The Origins of Cosolargy

Quotes from Gene Savoy, Sr.

He [Gene Savoy, Sr.] sought to understand the essence of religion, to go beyond the dogma and theology of the written word. He had read the great religious works of man and discovered that many Prophets, like Akhenaten+, Moses+, Buddha+, Krishna+, Lao-tzu+, Zoroaster+, Mohammed+, Viracocha+ of the Americas, and many others, had brought special messages of God+ to their respective peoples and all shared much in common. What he was seeking, he knew, must come from God+, not through the faculties of cognition or emotion of his own being but from an actualized Spiritual Consciousness+ apart from his physical mind-body. While Holy Men of all ages taught many of the same teachings brought by Jesus+, and shared his fate, he believed that Jesus+ —and perhaps others, too—had transmitted something special that was never put to the written word. Whatever it was, he was certain a scholarly examination would not suffice. The Man put aside his books and gave his very life completely to the Spirit of Christ+."

Deny Darkness, Embrace the Light

"You are perfectly justified in denying adverse influence. You have a perfect right to drive back threatening or depressing thought clouds. You have a perfect right to take your stand upon the rock of Truth—your Real Self—and demand your freedom. These negative thoughts of the world in general, and of some people in particular, belong to the dark side of life, and you have a right to demand freedom from them. You do not belong to the same side of life, and it is your privilege—yes, your duty—to repel them and bid them disappear from your horizon. You are a Child of Light, and it is your right and duty to assert your freedom from the things of darkness." ~William Walker Atkinson

Deny Darkness

If you want to be a Child of Light, you must reject darkness and all the things that come from darkness. I see people sharing quotes on social media that say we should embrace our dark side. That is a foolish attitude. We must accept that there is darkness. We must accept that we have a dark side within us. But we do not have to embrace it. If we want to be a force of good in the world, we cannot embrace it.

We have been told many times and in many ways that Satan and the forces of darkness will try to trick us. They have made people believe they are angels serving God. They have made people rob, kill, and destroy claiming God wants them to. Luke Skywalker knew better than to listen to the evil emperor and kill his father. Harry Potter knew better than to let his anger control him and kill Bellatrix when Voldemort was urging him to. These movie characters are based on mythical heroes who know that you never listen to the darkness if you want to be a Child of Light.

The Sun of Fatima - A Century On

First: The Miracle of the Sun, which occurred just after midday on Sunday 13 October 1917, was witnessed by a large crowd gathered near Fátima, Portugal. Estimates of the number of people present range from between 30,000 to 40,000 (by Avelino de Almeida, writing for the Portuguese newspaper O Século), to 100,000 (estimated by Dr. Joseph Garrett, professor of natural sciences at the University of Coimbra), both of whom were present on that day, along with several newspaper reporters who took testimony from those who saw the extraordinary solar activity. The event was visible by onlookers up to 18 kilometres away, precluding the theory of a collective hallucination or mass hysteria, and Pope Pius XII himself witnessed the Miracle of the Sun from the Vatican gardens. Of the very many vivid accounts recorded by the noted Father John De Marchi, here are a couple of examples:

"The silver Sun, enveloped in the same gauzy grey light, was seen to whirl and turn in the circle of broken clouds ... The light turned a beautiful blue, as if it had come through the stained-glass windows of a cathedral, and spread itself over the people who knelt with outstretched hands." (By a reporter for the Lisbon newspaper O Dia);

"As if like a bolt from the blue, the clouds were wrenched apart, and the Sun at its zenith appeared in all its splendour. It began to revolve vertiginously on its axis, like the most magnificent Firewheel that could be imagined, taking on all the colours of the rainbow and sending forth multicoloured flashes of light, producing the most astounding effect. This sublime and incomparable spectacle, which was repeated three distinct times, lasted for about ten minutes." (By priest Dr Manuel Formigão).

Second mystery: The Third Secret given by Mary to the children at Fatima has not been revealed to the public, in defiance of her instructions that it was to be made known in 1960. Pope John 23rd read it that year and locked it away. In 1984, Cardinal Ratzinger (later to become the Pope who resigned) claimed to have read it and said it concurred with Apocalyptic scripture. When he visited the Fatima shrine in 2010, he said, "We would be mistaken to think that the prophetic mission of Fatima is complete." Pope Francis plans to visit the shrine on its centennial next year.

In a recent New Dawn Magazine article titled Converging Prophecy, Warren Aston reminds us of the predictions of St Malachy (12th Century) telling us that Francis will be the last Pope. He compares this to a Jewish Rabbi of the same period, Judah Ben Samuel, who made predictions in fifty-year 'Jubilee' periods, from 1517 to 2017, with 2017 signifying the beginning of the Messianic end time. Aston points out that it is a leap of faith for any writer to predict that something will happen on a specific date. I think it is an even braver person who would claim that humanity can just expect the status quo to continue in the coming decade, 'the same, only more so.' There is a strong sense that something has to give, be it nuclear or biological war, economic collapse, viral outbreaks, natural disaster, pole shift, terrorism, ET contact, transhumanism or failed scientific experimentation or... Messianic intervention. Only if NONE of these things happens, will we continue just as we are.
