Wisdom, which are revealed to the few. The body is a womb, life the days of conception, and death the birth of the soul. Is it not written that some shall bring forth monsters and fearful things, and some shall bear gods? These things are not beyond understanding.

-The Kolbrin Bible (MPR:3:33-36)

Naked Does Man Come

We arrive on Earth naked, and we bring no possessions with us. We may have possessions that our parents, or other relatives, bought for us, but we nonetheless arrive naked. Likewise, when we leave, we can take no material possessions with us. Yet there are people who spend their lives accumulating as many things as they can, as if somehow, they will be able to take it with them.

We can Go Out Richer

Even though we can't take money or material goods with us when we die, we can die with real wealth that we can take with us. That real wealth is an awakened and developed soul. It would be best if we developed our souls to the point where they reach the highest level of consciousness and become one with God, but few manage to do that. Fortunately, as long as we have started the process of spiritual development, we will be able to continue with it after we pass into the afterlife. The quote says that we arrive at Heaven's Gate " arrayed in glory or clothed in horror." That is not accurate. If we are dark beings, we will never go to Heaven's Gate at all.

Slumbering Soul

The next part of the quotes says the newborn child arrives in this world with a “Slumbering Soul”. It is more accurate to say the soul is in a dormant state, somewhat like being in a coma. The quote then says this soul must be awakened and developed while we are on Earth. That is true, but unfortunately, only a very small number of people ever bother to do so. Now that we are at the beginning of the final age of Man and have the Sun of Righteousness shining down on us, it is getting easier for people to wake up. The bad news is that energy can also be used by dark people to become even more evil. That problem will eventually be overcome, but we are probably in for some rough years ahead.

Secret Book

This Secret Book of Wisdom is unknown to us today, yet what it says is basically true. Some of us will bring forth monsters within us by embracing the negative and evil of the world. Others will bring forth gods by awakening the little piece of God that is our Divine Soul. If you want to become immortal, awaken your Soul.

Mortal Man Forgets His Previous Life as Spirit

“Mortal man may, in the course of time, forget his experiences, but within the soul, they are retained forever. The soul is a hunter, and the quarry is Truth. The weapons of the hunt are reason and experience.

“The years of the wrongdoer and he who walks in wickedness plant more wrinkles and scars on the face of the soul than on the face of the body.

“The soul is not born, nor does it know itself as a soul. The purpose of its earthly journey is to awaken it to self-awareness and to provide it with the ability to continue existence in the Region Beyond the West. Therefore, how could it enter upon earthly life with these things? Were they already there, life and Earth would have no purpose.

“The soul is bodiless within the body, everlasting among things that change and pass away. Man does not perceive his soul, because his senses face outward from the soul, towards earthly things, with which it makes contact. So it is that only the most developed of men can close out the material things about them and turn their senses inward to perceive the soul.

“The soul looks out through the eyes and sees all, which is without, but nothing of this can look in through the eyes and see the soul, even though the soul’s feeling may be reflected there. An eye without a soul behind it sees nothing.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MPR:3:18-22)

Man Forgets

It is true that we forget our previous life as spiritual beings, but on the other hand, our physical memory is far greater than most of us believe. That is because we have hidden within us the memories of past generations going back as far as 32 generations. In most cases, those memories of past relatives remain unknown to us, but occasionally, one can come forward and take over. This can happen when some kind of trauma causes the personality to become withdrawn. We have seen this in movies such as “The Three Faces of Eve,” where it was called multiple-personality disorder, but is now known as Dissociative Identity Disorder. Neither of these names recognizes the fact that it is not a splitting of one personality that causes this, but the coming forward of the personalities of ancestors. This is also where the mistaken concept of reincarnation comes from. Either that, or someone is simply tapping into memories found in the Akashic Records.

Walking in Wickedness

The quote says that one who does wicked things scars his Soul more than his body. I’m not sure that is true. The Soul cannot break into pieces. That does not happen. The Soul is a spirit, not a china plate. What can happen is that the Soul will leave the person, and he will become one of the Soulless, a group which exists in large numbers these days.

The Soul is not Born

It is true that the Soul is not born. As pure Spirit, it exists outside of the limitations of space and time. It is necessary, as the quote says, to awaken the Soul to its self-awareness, or as we prefer to say in Cosolargy, make it Conscious. A fully conscious Soul is a powerful thing. I have no idea why the quote says the Soul exists “beyond the West,” but we know it exists as part of the spiritual realm, not the material.

The Soul is Bodiless

This claim is true if you think of a body only in the material sense. Actually, the Soul has a body, but it is pure Spirit, or if you prefer, it is Divine Light.

The Soul Looks Out

The Quote says that the Soul looks out through the eyes. This isn't true. The Spirit/Soul has its own spiritual senses and does not rely on the physical senses that can easily be tricked. IT is true, in a sense, that the eye without the Soul “sees nothing”. It is more accurate to say that the eyes see nothing real, nothing Spiritual. The eyes can see the physical world, but what they see is not even the real nature of the physical realm, but only illusions created by the brain. So awaken and develop your Soul if you wish to deal with Reality.

“The JWST Found Evidence Of An Exo-Gas Giant Around Alpha

Centauri, Our Closest Sun-Like Neighbor”

If detecting exoplanets was easy, then we should have a complete understanding of the planetary system around our nearest stellar neighbour, Alpha Centauri. But we don't, because it's not easy. Alpha Centauri is a triple star system about 4.25 light-years away. The primary star is called Alpha Centauri A, a Sun-like star, and it's in a binary relationship with Alpha Centauri B, another Sun-like star. The third star is a red dwarf named Proxima Centauri, and it's the closest one to us.

