

When One Sees with Clarity and Understanding

“Wherever the sun shines or the wind blows; wherever there is an eye to see with clarity or an ear to hear with understanding, a mind to receive and assimilate, there let the greater way of life be made known and the maxims of Truth be honored and obeyed.

“Written for the elect by the Master of Mysteries, once Overseer of Harvests and Recorder of Taxes. Guardians of Tombs and Upholder of Royal Decrees, Beloved of the High Gods and the gods. Keeper of the Secrets of the Highest God, Lesser Lord of Jubilees and Grand Scribe of the Sacred Writings. One born into the house of a false god, whom he rejected, Distributor of Barley Seed and Master of the Great Sanctuary. Chief of Seers and Guardian of the Great Mysteries. Watcher at the Sacred Shrine and Defender of the Lakeland and the Gates. Inspector of the Courtyard of the Sacred Being, Guardian of the Hidden Records and Servant of the Secret Temple, Messenger of the True God. Third Begotten Son of an enlightened father, a Magistrate of a goodly city. Son of a gentle lady Sistrum bearer and mistress of the song-stresses in the Temple of the Twofold God. Now one whose name is obliterated by unchallengeable decree, but once a man of goodstanding in this country, whose estate remains to this day.”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MPR:1:6-7)

Wherever the Sun Shines

It is not by accident that the sun is the first thing mentioned here. The ancient priests of Egypt were aware of the importance of the sun and its connection to spiritual awakening and growth. As was standard with spiritual knowledge, they never say it right out, but just hint at it or use an allegory.

Greater Way be Known

The Greater way of life is that of spiritual development. Anyone can develop a reasonable life in the material world, but it takes special individuals to be able to awaken and develop the Greater Way of spiritual Knowledge and Truth.

Written for the Elect

The author of the quote doesn't directly say what was written for the elect, but included in his long list of titles for this person is "Grand Scribe of the Sacred Writings." From that, we know that what was written for the elect is the Sacred Writings that help people awaken and develop their spiritual Self. Much of these ancient writings were lost, especially when the library of Alexandria was burned down. Fortunately, Cosolargy has been able to regain much of those teachings and modernize them for a new age and new people. It is still true that they are written for the elect, but with the Sun of Righteousness shining down on us now, it is becoming easier for people to awaken and become members of the elect.

Guardian of the Hidden Records

One who was born in the house of a false god, rejected that god and turned to Truth. It isn't clear if being "born in the house of a false god" means that his family followed a false god, or that he was a priest at a temple for the false god. What matters is that he rejected that false god. He became, among other things, "Chief of Seers and Guardian of the Great Mysteries." Those are impressive titles, and he must have shown spiritual greatness to earn them. He was probably the equivalent of a real saint, such as St. Francis of Assisi. The quote adds that he had enlightened parents. That goes along with the teachings of Cosolargy that say that each generation that follows the teachings will have children who will be potentially even more spiritually developed. That doesn't mean we can't develop our spiritual faculties if our parents were not spiritual, just that it will be a little harder for us.

“Betelgeuse’s companion star revealed in new images”

Hidden cozied up to Betelgeuse, a bright red star in the constellation Orion, astronomers may have finally found the giant star’s long-sought companion. This close-orbiting partner, first postulated over a century ago, matches some predictions and adds another piece to the puzzle of the mysterious supergiant star.

“A hidden molecular cloud near our Milky Way’s center”

Our Milky Way galaxy consists of gas, dust and billions of stars. They trace out its spiral arms and form its central bulge, while a supermassive black hole resides at our galaxy's center. But on July 16, 2025, astronomers from the National Science Foundation's National Radio Astronomy

Observatory said they've found a giant molecular cloud – a gaseous region of star birth made mostly of molecular hydrogen – that was previously hidden from our view. The molecular cloud lies at a transition zone between the quieter galactic disk and the more extreme central region.

