Kim Kinsey: Scattering of Ashes

Kim Kinsey

A private ceremony was held on Thursday, December 4, 2014 at King's Beach, Lake Tahoe for the scattering of the ashes of Kim Kinsey, a friend of the Church. (SEE Communique article on Kim's Memorial Service.)

Presiding was her life-partner, John Stewart, who scattered Kim's ashes into lake Tahoe. In attendance were a dozen people, including John and his two sons, Henry and Austin; Gene, Radheka and Helena Savoy; and Kim's mother. After some brief comments from John and others, Gene delivered the blessing.