“This Newborn Planet Is Carving Out A Home In Its Protoplanetary Disk”

Around three decades ago, we weren't certain that other stars had planets orbiting them. Scientists naturally thought there would be, but they had no evidence. Now, not only do we know of more than 6,000 confirmed exoplanets, but we can watch as baby planets take shape around distant stars.

When stars form, they're surrounded by rotating disks of gas and dust called protoplanetary disks. Planets form in these disks, and in recent years, ALMA (Atacama Large Millimeter/submillimeter Array) has examined many of these disks. It's made headlines by finding telltale signs of planets forming, as they seem to clear orbital paths in the disks.

“Star survives black hole, returns for another round”

You'd think a star wouldn't stand a chance against a supermassive black hole. But astronomers have spotted a star that apparently did battle with one of these behemoths, and later came back for another fight.

In 2022, astronomers spotted a bright flare at the center of a galaxy some 408 million light-years away. Labeled AT 2022dbl, it was what's known as a tidal disruption event, where a star passes too close to a supermassive black hole, which rips it to shreds.

The True Nature of God

“Man dreams and says this is reality. He sees the shadow, but is blinded before the light. He reasons and is deceived. The design of the True God and His nature cannot be understood in the light of reason, for reason is not with this God, who knows all things without reason.

“There is none other like unto the One God in all His glory. Whose strength can challenge Him? Whose will can contend with His will? Whose might can equal His? Where is another with His wisdom? Who in goodness can compare with Him?

“By the power of His thoughts, many kingdoms are brought forth beyond Earth. He speaks the unutterable word, and they are created. He rules His creatures with infinite wisdom and directs their destinies with unchallengeable decrees. His will controls the forces within men , and the thing they seek unknowingly is Him. As the body, when hungry is filled with the urge to eat and when thirsty, with the urge to drink, so is the spirit in man filled with the urge to seek God.

“His ordinances govern Earth and the Heavens above. All things therein have their appointed place and purpose, and in their nature conform to His Law. His ways are inscrutable, transcending the understanding of men. His thoughts are a mystery, which men may not fathom, they are veiled and withdrawn beyond the comprehension of mortals.

“His design is unrevealed to the multitude. Few are the men who can understand why He planted the road to the Place of Glory with the sharp stones of suffering and pain. Or why life is a struggle through the thorny forest of adversity.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MPR:2:9-13)

Man Dreams

You might think this first sentence in the quote is false because you know your dreams are not reality. But what this sentence really means is that the world of matter is no more real than your dreams. That is not to say that the realm of matter doesn't exist, but rather that it is the realm of illusion, and it is not at all what it seems to be. As the next sentence says, we see the shadow, but are blinded by the Light. You can compare this sentence to Plato's allegorical tale of the people living in a cave who think that the shadows they see on the wall are reality. The shadows are not reality, and matter is not the true reality. Actual reality is the Spiritual Realm of Light created by the true God.

None Other Like God

There is only one True God, who is the God of Light, the God of Spirit. The god of matter is a false god. So are the many gods that have been created by humans in their minds. Even if millions believe in some of these gods, that doesn't make them the True God. As the quote says, no other has the strength, wisdom, and will of the True God. It should mention Love since love is the greatest of God's attributes, and the one God expects us to follow as well. Not Love of some who are similar to us, but love of all.

Kingdoms Brought Forth

It may be true that God has created many "kingdoms," but all He creates is Spirit. Matter is the false creation made by the Demiurge.

His Ordinances

God's Law is the highest law in both the spiritual and physical realms. Some men like to think they can make laws that override the Law of God, but they are wrong. While men may write laws that are contrary to the Laws of God, God still expects all of us to obey His Law.

His Thoughts are a Mystery

This is something you hear said in many conventional Churches. When someone asks why God does certain things, or allows evil things to happen, the pat answer is that Man cannot understand the reasoning of God. That is true for those who try to understand Him with their physical brain-mind. But those who make the effort to awaken and develop their spiritual faculties will eventually reach a level of consciousness that puts them into direct contact with God. When that happens, God's thoughts will no longer be a mystery.

Road of Sharp Stones

It is true that the path of enlightenment is not smooth or straight. It is a difficult path for two reasons. One is that if we are to be agents of God on Earth, we have to be strong, and facing adversity helps us develop that strength, much like lifting weights helps us develop muscular strength. The other reason is that the demonic agents of the Demiurge do not want us to develop our Spiritual Self, so they put obstacles in our path. We should not let those “sharp stones” turn us away from developing our Spiritual Self.

“This baby exoplanet is shrinking toward a sad destiny”

▪ TOI 1227 b is a young, Jupiter-sized exoplanet 330

light-years away. It orbits close to its small, cool red dwarf star.

- NASA's Chandra X-ray Observatory observed the planet and found that intense radiation from the star is slowly destroying the planet's deep atmosphere.
- TOI 1227 b will completely lose its atmosphere in about a billion years, scientists say. As a result, it will shrink to about 1/10 of its current size.

“Jaw-Dropping Image Reveals Dying Stars Entangled Like Serpents”

The day before my thesis examination, my friend and radio astronomer Joe Callingham showed me an image we'd been

I gasped – the stars were wreathed in a huge spiral of dust, like a snake eating its own tail.

“Witnessing a solar system's dawn, for the 1st time”

Astronomers say they've just observed the birth of a new solar system. They caught the early signs of gases beginning to solidify around a young star, marking the very 1st spark of planet formation.

Sitting some 1,300 light-years from Earth, the star – HOPS-315 – is only around 100,000 years old. It's a sunlike star, so it resembles how our star might have appeared some 4.6 billion years ago, when the material that went on to form Earth was just starting to come together.