“A 400-Year-Old Mystery About The Sun May Finally Be Solved”

Since Galileo first observed them through his telescope in the early 1600s, sunspots have fascinated scientists. These dark patches on the Sun's surface can persist for days or even months, but until now, researchers couldn't fully explain why they remained stable for such extended periods.

A study published in Astronomy & Astrophysics has finally solved this centuries-old puzzle. An international team of scientists, led by researchers from Germany's Institute of Solar Physics, developed a revolutionary new method for analyzing sunspot stability that reveals the delicate balance keeping these solar features intact.

The New Pharaoh Worshipped the Spirit Behind the Sun

"The new form of worship introduced by this Pharaoh was simple enough. Outwardly, it had all the symbols and ceremonial beloved by the people, with sufficient substance in it to attract the spiritually inclined. It could have formed a fitting gateway to the Path of the True Way, another light guiding men along the road to the embarkation port for Truth. Behind the symbols and ceremonial, the Pharaoh worshipped the Spirit behind the Sun, the Spirit of Light and Life as a direct, fully conscious member outflowing from The Great God Behind All. The king, however, being cut off in the midst of his instruction, perceived the road but dimly. There is little doubt of his genuine desire to bring the True light to the people, but he was not wise enough to know, firstly, that one who brings light must be one in whom light burns brightly, and secondly, that the multitude cannot be exposed to its unveiled brightness with impunity. The king, severed from his weaknesses, could have been a truly great ruler, a steady light before the eyes of men, the guide to a new age for the people of the land. But he was one who cast heavily on both arms of the balances."

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:44)

New Form Of Worship

The Pharaoh is not the same one mentioned in previously posted quotes. He is the son, or grandson, of that Pharaoh. He introduces a new religion to the people that is based on worshiping the Spirit found in the Spiritual Sun. Because this Pharaoh didn't complete his training in the Mysteries, what was taught in this new religion was not the complete path to enlightenment, though it was a definite improvement over the materialistic religions of the previous Pharaoh.

Symbols and Ceremony

It wasn't just important to give the people a religion with symbols and ceremonies they were familiar with, but that the symbols and ceremonies were one that promoted real spiritual growth. As the quote says, this religion could have formed a gateway between the false religions and the complete Spiritual teaching of the real Mystery Schools.

Spirit Behind the Sun

There is much confusion about this with modern historians. Most of them take the simplistic approach of saying that if the people were taught to look toward the sun, they were sun worshipers. This quote makes it clear that they were not worshiping the physical sun, or even the Spiritual Sun, but were worshiping the Spirit behind (or beyond) the Spiritual Sun, which is God. You can think of it like this: the Spiritual Sun acts as a portal or window between the physical world and the realm of Spirit, where God and the Angels dwell.

The Multitude Cannot Be Exposed

While the Pharaoh tried to teach the full mysteries to the general population (probably not including slaves), the quote makes it clear that it is actually a good thing that he didn't know enough to do that. To expose people to the Great Light of God before they are ready for it can frighten them to turn away from the Light, or even worse, to use the Light for evil purposes. That is why a true spiritual school, much like the Great Mystery Schools of ancient times, accepts people on a trial period and teaches only limited Truth until their trial period is over, and they are ready to move to the more advanced teachings. Even today, some people don't understand this and drop out of their spiritual training after a year or two, so they get limited results. To get the complete results, you need to stay with the training to the end.

“Record-Sized Collision Between Black Holes Detected by Astronomers”

Two black holes have collided in a merger that could revolutionize our understanding of black hole growth.

Named GW 231123 after the date it was recorded on 23 November 2023, it's the most massive black hole collision we've seen yet, resulting in an object heavier than 225 Suns.

Previously, the most massive black hole collision produced an object 142 times the mass of the Sun.

“Earth could be in a huge void, Big Bang sound waves suggest”

One of the greatest mysteries facing scientists today is the Hubble tension: the fact that our different methods of measuring the universe's expansion produce different results. And a study announced today has an intriguing answer.

