The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

"At three o'clock in the afternoon they closed the tomb. An undisturbed quiet enveloped the height. In the course of time, they heard a great fluttering as if of wings, and, looking upwards, they saw a great multitude of eagles and condors silhouetted against the heavens, tracing a large circle above the tomb. And their numbers darkened the sky. Rare birds of all assortments banded together, filling the branches of the eucalyptus trees, some chattering exuberantly, others singing blithely. An unseasonable swarm of gilded butterflies clustered about the sepulcher, turning it a golden color, and they were left unharmed by the birds. And a glowing hummingbird flitted about the crypt. And they saw a great dove across the face of the sun."
