

Manogue High School Interfaith Prayer Service Held

On Friday, February 13, the eleventh annual Bishop Manogue High School Interfaith Prayer Service was held at the school in south Reno. Attending on behalf of The Second Advent Church were head bishop Gene Savoy Jr. and the Reverend Dr. William Bartlett.

Rev. Bartlett gave the keynote address, and Bishop Savoy participated with Rabbi Myra Soifer, Hindu leader Rajan Zed, and LDS leader Jeff Olsen in the prayers of intercession. Bishop Savoy also gave the proclamation from the Hebrew scriptures—namely, Ezekiel 37:15–19. Representing the Catholic Church were the Reverends Mark Hanifan and John Legerski.
