

“Astronomers discovered the most primitive star ever”

A dim red giant just out of reach of the Milky Way is providing astronomers with an incredibly rare glimpse into the earliest days of our universe, at a time when it was not possible for a telescope to observe these objects directly.

0 God, How Shall Your Servants be Saved

“The Leader of the Light cried out, “O Great God, what can I do; how shall your servants be saved? What shall be done unto those who have profaned your sacred shrines? What can I do to turn back the rising waters of iniquity and temper the wild winds of wickedness? How can the black cloud of ignorance be lifted? What shall be the just reward of those who have slain the faithful?” The voice coming forth by the Spirit of God said, “Concern yourself not with those who have persecuted you, leave them to follow the path of their own choice. Vengeance is with Me; I will measure without stint. Justice never sleeps and never forgets; the reward of the wicked awaits them. In the Hall of No Hiding Place justice will speak the final word.

"The Leader of light and those with him fled into the land beyond Shari and built there the Temple in the Rock, which stands against Shina. In this land, the forces of the Dark Ones were cast back; yet still, some among the faithful beseeched their God to save them. Thus it has ever been, this is the nature of man that in his hour of distress he cries out to God in bitterness of heart, and they who deserted God in better times expect Him to turn towards them. Yet such is the nature of God that this He would do, were it to the good of men, which it is but rarely. In the land of Egypt, the great shrines were deserted by the Enlightened Ones and abandoned by Truth. They became places of darkness. They were as lamps without flame, as fields without crops, as wells without water."

-The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:27-28)

The Leader of the Light

The Leader of the Light was probably the head of the largest of the mystery schools of ancient Egypt. He earned this title by being the most spiritually developed person in the school. He is pleading with God to help save those who have remained true servants of God. He also asks that the "cloud of ignorance" be lifted from those who remain. In Cosolargy, we understand that ignorance is the cause of all sin, specifically, ignorance of God. Those who know God do not sin, as they know they are only harming themselves by doing so.

Do Not be Concerned with Those Who Prosecute You

This is a difficult directive to follow, but we should try our best. Because of the way our subconscious mind works, what we dwell on is what will most likely happen to us, so if we dwell on those who prosecute us, we invite more of that behavior into our lives. If we dwell instead on love and forgiveness, we reduce the ability of evil to affect us.

Temple in the Rock

We don't know where this temple is, but it is most likely somewhere in Greece. We know that is where the remnants of the great Mystery Schools of ancient Egypt went after their nation lost its way. We can assume that "Shina" is another name for Satan. Schools and temples of truth and spiritual development have always opposed the evil of Satan and his followers, not by returning violence with violence, but by practicing love and sending thoughts of peace, love, and harmony into the world.

"Exploding Primordial Black Holes Might Have Reshaped the Early Universe – And Created All Matter As We Know It"

The early universe is absolutely so far outside our understanding of how the world works it's hard to describe in words. Back then, the cosmos wasn't filled with stars and galaxies but with a boiling soup of quarks and gluons, with a few microscopic black holes thrown in, occasionally detonating like depth charges. That's the early universe theorized by a new paper, available in pre-print from arXiv, from researchers at Vrije Universiteit Brussel and MIT anyway.

“Scouring TESS Data With AI Reveals A Hundred New Exoplanets”

Artificial Intelligence (AI) and Machine Learning (ML) are making a growing contribution to astronomy. As powerful telescopes and large automated surveys become more commonplace, the vast quantities of data they generate demand equally powerful diagnostic tools. The Vera Rubin Observatory and its enormous data-generating capacity drive the point home. The observatory's Legacy Survey of Time and Space generates up to 20 terabytes of data each night, and that data is processed at a dedicated facility.

“Astronomers Find a Third Galaxy Missing Its Dark Matter, Validating a Violent Cosmic Collision Theory”

Dark matter makes up most of the mass in the Universe, but it's not evenly distributed. Astronomers are finding examples where galaxies contain less dark matter than average, or more, and now they're finding examples of galaxies that contain only dark matter, galaxies with the size and mass of the Milky Way but with 1/500th the number of stars, so you could see right through them to the galaxies behind. And now researchers have found their third example of this strange situation: a galaxy that's almost entirely dark matter.

Be One Worthy of Greatness

“Be ever above price. One worthy of the greatness you reflect on Earth, one ever above mundane things. Be not as the ferryman who demands payment before his task is fulfilled, who bears upon the water the man who makes payment and no other. Be as the sun, whose brightness seeks out every nook and cranny and pours light into their hidden gloom. Be one who shines among men to lighten their days. Spread uprightness and honesty across the two lands, as the sunshine spreads brightness and warmth. Cover the land with goodness, as the rising waters cover it with fertility. Fill the land with strength, as the northwind fills it with contentment.

“Guard Your heart, as a father guards his daughter, as a mother guards her baby, for it is the stronghold of integrity. Be vigilant concerning every deed, for the eyes of men are ever upon you, the life you live is not yours alone. You are the image, which men will imitate, and you are before every eye. The blowing wind will open its ear at your windows and spread wide its report. The flowing waters beside your door will uncover their eyes and carry what they behold through the land. Your position makes you a supporting pillar of the government; if the pillars be rotten, the roof crashes. Your responsibilities will beset your life with care; the road you journey is stony and encompassed with pitfalls and thorns. The cup You drink will be more often bitter than sweet.”

