The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"FOR MANY DAYS, the Blessed Child+ remained in his bed, reflecting within himself and refusing to eat. And his personage shone bright like gold. But, freeing himself from the pain of his body, the pure infant took leave of his bed; gathering his strength, he visited each member of the household: The Nurse, The Youth, and the rest of The Companions, touching them with his glorified hands. And they did recover from their infirmities.

"And Jamil+ spoke to The Youth as an aged patriarch in sympathy and understanding; for he saw that The Youth was inflamed with a desire to know the truth. He had been the earthly companion of The Child+ since his birth, and Jamil+ loved him. And the infant looked into the young man's eyes with Light+ that penetrated his heart. And he told him that it is not by individual effort alone that one advances toward understanding of God+ but by obedience, discipline, and service in fellowship; it is one thing to possess knowledge, another to experience it. And of what value is it to know if one does not know God+? Those at the beginning of the path must not stray, thinking that the mind can find wisdom; only the spirit understands wisdom. And The Youth understood his words without comprehending their full meaning, for his life's pursuits still lay ahead of him."
