Project X - Chapter 10

While the spiritual body inhabits a higher dimension, it remains attached to the physical body. That is, the higher consciousness of the spiritual body is able to communicate with the lower mind of the physical body, illuminating it from time to time. Upon death of the physical body, the two merge, and the energy, or vital force, of the individual dissolves into a new form. The whole being is absorbed by the higher entity. In the meantime, there is periodic contact or union between the two; there are flashes of intuition, memories, recalls, images from the future. Relationships between persons of this world and those of another world can vary in degree. Mental events are different for spiritual events. One has to learn how to distinguish between the two or - more important - to be aware of the spiritual, to identify with it. That is the joining of the twins, the royal marriage. When it occurs, a person exist in two worlds at the same time - in a manner of speaking anyway.

Hermeticism and Unity with God

“Another system that should perhaps be fitted into the Gnostic framework is Hermeticism. It is very diverse and it draws its material from many sources within the Western Mystery traditions; it considers that the whole of mankind is on a spiritual journey that is designed to return to a state of unity with the mind of God and this state of unity is its prime purpose; and it holds that spiritual growth cannot be achieved without human effort. If humanity is to reach the Divine therefore, we must aspire to the Divine.” ~Bernard Simon

Hermeticism is Gnosticism

There is really no doubt that Hermeticism is a school of Gnosticism. While some specific details vary from other schools, the primary tenets are the same. Most experts agree that the writing attributed to Hermes were probably written by several individuals and collected together over a period of time.

Spiritual Journey

That mankind is on a spiritual journey is one of the beliefs of Hermeticism that it shares with many other schools. Some schools teach that we were sent here intentionally to learn before we become fully spiritual. Most Gnostic schools, however, do not consider the Great Fall into matter to be something God intended. It is instead the result of the errors made by the fallen angels.

"Since consciousness is a dimension in itself, the consciousness space-time continuum is another world of reality-experience. When consciousness is activated new realities are experienced."

Why Join Cosolargy?

How can you make your life more meaningful, more harmonious, more complete?

In addition to the basic necessities of life, most of us arrive at some point where we need to define the meaning of our existence and establish purpose. While there has been a recent trend of turning away from established religions with their dogmas and outdated rules, there has been no abatement of the need to fill the spiritual void that lurks within.

True illumination must be of practical value; it must not only quench the thirst for truth but empower individuals to achieve their potential. By applying an established method of instruction in accordance with natural laws, the System of Cosolargy offers the study and practical application of techniques that produce verifiable, tangible benefits.

Cosolargy says the Sun is the centre and through its rejuvenating light we receive cosmic knowledge and understanding. In Cosolargy you are not worshipping the Sun - it is not an object of adoration but a tool. The System teaches you how to use the pathway of the Sun to connect with higher dimensions. Light - or photons – carries information and through it we receive cosmic knowledge and understanding. You no longer have to rely on someone else telling you what to believe – the validity of solar techniques is experiential and the proof of their effectiveness is in leading a fulfilling and meaningful life.

Beyond the wide range of personal benefits, the individual can apply what knowledge they gain for the betterment of humanity. The object of the System is to generate a higher state of Consciousness. Once that is achieved, the individual is able to take an active role in aiding the transformation of others, and thus the world, enabling everyone to live in harmony with the creative forces for the attainment of health, happiness and peace.

Events

Reno Spiritual Wellness Expo

Cosolargy had a table at the annual Reno Spiritual Wellness Expo held October 18th to 20th. The table was divided into two sections for different parts of our organization. One section was for Steamboat Healing Center and Spa, and one for Cosolargy. It's hard to say how effective our participation was at getting the word out, but we did get more Light Body Profiles filled over the weekend than during a typical month. Below are some photos from the event.