The research says that Earth might be located inside a billion-light-year-wide void of low density, encompassing many millions of galaxies. If so, the gravity of the higher-density regions around this void would pull matter outward. And that means space would appear to be expanding faster in our local area.

“A Supermassive White Dwarf Is Pulsating Rapidly, Revealing Details Of Its Interior”

Scientists are constantly finding new ways to look at things, and that's especially true for objects that represent an outlier of their specific type. Adjectives like "biggest", "brightest", or "fastest spinning" all seem to attract scientific studies – perhaps because they're an easier sell to funding agencies. No matter the reason, that means we typically get a lot of good science on specific objects that represent their particular class of objects well, and a new paper from Ozcan Caliskan from Istanbul University in Turkey hits that nail on the head when it comes to the most massive known white dwarf star.

Pharaoh Disclosed Some Spiritual Mysteries

“It was the wife of Pharaoh who influenced him to disclose some of the mysteries, which, since the time just mentioned, had been completely withdrawn and very carefully hidden. Thus, though the forces of evil had prevailed in the land they had not uncovered the Inner Shrine of the Sacred Mysteries. Such mysteries as they had discovered proved of little value to them and were soon so distorted and perverted as to be useless. The great secret of how to penetrate the barrier between the two spheres of mortal and spirit was still completely secured. If nothing else, its very dangers would have safeguarded it.

“Actually, though it is said that Secret Mysteries were disclosed, this did not happen. All that did happen was that Pharaoh used the knowledge he had to try and give the people a greater insight into the way of light, the True Way. As is ever done, he veiled the all-consuming brilliance of Truth, leaving just sufficient glimmer to light the way, to become a beacon. Nabihaton, himself saw the Truth but dimly, for though he tried, he failed to meet the tests of an Enlightened One. Perhaps it was this that inclined him away from the faithful. How many, when they discover what the knowledge of Truth entails, falter on the path?”

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:36-37)

His Wife Influenced the Pharaoh

The fact that Pharaoh's wife influenced him to reveal some of the spiritual secrets that he had learned from the mystery schools indicates that she was probably initiated into some of those mysteries herself. If not, then it is likely that the pharaoh had revealed some to her. This does show, as the quote says, that the Great Knowledge of Spiritual development was withdrawn from the people and hidden, as it remained until quite recently.

Forces of Evil Prevailed

The Forces of Evil are those who practice materialism and consider it superior to spirituality. The demons and devils know better, but when they whisper into the ears of men and women, they lie to promote the material realm where they maintain some limited control over people. They also tried to uncover the Sacred Mysteries, but only succeeded in learning the most limited teachings, such as chanting and meditation, which are useful, but do not awaken and develop the Soul.

Barrier Between the Spheres

The barrier between the spheres of matter and spirit is a real thing. It is sometimes called a veil, or veils, and the original story of the Phoenix had that bird flying up over the sun each morning, and spreading its wings to block out certain frequencies of light. The good news is that the barriers are being lifted in this age so that more can awaken to their spiritual Self, and the need to develop it.

The Pharaoh Gave Insight

The Pharaoh did not reveal the mysteries to the general population, but he did give them enough information to encourage them to seek the Way of Light, the True way. Today, we can reveal that the Way to the True Light is in a Spiritual form of sun-gazing, where one looks primarily at the Spiritual Sun rather than the physical one (never stare directly at the sun). You do have to be a student of a legitimate Spiritual School, such as Cosolargy, to know how to do that correctly. You also need to have the proper attitude of love and humility.

“Double detonation supernova destroyed this star!”

For the first time, astronomers have obtained an image of a star that met its end by detonating twice. Scientists used the European Southern Observatory's Very Large Telescope (VLT) to image the centuries-old remains of supernova SNR 0509-67.5. They announced today (July 2, 2025) that they've found patterns confirming its star suffered not one but two explosive blasts. This discovery shows some of the most important explosions in the universe in a new light, the scientists said.