This doesn't mean that you can't get paid for the work you do. It means that you don't base your ethics and morality on money. A job or career that pays more isn't necessarily more worthy than a lower-paying one. Of course, your talents and abilities have to be taken into account, but you still need to choose what is moral and ethical.

Be Not Like the Ferryman

Most of us really have no choice in this. If we work for someone else, they pay us only after the work is done. If we work for ourselves, we can't expect payment in advance. But the ferryman is one exception to this rule. Obviously, the ferryman can't wait until he has traveled to the other shore before asking for payment. While that might work in some cases, it does make sense for him to ask for payment in advance.

Be Like the Sun

The sun does not expect payment for sending its light out to all. But it is true that the Spiritual Light sent out by the sun is not absorbed by the materialist. One needs to develop their Spirit in order to absorb Spiritual Light.

Cover the Land with Goodness

Being a spiritual person isn't just a matter of developing yourself. We also need to do what we can to help others. Sometimes, that will be done by directly helping a specific person. More often, it will be simply sending some of the energy we take in back out into the world, filled with thoughts of peace, love, and harmony.

Guard Your Heart

In many ancient writings, "heart" actually means your spirit. So this means that you should take care to guard your spirit against evil influences. One way to do this is to visualize the Community Cross in front of the sun when you practice solar techniques. Another is to avoid people who make you feel uncomfortable or tired whenever you are around them. In situations where you must be around such people, you can visualize a shield of light around you, blocking out their influence.

“The Sun That Never Flips”

The Sun doesn't spin at the same rate. Its equator takes 25 days to complete one rotation while its poles take 35 days. This differential rotation was thought to settle down as stars age and maybe even reverse, with the poles going faster than the equator. A new supercomputer simulation shows that it won't be the case. Even as it slows its rotation over billions of years, the equator will continue to rotate more quickly than the poles.

“The Early Universe was Hot, Dense, and Soupy”

Shortly after the Big Bang, the Universe was hot and dense, a plasma of quarks and gluons that led to the formation of the first hydrogen atoms. It's called the primordial soup, and it turns out, that name is apt. New research shows that quarks moving through that early time behave like objects moving through a liquid. This can help researchers understand how this early time in the Universe evolved to the more modern structures we see today.

The oxygen in a galaxy does not sit still. It spreads, thins out, piles up, and leaves behind a record of where stars formed, where gas moved, and when smaller galaxies crashed in. In the nearby spiral galaxy NGC 1365, astronomers have now read that record in unusual detail, using oxygen as a kind of fossil trail.

Rulers and Princes of Truth and Justice

"Where, today, are the rulers and princes this land once knew? Where are similar officials to be found? Today, bribery creeps behind the seats of judgment, corruption lurks on the right hand, and perjury sneaks around to the left. What of the flow of fine words that accompany a magistrate to his seat of appointment? What have these noble utterances become but a more meaningless babble. Yet are they not a glorious thing capable of moving the hearts of men with their inspiring message of hope in the ultimate attainment of justice? Let them be recorded for all time.

"He who is pure of hands comes forth. He utters the words that have come from the Temple of Man. Those with panther skins bear the symbols of authority. These words are spoken. You are the ever faithful servant of Truth. the humble one who begs her for guidance. You are not the lord of justice but one who ever seeks it with humility and perseverance, praying it will bless your decisions. You are henceforth one whose words are heavy with authority, whose eyes see without prejudice and whose ears are closed to intolerance. Your thoughts are clear and clean, your heart is pure. It is free of all malice, and to you, a vindictive verdict will be an abomination. The mantle of wisdom rests on your shoulders and the robe of learning is your garment. Your tongue is the servant of Truth and the sword of justice. Your mouth is the shrine of honor and the cave of retribution. Your heart is the temple of purity and the storehouse of wise judgments from the past."

"Justice will ever be your guiding light and rule; it will lead you even to the appointed place before the mother of the king. Wherever you go, uprightness will take command. You will wield the sword of justice without fear; you will bear it before the sight of all men. You will carry it to the rich and powerful, to the poor and lowly, without discrimination. You will strike down all merchants of falsehood, all fork-tongued deceivers, all who bear false witness or break the statutes of the king. Let wickedness perish in the sands."

The Kolbrin Bible (MAN:34:11-13)

Rulers and Princes

There was a time when rulers tried their best to follow the Laws of God and the laws of nature. They passed laws that extended and explained the Laws of God rather than opposing them. But as the quote indicates, today many rulers are subject to bribes and corruption. They rule for the benefit of the wealthy, not for the benefit of all. Of course, the "today" that the quote is talking about was centuries ago, but we see it happening again, perhaps worse than ever.

Inspiring Messages

Those ancient rulers who followed the Laws of God did leave inspiring messages to be passed on to future generations in the times when such rulers were scarce. The Roman emperor Marcus Aurelius was a good example of this. His philosophy is studied even today.

From the Temple of Man

The ancient students of the spiritual temples were faithful servants of truth, and were guided with humility, grace, and love. Their eyes saw without prejudice, meaning they did not treat people differently because of their race, religion, sex, or nationality.

The Robe of Learning

The robe of learning is the garment of the righteous person because such a person never quits learning, never believes there is nothing more to learn.

Justice

The righteous do bring justice to all equally. They will treat the rich and the poor the same. And they will do their best to help God bring an end to the wickedness in the world. It may seem like the opposite of this is happening, but the wicked must be brought out of their hiding places and exposed to the Light of the Sun of Righteousness to burn the wickedness out of them.
